Rev. George Taylorson to be Evangelist at Spring Revival Beginning Sunday

Successful Pastor to Speak Twice Daily in 4-Day Revival

Northwest Nazarene college will be the scene of another outpouring of God's Spirit next week when Rev. George Taylorson, pastor of First Church of the Nazarene at Spokane, Wash., comes to the campus to be speaker at a four day revival effort. Services will begin Sunday and continue through Wednesday, being held in regular morning chapel service and each evening. A preliminary service will be held in the chapel Saturday evening.

Rev. Taylorson holds an excellent record as pastor, having been pastor of Nazarene Churches at Billings, Montana, and San Francisco. He is a former student of N.N.C., and has been very well liked by students and faculty in former visits to the campus.

Special Prayer Meetings are being held on various parts of the campus during the revival. Already the college Spiritual life is at high tide, and great manifestation of God's Spirit is expected during the campaign of next week.

DeLong Returns From Washington

Dr. R. V. DeLong, president of Northwest Nazarene College, returned to the campus Thursday after an absence of three weeks, during which time he held a two-week revival campaign at First Church of the Nazarene, Washington, D. C.

Dr. DeLong reported an excellent revival, when interviewed by a Crusader reporter. 160 seekers knelt at altars during the two week period. Easter Sunday the largest crowd ever in the church was present. On the closing night of the revival, 25 seekers lined the altar, praying through to Spiritual victory.

Present at the services were several former N. N. C. students, among whom were Mr. Howard Hamlin, M. D., Miss Louise Robinson, Missionary to Africa, and Miss Doris Withrow, who is employed in the Capitol city.

En route, Dr. DeLong stopped in Chicago and Fort Wayne, Indiana where he visited with Dr. Montgomery, District Superintendent, Church of the Nazarene, there. Dr. DeLong also stopped in Kansas City and St. Louis, Mo., where he talked with Dr. Hugh C. Benner and Dr. Willingham, both of whom are well known to students of N.N.C.

NEWS FLASH!

Friday, May 8, has been the date set for the annual all-school PICNIC. Definite arrangements regarding the place and other details are not complete as yet, and will appear in a later issue of the CRUSADER. Watch for announcements of this important event.

Choir Goes to Ontario; At Twin Falls May 3

A Cappella Choir of Northwest Nazarene college sang for a large crowd at the Nazarene church in Ontario, Oregon, Sunday morning. Members enjoyed splendid hospitality of Ontario Nazarenes who served them a chicken dinner after the concert.

On May 3 the choir will travel to Twin Falls where a program will be given at the Nazarene church. All Nazarene communities near there will be sponsors. That night they will sing in high school auditorium at Filer, Idaho, under auspices of the Ministerial Association of Filer.

Monday evening, following, a concert will be given in the high school auditorium at Glenn's Ferry, Idaho, under auspices of the Ministerial Association of Glenn's Ferry.

Several other week end trips, being planned, will be announced later.

LSPs Present Religious Drama

True to the school motto, theme of the initial contest program of second semester was "Following Christ." Presented by Lambda Sigma Pi literary society, "The Rock" portrayed life of Peter (Marlyn Anderson) before the crucifixion.

Incidents of suspense in the dramatization were: impetuous Peter leaves his fishing to follow the Master; Deborah, Peter's wife's mother (Beatrice Maxey) is healed; Mary of Magdala (Bethel Fritch) forsakes her wicked ways to become a follower of Jesus of Nazareth; Peter leaves his Master; he asks forgiveness, realizing that he must carry out his commission as the Rock.

Others in the production were Ucal, Deborah's brother (Elwood Smith); Pandira, a Greek (Elmore Vail); Titus, a Roman officer (Robert Lee); Agur, physician (Ted Lancaster).

Also carrying out the theme of the program were a solo by Erlene Elmore, ladies' quartet, and mixed choir.

Spring Challenges School's Musicians

Outdoor concerts by both Band and Orchestra are being planned for presentation in the park, Prof. Ronald Lush announced. As yet no definite arrangements have been made; but everyone should watch for future announcements.

Instrumental Competition

Virgil Vail, a regular member of the band and orchestra, is out for high school championship in the instrumental division this year. He has the good wishes of everyone for success in attaining this goal. Due to illness, Ramon Vanderpool was forced to lose out from the same competition.

Transcriptions

Recently the band and orchestra made transcriptions, each recording three numbers. Members are now waiting for medals, letters, and trophies which are to be given soon as rewards for the contest held in the music department.

New Band Members

Many new members have been added to the band recently; they are as follows: Vic Bundy, baritone; Stan Rudall, trumpet; Merl Bozarth, Loraine Jensen, bass horn; Dale Hall, alto; Stewart Kugler, Warren Franklin, Bob Olson, Lorene Flynn, Lewis Harris, clarinet.

Motto

This department has adopted as its motto, "BETTER MUSIC FOR THE KINGDOM."

German Exile to Expound Regime

Dr. Martin Hall, German exile, will be the featured guest of students and friends of N. N. C. Friday at college auditorium.

Dr. Hall was born in Germany and is still a very young man. He was a prominent journalist in his native land, having had a brilliant career in journalistic circles before being forced to flee from the country. He was exiled from Germany because of his insistent attacks on the policies of Nazi totalitarian state.

Educated in Universities of Munich, Berlin, and Marburg, Dr. Hall received his degree of Doctor of Philosophy. He has traveled widely over all of Europe and understands as do few commentators the significance of the whole European situation as it effects the United States.

Having talked with Hitler and others of the German high command, he is able to tell their points of view. He spent a year in Paris and several months in England immediately after his exile from Germany where he was further able to acquaint himself with the various aspects of Nazi movement. Now he has taken out citizenship papers in the U. S.

Emphasizing the contrast of life for youth under regimented Nazi rule with that of democratic America, Dr. Hall will expose an inspiring yet informative revelation.

Ticket sale is sponsored by A Cappella Choir and reserved seats may be purchased from members of the choir or from Northwest Nazarene College business office.

Chairman, and past president from 1932-1936. Following chapel, she will confer with education students regarding current P.T.A. affairs.

"The Prologue to Glory" In Eight Scenes Depicts Early Life of Lincoln.

The Prologue to Glory, a play in eight scenes based on the New Salem years of Abraham Lincoln will be presented by the Olympian Literary Society on April 24, at College auditorium.

The play is a historical drama which reveals the true spirit of the time during the life of Abe Lincoln.

"Prologue to Glory" is a beautifully written, deeply moving, absorbing story of Abraham Lincoln in his early 20's. It is something no red-blooded American should pass up"—Brooklyn Citizen.

With Art Bates playing the part of Abraham Lincoln, and Miss Betty Dysart as Ann Rutledge, 'Prologue to Glory' will provide an evening of entertainment filled with tears of sorrow and of laughter.

Ruth Mangum, Olympian program chairman, is directing the play. As able assistants in this difficult presentation, Miss Mangum has chosen Ann Cramer, Elizabeth Webber as costume chairmen; and Edgar Kincaid, stage manager.

A "SUPER-GOOD" IMPRESSION

Only six more weeks of school left 'til commencement, and we still have scads of things to do before we close the books of time upon this college year. N. N. C.'s social poodle will give forth an earth trembling "Bow-wow" when it comes to reviving all the evening and afternoon functions drawing our attention.

What with such an important occasion as the Junior-Senior formal banquet on hand, it might be well to pack out the old, worn-torn copy of "Emily" and see what advice she has to offer on the matters of flowers, dress, and behavior.

Such "goings-on" as picnics, organizations parties and even S. P.'s have certain rules of etiquette which we all might do well to observe. Remember, wherever you go—be ye freshman, sophomore, junior, or senior—you are a representative of our alma mater. We are proud to belong to such a swell group, but we must work to keep it that way.

So kids, why not act our ages and show outsiders that we've had some "bringin' up." Observers are always on hand to cast an eagle eye upon our conduct. Let's give them a "Super-good" impression. —V.S.B.

A CONFESSION OF SIN, WRITTEN BY AN ENGLISH MINISTER

A Confession of Sin — Written by an English Minister

"We have been a pleasure living people—ignoring God's Day by picnicking and bathing in the sea and doing things we shouldn't have done—now the seashore is barred to all on pleasure bent—

"We have preferred motor travel to church going—now there is a shortage of motor fuel—

"We have ignored the ringing of church bells calling us to worship—now the bells do not ring except to warn us of an invasion—

"We have left the churches half empty when they should have been filled and now they are in ruins—

"We have not listened to the ways of peace and now we have to listen to the ways of war—

"The money we could not give to the Lord's work is now taken away from us in taxes and higher prices—

"God pity our ignorance and slothfulness."

"The stars in their courses fought against Sisera." Jud. 5:20.

Do you recognize the age old truth so vividly expressed in the above phrase taken from that ancient and spirited "Song of Deborah and Barak?" Let this truth once again ring out in its forcefulness to our consciousness as we meditate upon it in this new but age old setting.

We have often heard expressed the thought that morality is written in humanities very fibre. This is so ably expressed in the following lines:

"Mankind are one in spirit and an instinct bears along,

Round the earth's electric circle, the swift flash of right and wrong;

Whether conscious or unconscious, yet Humanity's vast frame

Through its ocean-sundered fibres feels the gush of joy or shame

"Once to every man and nation comes the moment to decide In the strife of Truth and Falsehood for the good or evil side."

In spite of this men seem not to heed nor fear the violation of a principle and truth that means no more to them than an undesired sentinel guarding a doorway that would keep them from lustful, momentary pleasure. They grasp only the thought of the first line of Lowell's famous oft quoted passage. "Truth forever on the scaffold, Wrong forever on the throne" so are perfectly willing to sin and be sinned against paying no heed to the fact that "Yet that scaffold sways the future, and, behind the dim unknown, standeth God within the shadow, keeping watch above his own."

In this song of Deborah and Barak they are reminding us that: "Though the cause of evil prosper, yet 'tis Truth alone is strong, And, albeit she wander outcast now, I see around her throng Troops of beautiful, tall angels, to enshroud her from all wrong."

Not only does the very fibre of humanity rebuke the wrong doer but all the forces of the universe are arrayed against the wrong. "The stars in their courses fought against Sisera."

OUR TIMES

by John Sutherland

Last Wednesday noon I sat at the Rotary luncheon and listened to Commander Oldfield of Gowen Field. To win a war, he told us, you must have four things—money, production, an army of trained men, and spirit. We are fast getting money, our production capacities are in a ratio of 5 to 1 against those of the Japanese and we'll soon have two or three million men under arms. The thing we lack, especially in the Boise valley, said Commander Oldfield, is spirit.

The Japanese fight because they think Hirohito is God. The Germans fight for Hitler, national socialism and the Third Reich. The Italians aren't fighting for anything and so—they're just not fighting.

What are we fighting for? Is it to preserve our American "way of life?" That, they tell us, has already gone by the board. Is it to preserve our trade relations? We'll soon have spent more fighting than foreign trade could have given us in two or three decades.

But we are fighting because we believe that government and state were made for man and not man for the state! If that is it, then we have a standard under which every American can do his bit. If we can only realize that Japan and Germany are threats to what we and to what Christ would like for us to do in life, then it will not be hard to go into this thing with spirit. Germany would like all of us to work as farm laborers to feed the industrial Third Reich.

And so, that is why I say, Commander Oldfield, we are going to get the spirit of winning this war. We will not wait for the first bomber over Nampa before we're going to start doing our bit—whether it be to buy defense stamps, to cooperate with the government in rationing projects or even if it means carrying a gun.

To paraphrase the words of General Pershing when he landed with the first contingent of the A.E.F. in France in 1917—Commander Oldfield, Here we come.

AN OPEN LETTER TO STALIN

Five years ago, Joe, we would have been the last to say that anything like this could happen. You thrived on calling the United States a country of "bourgeois capitalists." On the other hand we

Howdy!... How are all you happy kids?... Isn't life wonderful?... "Spring is such a happy season, tra la."... Hey did you notice Vic Bundy with DeLores Castle Friday night... Also Kenny Webb with Kay Callahan... and Joe Yoder with Gladys Johnson?... Oh, me---these young-uns!... (I shutter to think)!! I thought once.

Do you kids know who the meanest man in the world is?—Its the warden who put a tack in the electric chair!

I just want to tell you... don't economize like Merle Bennett, one of our Scotch boys, did... He took long steps to save his four dollar shoes, and then split his eight dollar pants!!!

Miss Washburn in French the other day said: "Now if you'll watch this blackboard real close... I'll run right thru it again... Was her face red!

They say its a fact that Parker Maxey is a deep thinker... He must be, because none of his ideas ever get to the surface!

When Miss Dooley asked Mildred Teeters if she had read "Freckles," Mildred replied, "No, Mine are brown."

Just ask Woody Morgan about his salesmanship abilities... Seems like he's had some experience with a "Chore Girl."

A Motor Cop was speaking to Ruth Haueter the other day and he said: "So you saw the accident, madame. What was the number of the car that knocked this man down?" Ruth Haueter replied: "I'm afraid that I've forgotten it, but I remember noticing that if it were multiplied by fifty, the cube foot of the product would equal the sum of the digits reversed!"

When Bethel Fritch was asked in Chemistry class, "What is H2O4?" She said "For Drinking!"... Oh, this younger generation!

They tell me the reason Friday night is date night here is... Friday is the day for fish!.. Well, isn't it?

Bye for now... wish you kids would hurry up and get off the bench... I'm tired of making this stuff up!

looked down our noses at your "Five Year Plan" and blackguarded your dictatorship of the proletariat as the cunning schemes of a revolutionistic mind.

Our attitudes about each other's form of government have probably changed very little. We still hold you responsible, Joe, for actively supporting the abolishment of Christianity, if that would be possible, from Russia. And it is not hard to think that you still look with envy at the United States and dream of the day when the world shall be ruled by "the masses."

But, Joe, war has made strange bed-fellows at times. A chap in Germany has thrown us together now to fight this little matter thru. Now we read with pride the reports of your victories. And, Joe, whatever Mr. Hitler does to you this summer, we'll be doing our best, not only to send you equipment, but we'll also be rooting for you on the sidelines.

This is war. Unless we both work together to win, we can forget about democracy and you can forget about your "Five Year Plans." That's why we tell you, Joe, "good luck" and also, altho it may not mean so much to you, its the best that we know,—"God bless you."

Auction Sale Held In Gideon Hall

"Did I hear fifteen cents bid? "Quiet Soule and we'll get this sold."

Maurice Chalfant and his able assistant, Bob Soule conducted an auction sale, said to be very successful, in the parlor of Gideon Hall, Thursday evening from 10:30 to 11 o'clock. We take it that Chalfant sold the very shirt off his back. At least he performed as an auctioneer garbed in his pajamas. Bidding was somewhat sporadic. A pair of shoes sold for a nickel, an excellent spring suit for $1, a good sport shirt for $3.5. By the way, ask Wilbert Mills if he got a bargain on the sweater he purchased. The average selling price of the articles was approximately twenty cents. One thing was obvious; Chalfant has a wonderful career ahead of him in the field of auctioneering. We predict a bright future for him.

Library Rustlings

By Geraldine Huhnke

Are you acquainted with your Australian allies? The fighting men of Australia and New Zealand, the Anzacs, have the kind of courage that sees things through. In the midst of bursting bombs, after having had to sleep in all his clothes for two months, Colin, the only son and heir of 36,000 acres and 23,000 of the finest merinos, cabled home: "Well, Love. Please send six packs of cards." Not that he had time for any cards, but he wanted the folks to think that all was going well. The Maoris believed in fighting fair. If the enemy ran out of provisions, the Maoris called a truce to supply their adversaries' needs; then they went on with the business of killing them in a fair fight. They, too, are of the Anzacs. Take a look at "The Making of an Anzac" in the National Geographic for April.

The Mexicans are a lot different from you? Well, read "Words That Made History" on the magazine rack, if you think so. The booklet contains three speeches by Ezequiel Padilla, Secretary of Foreign Affairs of Mexico. He is one of the greatest orators in the Spanish language, and his ideas are distinctly American.

ATHLETICS

Chalfant Beats State High School Tennis Champion Thursday

Amidst other numerous activities now going on on the campus, Morris Chalfant played against Bob Smith, Nampa High School's 1941 singles tennis champ, Thursday evening in a practice match.

Chalfant had upper hand in the first set—winning 6-3. Smith, however, came back strongly in the second set with a beautiful style of playing and tied it up at 3-3 before Chalfant could take the set running out from deuce. Set score was 6-4.

A large crowd of college students watching the match were greatly impressed by the high school player's forceful service and beautiful backhand. Both Chalfant and Smith were in excellent form.

SUPERMAN

Who is the busiest man on the campus? No, you are wrong, it is not Norval Nelson. Prof. Wilson is the man and I have facts at my disposal to prove that assertion.

In the absence of Rev. Franklin, Prof. Wilson has acted as pastor of the College Church. During that time, he preached twice and led the prayer meeting once. In the absence of Dr. DeLong, he has to fulfill the public duties of the president. These are only incidentals; he still has been handling his regular duties which include teaching six classes exclusive of the debate work, keeping up his official duties as registrar and then on the sideline he has been taking a "Fundamentals of Radio Course." Government reports concerning deferment of students, suggested training procedures, etc., have monopolized a great deal of his time. Prof. Wilson says: "I am very happy that Dr. DeLong and Rev. Franklin are back." He now can see his way out. Before commencement, the only pressing duties include the little matter of editing the new catalogue, giving a commencement address at Harper, Oregon, high school, May first; seeing that the seniors' credits are satisfactory, preparing diplomas, and keeping his six classes out of mischief.

Prof. Wilson wants it clearly understood, however, that he isn't doing all these things; they are just what he is supposed to be doing.

Students Start From Scratch

Squirring in chapel on Friday, April 10, was not caused by disinterest among students, but by the tickling hair on the students' necks and ears which reminded them of a creeping tick. Mr. L. J. Peterson of the Idaho State Laboratory Ass'n of Boise, showed an educational picture of the life of the tick which spreads tick fever. "Tic or spotted fever" is a serious malady throughout the Rocky Mountain region. It may be largely prevented by taking the correct precautions," said Mr. Peterson.

A Cappella Choir Goes to Buhl, Boise

A Cappella Choir, under the direction of Prof. Doris Gale DeLong, gave its first out-of-town program April 3, at Buhl, Idaho.

The choir left the college about 2 p. m. When they arrived in Buhl, ladies of the Nazarene and Methodist churches served a delicious meal.

All choir members stayed in homes Friday night and were given splendid entertainment. Inner spring mattresses, radios, bacon and eggs and grapefruit for breakfast, were enjoyed by choir members. Several members of the choir stayed in the home of the Mayor of Buhl and were "royally" received.

Reds Take Greens, 11-5; Olys Undefeated

With John Zink hurling, Olympian boys gained another victory Monday night by defeating the SLA team 11-5. Zink struck out 12 batters, walked four, and allowed four hits. Chalfant, on the mound for the losers, walked three, hit one, allowed 8 hits, and threw one wild pitch.

Outstanding hits of the game were made by Chalfant, who got a homer in the third inning, Van Houten, and Bartlow, who bagged a triple each. Olympians had two earned runs; SLA's, one.

Let's Play —by Kae

Hmm—these sunny days we're having! Nice for tennis—nice for baseball—and just nice for. Tennis courts have been kept occupied lately! But remember, kids, Prof. Wilson says awards aren't given for athletics during study hours.

S. L. A. boys defeated the A. D. P.'s in baseball the other day. Say, did you know that out of the first 25 runs made in baseball this spring only ONE was an earned one. Maybe a little practice would help the situation.

Girls' softball has been greeted with enthusiasm. The Olympians, still feeling victorious over the basketball championship, and perhaps pepped up by the first semester softball awards received in chapel Wednesday, are living up to their reputation. They easily defeated the L. S. P.'s and S. L. A.'s.

Most everyone has his favorite sport. Dean Sharp's is riding a bicycle. He does right well, too. Pat McMillan likes to roller skate. Bob Soule gets his daily dozen throwing rocks—does sound a little queer, doesn't it? Guess what—one teacher thinks Homer could skip around in a book faster than he does because on the basketball floor he has no trouble getting around. Now—Miss Dooley! S'long

Sunday evening the choir went to First Nazarene Church in Boise for a program.

The most enjoyable feature of the choir trip was "that no one had to march five miles for missing step in recessional Friday night."

LSP's Down ADP's in Close Game

SPRING FEVER

Do you have spring fever and don't know what to do for it? Well, take a little good advice and don't skip that class to go enjoy nature. Let it all out of your system at the games. Your society will appreciate your help (we hope) and you will be a winner and not a loser by it. Certainly you have spring fever. We all do. But, don't let it effect you the wrong way.
