Apr. 23 Designated Educational Sunday

"April 23 has been designated as Educational Sunday throughout the Church of the Nazarene," Dr. Corlett recently announced.

This is the day for a united program by all the churches in the denomination in which Christians are asked to help young people see the value and benefits of attending a Christian college and having a Christian education.

In his letter to the pastors on the educational zone, Dr. Corlett states that, "Throughout her history, Northwest Nazarene College has endeavored to carry out the two-fold purpose for which the college was established; namely to train young people for special Christian service and to provide an educational center where young people may have a spiritual atmosphere while pursuing a formal education."

Swann Directs Faculty Orchestra; Dr. Corlett Stars On Double Bass

Dr. Corlett and his double bass proved to be very interesting as well as entertaining in the faculty orchestra program presented the past two Sunday mornings for opening exercises in Sunday School.

Other members on the staff participating in the orchestra were Ruth Long, Naomi Bolerjack and Ruth Angel, violin; Charlotte Edgar and Prof. Kauffman, viola; Dr. Aller and Mrs. Kauffman, cello; Miss Mac Pherson, trumpet; Miss Wilkes oboe; Miss Meckling, clarinet; Double E. Hill, bells and piano; and Prof. Taylor, soloist. Mrs. Aline Swann directed the group.

The program proved to be very entertaining to all those that attended opening exercises and many students made the comment that they would like to hear the staff members play again.

Following a meeting of the registration and scholarship committee, these recommendations were presented at the last faculty meeting:

"That there be no officially scheduled final examinations, but that (1) all instructors give at least one, one-hour exam during the final week of the semester, and (2) that no classes be dismissed during the final week."

When this recommendation was presented to the faculty it met with their approval and goes into effect immediately.

'CONQUEST' TO REPRINT ARTICLE BY REV. RILEY

A letter was received at this desk recently from J. Fred Parker, editor of the Conquest, the Nazarene Young People's Journal. In it he stated that he would like to reprint in the Conquest, the article, "So You Have Been at the Altar," written by Rev. Riley. This article was printed in the March 17th edition of the Crusader.

It is close observation of little things which is the secret of success.—S. Smiles.

DEANS CULVER, WILSON GUESTS OF UNI. WOMEN

Dr. Culver and Miss Wilson were guests of the State Association of University Women's State Convention held at Caldwell Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

Main speakers were Mrs. Eric Johnston, wife of Eric Johnston, former president of the American Chamber of Commerce and now president of the American Motion Picture Industry, and Dr. Phoebe Morrison, the association's Secretary of International Relations at Washington, D. C. She is an attorney-at-law, having graduated from Vassar and Yale. For a time she served as Professor of Law at Yale.

In your opinion what qualifications should a student body president at NNC have?

Ralph Watter: "The student body president should be a Christian and a worker for the church. He should be a good public speaker and should have held other offices in this field so that he is trained. He should be a friend to all students and have ideas for improvement for the school."

Deanie Wood: "He should be very spiritual with a settled and progressive personality."

Jean Williamson: "He should be spiritually established with a pleasing personality."

Cliff Cowley: "Above all he must have enthusiasm, a Christian character and poise."

Petey Montgomery: "He must be sincere and an all around good Joe!"

Grace Ellis: "He must have a pleasing personality, be a good leader with Christian ideals."

Duane Poplin: "He must have character, leadership, personality, and a sense of humor. He should keep in contact with the students as to know what's going on."

Lois Herron: "Must be sincere, have a sense of humor and be an excellent speaker. He should be well liked by the students and have high standards and ideals."

Darlene Johnson: "He must be aggressive, have qualities of leadership, and above all a good Christian. Also a pleasing personality."

Pauline Reinhart: "He must live a well balanced Christian life, and he must have the ability to get along with people. He should be able to easily express himself in public, using correct English."

Lilburn Wesche: "He should be someone who is willing to devote full time to the terrific task which lies before him, who is a loyal member of the school, someone who eats Wheaties and brushes his teeth twice a day."

Ken Nybaaken: "Leadership, a good spiritual experience and a good personality."

Carol Sharp: "A very spiritual

"Pay-off Day" for Chapman Hall Chapel has been set for Sunday, April 30. Following dinner, residents of Chapman and friends will proceed from the dining hall to Chapman and deposit their contributions to the chapel as they march by. HELP WANTED!

"Ideas are badly needed for one bang-up! super-duper! humdinger! of a party to end the year's activities of the Men's club. Any brainy individuals with any brainy ideas, please see me," begs Arnie Zimbleman.

Answer to Guess Who—Miss Eunice MacPherson.

The School of Music of NNC will be host to a Piano Guild Festival here April 28, 29 and May 1. Every spring since 1929 the National Piano Playing Auditions have been sponsored in organized centers from coast to coast for the purpose of stimulating a deeper interest in artistic piano playing.

The pupils entering these auditions are heard and rated by nationally known examiners, one examiner being sent to each audition center. This is the second guild festival to be held on the NNC campus.

The auditions are conducted privately in the chapel on the order of conservatory tests and examinations. Teachers who will have students participating include: Aline Swann, Fern Davidson, Elaine Carlson, Charlotte Edgar, Lucille Wilson, Mike Packard, Myrtle Zarbinsky, Barbara White, and Nate Wilson.

ADOPT RULING

As a result of the last faculty meeting a recommendation which had been presented by the Registration and Scholarship committee was approved.

It states: "That the faculty of N. N. C. discontinue the graduation of seniors, for degrees or certificates, who have not met all requirements in full. Graduation shall be interpreted to include: (1) Name on the official list of graduates; (2) Participation in Investiture, Baccalaureate, and Commencement Exercise activities."

This rule shall become effective with the classes of 1951.

THANK YOU

I want to take this opportunity to thank the student body for the lovely flowers I received while I was in the hospital.

ARE YOU A CANDY CUTIE?

Are you oozing with excess fatty tissues? Or are you suffering from underweight and a loss of appetite? Perhaps you are a Candy Cutie! Who knows?

The Candy Cutie rushes off to classes and remembers he didn't get up early enough to eat breakfast. In the middle of the morning, Candy Cutie feels lazy, sluggish and is completely lacking in energy. He makes a mad dash between classes to the bookstore and orders two or three delicious chocolate candy bars. He devours one or two and not feeling satisfied yet, he eats another before lunch. When he reaches the dining hall, you hear Candy-Cutie complaining about the food again. He isn't hungry, and if he does eat, the food doesn't satisfy.

Someone should certainly wise up these Candy-Cuties, and since Sas-siety Sal hasn't covered it in her (or maybe his) column, I feel it the duty of my Home Economics yearning.

Anyone should know that candy is a great energy food—that is, if it is eaten at the proper time. Candy can be eaten between meals, if not too soon before the next meal, and will supply energy without spoiling dinner. You'll find better energy in eating candy directly following a meal. It's delicious, too! So let's get hep, and not be Candy Cuties.

Guess Who...?

A versatile young lady around our campus whose abilities come to light little by little is . . . guess who? (Answer may be found on some other page, in case you don't guess.)

Besides being an excellent teacher—admitted by students like me that don't take any subjects from her—she is also a one-man (maybe I should say a one-woman) band. A few of the instruments that she plays are, I quote, "piano, trumpet, guitar, trombone, violin, clarinet, shoe horn, mouth organ (mouth harp to us westerners), radio, phonograph—I hope I didn't miss any," unquote.

Don't insult her by calling her a New Englander, though, she's from uppah New Yawk. I haven't heard how her culinary achievements are, but if she cooks as well as she does other things, she's probably a super whiz.

The other afternoon, on the bus, we heard two small boys engaged in a boasting contest.

"I was born at seven o'clock in the morning," one of the youngsters declared.

"Huh, you think that's early?" rejoined the other. "I was born at two o'clock in the morning."

"Shucks," shot back the first, "What's the use of being born before its time to get up!"

Keep thy tools ready and God will find thee work.

MUCH ADO ABOUT MANGUM

By Marilyn Perkins

Attracting dogs and small children as the Pied Piper of Hamelin attracted rats, Mangum's "Lampshade Band" gave a repeat performance recently. The occasion for such a celebration was the departure of a group of juniors for six months of affiliation at the Children's Hospital in Denver, Colorado, and Colorado State Hospital in Pueblo, where they will study pediatric and psychiatric nursing.

Our sorrow in saying goodbye to the juniors was equaled only by our joy when, three days later, we welcomed back our returning senior affiliates. It's really nice having Elizabeth Elverd, Amanda Kusch, Mary Habegger, Johnnie Mauldin, Mary and Nellie Moore, Ramona Thomas, and Sara Wibbles back with us again.

Mangum Hall's parlor, the scene of much social activity in the past, took on a new aspect this week when it became the workshop for a corps of ambitious seniors. Busy with needles and thread, steam irons and pressing cloths, the seniors transformed a large pile of junk into a nice looking array of apparel—the merchandise for tomorrow's rum-make sale. It seems their treasurer will need quite a large fund to meet expenses on the senior sneak, which, I was informed, will include a tour of Washington, D. C. (?)

Last night was one of the big

FIRST NNC CINDER MEET TOMORROW

Crusaders Host to First Intercollegiate Meet in City History; 7 Schools Enter

For the first time in NNC's history the Crusaders will be host at an intercollegiate track meet when the NNC invitational track affair is staged tomorrow. It is the first intercollegiate track meet ever held in Nampa and the first track encounter of any sort ever staged in Bulldog Bowl.

The all-day cinder struggle will find seven and possibly eight colleges competing. Entered are Idaho State College, Boise Junior College, Southern Idaho College of Education, Eastern Oregon, College of Idaho, Northern Idaho, Northwest Nazarene college and probably Montana State college.

Officials will include Babe Brown and Dean Lewis of Nampa High School and the University of Idaho and Pete Hecomovich of Boise High School.

Idaho State, which took second in the ISC relays last week, and the host school, NNC will be favored in the meet with Northern Idaho rated as a strong dark horse contender. The Lewiston crew is paced by a former New Meadows high school star and could be the surprise team of the day.

Pacing the Crusaders are several veterans who have shown up well in practice meets and in the recent ISC relays where they placed third. Don Farrand will enter the pole vault and hurdles; Doug Powers will be in the dashes and broad jump, Jack Jamison enters the distance meets; Paul Sutherland will enter the mile and 2 mile, and Lloyd Hubbard will enter the 440 and 880.

Other Crusaders include Millard Reynolds, broad jump, pole vault, and dashes; Hubert Hendrix, 440 and broad jump; Art Sullivan, hur-

OLY'S SHADE LSP'S IN SOFTBALL TILT

A late inning rally paid off for the Olympians as they edged the LSP's, 4-3, in the first softball game of the season. Jack Jamison hurled for the winners and pitched shutout ball after weathering a three run uprising in the first frame.

The Oly's came back with a single tally in the second, and tied the score in the third with a two-run rally. They clinched the tilt in the fourth with a lone marker.

Dean Galloway and Lloyd Hills paced the victors at the plate, while Hopkins and Howard Johnson were dles; Tiny Bellamy, 440 and 880; Floyd Wright, Jim Kenneda, Bud Russell, Loyd Hills, Maurice Palmquist, Clinton Cook, Ron Weatherford, Roger Wright and Stan Beals.

OLSON TO HURL FOR DIAMOND SQUAD TODAY AGAINST BRONCOS

NNC's cindermen copped third in the Pocatello relays behind the University of Utah and ISC. Seven schools from three states entered the affair. Lloyd Hubbard, Art Sullivan, Jack Jamison and Tiny Bellamy placed second in the mile relay and Don Farrand, Doug Powers, Millard Reynolds and Paul Sutherland took third in the sprint medley with Sutherland passing three men in the last lap to gain the position.

Other points were added by Farrand with a second in the pole vault and Reynolds who captured third in the broad jump.

Clary Olson will take the mound this afternoon for NNC as the Crusaders journey to Boise Junior College to renew their feud with the Broncos. Olson will be after his first win of the year. In his only other start this season he dropped a close 4-3 decision to the College of Idaho.

Prior to yesterday's struggle with the Broncos at Rodeo Park the Nampans had chalked up only one triumph in six contests. They copped their first game of the season 8-6 in extra innings against C. of I., as Tiny Bellamy pitched shutout ball for the last eight stanzas after errors had aided the Coyotes in tallying six runs in the first inning.

Clary Olson was the big hitter of the fray as he slashed out a triple with one on in the last of the seventh to tie the score. A two-run outburst in the ninth decided the issue.

Jack Baker handcuffed the Crusaders with four hits as the Coyotes edged the locals 4-3 in the nightcap. The following day the Coyotes made it three straight by sweeping a twin-bill by identical scores of 8-6, and 8-6.

Ron Dunn bested Millard Reynolds in the opener and Red Shaffer out-pitched Hubert Hendrix in the second tussle.

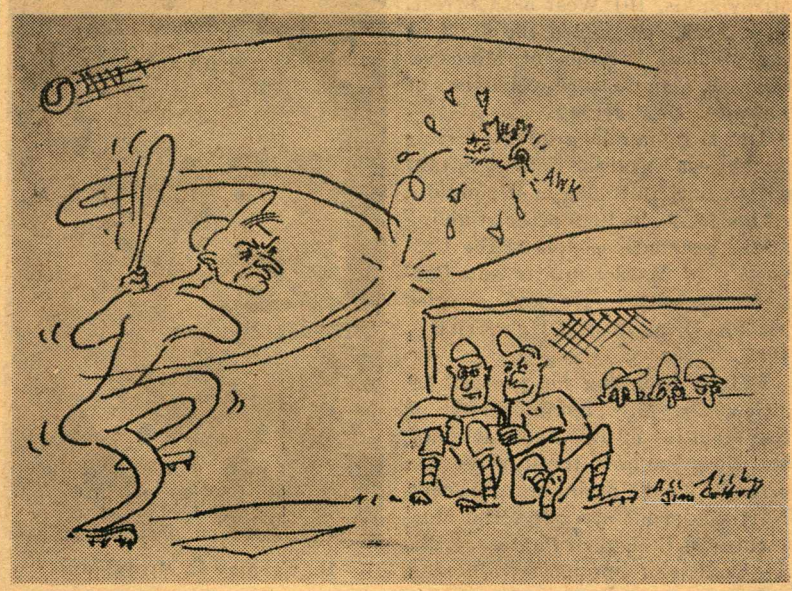

The Crusaders stretched their victory drouth to five straight by dropping a pair to Eastern Oregon last week. Unearned runs cost both games as Bellamy and Reynolds were charged with the losses.

Bellamy pitched an eight-hitter against the Mountaineers but three unearned runs in the early innings provided Eastern Oregon with a 5-2 victory. In the seven inning nightcap, four errors and three free tickets by Reynolds brought home five tainted tallies as the Oregonians waltzed off with a 5-1 verdict. Reynolds gave up only two hits, both singles but neither of them affected the scoring. Reynolds' double and Weatherford's long triple to center in the sixth spared NNC the indignity of a shutout.

'49 CHAMPIONS ROAR PAST ADP'S

The booming bats of the defending champion SLA's proved too much for the ADP's as they pommelled the ADP's, 16-8 in the first game of the season for both nines.

Chet Wells opened on the mound for the losers but a ten-run barrage in the second frame spelled his doom. Dave Burkhart replaced him on the hill and finished up for the ADP's.

Missionaries Speak

Rev. Paul Schmelzenbach recently spoke to the F. M. B. on "Three Necessary Requirements for a Missionary."

"A good experience of old fashioned salvation, a definite call to the mission field for both the husband and wife, and a very good sense of humor," were his main points. He also mentioned that a missionary needed to be a jack-of-all trades.

Rev. John Pattee from China had also mentioned these same qualifications in a previous F. M. B. service. Both mentioned adjustments a missionary has to make.

Mr. Rueben Larsen, owner of a radio station in Quito, Ecuador, and missionary to that country, spoke yesterday to F. M. B. on the importance of missionary work.

Dan Jackson asks that the students remember the new project of school supplies for Peru. They especially need paper, composition notebooks and pencils. Tomorrow morning at 8:30 the Foreign Mission Band breakfast will be held at which time souvenir booklets for the year will be presented. All those interested in missions as well as all F. M. B. members are urged to come. The tickets may be obtained from Don Jackson, Nicki Taylor, and Dan Jackson, for 60c.

Next Thursday at 4 p. m., Mrs. Paul Schmelzenbach is to speak to the group. President Dan Jackson urges everyone to attend and receive new inspiration for your soul.

Fred Fowler, ASB prexy, recently announced that all those wishing to receive activity letters this year must secure a blank and fill it out in order to receive them.

Lenora Albright, upon entering the cold, unheated room of Marie Lindsley in Hadley Hall, said, "The acoustics aren't very good in here, are they?"

Mr. Johnson—"Does a man with as little hair as I have have to pay full price for a haircut?"

Barber—"Sometimes we charge more. We usually charge double when we have to look for the hair."

Husband—"Of course men are smarter than women, look at Solomon."

Wife—"The reason he was so smart is because he had a lot of wives to advise him."

"A little more kindness
A little less creed,
A little more giving
A little less greed.
A few more flowers,
On the pathway of life
And fewer on grass
At the end of the strife."

Mr. Johnson is making the trip in the interest of the school and will be attending the Educational Buyers' Association in Chicago where he will make purchases for the book store. In New York, he will visit a foundation concerning annuities.

During the course of the trip, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will stop at Minot, Billings and various other cities and hold services in the interest of the student loan fund.

Recently a group of students met in the basement of College Church to begin Lamplighter's League work. A campaign of literature distribution and personal visitations will be followed.

Strunk-Williamson Win Debate Cup

Faye Strunk and Naomi Williamson, representing NNC at the recent Idaho State Speech Tournament at the College of Idaho in Caldwell, tied for first place in the Women's Lower Division Debate.

Prof. Wilson, debate coach, said that this is the second cup that has been won this year. The first cup was a rotating cup which they won at the regional tournament earlier this year at Walla Walla. This cup, however, is a permanent one.

Boys debate teams representing NNC were George Evans and Don Farrand, Paul Beals and Jack Burke. Other fields entered were interpretative reading, Gene Hovee and Loren Bozarth; and extemporaneous speaking, Loren Loeber and Glenn Wardlaw.

Other schools represented were the College of Idaho, Idaho State College, Ricks College, Southern Idaho College of Education, Northern Idaho College of Education and the University of Idaho.

Frazier Elected State FHA Secretary at Meeting

Jenny Frazier was elected state secretary of F. H. A. at the state convention in Boise. She was installed as secretary Saturday afternoon along with the other officers.

Miss Frazier has had three years of home economics and is a junior at C. H. S. Being that College High School has one of the smallest F. H. A. chapters in the state, it was quite an honor to have her chosen. There were 167 delegates from all over the state, with approximately 200 girls in attendance. With 22 other girls from Idaho, Jenny may go to Kansas City in July for the National F. H. A. convention.

Other C. H. S. students attending were Donna Arnold, Joy Tink, Virginia Shoemaker and Ellen Sutherland. Friday morning Joy Tink was selected from six contestants as accompanist for the state convention. Donna Arnold gave the chapter report Friday morning and June Nakada spoke Saturday afternoon on Japanese dress.

Evelyn Herron, state president last year, acted as advisor and was granted an honorary degree at the convention.
