Upperclassmen To Banquet This Friday

April 25 to May 2 Set for Religious Emphasis Week

Religious Emphasis Week is scheduled from April 26 to May 2. Student preachers will be bringing the message during this series. The schedule for the services and the preachers is as follows:

Monday, April 26 (Chapel), Willis Walker.

Tuesday, April 27 (Chapel), Ralph Paulson.

Wednesday, April 28 (Chapel), Robert Manley.

Wednesday (Prayer Meeting, 7:30 P. M., David Carter.

Thursday, April 29 (Chapel), Roy Litsey.

Friday, April 30 (Chapel), Merle Bogarth.

Saturday, May 1 (7:30 P. M.), Darrell Teare.

Sunday, May 2 (7:30 P. M.), Andrew Hanners.

Religious Emphasis Week was started two years ago by the administration. The plan is to have a Religious Emphasis Week both semesters. In the first semester, faculty members preach and the messages are brought by student preachers in the spring term.

Waitresses Skip; Outing Enjoyed

"One, two, three bottles of pop stolen. Get those kids out of here!" Such exclamations as this could be heard at the annual waitress sneak at Northside park on April Fool's day.

Yes, the waitresses were probably missed by all the faithful dining hall patrons. At least if they weren't, plans must have gone wrong some place. Rumors tell us that a few of the men about the campus volunteered (with some pressure) to offer their services.

A rousing game of softball (or kitten ball if you're from Minnesota) was played by most of the girls, but three of them remained to guard the food. The girls playing softball imagined these three as unlucky, but they seemed to amuse themselves satisfactorily by playing hopscotch.

Some of the old swimming hole girls just naturally took to the creek and went wading. The big fireplace in Northside park has been enriched with roasted weiners and marshmallows that melted from the sticks.

Silverware Purchased

Silver was the order of the day this week as the Associated Women students and the Home Ec club revealed the purchase of a silver serving set and place settings for four, respectively.

The AWS purchased the silver serving set as their project for the year, and plan to use it at the AWS teas.

The Home Ec club bought place settings for four of Nobility Plate, choosing a Caprice pattern to match the silverware that the department already has.

Oly's-ADP's Tie For First in "New Look" Campaign Last Tues.

The ADP's and Oly's tied for first place in the annual Campus Day activities, according to Fred Fowler, who was in charge of the "New Look" campaign. The judges gave the SLA's second spit and the LSP's third. The judges for this year were Prof. Sharp (who substituted for Rev. Riley), Dr. Corlett and Prof. McGraw, who agreed that the contest was close and the decision difficult.

The ADP's blitzed the library, Chapman hall and Hadley hall while the Oly's cleaned up the gym, the high school and the grounds. The SLA's tackled the Fine Arts building, Morrison hall, and the grammar school and the LSP's worked in the Speech hall, the Administration building and Sutherland hall.

A Cappella Sings

The a cappella choir, under the direction of Roger Taylor sang their way into a dinner at Pleasant Ridge Sunday before last and then sang at the Eagle high school auditorium in the evening. Last Sunday they sang in the morning at College Church, at the Veterans' hospital in Boise in the afternoon and at Nazarene First Church in Nampa in the evening. The choir plans to leave on their trip next Wednesday, April 21.

Artists Visit Caxton's Printing House

Professor Finkbeiner and several of his art students took their first field trip of this season last week-end, making a tour of the Caxton publishing house in Caldwell where they were shown the process of setting up type, printing and finishing of several "soon to be, on the market" books.

They also visited the "varied-brick construction of the Boon Memorial Church being erected for the College of Idaho students.

Cook-Herron Tell Of Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Herron of Nampa announce the engagement of their daughter, Ruth, of Grandview, Washington, to Mr. Delmar Cook of Boulder, Colorado, at an Easter Sunday dinner given at their home. The news of the engagement was announced over the radio during the afternoon.

Both Delmar and Ruth are sophomores in college. Wedding plans have not been announced.

NNC Wins Contest 255 Over Olivet

N. N. C. came out on top in the Sunday school contest with a plus 255. Final score: N. N. C., 7,648; Olivet, 7,393.

BUT, as the Rev. Riley said, the numbers are secondary, the primary thing is that the Kingdom of God has been advanced many more steps.

The fight with Olivet is over for this year, but the fight with the Devil is still growing strong. We don't sing, "The Fight Is Over," but "The Fight Is On," so let's continue to fight. It's God and us against the Devil and the world.

Student Politics Boil Next Week

Campaign week has been set for next week, April 19-23, according to Abe Bennett, ASB prexy, and elections for major student body offices will be held the first two weeks in May. Offices that are to be filled for the next school year are ASB president, vice-president, treasurer, secretary, sergeant-at-arms, Crusader editor, and Oasis editor.

"Abe" urged all would-be aspirants to confine their campaigning to next week as the week following will be devoted to religious emphasis.

SLA's Chalk Up Win In Society Music Test

The SLA's chalked up another first this semester by winning three firsts, three seconds, and one third in the inter-society music contest. The LSP's took second, the ADP's third, and the Oly's fourth.

The winning society took first in three sections: Band instruments, Dick Friesen; organ solos, Ruth Cronrath; and vocal ensemble, Dick Friesen, Wes Johnson, and Clarence Peterson. The LSP's placed first in the piano ensemble group with Fairy Emerson and Jeanne Vail. The ADP's Double E Hill placed first in the piano solos, and the Oly's landed top spot in the male voices section with Richard Lindbloom and in the female voice section with Patty Mitchell.

Carr Returns

Word was received this week from Franklin Carr, photographer, that he will be in his studio or at some announced location on the campus sometime next week. Further announcement will be made early next week. Mr. Carr has been absent from the campus for some time undergoing major surgery at Boise.

This Friday evening at 8, the juniors and seniors will attend the social highlight of the year as they meet at the Crystal Ball room in the Hotel Boise for the annual junior-senior banquet. Dean Conan E. Mathews of Boise Junior college, will be the speaker of the evening.

Ken Sulston, junior class president, will be master of ceremonies for the evening and will present the toast to the senior class, which will be responded to by Ervin Edgar, senior class prexy. Milton Gardiner will present a toast to Dr. L. T. Corlett.

Merriment Is King At Oly-ADP Play Hoosier Schoolmaster

Gales of laughter echoed through the chapel last Friday evening as the ADP and Olympian societies presented their contest play, "The Hoosier Schoolmaster."

Ken Sulston as Ralph Hartsook, the Hoosier schoolmaster, and Dorothy Davis as Hanna Thompson, took the leading roles in the play, but the other members of the cast, including Eunice Lintz, Bob Anderson, Delmar Beukelman, Myron Finkbeiner, Thelma Waller, Ercil Bowman, and Lillian Nutt provided their share of the laughs.

Eunice Lintz, Oly program chairman, and Butch Neubauer, ADP program chairman, were co-directors of the play. Presidents of the two sponsoring societies are Dave Alexander, ADP, and Virgil Vail, Oly.

LSP's-SLA's Pin Hopes on "The Little Minister"

"The Little Minister," a drama in three acts from a story by James Barrie will be presented by the LSP and SLA athletic-literary societies as their contest program April 22 at 8 in the evening. Tentative plans call for a matinee performance that afternoon.

The cast is as follows: Jean McFadden, Elaine Newton; Mora McLaren, Pauline Hilty; Lord Rintoul, Floyd Perkins; Rob Dow, Jack Hawthorne; Gavin Dishart (the little minister), Quincy Angier; Margaret Dishart, Lois Scholten; Babbie, Rachel Shaw; Dr. McQueen, Willis Walker; Sergeant Halliwell, Paul Schwartz; Effie, Mary Jo Berkeley; and Nanny Webster, Sylvia Edinger.

The scene of the play is set in Scotland in the 1860's, and is dramatized from the well known story of the same name.

Messenger-Ulmet Wed At Seattle

Miss Ruthe Ulmet, formerly of N. N. C., became the bride of David Messenger Thursday, Mar. 18, at 8 p. m. in Seattle. The Rev. Roy Yeider performed the ceremony in the parsonage. Lorene Koplitz was the maid of honor and Don Eastly, a former N. N. A. student, was the best man. Mrs. Messenger, mother of the bridegroom, was present at the ceremony.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for Grayland, Washington, for a short wedding trip and are now at home at 5214 17th, N. E., Seattle 5, Washington.

Gardiner will present a toast to Dr. L. T. Corlett.

The theme of the affair is still under secrecy wraps but the program was revealed this week by Ken Sulston. Music will be furnished by an ensemble featuring Betty Lou Kitzmiller on the violin, Paul Kunkel at the marimba, and Beulah Vore at the piano. Eunice Lintz will sing and Joanne Burkhart will present a reading.

Ken Sulston expressed his thanks to all the committees and their chairmen and to all the others who worked "so long and faithfully" to make the banquet possible. Among the committees and members who worked on the arrangements were: Joanne Burkhart, menu; Jeanne Vail, theme; Jim Ranum, date and seating; Lillian Nutt, favors; Milton Gardiner, finance, with the assistance of Paul Wordsworth, class treasurer; Eunice Lintz, program; Loree Wallace and Fairy Emerson, decorations; all the class officers and others of the junior class.

Lower Classmen To Picnic at Lake Lowell

While the juniors and seniors are at their annual banquet Friday evening, the freshmen and sophomores will be enjoying themselves at an outing held at Lake Lowell, revealed Ronnie Weatherford, frosh class president, this week.

In case of bad weather the outing will be postponed to April 29. Further information will be given either in chapel or placed on the bulletin board.

Philosophers Eat

The Philosophy Club held their annual banquet in Morrison dining room Tuesday evening, April 13. Dinner music was furnished by a harmonious threesome, a mirimba, violin and piano played by Paul Kunkel, Betty Kitzmiller and Beulah Vore, respectively. Mrs. Alvin Kauffman played a violin solo, accompanied by her husband, Professor Kauffman, followed by a reading from Howard Zimmerman. The climax of the evening was a message presented by the dean of B. J. C., Conan E. Mathews.

McGraw Offers Opportunities

An opportunity for Christian work of all types was offered this week by Professor James P. McGraw who is preparing a questionnaire for all those interested. Prof. McGraw advises that he frequently receives calls from pastors throughout the education zone asking for recommendations of students who are interested in Christian work. Prof. McGraw plans to distribute the questionnaire to all who are interested sometime this week.

SCHEDULE

April 12-16—Mangum Missionary Lectures (Rev. C. H. Wiman).

April 16—Junior-Senior Banquet.

April 16—Freshman-Sophomore Party

April 22—LSP-SLA Society Play.

April 23—A Cappella Choir Leaves.

April 26-May 2—Religious Emphasis Week.

The High Cost of Low Living

By HELEN G. WILSON

"And the high soul takes the highway
While the low soul takes the low . . ."

We are all familiar with the words, "I'd like to be a Christian . . . yes, I would . . . but I just can't seem to pay the price." And we recognize the fact that being a Christian does demand something from each of us. On the other hand, how many there are who pass up the privileges of the saved and sanctified life on this plea only to turn around and pay an even greater price, i. e., the high cost of low living.

It costs something to live on the mountaintops but there is a still greater charge for living on the lower levels. Let us survey some of the characteristics of low living and the price tag each bears.

It is exceedingly expensive to live on the plains of Criticism. Criticism costs in friendships, achievement, and constructive thinking. Perhaps the greatest danger of all is that the one who criticizes others becomes too prone to farsightedness. He is like the Pharisees who tripped over the beams in their own eyes while pointing out the mote in a brother's eye!

Prayerlessness is another costly item in low living. A life lived without prayer is like a boat without a rudder. Many people live chaotic, changeable existences. They seek the advice of

as seen by
Willis Walker

Hats off to the vets who have assumed so many of the responsibilities around our campus and who have done so in a humble Christian spirit that could not be found in any other than a Christian College. We are thinking especially of our fine, unique student body president, Abe Bennett; our energetic, capable Crusader editor, Harry Heighton; the friendly Christian War Veterans' commander, Glenn Dayton, and the humble, though popular Campus Day director, sophomore class president, first semester Olympian president, Fred Fowler. These are only a few of the fellows that deserve bouquets around here but space would not permit the extolling of each leader and his worthy deeds.

Evidently the threatening clouds of war are responsible for the appearance lately of ex-GI's armed with deadly squirt-guns. They stalk the hallways, crouch in the class rooms when Prof. is looking the other way, or slyly pull a bead on an unwary victim in chapel, making use of every available opportunity to increase their ability in getting "bull's-eyes." Or, could it be that they haven't quite outgrown the grade school prankster stage.

And speaking of the threatening clouds of war reminds us of the recommended legislation to enact another universal military training law. While most of us recognize the need of preparedness, yet few of us who have spent time in a military camp are anxious to do so again, nor do we wish to see others sent there if there is any other way out. The question of the status of veterans in the proposed draft will be one of the problems to iron out by the Senate Armed Service Committee. Chairman Gurney (R.-S. D.) feels that the committee will exempt all vets with 90 days' service or more, and Sen. Maybank (D.-S. C.) said that he would insist on all vets being exempt from a new draft. Many vets feel, however, that if we should come to blows with Russia, most of us would be quickly drawn into the conflict since we are already well trained and in view of the fact that there would not be time to train enough new recruits.

In spite of Russia's domineering attitude and aggression, I personally do not believe they are ready for war, but they have been putting up a big bluff which quickly deflates when punctured by such measures as our government has taken recently. So we must be much in prayer that God will lead in these critical moments.

Student body elections are just around the corner and we are reminded once again that the current school year is rapidly drawing to a close. We have had the privilege and opportunity of seeing student government functioning at close range this year and we are proud to have been part of the group that meets every Wednesday night after prayer meeting to decide on various issues that come before us as a student council.

We feel that we couldn't have been associated with a more alert, intelligent group of students and we are sure that those elected to the various positions for the coming year will be of the same calibre.

We would urge the voters to weigh carefully the qualifications of the individual candidates who will soon be before you with their various platforms and programs. These platforms and programs will, of necessity, be much alike in their major points, so voting will be on the basis of personalities, rather than platforms. We would also urge the candidates to realize that the positions which they are striving for are positions of responsibility which literally means "willingness to work" nine-tenths of the time.

The defeated candidates should remember that those who win cannot do the job alone and will need a tremendous amount of help during the school year.

Chapel Talks

By VERNICE VROMAN
DR. CORLETT

"God works with individuals" and "whether we feel good or not we should get our feet down and get 'established'! Determine to serve God and be a Christian everywhere, all the time, to everyone" for "our attitude of covenant relationship" should steady us in that "He will uphold and keep us."

This week in chapel we have the privilege of hearing Dr. C. H. Wiman, veteran missionary, under the Mangum Missionary Lecture series.

Spring Thoughts

By JAMES PURDUE

Spring is the most beautiful of all the seasons, yet contained in its beauty are mysteries that man shall never solve. The birth of creatures and plant life is superficially defined by some of our learned men as phenomena, and life itself as something that is contained in protoplasm. Man with his so-called complex theories and extensive knowledge is nevertheless awed by the growth of a single blade of grass. Truly spring arouses more curiosity and evokes more questions concerning life and the Deity than any other fact.

The infidel, perhaps, has a more difficult time adhering to his avocations in the spring-time, as it is the period of numerous births and divine creations. If one observes our world intelligently, he will be impressed with the startling proof of a single divine mind. The very fact that there are no diversities, comparatively speaking, of vari-others constantly and are never happy in the knowledge of a God-directed career. The reason? They do not pray except spasmodically and hurriedly. Their disheveled lives are an exhibition of the high cost of low living.

Carelessness abounds in the lower altitudes of living. Many people are obstacles in the path of righteousness simply because they are too careless to consider how their lives may be affecting others. Christians who talk and laugh while prayer is being offered, roommates who disregard study hours, citizens who abuse the privileges of democracy—all these pay for their carelessness. Ineffectiveness in testimony, strained relationships and impaired friendships, restriction and prohibition . . . all these are the result of the carelessness of low living.

Just as the mountains of God abound in the fruits of righteous living so do the plains of low living have their harvests. Missed opportunities, inadequate resources for successful lives, second-bests, the hell of truth seen too late—these and many others make up the high cost of low living.

So the next time you hear someone say that he just can't pay the price for a Christian experience remind him that everything has a price tag and ask him if he is prepared to pay the high cost of low living.

Abe

Says..

Just a few short weeks and the presidential reign of yours truly will be over. It will be with a great deal of pleasure that I shall hand the gavel to my successor. I am reminded of a quotation that goes somewhat like this: "To you from failing hands I throw the torch; be yours to hold it high!" But the vital question is: "WHO will be the next A. S. B. PREXY?"

To whom it may concern: April 19-24 is CAMPAIGN WEEK. The week preceding is the MANGUM MISSIONARY LECTURES; the week following is RELIGIOUS EMPHASIS WEEK. We admonish you to confine your political activities to CAMPAIGN WEEK. Week after we will concentrate upon the spiritual things. Let us make a special effort; let us be much in prayer as each day our student speakers bring messages about the most important values—the eternal.

The student body elections will be held in the first two weeks of May. Again I advise you to read the CONSTITUTION which is found in the "Keys to the Kampus."

I won't have many more chances to talk to you, my comrades, so I will take this opportunity to do a little lay preaching. Remember our program for the year, "The 3 Ships," WORSHIP, SCHOLARSHIP, and FELLOWSHIP. Never be satisfied until our school motto is an integral part of your religious experience. "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God . . ." Then let us "Study to shew (ourselves) approved unto God (workmen) that needeth not to be ashamed. . . ."

"Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like-minded one toward another according to Christ Jesus."

Who's Who

The story of Mrs. Dorothy House started in Milo, Iowa, in July, 1926. Dorothy was the fourth of 11 children, and as a farmer's daughter lived on a farm for 18 years. Now she is a busy housewife, an active student, and a minister's wife—all in one.

In high school Dorothy was active in journalism, dramatics, and the junior and senior plays. Then, after graduating from high school at Pleasantville, Iowa, Dorothy took a general course for a year and a half at Kletzing College, Oskaloosa, Iowa, then came to N. N. C. to major in English and obtain a secretarial certificate. While here she has worked on the Crusader for two years, was on the Oasis staff last year and is its assistant editor this year. She belongs to F. T. A., Zetta Kappa Rho, Christian Workers' Band, and Philharmonic Society. She has also won the junior-senior scholarship. "N. N. C. means much to me, not in any single phase, but a combination of desirable factors give it a warm place in my heart. However, I especially appreciate Miss Dooley because she was the first teacher that really interested me in literature and English subjects."

Dorothy plays ping pong, likes to watch basketball, enjoys concerts and says, "I'm not musical, but I like it."

She missed one semester of school because of rheumatic fever, of which the Lord healed her, then last spring, she met Alvin House here and later they were married.

As for the future, Dorothy says, "My husband is a preacher and I may teach some, but not as a career. We pastor the Community Church at Center Point, Idaho."

Spring, in reality, is the birth of a new year. Summer, fall, and winter are related to growth, harvest, and death, respectively. Man's life cycle might be compared to the aforementioned except that death is not the end, but merely one's departure from the limitations of time.

Our prejudices toward death should dissolve, when we realize that rather than being the finish, death is the glorious transformation. The seed is an insignificant thing as compared with the resurrected life, yet, its death makes the plant possible.

Nothing can reflect nature more beautifully than the fresh, green vegetation made alive by glistening dew drops. Even the robin seems to reveal his realization of a newly created world by his songs which are characteristic of spring. To observe the spring season and doubt the existence of God is more absurd than to be on an ocean and deny the existence of water.

Thinclads Improve Meet Scheduled

This year will see the best track team in N. N. C. history performing on the ovals. Next Saturday the boys will go through the acid test in a three-way meet with C. of I. and B. J. C. at Hayman field in Caldwell.

Last Thursday afternoon in a practice meet with Nampa high saw Monty Lee's Crusaders capture firsts in all events except the 440-yard dash. Bellamy had a very good afternoon running the mile in 4:46, and the half-mile in 2:12. He also ran anchor man in the half-mile relay.

The school record for the shot put is 37 feet 4 inches. Carlyle Dean shoved out the shot to 40 feet. Butler won the 100 and the 220. Dougherty took the high jump. In the 440 Sutherland was up against probably one of the best 440 high school men in the state. He finished three or four yards behind, which is plenty close. Farrand captured the pole vault with a leap of 10 feet. Powers threw the discus 110 feet to take first in that event. Others placing were Dougherty second in the 220, Somerville third in the 220, Cramer second in the pole vault, Swann third in the 100.

Seven Errors Dump Crusaders

In a game marred by 11 errors, the Coyotes from C. of I. scored a 9-1 victory over the Crusaders. The game was played last Friday on the N. N. C. diamond.

Ward and Carter scattered three hits over seven innings to set the Crusaders down with only one run, scored in the fifth on a two-base error and a Texas leaguer by Powers over the shortstop's head.

Farley led the visitors with three singles in five trips. Dunn smacked out a home run in the eighth but the game was called in the eighth so it didn't count.

SPORTS

Athlete's Foot

by Peter Burkhardt

The Crusader baseball team has launched into a new post-war era by scheduling games with a team other than Boise Junior College. Last year the team doggedly attacked the same team hoping each time to overcome the ruthless invaders from the east. But this year with more players, a re-scraped ball diamond and an undying enthusiasm that only a Crusader possesses, the team has launched out into the unknown and challenged an invader from the west. Time only holds the answer as to the success of this venture, but it is almost certain that the widening of our frontiers and the pushing back of our restraints will eventually pound out a baseball empire with the now tiny infant Crusaders standing at the capital holding the reins of the bat and ball empire.

Alertly standing by the baseball rulers will be the Crusader thinclads adorned in the royal orange and black crowned by trophies from many track meets, yielding them a noble place beside their fellow rulers of the spring sports.

Of course, the above is just an idle dream for the Crusader teams, but again it is not, for through cooperation and enthusiasm teamed with strong bodies and alert minds we can form the teams that Coach Lee would like to have represent us. At present Coach's greatest worry is the bench (scholastic) which takes its toll from his line-ups. His hardy exhortation to all would-be athletes, is to keep off the scholastic bench so you can come out and sit on the athletic bench.

Even if we can't be star athletes and build for this grand future, we can do what Dr. Bob Mangum told the basketball team to do at their recent banquet, "Boost for improved athletic facilities both before and after graduation."

Along this line commendation is due to Tiny Bellamy, Carlyle Dean, Paul Parkins, and any of the other fellows who helped rejuvenate the baseball and track facilities this spring.

BJC Romps Over Crusaders 11-3 Meet Again 23rd

The Crusader baseball team dropped a game to the Broncos of B. J. C., 11-3 a week ago last Monday.

In the first inning B. J. C. took a 4-0 lead which they never relinquished. Four walks, an error and a base hit provided the Broncos a safe lead. N. N. C. made their attempt to catch up in their half of the first inning when Beukelman singled and Barnum brought him home with a rousing triple to right center. He later scored on a passed ball.

In the third the Crusaders scored their final run while B. J. C. scored twice in the third, once in the fifth, twice in the sixth and once in the seventh. Bellamy started on the hill for the home team and was replaced by Parkins. Big sticker for the afternoon was Zahm, B. J. C. first baseman, with a triple, a double and a single in four trips.

The two clubs meet again in Boise April 23.

Crusaders Almost Score Upset

Last Saturday over at Caldwell the Crusaders found their batting eyes and nearly scored an upset over the highly touted Coyotes, but a C. of I. run in the last of the ninth made the final score 6-5.

After a shaky first inning Carlyle Dean set the visitors down in order for six innings. They scored once in the eighth and once in the ninth to sew the contest up.

The locals out hit C. of I. 10 to 7, but were responsible for eight errors.

Leading the attack for the visitors was Weatherford with a triple, a double and a single followed by Stegleder with a double and a single. Carlyle Dean poked out a lusty triple to also help the cause.

Dr. Henry Wesche, local doctor and returned missionary, showed three films to the Foreign Mission Band April 1. They included "Life of the Average Chinese Farmer," "Evangelism" and the "Nazarene Bible School." The Sutherlands were in the latter.

April 8, Professor Sutherland spoke to the group. This was his farewell as he will be leaving soon for the University of Washington to complete his doctor's degree before he returns to China. He was presented with gifts from both the Band and his history classes.

The regular meeting has been changed permanently to 6:30, the Speech hall, on Thursday.

Man Who Limp

Pray don't find fault with the man who limps,
 Or stumbles along the road,
 Unless you have worn the shoes he wears
 Or struggled beneath his load.
 There may be tacks in his shoes that hurt
 Though hidden away from view,
 Or the burdens he bears, placed on your back,
 Might cause you to stumble, too.

Don't sneer at the man who's down today,
 Unless you have felt the blow
 That caused his fall, or felt the shame
 That only the fallen know.

You may be strong, but still the blows
 That were his, if dealt to you
 In the self-same way at the self-same time,
 Might cause you to stagger, too.

Don't be too harsh with the man who sins,
 Ore pelt him with words or stones,
 Unless you are sure, yea, doubly sure,
 That you have not sins of your own;
 For, you know, perhaps if the tempter's voice
 Should whisper as soft to you
 As it did to him when he went astray,
 'Twould cause you to falter, too.

—Evangelical Christian.

MU Upsilon SIGMA

Wednesday, March 31, the Mu Upsilon Sigma presented Beulah Vore in a piano recital. After the recital two musical films were shown. "Instruments of the Orchestra," filmed of the London Symphony orchestra, showing each instrument and the sound it produced, and "Overture to Rosemund" by Franz Schubert, filmed and played by the National Philharmonic Society, were the two films shown.
