These Professors Will Be Leaving Us

We have heard considerable about the expected additions to the college faculty but we have heard very little about the losses which the college will receive in its faculty line-up. Leaving the college are: Professor Rycraft, typing teacher; Professor Ray, whom we all know from Old and New Testament; Professor Hughes, versatile music teacher; Dean Holmes of Morrison hall, and Dean Hart of Chapman hall.

Professor Rycraft plans on teaching at Nampa high school next year. She will teach commercial typing and shorthand. Professor Ray is forsaking the role of teacher for one of a student when he leaves the faculty to go to seminary in Kansas City. He says this of his stay here: "I consider this to have been the best four years of my life."

Professor Hughes says this of his stay at NNC: "I appreciated the fellowship of the school. The male chorus trip was the high spot of the school's activities for me. I pray that future achievements of the school may be even greater than they have been in the past."

Dean Holmes will accompany Mr. Holmes on a four-week vacation trip to California this summer. Then they plan to return so that Mr. Holmes can take up his duties as assistant pastor of College church.

Grades: When-Where

Present plans call for the distributing of grades on Wednesday afternoon, June 1, Professor Wilson, registrar, disclosed today. Those who receive mail in boxes will secure their cards there, and those that do not receive their mail at the college will call at the registrar's office.

Baccalaureate To Be Sunday Morn

Baccalaureate services this year will be held in Central auditorium at 10:30 a. m. It is requested that all students arrive by 10 a. m. so that marching arrangements may be made.

Professor Sharp, in charge of arrangements, said classes will march in in the following manner: College seniors, juniors, sophomores and freshmen will lead, with special students following. Then, in order, will be College high seniors, juniors, sophomores and freshmen. At the end of the line the grammar school will march in by their classes.

He said that for this service all students will march in by classes.

The downstairs auditorium is being reserved for students, while visitors will sit in the main section. Special guests and faculty members will sit on the platform.

Angel-Hawthorne Take Top Honors; Dayton 2nd

Ruth Angel

Fairy Hawthorne

Ruth Angel and Fairy Hawthorne, co-valedictorians, and Glen Dayton, salutatorian, are the honor students of the graduating class of '49. A teacher, a musician and a minister, respectively, they represent the well-rounded program at NNC.

Ruth Angel to Teach

When asked to comment on this high honor, Miss Angel said, "I'm thankful the Lord has been my helper all the way through, and I give him the glory." She will be teaching the first and second grades in the college grammar school next year. Although she majored in elementary education and will be teaching, Ruth says she is vitally interested in religious education. She has worked widely with children's groups.

Fairy Hawthorne to Use Talent

"Of course, I was happy when I heard about it," said Mrs. Hawthorne. "I believe that my four years here have benefitted me greatly and I shall never forget NNC." Fairy has majored in music theory. She will probably be directing a church choir and singing special numbers soon, for she and her husband have accepted a pastorate in Torrington, Wyoming, which is on the Rocky Mountain district. She has been prominent in the various music organizations on the campus, having been a member of the a cappella choir and NNC traveling quartet, philharmonic choir, orchestra and band, and Mu Upsilon Sigma. Last year she won the Bonnie Dean orchestra trophy. Fairy was a member of Zeta Kappa Rho and she won two scholarships her freshman and sophomore years.

Glen Dayton Will Take Church

Glen Dayton, salutatorian, said, when asked for a comment, "I was quite surprised, I suppose, but I owe it to the Lord and my wife." The Daytons are leaving soon as commencement is over for Lichfield, Nebraska, where they will pastor a church. A religion major, Glen has been active in church work and has held several revival meetings during his college years. In his junior year he taught the adult class in the Fairview Sunday school and he was NYPS president.

Class Day Chapel Service

As a beautiful climax to the senior activities of the past weeks, the Senior Class day chapel service will be held on Tuesday, May 31.

The seniors will march in during the processional, which will begin their final chapel program. During the program the class prophecy will be read; addresses will be given by the highest honor students, Ruth Angel, Fairy Hawthorne and Glen Dayton; the class will be given; the theme will be disclosed; and the college will be presented with the senior class gift.

Following the chapel service all students will march outside where the annual tree-planting service will be held. All students and visitors are urged to be present at this Senior Class day chapel service.

The Way 'Tis Done With Cap and Gown

An intercollegiate commission in 1895 drafted a uniform code for academic caps, gowns and hoods, which has been accepted by some 700 colleges and universities in the United States.

Types of Gowns

Three types of gowns and hoods are provided for bachelors, masters, and doctors, respectively. The square caps remain the same except that the doctors' may be of velvet and have a tassel of gold bullion. The bachelor's gown is made of black material and is distinguished by its pointed sleeves hanging loosely to the knees. The bachelor's gown indicates completion of a non-professional four-year college course.

The master's gown, made of black cotton or silk, has closed sleeves (the arm coming through a split at the elbow), which are square at the end and extend well below the knee. The master's degree is granted to holders of bachelor's degrees who have completed an additional year of graduate study and who have prepared a thesis upon some subject approved by the faculty.

The doctor's gown is made of silk and has bell-shaped sleeves closed at the wrist. It is faced with velvet and has three bars of velvet on each sleeve. The doctor's degree is bestowed upon those who have completed at least three years of graduate work and prepared a thesis that shows ability to do original work. This degree is sometimes given as an honorary degree in recognition of outstanding achievement.

Colors and Their Meaning

Colors in the hoods indicate the university and departments of learning. The common fields are: Art and letters _____ white

Elaine Carlson

Charles Ross

The annual commencement orchestra program will be Saturday evening, May 28, in the college chapel. Alline Swann, dean of the school of music, will direct the orchestra. The featured soloists for the program will be Elaine Carlson, pianist, and Charles Ross, baritone. Both soloists are faculty members of NNC's school of music.

Miss Carlson will be heard in the first movement of Beethoven's Concerto in E Flat Major. She holds A. B. and B. Mus. degrees from NNC. She has also attended College of Idaho and the University of Idaho, and has taught in Washington public schools. This is Miss Carlson's second time to appear as soloist with the college orchestra since she joined the NNC teaching staff in 1943.

Mr. Ross will sing the prologue from the opera "Pagliacci." He is known throughout the Boise valley as an outstanding soloist. He sang the Christus role in Bach's

"St. Matthew's Passion" this spring at BJC in Boise, and has appeared with both Nampa and Caldwell civic choruses as the baritone soloist. Before coming to the Northwest, Mr. Ross taught voice in California, and is listed in "Who's Who in Music in Southern California."

The orchestra will be heard in the "William Tell" overture by Rossini, and a fantasy for orchestra, "Salute to the Nations."

ANOTHER SCHOOL YEAR ENDS

Another school year is rapidly drawing to a close. It has been full of activities and events. Each student will carry away some few things which will be outstanding in the memory of the year. We take time to thank God for His goodness to us and the way that He has answered prayer throughout this school year. God has verified His promises, answered prayer, worked miracles and encouraged everyone who would depend upon Him.

The Administration wishes to express our appreciation to each and every student for the contributions he has made in making this year a success. The progress of the year has been made possible by the co-operative efforts of both the members of the faculty and the members of the student body. Especially we are grateful to the student council and the other major organizations of the campus for their wholesome contribution to another year of history in the annals of N. N. C.

Our theme chorus, "Victory in Jesus," has been sung time after time, both in public service and private meditation. We are thankful because the sentiment of this chorus has been carried out in daily living as well as in song. We urge that each and everyone set it as a goal for the summer and for life. Jesus is waiting to give victory to each and every one and the challenge of the Christian religion is for each one of us to take up our cross and follow Him to conquest and to victory.

LIFE'S MASTER PURPOSE

All people strive for something, some end or goal or purpose. However, there is a great lack of understanding of several important facts which pertain to purpose. It would be well, at the close of this school year, to examine some of them.

Many are there who are drifting from one thing to another, whose lives are confused by impulse and driven by cross-purposes—blindly groping or absent-mindedly flitting from one passing fancy to another. The world today is wracked by the pain which follows from this confusion of purpose.

Some, despite the confusion and chaos which they find about them, and within them, have been able to sift and select right purposes. They have discerned true value from false value. They seek goals which are just, pure, upright, and good. This presents a sign of hope on the world horizon.

A few, though,—God grant that there will be more—have sifted still more, and have found what the gospel writer called the "pearl of great price"—a supreme purpose. They have searched through the welter of confused purposes and the array of legitimate purposes until they have found one, all-important, guiding principle—a master-motive which makes life meaningful and gives it direction and drive.

This school year is gone. Some students, I am afraid, have not yet been able to escape the confines of confusion. Many have been led to see the need for true purposes and have selected them. Still more have been inspired to find the one all-important Master Purpose which has transformed their entire life. To this latter group I would like to say, "Stick to your Master Purpose." Stick to it with all that you have and are. Don't be side-tracked by anything which may come along. Keep your eye on the goal until the Master Himself says, "Well done."

After the death of Andrew Jackson, one of his friends inquired of one of his neighbors whether he thought Andrew Jackson made it through the pearly gates. The neighbor, who knew the general very well, replied, "I don't know, but he certainly did if he wanted to!" May we be characterized by the same determination which belonged to this great man. May we also remember, as someone else has said, to "Stand for something, lest we fall for anything."

Graduate Etiquette

1. Men remove their caps at the time of the invocation and leave them off until the ceremony of conferring of degrees.
2. Women wear their caps throughout the exercises.
3. Do not wear the cap tilted

at an extreme angle.

4. Black shoes are to be preferred with the gown.
5. During the conferring of the degree the men will don their caps and leave them on until the conclusion of the ceremony.
6. Do not wear any flowers or badges on the academic garb.
7. When the degree is conferred the candidate will extend his left hand to receive the diploma and will place the tassel on the left side of the cap with his right hand. It is suggested that the candidate look at the president when receiving the diploma, and that a smile is entirely in harmony with the occasion.

THE LOWDOWN

From THE EDITOR

Another year is over and now we are printing the last issue of Volume VIII of the N. N. C. Crusader. A lot has happened this year and it is with mixed feeling that we complete this job.

First, I would like to thank the staff for their wonderful co-operation this past year. Without the staff being on their toes it would be impossible to put out a paper. I hope that many members of the staff will return to the job next year for the next editor.

Our sponsors, Prof. Kauffman and Miss Lawrence, have been an asset and a help to the paper. They deserve the credit that they receive.

We must not forget our printers, the Gem State Printing Co. If you want an example of patience that has withstood the test visit them. They have gone out of their way to help us this year.

I have enjoyed the position of editor this year and I hope that the Crusader has been satisfactory. In the future, however, we are all looking for a better paper. It can only be so if the entire student body cooperates with the Crusader staff. I only hope that the paper has contributed to NNC, especially to the spiritual atmosphere. My hope and prayer is that God will be with NNC in the future as He has been in the past. The past four years have been a great blessing to me, and I want the school to continue to bless others as it has me.

LLOYD F. GEBHART.

General Missionary Society Memories

The General Missionary society services are now history, but a history which will not be forgotten for they in truth become a part of every individual who attends NNC.

Who will ever forget the messages of Fairy Chism, Helen Mooshian, Mrs. Smelzenbach, Mrs. Varro and others. Their messages have represented years of hard work, headache, sorrows, but also many joys, and have inspired all to greater service for the Master.

Some have received their call to the foreign field this year, and have been given an insight as to what their future work will be, through the messages of the veterans of the cross who have given of their life's blood to fulfill the command of Christ in the great commission.

Much credit is due to Alice Johnson, the program chairman of the General Missionary society, for the programs which she has arranged, with the co-operation of those who participated. Many lives have been enriched and blessed because of the part that the missionary program has played. The inspiration of these services will live on to bless others in the future.

May God bless the memory of many hallowed moments spent in the missionary services.

Future Teachers Of America Elect Officers

In a meeting held Wednesday, May 18, the FTA elected Carole-may Rapp, president; Lucy Sturtevant, vice president; Kenneth Montgomery, treasurer; Marjorie Walters, secretary, and Lois Ob-erg, assistant secretary. The sponsors are Dr. Culver, secondary education, and Miss Allison, elementary education.

FTA members and officers are anticipating a good, full, active year in '49-'50.

Speech Activities

All of the speech activities of Northwest Nazarene college are under the supervision of the Spencerian Speech club, whether it's intercollegiate or intramural. This year has been one of the biggest years that the club has had, with more contests and tournaments held than any previous year. Various types of special programs were also presented by the club.

Intramural Tournament

This year's intramural debate and declamation tournament had a turnout of 55 representatives from the four societies, with the SYA's taking first place. Divisions of the speech department represented were debate, extemporaneous, impromptu, oration, Shakespeare, humorous readings, and Bible reading. Any member of the school was allowed to turn out for as many of the divisions as he wished. Finals were run off with the winners being presented at a special chapel service.

Intercollegiate Contests

Intercollegiate debate teams traveled a total of 5000 miles this year to attend tournaments at Seattle, McMinnville, Pocatello, and Missoula. At the largest of the debate tournaments held at Linfield college, McMinnville, Ore., Pat Morris, Norma Kastella, Kenneth Sulston, George Evans, and Donald Farrand represented the college. Mr. Sulston tied for second place in one-made debate and won third place in men's extemporaneous speaking. Miss Morris and Miss Kastella won third in junior women's debate. Miss Kastella was also entered in the finals for after-dinner speaking.

Departments

Besides these contests and tournaments, the club also presented the Bible reading class in a chapel service at which they read the book of Job. Other sub-departments of the speech department are dramatic interpretation, which each semester presents the all-school play, having presented "Cecelia" first semester, and "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come" just last week; oral interpretation, radio speaking and private speech. These have all also presented special programs for the monthly Spencerian Speech club meetings, which are held on the first Tuesday of every month.

Next Year

Tom Kelly, this year's president of the club, says, "With a goal of 'double the turnout of this year,' the Spencerian Speech club looks forward to the future with Christ at the helm and a shipload of Christian students as the crew."

Bugle Notes

By RICHARD J. DICKSON

During the past year the Veterans for Christ have held many services, some of which will never be forgotten. The organization has sent out many new men to various places, and have found a welcome reception in many new fields of endeavor.

Our greatest regret is the fact that we are losing many of our staunchest workers through graduation. It is our prayer that they may find a place to labor in God's great vineyard.

Since its conception in the minds of a few veterans three years ago, the organization has been pushing the battle against evil, and with the close of another year, our earnest desire is to serve the cause of God with even greater vigor in the year to come. With all of the victories of the past now history, we pray that God will give us a vision of victories in the future. May our hearts continue to burn with Christian zeal and compassion for those who are lost. May the work be born up on wings of prayer to God from whence cometh our strength.

Nat'l Piano Guild Auditions Here

The National Piano Guild auditions will be held on the NNC campus May 26. This is the first year for the auditions to be brought to this campus. Every spring since 1929 the national piano playing auditions have been sponsored in organized centers from coast to coast for the purpose of stimulating a deeper interest in artistic piano playing.

The pupils entering these auditions are heard and rated by nationally known examiners, one examiner being sent to each audition center. Local newspapers cooperate in giving publicity to the auditions, thus stimulating the interest of parents and public as well as of teachers and pupils.

College High News

Principal to Leave

College high's principal, Professor D. G. Laughlin, is leaving us at the close of this semester. With the hustle and hum of commencement activities, Mr. Laughlin will take his summer vacation in California before resuming teaching.

Prof. declared that he hated to leave from the standpoint of some of the younger students and he expressed the regret that he is not able to spend more time with the students who want to go to school here. He wants to give more time to those who need it but he is simply too busy.

Mr. Laughlin will teach elementary education and straight psychology at Pasadena Nazarene college beginning at the fall term. He said that he will not have anything to do with the Pasadena high school. His duties will resemble those of Miss Allison of NNC.

Professor Laughlin stated that CHS should have more consideration but he is happy about the plan that the new principal has for the school.

Goodbye, "Prof" Laughlin; from the bottom of our hearts we wish you happiness!

Coach Elmore Vail has really meant a lot to College high in the years that he has been associated with the students.

Coach Lee said that Elmore was always easy to work with, punctual, and he never showed a temperamental attitude.

Dr. Culver said that Elmore exemplifies NNC's ideal, a Christian gentleman, a good athlete and a good student. Dr. Culver expects Elmore to be successful in his chosen career of teaching because it follows through that if you are a good student you will be successful in life.

With these few words, the students of College high wish to pay tribute to Coach Elmore Vail, a fine person.

Another high school teacher leaving our faculty is Professor Sharp. He isn't leaving the school entirely, for he says he is going to teach in the college entirely next year. See you around next year, "Prof."

APPRECIATION

I appreciate the co-operation given me by a number of the students when asked to help me with the College high news this year. Miss Wilson deserves a word of appreciation for her help through ideas and corrections.—Chester Wells, your high school editor.

Student Body Election

"I'm just wild about Harry," seemed to be the opinion of College high students last week when they went to the polls to elect next year's student body officers.

Harry Williamson, 16-year-old junior from Billings, Mont., was elected next year's student body president. Second in the presidential race was Kathern Mittleider.

Harry received all of his schooling in Billings. He played "B" squad football for one year and varsity football for one year. He was captain of an intramural basketball team. He says he enjoys the study of parliamentary procedure.

June Knapp was chosen by the students to fill the office of vice-president. June said, after the election was over, "Harry will make a good president and I'll back him to the best of my ability. June proved her leadership and ability by the excellent job of planning this year's junior-senior banquet. Don Thompson received the second highest vote for vice president.

In a close race for secretary, Naomi Duncan finally won out over Bonnie Painter.

"No opposition," is what Max Urwin might easily have said concerning the campaign for treasurer. Petitions were circulated for no one other than Max. He was chosen by the student council to fill the vacancy left when the former treasurer, Jay Dean, left CHS.

Trojan Parade

Pep Club Elects

In a recent meeting of the Pep club, new officers were elected for next year. They are: June Knapp, president; Bonnie Painter, vice president; Jo Ann Hutchison, secretary; Lorena Dillon, treasurer, and Betty Brown, program chairman. Good luck to these officers and the Pep club next year!

Last Signal Hour Tomorrow

The final Signal Hour service will be held tomorrow in room 6 in the H. S. building at 12:45. Prof. Sharp, Prof. Laughlin, and Elmore Vail will each give a short talk. There will also be special music. A warm welcome is extended to everyone—high school students, college students and faculty members.

Seniors Plan Chapel Program

Friday morning at 9:50, in the college chapel, the CHS seniors will present their program. The program will include the class will, the class prophecy in dramatized form, special music, and the valedictorian and salutatorian addresses. At the close of the program, the class gift to the school will be unveiled.

"Robinson Crusoe"

According to Prof. Hilliard, if all goes well, "Robinson Crusoe," a three-act comedy, will be presented in the NNC chapel Tuesday evening, May 31, at 8:30. Not much information has been released about the play except that "it is funny."

Margaret Crowe, Valedictorian

Betty Wood, Salutatorian

Chester Wells, Co-Salutatorian

The above students won high school honors and received the highest awards given, that of valedictorian and co-salutatorians.

Tub Thumping

By LILBURN WESCHE

With this column we conclude another year of happy and profound utterances. Next year, if this school is blessed by our return and if this paper again recognizes our talents this column will reappear to deaden the pages of the Crusader, 'cause the usual red penciling by the advisor, and aid in balding the editor even more than he already is, it'll be back again with all its customary brilliance and literary solecism.

However, we'll change the title because it seems that, despite our enlightening explanatory note of several issues ago, several erudite personalities have failed to comprehend the complete significance of the heading to this startlingly startling column.

A review of the sports scene of the past year and a preview of the one to come would go something like this:

In basketball, at least up until Christmas, the Crusaders looked mighty good. Next year, we hope our pre-Christmas sensations last 'til March. Personally, we think the will, especially if Bud Baska can recover completely from his knee injury and all the eligible lettermen return.

The crystal ball says baseball next season will last all year like the last three weeks. Despite the partial lack of equipment and facilities, we predict that LaMont will come up with a baseball team that will break even next year.

And against the stiff competition offered around here, a 50-50 season would rank us near the top, both in the valley and in the state. For example, C. of I., with several losses against them, is the best small college in the northwest, and we almost took them twice this year. Just wait 'll '50!

Now we come to track. The sport that made everybody happy except the opposition, because NNC was the undisputed champion of the valley and number three in the state behind Idaho U. and Idaho state, two schools with enough enrollment in each to make six or seven NNC's.

Cinder Men Capture Second, Behind ISC, At Invitational Meet

LaMont Lee's highly-rated Crusader thinclads closed out the most successful track season in the school's history last week as they placed second in the annual Idaho invitation meet at Caldwell.

Idaho State's powerful contingent rolled up 74 points to capture top honors while NNC gained 49 markers for the second place trophy.

Doug Powers led the Crusader attack by taking firsts in the 220 low hurdles and the broad jump. Carlyle Dean copped the shot put, and the mile relay crew of Sommerville, Hubbard, Farrand and Reynolds took first with a 3:37.7 time.

Second place ribbons were garnered by Lloyd Hubbard in the 440; Don Farrand, 120 high hurdles; Tiny Bellamy, 880; Millard Reynolds, 220; Paul Sutherland, 2-mile; Farrand, pole vault; and Jim Kenneda, shot put.

Placing third were Jack Jamison in the mile and 880, and Lloyd Hills in the pole vault. Fourth place spots went to Lauren Sanders in the mile, and Ken Sommerville in the 440.

NNC Closes Season At Eastern Oregon

Eastern Oregon plays host to the Crusaders Saturday in the final baseball tilt of the season for NNC. Millard Reynolds and Carlyle Dean will twirl for the Crusaders against Mandeville and Hungerford of the Mountaineers.

EOCE gained two victories over the Crusaders last month, when they squeezed out 6-5 and 3-2 decisions. However, since then NNC has found the victory wagon and may upset the LaGrande nine.

The Crusaders continued their surprising ways during the past two weeks as they took an 11-4 win over BJC then lost to the Broncos 18-6 and to C. of I. 11-7. Millard Reynolds tossed the orange and black to their triumph over the Broncos with a six-hitter. The Crusaders clubbed their old nemesis, Bill Mays, from the mound early in the fray and had little difficulty recording the win.

The Coyotes overcame an early deficit to trim the locals in Rodeo park last week.

Crusader Baseball, Track Teams Given Letters; Twenty-Six Athletes Honored

Letters in baseball and track were presented to 26 members of the track and baseball squads of NNC in chapel last week by Coach LaMont Lee.

Fifteen baseball letters were awarded to members of the diamond squad which Lee described as the most improved team he had coached. He lauded the play of the horsehide flingers asserting that if they improve as much next year as they have this season they will develop into a top-notch aggregation.

Fourteen cindermen, headed by Captain Jack Jamison, received awards. Lee praised the thinclads as the best track squad in the school's history, adding that there were no seniors on the squad, thus indicating an even better year in 1950.

Baseball letters were awarded to Captain Carl Bellamy, Carlyle Dean, Earl Barnum, Whitey Johnson, Woody Beukelman, Millard Reynolds, Loren Sanders, Jack Knighton, John Cramer, Hubert Hendrix, Ralph Unger, Bill Jeffries, Kenny Hills, Floyd Wright and Manager Glen Wardlow.

Track awards and the number of points gathered in meets this year went to Paul Sutherland with 20 points, Jack Jamison 27, Doug Powers, 46½, Don Farrand
