

Poll Shows NNC Favors Dewey

Results of the poll for the 1948 presidential candidates taken in chapel October 6, revealed that Dewey led with 394 votes and Truman was next with 143 votes.

The faculty gave 22 votes to Dewey, 5 to Truman and 2 to Watson of the Prohibition party.

Out of 115 votes, the high school pupils cast 25 for Truman, 86 for Dewey, one for the States Rights candidate and 3 for Watson.

A total of 419 votes was cast by the college students. Two hundred eighty-six votes went to Dewey, 113 to Truman, and 11 to the Prohibitionists. Wallace received 5 votes; Thurmond received 3, and Norman Thomas of the Socialist party received 1 vote.

This poll, sponsored by the International Relations club, was prepared by Clarence Barrows who is president of the club.

Rev. Krikorian Speaks to NNC Missionary Soc.

During the chapel hour on Thursday, October 7, N. N. C. students heard the Rev. Samuel C. Krikorian, a native Armenian, who has been serving as a Nazarene missionary in Jerusalem for the past 27 years, speak on present conditions in Jerusalem and the Jewish-Arab conflict.

During his discussion, Rev. Krikorian brought out the fact that the present trend in Palestine is from agriculture to industry. However, agricultural conditions improved under the British rule with better methods of soil conservation and cultivation. Due to misuse in many places soil conditions were very poor prior to the period of British control, he said.

Rev. Krikorian stated that during the present conflict, it is often unsafe to venture out of doors after dark because of the sniping activities of both Arabs and Jews.

The speaker gave a brief history of the work of the Nazarene church in Palestine, and also of his own call to the field as a missionary.

Rev. Krikorian is the son of a noble Armenian family which traces its ancestry back 200 years. From infancy it was his ambition to follow in the footsteps of his grandfather who was the pastor of the first evangelical church of the Central Turkey Mission. He was only two years of age when

Men's Club Active

The Men's club held its first meeting of the year last Wednesday when new members were given a brief introduction to the club and several officers were elected. Officers for the year are as follows: President, Jim Wolstenholm; vice president, Gene Hovee; secretary-treasurer, Ray Hastings; program chairman, David Blum; fire marshal, Jess Wilson; and sergeant-at-arms, Jerry Johnson.

With this fine cast of officers, we of the Men's club expect to make our influence count for good. All members are looking forward to the semester stag party where they will temporarily renounce all desire for feminine companionship.

A system of fire drills is being prepared for N. N. C. by the Men's club in cooperation with the Nampa fire department in order to protect the lives of students and faculty members in case of an emergency. Directions for fire drills are posted in each dormitory.

Dr. Culver Speaks To Future Teachers

At the meeting of the F. T. A. on Wednesday, September 29, Dr. Culver addressed the group. Her topic was, "What We Should Get Out of Our F. T. A. This Year."

The officers of the F. T. A. are as follows:

President, Kenneth Potter.
Vice president, Ruth Angel.
Secretary, Carol Cooke.
Corresponding secretary, Betty Jean Connor.

The members of the F. T. A. attended the teachers' convention at Boise October 14.

Christian Workers Meet Sat. Nights

The last three Saturday nights have found the Christian Workers' Band in the speech hall, conducting their regular weekly services. Those who have attended, have found that their time has been well spent, and have gone away feeling the presence of the Spirit of God closer than when they came.

Under the leadership of Prof. Ray, the Christian Workers' Band plans to arrange services which will be held in some of the smaller churches on Sunday evenings.

The officers for the coming year are the following: President, Richard Dickson; vice president, Herb Ketterling; secretary, Gwen Stinette; program chairman, Betty Collins; treasurer, Dick Hoyle.

Any who are interested in Christian service are urged to attend.

Int. Relations Club Holds First Meeting

The first meeting of the International Relations club was held September 28 and the officers were elected. The new officers are: Clarence Barrows, president; Delores Bloomquist, vice president and program chairman; Helen Rambo, secretary; Louis Harris, treasurer.

Prof. Taylor, the sponsor of the club, outlined an interesting program for this year. The opinions of the citizens from other countries, current films on international affairs, reports on our own national scene and some outside speakers will be available at future meetings.

The next meeting, in conjunction with a Halloween party, will be held in the Chapman hall recreation room, October 28, at 7:30. Any students who are interested in any phase of foreign relations are urged to attend.

Say Students!

By JEAN KIRKPATRICK

How many of you, while getting oriented for the new school year, have taken time to get acquainted with some of the new students around NNC this year? Aha! Just as I thought! Not many of you. Well, we'll just take a little space here to introduce you to the fellows and gals who have come to our campus from countries outside the U. S.

First of all, I would like you to meet Miss Chong Soon Lee from Honolulu, Oahu Island, Hawaii. Soonie, as she prefers to be called, is a freshman this year. She came over to the States by boat, and she says, "Oooh, but I was seasick!" Soonie has three brothers and four sisters older than she. All of her family live in Hawaii except two brothers attending school in Los Angeles. When asked how she liked N. N. C., Soonie replied, "Oh, it is really wonderful! Everyone is so friendly. I thought they would be snobbish around N. N. C., but added under her breath, "'cept English!"

Well, Soonie, we're glad to have you around, and don't let any of us pass you without saying "Hi."

Next I would like to have you meet Paul Beals, although he really needs no introduction as this is Paul's second year on our N.

Abe Writes

I had a letter from Merrill Bennett the other day. He is now attending Lewis and Clark college at Portland. As he pondered over his studies one day, this poem came to his mind and he penned it and sent it to me to read.

WHAT'S THE SCORE?
Churning, turning, spurning
The dross, and duly earning
The smattering of learning
It manages to store;
My mind is burning, yearning
For more skill in higher learning
And lesser needless churning
To discover what the score.

Fretting, sweating, getting
And constantly forgetting,
'Tis a wee small bit I'm netting
From the field of modern lore.
Up a stump I'm setting
As I try to keep from letting Them know that I'm forgetting
The meaning of the score.

Aching, breaking, making
My mind forsake its shaking,
Slowly I am waking
As in the days of yore,
To the present work I'm taking
As a shovel does to raking,
The easy life forsaking
To find the measly score.

Bench List Enacted October 15

October 15 has been set as the date for the first bench list to be submitted. If a student's name appears on the bench list he is automatically ineligible to participate in any intramural or inter-collegiate activities.

The bench is not a form of punishment, but is a method to warn the students of low scholarship. By ceasing extra-curricular activities it is hoped that the student will have an opportunity to catch up in his work.

All students in college who are doing unsatisfactory work will be put on the bench. Two "D's," one "F," or one Incomplete will place a student on the bench. The list will be prepared by the bench committee and placed on the bulletin board. After a person is on the bench it is impossible to get off in less than one week. The list will be revised each Monday.

Tom Says . . .

Wednesday night in prayer meeting Rev. Riley quoted from the scripture that says, "Shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works." James 2:18.

Personal evangelism in the Sunday school is the working out of faith by works. The Sunday school is in a position to instill a life of faith into mankind from the cradle roll to the grave. Through this faith is built up a trust and love in God that burdens men, women and children to tell others of the Saviour that died for them. This is the beginning of personal evangelism.

Your Sunday school wants to teach you of the love of God, and through that love to teach others.

During the course of the school year it has been the custom to have two weeks of religious emphasis. The first of these is scheduled for October 18 through October 24, at which time the faculty members will be bringing the messages. Then in spring for the second week of religious emphasis the speakers will be chosen from seniors majoring in religion. In the past these days of special emphasis have proved to be a great blessing to the students and faculty alike. God manifested Himself in a very wonderful way. We're certain that the blessings of other religious emphasis in the past need be no exception this year, but let each one of us pray much for these coming services that souls might be won for Christ and His kingdom.

The schedules:
Monday morning, Oct. 18, Guy E. Sharp.
Tuesday morning, Oct. 19, La-Mont Lee.
Wednesday morning, Oct. 20, Roy L. Ray.
Wednesday evening, Oct. 20, James Hilliard.
Thursday morning, Oct. 21, L. Wesley Johnson.
Friday morning, Oct. 22, M. A. Wilson.
Saturday evening, Oct. 23, H. J. Hart.
Sunday morning, Oct. 24, Rev. John E. Riley.
Sunday evening, Oct. 24, James P. McGraw.

Freshman initiation was climaxed by a party in the gym Friday, October 1. Tom Kelley was master of ceremonies for the evening.

The party got into full swing by the singing of the school song. Hubert Hendricks and his guitar proved to be one of the evening's main attractions. Betty Wright attempted a trumpet solo, followed by a stirring duet from Dorothy Davis and Eunice Lintz. Beulah Vore accompanied. The girls' quartet, Carol Sharp, Dorothy Edwards, Pat Johnson and Roma Mitchell, rendered a song of consolation to the freshmen.

The sophomores and upper classmen were then entertained by the freshmen as they went through initiation. Gordon Belzer and his initiation committee did an excellent job of introducing the freshmen to college life.

Cheer Leaders Elected Wed.

Wednesday the student body voted on the cheerleaders for the coming year. Those elected were Dorothy Davis, Pat Johnson, Dorothy Edwards, and Bette Harding. This team will lead the cheering section at all college games and be in charge of all the half-time entertainment.

Three teams participated in the tryout Wednesday morning in the college gym. Marge MacGillivray, Connie Jo Nelson and Francis Sutherland tried for the position along with Burt Mack, Mary Lu Anderson and Bob Cook.

What Can I Do?

Christian humility can at times get in the way of the will of God. Often action is not performed because the enemy of our souls has convinced us that it is "humble" to let someone else do it, and the result is that the kingdom of God suffers. In these days of peril action is needed. Christianity must show its colors if it is to remain a factor in the scheme of this world.

1. WHAT IS THAT IN THY HAND? As God questioned Moses, he also questions us. None of us can answer, "Nothing." Even the least of us has at least "one talent." If so, let us examine it.

a. I find ABILITIES. Each of us has inherited a body, emotions, and a mind. Thank God for this!

b. Then I notice that each has made ACHIEVEMENTS. Not all have achieved much of great importance. But they are achievements, nevertheless.

c. There are also AMBITIOUS. All of us want to become something. It is only right that we should, although some of our ambitions have been quite selfish.

d. Then I find also that there are great numbers of AIMS, choices which we have consciously made, many of which have been against God's will.

Your "talent," made up of abilities, achievements, ambitions, and aims, is in your hand.

2. GIVE IT TO GOD. Our talent, while it may not be much, is still real. In order to meet the challenge of the present, if we have not already done so, we must give all our abilities to God. We must turn our conscious aims away from sin and toward God's will and forever walk in all the light He sheds on our path. Then, since our aims often come into conflict with our selfish ambitions, we must humbly consecrate all to Him so the subtle enemy within can be slain. With this done, God is able to use us in achieving His will. Until He has all of us—body, emotions, and mind—he really has none of us. He wants our cooperation in the great purpose of creation. Let us make His will our aim, His will our ambition, His will our achievement . . . by His grace.

We, too, Have a Responsibility

We, too, have a responsibility. Not only is the support of a European war orphan the student body project for this year, but it is also a moral obligation. In this of plenty we are obligated to help those who are more unfortunate than we. This is more than just a plan to feed and clothe a child, but it is a plan whereby we give some soul a new lease on life. By supporting a child for a year we are giving the world another citizen for tomorrow.

The student council decided to take over the support of a war orphan for the project for this year. However, if it is to be vital, we must consider it more than just a project. It is another channel through which we can help suffering humanity. Some child will be taken care of because we rally to this cause. Therefore, we are asking that every student take part in this project. By doing this no great burden will be laid on any one person, but all can feel that they have had a part.

Last year, the student body sent several CARE packages to Europe. During the summer several letters were received from grateful people who had received these packages. This plan this year will also put us in personal contact with some person in Europe. Correspondence will be maintained between the child and our student body. By this personal interest, our project can see immediate results that will give us more satisfaction and help the person with whom we are in contact.

The student council is open to suggestion concerning this matter. If anyone has any questions please contact any member of the student council. This is to be accomplished by the combined effort of all students, therefore everyone has a right to ask any questions they wish about the project for this year.

THE LOWDOWN

As the news was coming in this week, I noticed that some new clubs were being organized, and some old ones revived. From outside appearances it looks as though no one has anything to do or else everyone has more or everyone else is more ambitious than the writer. Personally, I would rather see fewer organizations and clubs and have them active, than have so many organizations that you cannot belong to all of them if you want to, and most of the clubs so dead that it does not mean anything if you do belong to it. I will admit that the clubs are doing better this year than in previous years, but even so few of the organizations are doing much. Most organizations have as their purpose to promote some worthy cause which is good, but usually the cause is too broad to accomplish much. There are dangers both ways, but the tendency now seems to be toward dead, ineffective organizations.

There should be some way of correcting this fault among our minor organizations without making them restricting clubs. If only the students would take a more active interest in these activities.

First, some plan should be used to prevent students from joining every organization that strikes their fancy. By this we do not mean to restrict membership to a certain group of people, but prevent everyone from spreading his interests so broadly that he becomes stagnant and non-progressive in any of them. A happy medium must be found at this point.

Next, each organization should have a definite project for a certain given time. Instead of saying that we want you to learn to enjoy our field of study more, plan a definite program and a definite goal that can be reached within the semester or year. If this is done a greater interest could be promoted.

Each organization should endeavor to be so prominent and aggressive that the members will his people went through the first massacre of the Armenians in 1895.

In 1909, during the second Armenian massacre, Rev. Krikorian, who was at that time 16 years old, was sent to his aunt, Rebecca Krikorian, in the United States. Under the influence of Miss Krikorian, who was a Christian woman engaged in social service work and lecture work on behalf of her native people, he attended the Bible school and Missionary Training home at Grantham, Pa. While at this institution he was sanctified in 1913 when he was 20 years of age. He had been converted in his homeland when a boy of 12.

Following his graduation from Bible school, he entered Pasadena Nazarene college. Following his graduation from Pasadena he and his aunt united with the Church of the Nazarene in 1917.

Ordained an elder in the Nazarene church at the district assembly in Portland, Ore., in June, 1918, and after three years of deputation work, Samuel Krikorian sailed for Beirut in 1921. In December of the same year the first Nazarene mission was formally opened in Jerusalem, and for the 27 years since, Rev. Krikorian has devoted his life to the mission work.

The Rev. Krikorian has been in the United States since May, and plans to return to Jerusalem as soon as conditions there permit.

feel that it is an honor to belong to the organization rather than a duty. If a club has a definite record of accomplishments behind it there will be a heritage and honor to be kept up.

It is not necessary that an organization be exclusive in order to be successful. If only the members can be encouraged to take an active interest in the affairs of the club of which they are members the clubs can be active, interesting, and profitable to all concerned. N. N. C. must have these minor organizations to help the students in their extra-curricular life, but unless these organizations are profitable to the mem-

Building Fund Needs

Have you looked over towards the NEW College church lately? It's really going along fine, but—there is a little matter of $9,200 to be taken care of by October 31. Three big Sundays of faithful and prayerful giving will put the building fund right up there to the half-way mark of $25,000 for this year.

Impossible to raise this immense, staggering, colossal amount of money in three Sundays? It's been done before, and we're going to do it this time. The Rev. Riley says that "Where there's a will there's 9200 ways."

Nursing Notes

By Betty Edes

Miss Agnes Miller, director of nurses at Samaritan School of Nursing, has announced that she is now receiving applications for entrance into the school. All those who are planning to enter training in the fall of 1949 should be prompt in obtaining an application form.

At the monthly student body meeting held Tuesday night it was decided that in the place of exchanging gifts among the nurses, each girl would contribute a suitable gift to be sent to Samaritan graduates now serving on the mission field. A party has been planned for Saturday night, at which the entertainment will consist of wrapping these gifts for mailing very soon, so they may be received by Christmas time.

Miss Frances Urschel, nursing arts instructress at Samaritan, recently elected president of the newly formed Nampa district of the state graduate nurses' organization. The monthly meeting was held Tuesday evening in the parlor of Reynolds' home. Miss Miller and Miss Urschel attended the state convention held recently at Sun Valley, Idaho.

Miss Eula Tombaugh, hospital dietitian, left last week for Chicago, where she will act as delegate, representing the Idaho organization at the National Convention of Dietitians.

Conversation overheard in the classroom:

Mrs. Gross: "I wish they'd come through with my first husband's insurance."

Miss Clocksone: "I wish they'd come through with my first husband . . ."

Friends have been noticing the diamond which Mary Louise Sumner has been sporting around. The lucky fellow is Joseph Tracy who is a senior at the University of Washington.

N. C. campus. Paul's folks are our Nazarene missionaries in India, home on furlough at the present. Paul was born in India and has spent 14½ of his 17 years there. And already he is a junior majoring in philosophy! Paul, how can you be so bright? In answer to this he says, "I started to school when I was seven and attended 10 months of every year. We only had about two social occasions during the school year." Small wonder he has gone so far! How about it, kids? Shall we ask the administration to let us go to school all year?

Paul says he likes to collect stamps, and also likes photography. Paul has a younger brother, Loring, who is a senior at Nampa high and is taking a few courses at N. N. C. on the side. Let's not forget to say "Hi" to them, too.

We have another fellow around here who also needs no introduction since this is his second year around N. N. C. He is Stanley Nordmo from Norway. Stan says he really doesn't claim Norway as his home, but since his parents are there now as missionaries, we include him here, too. Stanley says he spent a good part of his life in China, too. How he does get around!

Taking pre-med, Stanley is a second semester sophomore. When asked what he especially liked about N. N. C., Stan said he couldn't say in particular, but he guessed he liked just about everything. How do you like that, kids? How about more of us giving an answer like that instead of counting on our dozen hands what we don't like. We'll see you around, too, Stan!

Last of all today, I would like to introduce you all to one of our new academy students, Faye

Anderson, Skitt Married October 1

In a double-ring ceremony, performed by the Rev. Marley Anderson, brother of the bridegroom and pastor of Corvallis Nazarene church, Miss Doris Jean Skitt became the October 1 bride of Robert Anderson, a junior at N. N. C. The bride, a former student of N. N. C., wore a simple styled gown of bridal satin with a fingertip veil gathered to a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of staphanatis and red rose buds. The maid of honor, Miss Edith Herron, was gowned in aqua taffeta and carried a nose gay of yellow rosebuds. Misses Bernice Ruman, cousin of the bridegroom, and Mary Louise Sumner wore gowns of pink and yellow, respectively and carried bouquets of lavender asters. The small niece and nephew of the bridegroom were the flower girl and ring bearer. The best man was Jim Wolstenholm and groomsmen were Clarence Peterson and Dick Frieson.

Mrs. Lillian Harris, vocalist, sang "Because" and "Indian Love Call," accompanied by Mrs. Swann, organist.

The reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Constable. The couple are residing at 119 Holly.

Knight, from Fairbanks, Alaska. Faye came down to N. N. C. by plane, and says it was no new experience for her—flying, that is. She left behind her, besides her parents, an older brother. Faye, a sophomore this year, says she likes horses and music. When asked what she liked about N. N. C., she said she, too, liked the friendliness of the people, and she also likes the way she is kept busy all day long. We all have troubles like that, Faye.

Well, guess that's all for now. Besides these countries, we have a couple of fellows from Texas, and our Canadian students. We will hear from them next time.

H.S. Elects Officers

With Prof. Hilliard, one of the class sponsors presiding, the seniors elected Gene Thompson as class president to lead them for this coming year. Howard Johnson was elected as vice president. Other class officers elected were: LaVaun Pearce, secretary-treasurer, and Glennajean Frazier, student council representative.

Prof. Laughlin gave a short talk on classpins and told about prices and ordering.

President Thompson appointed Dick Edwards as chairman of the senior class activities committee and Howard Johnson, Donna Jean Maxwell, Jean Conrey, and Glennajean Frazier were appointed as committee members.

Juniors met and elected their officers. Myron Finkbeiner was chosen for the office of president. The office of vice president is held by Don Thompson. Naomi Duncan was chosen as secretary-treasurer and Curt Beukelman as class representative. A social committee was chosen to plan their "get-togethers." It is headed by Bob Hamlin with Margie James, Eunice Johnson, and Donna Stiverson serving under him.

Class officers for the sophomore class are: Bonnie Painter, president; Philip Wright, vice president; Brenita Dean, secretary-treasurer; and Charlene Olson, representative to the student council.

SLA-Olys Tied

After four wins and two losses, the Olys and SLA are tied for first place in girls' softball. The SLA have only lost one game, but due to the lack of players were forced to forfeit one game to the LSP's.

Olys Win Four Straight

The Olys shifted to the victorious side after losing their first two games by downing the ADP 6-0, SLA 6-5, LSP 7-6, and the ADP a second time 5-4. The Olys' catcher, Esther Kincaid, accounted for several home runs that led her team to victory.

ADP-LSP Tie

The ADP boys moved into a second place tie with the LSP's by winning a close decision over the OLY's, 10-9. The game lasted so long that it nearly had to be called because of darkness. Chavis was the ADP pitcher. Reynolds was on the mound for the OLY's. In the first of the fifth inning the OLY's were nearly successful in tying up the game, only to have the tying run put out as he tried to score from second on an error.

-3. Shaw, in the SLA pitcher's box, with her swift pitching kept the LSP from making many successful hits.

The ADP's only win for the season was their set-back of the LSP 5-2. With Johnson pitching and Kirkpatrick catching the LSP were unsuccessful in making many hits.

Bellamy Leading Softball Player

Tiny Bellamy, the ADP's argumentive catcher, made a clean sweep of first semester softball batting honors, according to the official averages released this week. Bellamy collected 11 hits in 17 trips to the plate for a .647 pace, tops among regulars in four or more games, and 11 points ahead of the Oly's Millard Reynolds.

The husky receiver blasted the most hits, 11, led in runs scored with 11 and ran away with the homerun crown by smashing out five round trippers, three more than his teammate, Dave Burkhart.

Bob Giles, LSP, and Kenny Hills, SLA, received the most walks with eight, closely followed by the SLA's Beukelman, and Powers, LSP, who had seven each. Hendrix, LSP centerfielder, was at bat the most, coming up 20 times officially, while Doug Alexander, ADP, and Don Farrand, SLA, gained the dubious honor of striking out the most as they each bit the dust four times.

SLA's Clinch Championship

In what was one of the best games of the season the SLA boys beat the LSP's 3-1 to clinch the first place notch. Johnny Cramer, on the mound for the SLA's, was never in serious trouble after the LSP's loaded the bases in the first inning. Paul Jensen got the best hit of the day, a triple, scoring one run. He later scored himself. Elmore Vail did a good job for the LSP's but errors made by the LSP's were one of the deciding factors of the game. Kenneth Potter played a bang-up game for the LSP's infield by making two nearly impossible catches.

SLA's Take Horseshoe

John Cramer of the SLA's took the honors in horseshoe. Defeating Millard Reynolds of the Olys, Cramer played Dale Swinney, LSP, who was winner over ADP Dutch Goehring. This leaves second place to the LSP's. There was no play-off for third and fourth places.

The newly elected officers of the freshman class are: President, Mickey Dean; vice president, Geraldine Wright; secretary-treasurer, Jo Ann Hutchison; H. R. representative, Junior Thompson.

The flag hunt which was held Thursday night was won by the freshman class for the second time in history.

A farewell party was held for Ernest Fisher Monday night at Blum's house.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wesche are the parents of a daughter born Sunday morning, October 10.

On the Sportside

By DELMAR BUEKELMAN

Here I am again and I'll get in a note to Elmore Vail, academy coach, to congratulate him. "Amazement" is too weak a word to express my feeling upon hearing of the way the Trojans rolled over their first football opponent. A 25-0 score over a team which went undefeated the year before is quite a feat for a new team. I think I'll have to go out to see their next game. Maybe a few of you can arrange it, too. The Trojans take on St. Teresa again this Friday, October 15. At time of writing I don't know where it will be played except that the game will take place in Nampa and the site will probably be settled by gametime.

Cheerleader election time is here and the polls will be open today. Let's all get out and vote. This may be the way to get the habit of casting your vote at every election. Just as an aside to the various teams, this method of voting lends itself admirably to electioneering. So, take President Truman's slogan, "Unless I get a big vote out, I'll never make it," and we'll really have the best team winning. I hope everyone will really think about the qualifications needed in a cheerleader and try to elect those persons who will do the job of coordinating spirit with the team's effort.

Basketball plans are going along nicely according to Coach Lee. The most interesting aspect concerns a proposed trip back to Whapeton, N. D., to play Whapeton School of Science and a game at Billings, Mont., against Rocky Mountain college. From first glance this trip isn't expected to add any victories to the Crusader record, but it will take a representative of the school to the farthest boundaries of the educational zone. It will also add to the prestige of the team since both schools are widely known in athletic circles. Lee also said that both the House of David and the Harlem Globetrotters have been contacted in regard to exhibition games. It looks like a good year from the athletic viewpoint.
