Dr. Lauren Seaman Brings Missionary Lectures Feb. 6-10; Graduate of NNC

Dr. Lauren Seaman, graduate of N.N.C. in 1931, will present the Mangum Missionary Lectures, February 6-10 inclusive. Dr. Seaman is a medical missionary from Africa who is home on furlough.

After graduating from N.N.C., Dr. Seaman took his graduate medical work at the University of Alberta in Edmonton, Canada.

During his furlough, Dr. Seaman is giving lectures at various places in the states. At present he is at the Nazarene Theological Seminary in Kansas City. While in Africa he was stationed at the Rawleigh Fitkin Memorial Hospital, located in Portugese. Dr. Seaman was at N.N.C. and N.N.A. for several years. While taking his college work he was a member of the A.D.P.'s, Christian Workers Band, a member of the college quartet for three years, president and vice president of Foreign Missions Band and took part in various other campus activities.

Miss Dooley still remembers him as the pupil who took two years of Latin in one summer.

He will speak at College Church Sunday evening, Feb. 5.

CHS New Students

Montana is a well represented state as there are two new students enrolling here from that state. Glen Lickie is from Buhl and Gordon Reed is from Livingston. Other new students are, Clair Stratton from Gooding, Idaho and Anna Knapp transferred from Central.

36 New and Returned Students Register for Second Semester

Approximately 36 new students have enrolled in school for this second semester. Some have been here previously and others are here for the first time.

The list is as follows: Ruth Olson, Benedicta Chopra, Olive Heron, Lela and Clarence Chittenden, Dale Du Vall, James Brown, Hisa Horiuchi, Lula Franklin, Marie and Margaret Pardo, Helen Hibbard, Gracie Powell, Lenora and Robert Albright, Ronald Weatherford, Alf Peterson, Margaret Crowe, Arthur Stott, Esther Horne, Mary Lindsley, Lee Puckett, Kenneth Reno, Gordon Pomfrey, Lorene Herrick, William Dikes, Ivan Janosky, Loveel Sanders, Tom Nyhus.

Sandy Foster, Juanita Moon, Don Crofford, Dave Burkhart, Chuck de la Bretonne and Karl and Hal Stewart.

Paul Matthen to be Presented F. 16-17

Paul Matthen, Bass-Baritone and a native of Pawlin, New York will be presented in a concert Thursday, February 16 in the chapel. Mr. Matthen studied vocal training under Frederick Schorr, baritone of the Metropolitan Opera, while carrying graduate courses at Columbia University. In addition to his choir work, Mr. Matthen was soloist at Radio City Music Hall from 1939 to 1941, and was for several years music consultant, conductor and lecturer for the International Business Machines School.

He will be singing various selections by Cavalli, Schutz, Handel, Bach, Brahme, Wolf, Faure, Chanler and Pinkham. He has recorded with Robert Shaw and the Collegiate Chorale the "B Minor Mass," the "Magnificat," and "Cantata No. 140" of Bach for RCA Victor. Other recordings have been made on Hargail Records. He has been heard frequently over national radio chains. For two years Mr. Matthen was a member of the music faculty of Bennington College. He now teaches at the Long School of Music, Cambridge, Mass.

Mr. Matthen and his accompanist Miss Mitrani, will arrive on our campus Thursday and will remain until Friday evening. While here, Mr. Matthen will take part in a chapel service, he will visit the a cappella choir and hold auditions on Friday afternoon. The bass-bariton will be in this section of Idaho for approximately a week. Monday, February 13, he will be singing at the College of Idaho and Wednesday, February 15, he will beat B.J.C.

The lovely bouquet of flowers sent me by the Student Body during my brief "vacation" in the hospital was very much appreciated.

Thank you.

ADPs Squeeze SLAs Out of Permanent Possession of Cup by 390 Points

Capturing the Faculty Loving Cup with a total of 3403 points, the A.D.P.'s have done it again. The S.L.A.'s who would have had a permanent cup if they had won for the third semester consecutively, came in second with 3087 points. The Oly's, with 2836 points, were third and the L.S.P.'s brought up the rear with 2760 points.

College Church Reviews - Plans

Members of College Church have completed all the work on the ground floor of the church except for the plastering. This will probably be done next June at the close of second semester, according to Rev. Riley, college pastor.

Sunday school classes, including primary, junior, intermediate, high school classes, have started meeting in their respective classrooms located on the ground floor of the church.

The college recently launched a $50,000 student loan campaign in a service held in College Church the evening of January 22. The male chorus presented a concert and Dr. Corlett presented the need for a student loan fund. He secured pledges amounting to $3600 from the College Church congregation. During the month of February, Dr. Corlett and Mr. L. Wesley Johnson will contact the churches on the Idaho-Oregon district to obtain pledges for the loan fund.

Dr. J. Glenn Gould, college pastor of ENC, will hold the spring revival of college church, March 5-12.

The athletic points when broken down show that the Oly's won 1500 points, the A.D.P.'s, 1375 points, the L.S.P.'s with 1175 points and the S.L.A.'s trailed with 1075 points.

One thousand points added to the literary point totals of the S.L.A. and L.S.P. societies when their play "Apple Blossom Time" took first place. The A.D.P.'s brought their total up by winning both the Janboree and the Closed Nights events. The final number of literary points stacked up was: A.D.P.'s, 2028 points; S.L.A.'s, 2012 points; the L.S.P.'s, 1595 points and the Oly's, 1336 points.

Jack Knighton, president of the winning society, carried a full time load as prexy of the society and filling in as program chairman. Other A.D.P. officers are, athletic directors, Mary Alyce Miller and Ralph Unger; vice president, Lauren Sanders; secretary, June Nakada; treasurer, Paul Mitchell and Vearl Fisher, chaplain.

ONC Accepts NNC SS Challenge

Olivet Nazarene College Sunday School has accepted the challenge of College Church Sunday School to an attendance contest to be held February 5 to April 16, ten Sundays not counting Easter.

Four years ago Rev. Riley, pastor of College Church, feeling that the Sunday school needed a little bit of competition for its fast growing school, challenged O.N.C. Sunday school to a ten week contest. That first year, and also the preceding year, N.N.C. walked away with the honors. But the third year things turned out somewhat different by O.N.C. with a tremendous rally toward the close of the contest, walked away with the prize.

Christian Work Not at End in Red China, Says Representative

"Christian work in Red China has not come to an end," Rev. Moe, returned missionary from China assured the students at a recent FMB rally.

Having been in China since 1904 as a missionary, Rev. Moe is well-qualified to speak on the situation there. He represents the National Holiness Mission in Shando province.

He went on to tell those who had gathered to listen to him of some of the atrocities that the Reds perpetrated on the Christian Chinese. One instance was the crucifying of three Chinese pastors on crosses. Because the crosses weren't stood on end the men were able to testify for God the day and a half that they were conscious.

In addition to Rev. Moe the rest of the group traveling for the N.H.M. spoke and showed pictures. Miss Morgan presented slides on their South India Bible Institute. Also pictures of Honduras were shown with shots of their airplane and "Sky Pilot."

Mr. E. J. Harper, Sunday school superintendent, says that "Our motto for this year is 'Let's Get a Head Start on Olivet.'" Mr. Felton, supervisor of the college department, when asked his reaction said, "We made it two out of three, and with the cooperation of everyone in the college department, we'll make it three out of four."

Our pastor, "When the Riley and Kelly Irish ire gets aroused—watch out Olivet." They all say that they want YOU, one and all, old and new, to attend College Church Sunday school this Sunday and every Sunday. Departmental quotas are: Nursery, 15; Beginner-Primary, 95; Junior, 45; Intermediates, 35; High School, 80; College, 225; and Adult, 325.

Highest attendance last year was 1,047, which broke all previous existing records. Average attendance during the contest was 819.

Congratulations are in order for Berniece Bates, Lois Bradley, Willadean Dennis, Corrine Garvin, and Juanita Moon, who celebrated their finishing day Monday. Wearing their graduate uniforms, and pins, these lucky seniors worked the last eight hours which ended their 1095 days of training.

With thoughts of taking the National Board tests in March and coming back for their official graduation with the College in June, the "grads" are now off "to seek their fortunes."

Members of the Go-Ye Band, a group made up of student nurses called to the mission field, were hostesses at a party given recently honoring the five graduates. A large number of returned missionaries were present and took part in the program.

Various other activities have centered around the finishing seniors, including a little one-session course given by certain freshmen on the subject of Modern Methods of Interior Decoration, (known in other circles as room-stacking.) The hand of justice fell heavily upon the freshmen who found themselves being dragged downstairs and out into the snow in their P. J.'s later that evening.

Here I sit, all curled up in my beanry booth. Boy, it's cold this morning. Certainly doesn't take long for classes to get underway. I thought in those couple days before second semester I could get rested up. Cliff Cowley just came in. What some guys won't do for food! Get up at seven every morning! Did you hear how he almost flubbed his dub the other night? He came over to Morrison and asked Miss Wilson to ring for Faye. Miss Wilson informed him that it wasn't Faye—but Faye Strunk.

Jim Wolstenholm has finally decided on his degree. It's a V.B. degree. Good luck, Jim. You'll need it! The luck, I mean.

Nothing like a blond to catch the eye, especially when you're seeing double. Haven't had time to find out their names yet. Guess I'll have to ask Jack Burke and Chuck Stewart. I hear they know.

Here comes Whitey Bullock. He really looks cold. Guess I'll move over and give him a seat. Guess I won't either. He has just plopped himself down beside Jeanie Kirkpatrick.

I'm leaving. Nothing happens this early in the morning. Don't worry. I'll be around all day waiting for you to pull a boner!

The Outcast Kittens

Then, just as the solemn witches rode stealthily and silently past Farmer Skinflint's pumpkin patch, the entire cat congregation arched their backs, stiffened their tails, widened their greenish eyes, curled their whiskers, and lifted their yowls in a chorus of shrieks and meowed dismissals.

Now, when one say "dismissal" one only means "dismissal" from the meeting, because it was really a commencement of a night of activity and scares.

Squeegee meowed at Ghosty to hurry up and follow because they must make haste if they were to get all their work done that night, especially since Ghosty would be hindering Squeegee at every step. Their first assignment was at a pumpkin patch 'way over on the other side of town. That, in itself was bad enough, and then too, Ghosty started to work right away on poor lil' Squeegee got lost twice as long to cover the distance as he should have taken. Finally they made it to the pumpkin patch and Squeegee started to paint faces on all the pumpkins, only to be directly followed by Ghosty who removed the paint. of course Squeegee didn't notice this until he had it all finished, so he had to repeat the entire process, this time being careful to cut the face out. Now there appeared a whole field of jack-o-lanterns — some grinning, some scowling, some frowning, and some laughing.

When Squeegee saw this he let out the most awful yowl of terror that he had ever let loose before, but really underneath the shock, he was quite proud of himself because it really had more of an "effect" this way than with the faces just painted on. Thus

At about midnight when you feel like throwing a big party, the word "dean" brings fear to your carefree hearts.

The deans of our dormitories are only human and can not spy on all the parties at once; therefore, they have to have a "side kick" or two. As the boys at Chapman Hall well know, Jim Wolstenholm and Dan Jackson work hand and hand with Dean Taylor. At Morrison, Mary Alice Miller and Dean Wilson work together bravely. Vi Leighton and Jean Mogensen keep watch over Hadley Hall.

These four pals of the deans come in handy when we have a 7:55 class or one of those murdering tests next morning. They lose sleep and work hard to keep the peace, but no one ever gives them a word of thanks for their efforts.

Mountaineers, Crusaders Clash Feb. 3 & 4

Merriman, Green Pace Oregonians, Iles, Unger to Lead NNC Attack

Eastern Oregon College of Education invades the local hardwood tonight for the first of a two game series with the Crusaders. The Mountaineers split in a pair of tilts at LaGrande last week and for both quintets this week-end's series will be the chance to take three victories over the other.

At LaGrande the Crusaders chalked up a 73-61 triumph in the first tussle only to succumb before the Oregonians 61-48 in the second tilt. Little Bobby Green, a speedy guard, led the Mountaineer attack in those two tilts with 16 and 12 points. Merriman with 14 and 10 points in the two games trailed him in the scoring column.

For the Crusaders Cramer with 15 and 12 tallies and Iles with 14 and 8 markers were the top point getters. The orange and black cagers lost the second game in the opening minutes when they could connect on only 4 of 27 shot attempts while Eastern Oregon was hitting from all angles to build up an insurmountable lead.

The visitors use a fast breaking offensive and when slowed down go into a three man weave in front of the double post, making most of their buckets off the weave on quick set shots. Merriman and Green both fast and tricky dribblers and dead shots lead the Mountaineer attack.

For the Crusaders, still minus the services of regulars John Cramer and Whitey Johnson, the same starting array of the North

Track Candidates Answer First Call

Twenty-four hopefuls answered the first call for track candidates last week in Chapman recreation hall. Among the returnees were several standouts from last year's brilliant club which swept through all opposition in this area.

They included Doug Powers, hurdler and dash-man and winner of the low hurdles in last spring's Idaho State invitational meet, Don Farrand, pole vaulter and high hurdles star, Paul Sutherland, Lloyd Hubbard, Jack Jamison and Maurice Palmquist, all distance men, as well as several other lettermen and promising freshman prospects.

Idaho games will probably take the floor, with Beukleman and Reynolds leading the fast break and Unger and Iles setting up the front court set offensives.

Probable starting lineups:

NNC	EOCE
77 Reynolds	F 5 Lilly
33 Beukleman	F 11 Irons
78 Iles	C 14 Saling
44 Jamison	G 4 Merriman
22 Unger	G 7 B. Green

Jayvees Drop Three To Lose City Title

NNC's junior varsity dropped out of the running for the city league title this week by losing three straight games. The jayvees dropped a close 42-37 decision to Cook's and took a 79-39 lacing at the hands of Thompson's Richfields. In a preliminary to the NICE tilt Montgomery Ward trimmed the jayvees 46-39.

Loyd Hills was the only member of the club who could connect against Wards as he hit for 16 points to take scoring honors. Hendrix with eight and Olson with seven were next in line. Moore bucketed 16 markers and Robb 15 to pace the winners.

Hopkins led Tommy's to their overwhelming victory with 23 points. Bruner hit for 14 for the winners. Bullock with 14 and Hills with 11 topped the losers.

Secretary: "What is your ambition?"

Wise Freshman: "To be a senior."

Loggers Hard-Pressed to Stop Locals, Reynolds, Unger, Iles, Hubbard Star

Northern Idaho's big, smooth-working Loggers dropped NNC's Crusaders twice this week but not before the orange and black had given the visiting northerners a pair of rough battles in losing by scores of 51-46 and 73-66.

In the first tilt the Crusaders moved ahead late in the first half as Reynolds set the scoring pace and held a 23-17 halftime advantage. NNC hung grimly to this margin until the fading moments of play when the Loggers surged into a narrow lead. A pair of quick buckets in the final minute by the Loggers gave them their final advantage.

M. Reynolds

Iles with 13 and Reynolds with 11 points led scorers for NNC. Hilding had 16 for Lewiston. Iles, besides leading in the Crusaders scoring, also turned in a great game on the backboard and on defense holding the Lewiston star center, Rolie McNair, to one field goal.

In the second battle it was little Ralph Unger, Iles, Reynolds and Lloyd Hubbard, an underrated third stringer, who set the pace in a second half rally that almost caught up with the visitors.

Northern Idaho ran up a huge 38-21 margin at halftime as the Crusaders could connect on only five of 31 shot attempts, but with Hubbard and Iles controlling the backboards and Unger and Reynolds playing a sensational floor game the Nampans crept to within six points of the northerners only to have time thwart their scoring drive.

Unger with 16 points, Hubbard with 14, Iles with 11 and Reynolds with 10 paced NNC. McNair was practically the whole show for Lewiston with 32 points. Fike seconded him with 18 tallies.

Eastern Oregon split a pair with the Crusaders losing the first 73-16 and winning the second 61-48. Unger led NNC in the opener with 15 tallies closely followed by Beukelman and Iles with 14 each and Cramer with 12. Green with 16 and Merriman with 14 led EOCE.

Help, Inspiration Received, Prayer and Fasting Service

Doug Powers, at a recent meeting of the prayer and fasting group, asked this group for their opinions concerning the Thursday prayer and fasting service. The following remarks are some of those submitted.

"Prayer and fasting is the time taken out by the Christians to fellowship together. By Thursday, life can become so full of activity, and here we may pause for an hour to rest and talk with the Lord. This is a definite aid to our spiritual growth. We share burdens, which make them seem lighter, and we share victories. We see how wonderfully the Lord works and what he has in store for us."

"By attending prayer and fasting, we acquire the habit of weekly setting aside a period of fasting and prayer, which should be a rule to be carried through our life.

"The testimonies are a blessing and help—we learn by listening.

"To me, prayer and fasting has been a great blessing—a time when we can feel a nearness to God—a place where we can come and make our wants and wishes known to God. Where more are gathered together in one place, God seems to shower his blessing down upon us. It is a great inspiration."

Registration Well Organized States Miss Davis; Names Help

"Registration this semester has been well-organized with a group of efficient girls as helpers." said Miss Wanda Davis. Professor Wilson is the college Registrar and Miss Davis is Assistant Registrar.

Girls who helped were: Alice Jessee, June Nakada, Joyce Wright, Lois Rachel, and Esther Cockerham, Betty Williams, Marjory Walter, Nellie Snyder, Jane Day, Virginia Poplin, Virginia Blevins, Daphne Wells, Betty Thrush, Jeanne Conrey, Dorothy Shafer, Connie Jo Nelson, Pauline Reinhart, Joyce Harris, Betty Erwin, Bonnie Wagner, and June Tock.

College High Enrolment

Registration in the fall of 1949 was 90 on the first day compared to 89 on the first day of the second semester. There was a total of 99 students the first semester.

Prof Felter says "The indication of the second semester registration will be a little below the first semester's. We could probably handle 20 more students without additional teachers."

PEP CLUB

College High School's pep club is earning points toward their emblems. They gain their points by attending games, wearing their white sweaters, and sitting in the Pep Club section. To receive an emblem they must have a total of 25 points.

Queen Naomi Rules Court

In the college gym on January 24, 1950, Naomi Duncan, escorted by Clair Stratton, was crowned Homecoming Queen by Darrell Griffith. Other candidates were Princess Jenny Frazer escorted by Arnold VanHees and Princess Neva Thompson escorted by Arthur Mittleider.

Pep Club girls acted as honor guards formed a double line as the girls and their escorts walked through.

Procession was led by Crown-bearers, Nancy Knighton and Stephen Fowler. June Knapp presented Queen Naomi with a bouquet, Gladys Fred and Naomi Volk pinned corsages on the princesses.

When asked what he had in his registration envelope, "Junior" House replied, "There's everything here except my birth certificate and I left it at home."

Secretary I: "The sectioning secretaries haven't o. k'd your schedule."

Intelligent Senior: "Sectioning secretaries? I thought that's where I was now."

NEWS BRIEFS

We're glad to welcome Olive Herron back to the college Book Store: When asked her reaction she said, "It feels nice to be back."

Mr. Johnson will leave Saturday and be gone two Sundays on a business trip for the college. He will hold services in Eastern Idaho, Ogden, Salt Lake, and Pasadena, California.

In addition to the professors names mentioned in the last paper, Miss Ivalee Bolerjack is also listed as a member of Whos Who in the West.

President of Northwest Nazarene College, Dr. Corlett, has received honors as a member of the International Whos Who, Whos Who in Idaho, Whos Who in the United States, and Whos Who in Education.

Dean Galloway, business manager of the Crusader, has resigned his position and Delmer Cook will take his place for the second semester. We wish to express our appreciation for the fine job that Dean has done.

Blonde Pardo Twins Grace NNC Campus

"The friendly atmosphere around N.N.C. is wonderful," so state Margaret and Marie Pardo; identical blonde twins from Salem, Oregon. The girls are enrolled as freshman and are roommates at Hadley.

Although the girls seem identical they say there is a slight difference in appearance. Marie is the oldest, by one hour and six minutes. She likes to play the violin. Margaret is about one-half inch shorter and likes to draw. Both girls are interested in sports.

They graduated from a Christian high school and have planned to attend N.N.C. for years.

Hisa Horiuchi Returns To Home Ec Club

Activities planned for the coming semester of the Home Economics Club will consist of demonstration on cooking ware, tea for the high school home ec club, candy and cookies being sold in the dorms, and the annual Senior Banquet for the home ec majors.

The club welcomes back Hisa Horiuchi who will work with Grace Ellis on the future programs.

"NATURE"
Oh, vast and wide, the hill and plain,
A fleeting glimpse of God's domain,
Enriched with gold, and fields of corn
As if the sun from heaven were torn.

And as the sky reflects its lace
Of silver on the river's face—
Ah, Look! the lace hath given way,
And ruffles like the wave at bay.

The stately trees aspiring high,
Might even touch the heav'nly sky,
And full of love and beauty still,
They sway to me from yonder hill.

"WILD ROSE"
Once, early in the morning,
While the ferns slept 'neath my feet,
And lofty pines stretched stately boughs—
Tall guardians of the wood,
A gentle maiden by the path,
In milk-white linen stood,
And offered me her only pearl—
Oh, wild rose, simple, sweet!

Nelson Donates Gift

Harlan Nelson Sporting Goods Store of Boise, who furnishes sweaters and emblems for the sports department, recently sent a $25 check to Monty Lee. Attached to the check was the following note, "This check is to be used for the Lord's work as you see fit."

Rose Plans Activities For Timothy Club

Wally Rose, president of the Timothy Club, plans a program for the second semester to give preacher-to-be something extra which they would not get in class. A banquet in the spring is also anticipated.

Development of Social Efficiency, FTA Aim

"The development of social efficiency, which every teacher needs, will be the aim of the Future Teachers of America for the second semester," states Pat Adamson, program chairman.

The club plans to do this through its contact with the National Educational Association with which it is affiliated. Several special guests will be engaged to speak on pertinent subjects.

INITIATION ON AGENDA

N-Club initiation is on the agenda for all new lettermen this semester. The date and plans will be arranged at the coming meeting.

President Doug Powers also says the tennis courts, for which the N-Club furnishes donated labor, will be a project for the later months.

Art Club Planning To 'Broaden Scope'

"The main objective of the Art Club for the second semester will be to broaden the scope of each art student," said Rachael Cockerham, program chairman for the Art Club.

They plan on doing this by having visiting artists speak and by showing movies on sculpturing, water colors, oil paintings, and art history.

SOS PLANS EXHIBITION

Sons of Sampson tentatively plan to split the club into different groups, each group according to its own interests, tumbling, wrestling, boxing.

Art Sullivan, leader of the club, says that they propose to present an exhibition later in the year.

M.S.S. PLANS PROJECTS

"Open house is the climax of this semester plans for the Marshall Science Society," states Elmer Schmerier, president. The organization is planning a display of projects and experiments to be worked on throughout the year.

Improves Kitchen

Chef La Ferney recently told this newspaper that improvements have been made in the kitchen. A "Comeback table" has been added, and new trays for the dishwashing machine have been ordered.
