

Students Pledge $2400 for Missionary Projects in Puerto Rico and Africa

In a 12 minute period during a recent chapel program $2400. was pledged for missions by the leading of God and the following of the students of N.N.C.

The projects for the missionary offerings this year are radio evangelism for Puerto Rico and help in a medical course for Dr. Samuel Hynd in studying tropical diseases so that he will be able to serve in Africa.

This is the 7th project for missions at N.N.C. The first project was Little N.N.C. in British Honduras, the second was a missionary home in Peru, third was a house for Dr. Seaman in Africa, fourth was a church in Bombay, India, fifth was a co-educational school in India, and last year's project was a church on Brava, Cape Verde Islands.

Dr. Corlett Introduces Projects
Dr. Corlett was speaker for the chapel program and led many students in following God's direction for missionary pledges this year.

N.N.C. has a wonderful missionary heritage, Esther Carson Winans, Fairy Chism, Louise Robinson Chapman, the Beals, the Taylors, and the Fitz are a few of the former missionaries who received their training at N.N.C. Missionaries are still on the job, missionaries trained at N.N.C. and other Nazarene colleges, but not only the Nazarenes are on the job so are other Protestant churches. Field & Missionaries Represented
Nazarene missionaries from N.N.C. on the field at the present are:

Africa: Elizabeth Cole, Carl and Velma Miscne, Paul and Elmer Schmelzenbach, John and Marjorie Wise, Lorraine Schultz, Morris Chalfant, Leona Youngblood, Ivis Hooper, Kathryn Dion, Lauren Seaman, Robert and Lela Jackson. India: Weldon and Ethel Franklin, Geraldine Chappell, and Leslie Fritzman.

British Honduras: Harold and Glayds Hampton. Guatemala: Earl Knight. Cape Verde Islands: Earl Hunters. Bolivia: Roscoe and Tina and Gladys Mosteller. Argentina: Lester and Ventia Johnson.

At the time we went to press this was as many as we were able to find. There may be other fields represented.

ART CLUB PLANS

Guest speakers scheduled for the Art Club are Dr. Hannon of C. of I. and Dr. Murolo of Portland U., formerly from Italy. A Christmas exhibit is planned the first part of December in conjunction with the Home Economics Department.

The Art Club and Camera Club are one organization this year. Although they have the same objective, their interests vary so they have their own officers. June Tock is President of the Art Club; Dave Crapo, Treasurer; Rachel Cockerham, Program Chairman; Loren Wilson, Vice-President.

President of Camera Club is Loren Wilson; Secretary, Jim Galloway; Treasurer, Wendel Long; and Dark Room Manager, Richard Hoyle.

MUSIC CLUB ORGANIZES

Carol Sharp has been chosen Music Club President for the coming year, other officers are: Eunice Lintz, first vice president; second vice president, Deloris Bloomquist; Dorothy Davis, secretary; treasurer, Jim Carkhuff and Marilyn McGraw, press correspondent.

Christianity In Action

Fire! Fire! was the call heard over the campus last week, when the trailer belonging to Johnnie Pershall, his wife and small son, was completely destroyed. Johnnie had arisen early that morning to go duck hunting with some friends. Upon returning he found his home burned to the ground. His wife and child had escaped uninjured.

His only visible reaction to this tragedy was in his statement, "I'll have to go and withdraw from school and get a job." There wasn't a word said among the folks of the neighborhood. No one in particular started any drive, but before noon of the same day John and his wife had more clothing than they had had previous to the fire.

The men and women of Vet Ville converged on an empty trailer and proceeded to clean it and make it livable. Dishes, pots and pans, blankets, a radio and food were donated. When darkness fell Johnnie, Wilda and little Peter had moved into their new home.

The student body was very responsive in helping the Pershalls. In addition to $111.92 collected from the student body, various individuals have contributed money, for which Johnnie is indeed grateful. Those of us who heard his testimony of thanks in chapel last week know how grateful he is.

Who's Who

Miss Eunice Lintz was born on Armistice Day, at Regent, North Dakota. Her family later moved to Albion, Nebraska, where she attended High School. After graduation, she moved to Nampa, Idaho, where she now lives.

Eunice has been active in every phase of school life at N.N.C. She was elected by the student body as one of the N.N.C. students for Who's Who.

Being outstanding in music, she was alto solist for the Messiah during her Freshmen and Junior years. Last year Eunice won first place in the Intramural Music Contest and placed second in the State contest. In the speech tournament two years ago, she won first place in Humorous Reading. The Oasis and Crusader staff, Orchestra and band, and A Cappella choir have kept her busy in college. Having a high scholastic rating, she has been in the Zeta Kappa Rho honorary society four years. In leadership, Eunice also proves her ability. She has been debate manager for the Olympian society two years, and is now vice president of Mu Epsilon Sigma, and Student Body Secretary.

Miss Lintz is majoring in Voice and Theory, B. Mus., with a Minor in piano and organ. Her future plans are indefinite, but she will prove to be an asset to the community in which she works.

SLA - LSP Societies to Present Three Act Comedy Nov. 11; Merilu Anderson, Doug Powers Lead 'Apple Blossom Time'

Merilu Anderson and Doug Powers have the leads in "Apple Blossom Time," a three act comedy to be presented by the SLA and LSP societies next Friday, November 11. Merilu takes the part of Betty Ann Stewart and Doug, that of Bob Matthews.

Others in the cast include: Darlene Van Schaick, Nancy Prescott; Paul Swartz, Charlie Lawrence; Hubert Hendricks, Spud McClosky; Priscilla Montgomery, Malvina Kurtz; Richard Conklin, Mickey Maguire; Mary Stroud, Mrs. Forrest; Jim Carkuff, Cal Pickens; Virginia Shoemaker, Polly Biddle; and Norma Kastella as Annabel Spriggins.

Bob Matthew's first experience in a small town is one that he will never forget as he becomes involved with an eighteen year old girl and she rouses his ire to boiling point, and then laughs at his threats. Imagine his dismay when he finds that this is the girl over whom he is to act as guardian and who he thought was only ten years of age. The constable who courts the cook, and an old maid, Annabel Spriggins, furnish their share of laughs.

Directors of the play are Edith Herron and Meryle Burkhart, with SLA president Lloyd Hubbard, and LSP president Jim Wolstenholm assisting. Harry Williamson is the head of the properties committee; Jim Galloway, staging; Andy Warfield, makeup; Wendel Long, programs; Ralph Walter, lighting; and Quincey Angier, head usher.

NNC Student-Faculty Relationship Tops

No Holiness College campus is more fortunate in having such fine student-faculty relationship than N.N.C. It has always been the purpose of President Corlett to encourage student government.

This year cooperation between the two groups has been even more noticeable than before. The recent joint music program, with the Faculty portrayal of the Barber of Seville, is but a reminder that the members of the faculty are all-to-human.

Dr. Corlett's violin concerto, Dr. Culver as Mistress Conductor, and Rev. Johnson's general "letting his hair down" are still vivid scenes. Hats off to our faculty!

Doug Power's ability to be everywhere all the time has proven to be one of his outstanding assets. In two years that Doug has been a member of our student body, his citizenship and service has made his college career successful. He came to N.N.C. at the beginning of his sophomore year from Denver, Colorado.

Doug is a loyal and faithful member of the L.S.P.s. In his sophomore year he did a fine job of directing their athletics. He was captain of the society basketball team and led his team to winning the Mills-Cummingham cup. He takes an active part in the I.R.C. and his sincerity and excellence in scholarship has made him a member of the Zeta Kappa Rho. Doug has lettered in basketball and track. He now holds the office of president of the 'N' club.

After graduating from college, he plans to enter a medical school. Upon completion of medical school, he and his wife, Shirley, plan to become missionaries.

6 Attend Home Ec Conflab at Provo

Attending the annual Home Economics Convention at the University of Utah in Provo, Utah, October 28-29, were June Holly, Eloise Shute, Nelda Ramick, Beverly Kern, and Eleanor Brandt. Mrs. Fred accompanied them as faculty advisor. N.N.C. was one of seven colleges represented.

A home freezing demonstration, tour of the University Campus, a trip to a baby bonnet manufacturing company, lingerie factory and department store took place on Friday. In the department store was a showing of a college girl's wardrobe. Prices of material were compared with those of ready-made garments.

ALIBI-OGRAPHY FOR STUDENTS

What to say—

- When you are given an objective test: "It doesn't let you express yourself."
- When you are given an essay test: "It's so vague. You don't know what's expected."
- When you are given many minor tests: "Why not have a few big ones? This keeps you on edge all the time."
- When you are given a few major tests: "Too much depends on each one."
- When you are given no tests: "It's not fair. How can he possibly judge what we know?"
- When every part of the subject is taken up in class: "Oh, he just follows the book."
- When you are asked to study a part of the subject by yourself: "Why, we never even discussed it!"
- When the course is in lecture form: "We never get a chance to say anything!"
- When the course consists of informal lecture and discussions: "He just sits there. Who wants to hear the students? They don't know how to teach the course."
- When detailed material is presented: "What's the use? You forget it all after the exam anyway."
- When general principles are presented: "What did we learn? We know all that before we took the course."

Hadley Happenings

by Hadley Hattie
Dean Vi Leighton has been quite the clown this past week. The Halloween season must have an effect upon her. She delights in walking into various rooms grotesquely disguised, around 11 or 12 at night and scaring girls. But then, that's our Dean.

Lou Chavis gave a swell party for brother Don, Tuesday night of last week. It was held in the Chapman recreation room. The evening was spent in playing records, ping pong and making fudge. Various campus notables seen there were, Evelyn and Lois Herron, Quincey Angier, Don Fowler, Eunice Cowley, Butch Bloomquist, Dot Taylor and many others.

A couple of gals really got first rate service Sunday. Dinner being served by Wayne Johnson and Cliff Cowley is really a treat.

A swell time was had by a bunch of gals last Friday night when they helped celebrate Dorothy Bennett's birthday.

Beware of Nurse V. Watson! She's dangerous so I'm told. Just ask Red? ? ? She was seen one day with Darlene Johnson who had her torsel, metatorsel and phalanges emmersed in hot water!

Jen Shoemaker really has it tough. She's the only gal in the dorm that gets up at six each morning. Play practice at that hour is a tedious job, but Jen is one of those ambitious gals that doesn't let a little thing like that get her down.

Current Events

by Clarence Lefler

One of the main reasons for attending N. N. C. is that we, as students, might become well informed citizens with the ability to carry on successfully the tasks and duties required of us in every phase of modern life.

In order to fulfill this purpose, we realize that a study of books alone cannot accomplish it—we need to keep up to date with the news.

Because many students are too busy to read newspapers or listen to news on the radio, the Crusader is introducing this column of current events.

At present we are vitally concerned with the coal and steel strike. The importance of the former will make itself known to

Students Attend I. R. C. Convention

Four N.N.C. students; Arlene Swardstrom, Ralph Miller, Pete Burkhardt, and Gertrude Collins, with faculty sponsor, Olive Lawrence, motored to the University of Idaho at Moscow to attend a two-day convention of the Regional International Relations Club. The Carnegie Institute sponsored this conference and sent Louis Hill, national I. R. C. President, to the convention.

The presiding officer of the convention was Tom Rigby of the entertaining society. The plenary sessions were held to discuss problems common to all societies. It was suggested that sub-districts be made so that "natural" college teams (e.g., Boise Junior College, College of Idaho, and Northwest Nazarene College) could benefit by the closer union. News letters will be circulated monthly so each society may receive up-to-date news and suggestions from other local, regional, or national societies.

Five round-table groups were formed to discuss problems pertinent to contemporary foreign affairs: Indonesia, Military Assistance, The Devaluation of Currency, Economic and Technological Aid, and Western Integration.

The crowning feature of the convention was a speech by Dr. Meredith Wilson, of the University of Utah, on "With All and On Time."

Next year's convention will be held at College of Puget Sound, Tacoma.

There are no greater wretches in the world than many whom people in general take to be happy.—Seneca.

Isn't it the truth, "When two streams of least resistance get together it produces a river of least resistance." (Dr. Corlett) us if it continues and if the approaching winter forces us to burn sagebrush for fuel when the present supply of coal is used. The 40 day coal strike and 30 day steel strike have forced 4,000,000 workers from their work.

Our nation's plans for national defense is placing emphasis upon large air force bombers while the size of the navy is to be diminished. Because of his opposition to the plan, former chief of naval operations, Adm. Louis Denfield, was fired by Secretary Matthews.

Who's Who

On August 2, 1928, Miss Delores Bloomquist made her quiet entrance into the world. She was born in Fergus Falls, Minnesota, where she graduated from High School in 1946.

Deloris is a quiet, sincere girl who has been outstanding in her scholastic and extra-curricular activities while attending N.N.C. She was recently chosen by the student body of N.N.C. for Who's Who.

In 1948, Miss Bloomquist attended the Pacific Northwest College of Congress at Walla Walla, Washington. She has been in Philharmonic, is a member of Mu Epsilon Sigma, of which she is second vice president, serves on the Judicial Board, and is a member of Zeta Kappa Rho honorary society. She is vice president of the A.W.S. council, president of the Spencerian Speech Club, and vice president of the International Relations Club.

Deloris is majoring in Music theory with an A.B. degree. She has had a high scholastic rating all through college. When she graduates, Deloris plans to teach music. Judging from her years at N.N.C., she promises a future of usefulness to society and business.

Art Etchings

(by Zola Alyea)

"What you are to be, you are now becoming." This proverb is not necessarily true in Violet Zimmerman's case as she made low marks in grade school art, but she is now one of the most outstanding students in the Art Department.

She has previously taken fourteen hours of general art in Greenville, Illinois, her home town. She will have completed sixteen additional hours in her major field when this semester has terminated.

Her next project will be a large oil painting of Christ. Violet has completed several water-color pictures, one small oil painting, unique lettering which resembled peppermint candy sticks, and she is working on tiger book ends in Sculpturing class.

Violet plans to be an illustrator, though her secret ambition is to become a professional ball player.

Stude Administration Set Up by College Hi

The High School student council is setting up a student government administration to be used as soon as possible. Much is still to be done, however, but it's success is anticipated.

Prof. Hilliard is acting as advisor to the council and is coaching the student government plan.

Who's Who

Pete Burkhardt, a senior this year at N.N.C., has been with us four four years, off and on. After his freshman year, he joined the armed forces coming back later to finish his college career.

He has served as the freshman class vice-president, in society participation he has served as president, treasurer and chaplain of his favored A.D.P.s. He is also very active in the Philosophy Club, acting as program chairman, and he has been president of the Men's Club. Pete was an I.R.C. conference delegate this semester and an outpost pastor for the Christian Worker's Band, Crusade sports writer and editor, and Oasis business manager.

Pete and his wife Meryle are now living in Vetville. Previously, Pete hailed from Walla Walla, Washington. His plans for the future are to carry on the Lord's work as a missionary to Japan.

Have You Heard This One??

By Guest Writer, Mr. Johnson
A colored man, who had never owned much of this world's goods, was asked what he would do if someone would suddenly give him a million dollars. "If I had a million dollars," he replied, "I'd give my poor relatives $5,000, and spend the other $5,000. on myself."

A large new Cadillac sedan was followed through the congested traffic of New York by an antiquated Ford. The Cadillac stopped suddenly and the old Ford crashed into it. A policeman rushed over and asked the driver of the Ford his name and address. "Pat Murphy" was the reply. "Well, well, is it really?" said the officer. "Hold on a minute while I give the other fellow a ticket for backin' into ye."

A ministerial student (from N.N.C.?) was preaching out at the "Colony" recently. In the midst of his discourse one of the inmates stood to his feet and protested, "Do we have to listen to this fellow for a full hour?" Whereupon the Superintendent comforted the preached by saying, "Don't let this inmate discourage you. I assure you it'll not happen again for a long time for he has only one rational moment every seven years."

LaMont Lee was addressing his team preparatory to an important game.

"Now boys," he concluded, "remember that basketball develops individuality, initiative and leadership. Now get out on the floor and do exactly as I told you."

The minister, addressing a Sunday School class, had taken for his theme the story of Elisha on his journey to Bethel—how the youngsters had taunted the old prophet, and how they were punished when two bears came out of the wild and eat forty and two of them.

"And now, children," concluded the pastor, wishing to stress the moral point, "what does this story show?"

"It shows," ventured one little girl timidly, "how many children two bears can hold."

Is there a Watch Bird watching you? Just checking! Some of our unfortunate number seem to be troubled lately in that respect. Sounds like fun to me, but I guess there are Watch Birds and then there are Watch Birds! And then there are some of us who become so bewildered that "What Did I Do" keeps popping into our hearing aids.

Just a word of encouragement to some of our more intellectual. We want to congratulate Prof. Kirkpatrick. With all of her other duties, I hear she's taking on a professorship. We're convinced now that she's plenty terrific.

Betty Wright was going on a diet, but the fascination for milkshakes still prevails. Maybe that's because she has pull with the guy behind the counter. Anyway if you're looking for Betty, chances are she's in the Beanery.

While on the subject, I might as well tell you that if you're looking for Arnie Finkbeiner, he's probably in the library. They have three or four librarians, but only one with almond-shaped eyes. "That er quite a statement," said Daisy (Jerry) Leih as she got off the wagon from Dogpatch.

Oh, well, gotta go. I'm the "Bird" that watches the "Watch Bird," and she's leaving. Did I say she?

Much Ado About Mangum

By Marilyn Perkins

Ghosts, witches, and mysteries were found all along the course of Samaritan Hospital's Halloween party Saturday night which originated at Mangum Hall, continued to one of the local cemeteries and the mysteriously decorated old grammar school building, and concluded at the Morrison Dining Hall.

Jim Carkhuff, imported for the evening from N.N.C., supplied his share of the laughs, as did the victim of the Truth or Consequences Program, and Alice Supernois who played the title role in a skit entitled "Bluebeard." Refreshments were served not only to invited guests, but also to certain N.N.C. students who came in at the appropriate time.

Credit for the success of the party is given to Miss Frances Urschel, freshman class sponsor, Doris Jean Hahl, freshman class president, and to the various committee chairmen.

Congratulations are in order for Maureen McKay and Ercil Bowman, and for Delores Clocksene and Clifford Watt, who have received permission to be wed in December. (Incidentally your reporter was asked to mention the fact that there are still quite a few eligible nurses in case there are any fellows at N.N.C. brave enough to prove that nurses don't bite!)

Crusader Cagers Start Practices

Basketball drills for varsity cagers opened last Tuesday with calisthenics and conditioning exercises taking up most of the early sessions.

Present plans call for a full month of practice before the Crusaders will take the floor in their first tilt of the year, early in December.

Approximately 20 players were on hand for the first varsity turnout including nine lettermen, three of last year's junior varsity squad and several who were moved up from this year's jayvees who have been practicing for the last two weeks.

Despite the large number of veterans returning a wide open scrap is expected for four of the starting berths. Only John Cramer, the team's top scorer for the past three years with better than eleven hundred points, is assured of a starting berth.

The schedule which as yet is incomplete will probably include 25 games with at least 12 on the home court.

SPOUTIN' SPORTS

By Lilburn Wesche

Minor sports always have had a sad fate wherever they're played and NNC is no exception. Boys' tennis, a one week tourney, actually lasted a month while golf and girls' tennis, which should have been completed weeks ago are still struggling in the early rounds.

An attempt to remedy the situation will be made in the table tennis meet which will come up soon. All first round games will have to be finished by a certain day and all those not played off on time will be cancelled with an ensuing loss of participation points for both sides.

Maybe this sort of drastic action will wise up the lazy and indifferent segment of our student body, namely the six or seven guys who hold up the whole works by refusing to cooperate with the intramural program.

The rough and ready boys particularly Farrand and Kenneda can begin making plans for that annual battle of blood, the Turkey Bowl.

To all new students leave us place you in the proper mood for this fracas of murderous intent by telling you that you ain't never seen nothin like it.

Two choice elevens will beat each other all over the field with little of anything resulting except a few bloody noses and a lot of sore muscles.

Last year when the campus beef trust, namely Lee, Knighton and Hilliard joined in the melee the resemblance between the game and regular football was incidental, but this time we are guaranteed that both teams will have coaching staffs, fine players and a desire to win that will be second to none.

Latest word is that Samaritan is rushing their building program to completion in order to be ready for the expected rush on Thanksgiving day.

gistrar's Office for three years, she is now taking some post-graduate work in Art and Music. Dale is a sophomore majoring in religion.

Incomplete plans now call for the wedding to be sometime around the last of August. Our hearty congratulations to them.

Olympians Hold First Undefeated Mark

Football Standings Through Oct. 31

Oly	3	0
LSP	2	1
ADP	0	2
SLA	0	2

The Olympians held a shaky grip on the top spot in society football through games of last Monday with an undefeated record. The Olys bumped off the SLAs 13-6 in the season's opener, roared over the ADPs 37-6 and had all they could handle in squeezing past the LSPs 19-13 in one of the best games played here in years.

The LSPs, minus their ace passer, Dick Edwards led the winners 7-6 at the half and held a 13-13 tie with two minutes left but a desperation passing attack plus aid from the head linesman paid off for the league leaders. The Olys were weakened by the loss of Whitey Johnson who did not show up for the game.

The LSPs kept in the title race by taking narrow verdicts from the ADPs and SLAs. The former went down by a 7-6 margin and the SLAs were defeated in an overtime period after the regulation time ran out with the score knotted at 6-6.

Trojans Battle New Meadows This Afternoon In Home Opener

Tiny Bellamy's College High Trojans will be out to redeem themselves this afternoon when they tangle with a strong New Meadows six man club on the Public School field turf.

The Trojans after losing three straight, two by heartbreakingly close margins dusted off a fairly strong Cascade sextet 46-6 last week will be playing their first game of the season in home territory.

Although no definite lineup was available at press time Bellamy is expected to open with the same men who have started most of this year's contests.

Fullback will be Glenn Knapp dimunitive and elusive running star who has been the big gun in the Trojan offensive. Knapp also has completed 12 of his last 14 pass attempts and teams with quarterback Curt Beukelman in handling the passing assignments.

Main target of their tosses will be the right half back Dale Lilly and ends Harry Williamson and Ray Williams. Ira Stiles will probably handle the center spot.

Others who will definitely see action are Duane Volk, who replaces Stiles on defense, backs Bud Bold and Jim Gibson, and end Marion Day.

Close Race Foreseen In Girls' Volleyball

Girls' volleyball is scheduled to start off this year with the LSPs and Oly battling in the first game of the season. These two clubs rated third and fourth last year, have some good recruits who may boost them into championship contention with the SLAs and ADPs.

Jo Ann Sanders, Lois Williamson and Naomi Williamson are new additions who will add considerable strength to the ADP attack. The LSPs, loaded with returning talent from last spring, will have an all veteran squad to send into the race.

Who's Who

A significant event took place at Dickonson, North Dakota, on August 14, 1924, when Mr. Don Farrand was born. He attended High School there and graduated in 1942. In the summer of 1942, he moved to Seattle, Washington, which is his present home.

Don has proved his leadership and ability in college and is worthy of the honor of being elected to Who's Who. He is vice president of the Student Body this year, was Sergeant at Arms of the Student Body his Sophomore year, and was Junior Class president last year. Breaking records in track has been easy for Don. He holds track records for the college in high hurdles and pole vault, and has traveled with the college track team. Being an outstanding speaker, he is a member of the Spencerian Speech club, and went on several intercollegiate debate trips last year. Singing is a sort of a hobby for Don. He is in A Cappella choir, and last year traveled with the Christ's Ambassadors quartette. Intramural sports and speech have also played an important role in Don's activities.

Don is studying for the ministry and is taking a Th. B. along with the completion of his Philosophy Major A.B. He will go far in the service for God and man in his future work.

Schmier, Sturges Head New Science Org.

"Marshall Science Society," "Rice Science Club" and "Science For God" are among the tentative names for the new science organization on the campus this year.

Elmer Schmirer, the newly elected president, says there will be various projects throughout the year including a live animal study, a relief map, and other subjects of scientific nature.

Other officers are, Al Sturges, vice president; Cora Lunsford, secretary-treasurer; Ercil Bowman, program chairman; Dr. Aller and Professor Tillotson, sponsors.

ASB Prexies to Meet At Moscow in Dec.

A discussion of student organization and problems will be carried on at the conference of the Idaho Students Presidents Association. It will be held on the campus of the University of Idaho at Moscow on Dec. 3 and 4 or Dec. 9 and 10. N.N.C. was the host for last year.

"Contrary to the past, the organization will meet in the fall instead of the spring so the A.S.B. Presidents might be able to put into use those problems they have solved" said Fred Fowler.

Who's Who

At the beginning of the year the new students and freshmen were somewhat alarmed to hear it thundering in the halls of the Administration building. It wasn't thunder, but just Jim Wolstenholm singing to himself.

Jim was president of the LSP society in his sophomore year and is leading his society toward the top this semester as president for the second time. His loyalty and leadership enable him to make a success of filling the office of president of the Men's Club and twice president of the Foreign Missions Band in his junior year. He is also president of the senior class this year. Other activities which he actively engages in are a capella choir, men's quartet and the chapel choir.

Jim's home is in Whitter, California and he plans to enter the ministry after completing college. He is still uncertain as to who is going to cook the Sunday dinners, he can't.

BUSINESS CLUB ORGANIZES

Glen Hopkins, president of the Business Club announces the balance of his staff as Betty Thrush, vice president and program chairman; Betty Williams, secretary; Lila Bick, assistant secretary; Fred Rapp, treasurer.

According to the president there will be several films shown throughout the year on different kinds of business, and outside speakers featured periodically.

NEWS BRIEFS

Recently elected leaders of the Christian Workers Band are, Al Fisher, president; Wilbur Morgan, vice president; Jane Day, secretary; Weston Tucker, treasurer; Lois Williamson, program chairman.

Just a gentle reminder—how could we forget, but we might—nine weeks exams will be held November 7th to 10th.

Juniors Complete Election

Junior Class officers recently elected are Meryle Burkhardt, secretary; Wallace Rose, treasurer; Jean Kirkpatrick, program chairman; and Paul Gray, chaplain.

Mrs. Swann and Dr. Aller have been selected as class sponsors, and it has been proposed that the class keep the same sponsors for both junior and senior years. This will enable those sponsors who assist with the Junior-Senior Banquet in return to enjoy the Senior Sneak.

Societies Complete Elections

Lou Chavis and Don Fowler have been elected cheerleaders of the ADP society. Due to the resignation of Verle Fisher, Don Chavis was elected chaplain. Debate chairman for the society is Bob Burke.

The LSP's elected Richard Dickson as debate chairman and Jim Carkhuff as declamatory chairman.

George Evans was elected debate chairman and Norma Kastella, speech manager of the SLA society. Debate chairman of the Oly's is Eunice Lintz.

SPECIALS ELECT OFFICERS

Officers elected by the special students were: President, Wilbur Breshears; Vice President, Melvin Brower; Secretary and Treasurer, Alice Jesse; Student Council Representative, Mel Fisner; and Professor Hansen was elected class sponsor.

Dr. Corlett Announces Expansion Program; Change to Benefit Secretarial Dep't., Book Store and Registrar's Office

With the enlarging of the secretarial department this year Dr. Corlett announces the necessity of an expansion of the secretarial class rooms which will make it possible to enlarge the book store, and the Registrar's office.

Rooms 5 and 6 formerly used by the church for the nursery and Sunday School class rooms will be remodeled for department use. The typing department will be moved to room 6 and the shorthand classes will be moved to room 5. The hall will be walled off for use of the duplicating machines of the college. For convenience the door into room 7 will be changed.

Other proposed changes are the enlargement of the Registrar's office which will take in the old secretarial department and one of the former book store storage rooms. What is now the typing room will be a part of the book store when the expansion program is completed. The other book store storage room will be used for storage of the janitor's supplies.

This program of changes and expansion will be carried out by student labor.
