BOOSTERS-ALUMNI PLAN NEW GYM

Freshmen Torture To End Tonight As Sophomores Polish Off Victims in Gym

All the horrors, terrors and perilous activities of Initiation week for freshmen will be climaxed tonight when the sophomores attempt to finish mutilating the newest additions to the campus in the gym.

For the past few days the frosh have undergone untold miseries at the hands of their classmates, the sophomores, and tonight the sophs will conclude their reign as overlords of the campus with the traditional initiation party.

Following the evening's festivities the greenhorns will become official members of the student body.

In charge of the sophomore crime wave is President Clarence Olson. Other members of the committee for the merciless torture of puny neophytes are Jim Hurd, Naomi Williamson, Evelyn Herron and Jeanne Conrey.

Among the other activities of initiation week was the flag hunt staged last night and the tug-of-war between the two classes which will be held this afternoon at 4:30 in Kurtz park.

Northwest Motorcade Visits NNC Campus

Over $5,000 worth of foodstuffs was presented to the College by the Northwest District in the Washington Motorcade which visited the campus last week.

It was the first time in history that the Northwest District carried out such a project and over 155 people, representing 23 different churches, made the trip. The Motorcade was under the direction of District Superintendent Zachary, Rev. Ed Dowd, pastor of Connell, Wash., and Fred Vogt, pastor of Richland, Wash.

Members of the Motorcade were feted as a banquet held the night of their arrival, and the visitors were entertained at a special chapel service the following morning. Included in the chapel program were readings by Bob Condon of Yakima and C. Hastings Smith, a duet by Les Parrott and Rev. Condon and a short skit by Rev. Vogt and Dr. Zachary. During their stay, tours of the campus were conducted by Gordon Belzer.

One dog barks at something, and a hundred bark at the sound.

CLASSES FINISH ORGANIZATION

Class organization for the school year was complete this week as the various classes finished their election of officers and student council representatives.

Filling the senior presidential post will be Glenn Hopkins. Other senior officers include Ralph Unger, vice president; Dave Burkhart, treasurer, and Willis Colestock, chaplain. Arnie Zimbleman will represent the seniors in the student council, while Zola Alyea will act as program chairman. Dr. Aller and Miss MacPherson will sponsor the class.

Junior officers include Dan Jackson, president; Gordy Belzer, vice-president; Norma Montgomery, secretary, and Earl Embree, treasurer. Joe Wright is the Junior chaplain with Chester Galloway filling the Junior seat in the student council. Sponsors are Double E. Hill and Dr. Ford.

Leading the sophomore class will be Clarence Olson, president; Jim Hurd, vice-president, and Naomi Williamson, secretary - treasurer. Evelyn Herron represents the sophomores in the student council. Sponsoring the class will be Prof. Kaufman and Mrs. Aller.

Bob Burkhart was elected president of the freshman class. Assisting him will be Ron Johnson, vice-president; Rosalind Poole, secretary and Don Thompson, treasurer. As student council representative, the freshmen elected Harry Williamson.

Special students elected George Briggs, president; Melvin Brower, vice-president; Delores Rosebaum, secretary-treasurer, and Bill Cole, student councilor.

MUSIC CLUB SEES FILM; ELECTS OFFICERS

Election of officers and the showing of a film on Community concert artists highlighted the first meeting of the Music club.

Officers chosen were Art Alyea, president; Delores Lovett and Carol Sharp, vice presidents; Evelyn Rutledge, secretary; Virginia Walton, treasurer and Double E. Hill and Mrs. Swann, sponsors.

"I wonder why so many marriages are failures?"

"It must be because so many inexperienced people enter into them."

Sunday School Plans Anniversary Rally

Plans for an Anniversary Rally day are the center of the College Sunday school's present activities. This Sunday, Oct. 8, will mark the first anniversary of their worship in the new College Church building. Buttons bearing a picture of the church will be distributed to the first 1,500 attendants.

Of special interest to the college students are the two Christian Service Training classes now being taught during the Sunday school hour. Rev. Sanford Wagg is currently teaching "First Steps in Visitation Evangelism." Mrs. Ora West, a veteran of 25 years on the mission field, is instructing a group on the subject of missions.

A special class for high school graduates who are not attending college has been organized under the direction of Miss Christensen.

Associated Women Students Hold Big - Little Sister Tea; 175 Attend

Morrison Hall parlor was the scene Wednesday afternoon of the annual Big-Little Sister Tea sponsored by the Associated Women students. Between the hours of 3:00 and 5:00 approximately 175 women students, faculty members and faculty members' wives enjoyed sandwiches, tea and punch served by the hostess group.

Pouring during the informal period of getting acquainted were Mrs. Gilbert Ford, Mrs. A. Elwood Sanner, Mrs. Hays Johnson, and Mrs. Leslie Parrott, all wives of new faculty members at N. N. C.

Musical background was presented by Joy Tink at the piano, and at different intervals throughout the afternoon guests were entertained by vocal numbers and readings.

Honored guests at the tea were the new women students who were accompanied to the tea by their Big Sisters, upper - class women students.

NNC-ISC Cage Tilt Will Launch Drive; Construction to Begin Within 2 Years

Plans for a fund-raising campaign to build a new physical education plant at NNC have been drawn up by the NNC Boosters club in cooperation with the alumni association and were approved by the Board of Regents at their recent meeting.

The program, when completed, will provide NNC with one of the finest gyms in the Northwest and will be officially launched early in December when the Crusaders play host to Idaho State College in a benefit basketball game at Central Auditorium.

The structure, to be known as the Byron Lee Memorial Physical Education building, will be built at an approximate cost of $300,000 and will be located on the corner of the baseball diamond directly across from College church.

The financing will be done on an individual basis and will be handled by a central board of directors chosen from the Booster Club, Alumni association, Board of Regents and the administration.

Board Members Chosen

Members of the board are Bob Graves, Paul Corlett and A. J. Finkbeiner from the Boosters; Bob Mangum, Howard Dobbs and Slim Mylander of the Alumni association; Rev. E. H. Edwards and Roy Olmstead from the Board of Regents and Dr. Lewis T. Corlett and L. Wesley Johnson from the administration. Dr. Corlett will serve as chairman of the committee.

Construction of the building is expected to start within the next two years and the committee hopes to have the new gym ready for use within three years.

Will Seat 3,500 Spectators

The edifice will be of cinder-block construction with brick veneer finish and will have over-all dimensions of 170 feet by 130 feet. The playing floor, of white maple, will include three cross courts on a 120 foot by 80 foot surface and a regulation 94 by 50 foot basketball floor.

Seats in the balcony will hold approximately 2,000 spectators and roll-away bleachers on the main floor will provide space for an additional 1,500.

Included in the plant will be offices for the athletic director, school nurse, intramural athletic director, and College High coach. In addition there will be three classrooms, two in the balcony and one on the main floor.

Dressing rooms for both College High and College varsity teams will be included as well as a girls' dressing room, laundry room and equipment rooms for the varsity and one for gym equipment. A recreation room will also be included in the gym.

Debaters Plan Trips

"Resolved: That the non-Communist nations should form a new International organization" is the subject for debate this year.

Plans are being formulated for several debate trips, among them being one to California, another to McMinnville, Ore., and to other colleges in Idaho. The debate group has not been fully organized as yet since the material has not arrived.

Professor M. Wilson is in charge of the debate group again this year, and he says that he is looking forward to another good year of debate.

"The man who occupied this room," said the landlady, "was an inventor. He invented an explosive."

"I suppose those spots on the wall are the explosive," said the roomer. "No," said the landlady. "They are the debate."

Societies Prepare For Closed Night

The Athletic - Literary societies began preparing this week for the closed night programs which will be held Oct. 14. The winner of the closed night competition will be the society having the largest percentage of its members attending their program. The points will be applied toward the faculty loving cup.

The ADPs, under the direction of President Dave Burkhart, will hold their meeting in the dining hall. Other officers of the society are Arnie Zimbleman, vice-president; Bob Burkhart, treasurer; Pat Wilkes, secretary; Jim Rohn, program chairman; Joe Wright, chaplain; Jenny Frazier, girl's athletic director; Ron Weatherford, boys' athletic director; Rosalind Poole and Georgia Malpass, yell leaders, and Evelyn Herron, debate director.

The LSPs, who will present their program in the Speech hall, will be presided over by Loyd Smith. Cliff Cowley is vice-president, Raynette Poole, secretary; Petey Montgomery, program chairman; Dick Edwards, boys' athletic director, and Jo Ann Hutchison, girls athletic director.

Woody Beukelman is president of the SLAs, who will use the chapel as the site of their program next Saturday. Other officers are Paul Jen-

"So That's What It Is"

By Dave Cook

Do you have that tired, worn out feeling? Do your eyes have that droopy, saggy feeling? When you try to study do the words chase each other all over the page flashing like lights on a mad pinball machine? No, you don't need a psychiatrist if they do. (The authorities probably won't catch up with you for quite a while.) You probably just lack adjustment. Sure, that's what they tell you—"You need to adjust." An excellent idea; we'll follow a schedule. That ought to help!

Seven o'clock and the alarm sets you off to a fighting start—first you fight the covers to get to the clock then fight to smother it. Fifteen minutes more sleep and you get up. Getting ready for class in the next 20 minutes shows real efficiency. For example during one of your prolonged yawns you effectively brush your teeth. When you finally get fully awake you've been in class for a half an hour already.

So goes the schedule! Class, class, chapel, class, free period, and then lunch where everyone eats, drinks, and gets miserable. In the afternoon the first period is occupied by a class according to the schedule so as a matter of formality you attend.

Now here's where the systematic schedule really becomes an asset—study time! Things are really going to click and time is really going to count!

You just get settled, open a book, and begin to study when you are forced to admire the excellent study environment. From the quietness that prevails you wonder if the fellow up above you is really chopping timber or if the guy in the next room is operating a bowling alley as a sideline. They could be doing either and not be making a bit more noise. That's not bad though because all sound indications from the hall imply that there are about 60 elephants with heel taps milling in front of your door and trumpeting some kind of jungle call. All this just goes to prove you need one minor adjustment—go deaf!!

After supper you can study, absolutely. It will be so-o-o quiet then. But just get settled and someone knocks on the door, comes in, but is "only going to stay for a minute." A preacher's minute maybe, but it always ends up some others come too and it is time to go to bed by the time they leave. The schedule has been a marvelous help so far, hasn't it?

Get up in the morning and get your work done? Oh, sure, the heat will be on by ten o'clock—maybe earlier if the sun is shining. Now don't misunderstand me, we freshmen aren't complaining. We realize we just need to adjust.

ART CLUB PLANS MEET

Beta Chi Alpha, otherwise known as the Art Club, will hold its first meeting next week, according to the president, Rachel Cockerham. Field trips, special speakers, visiting artists, and the big Christmas exhibit and sale are some of the activities planned for this semester.

MANGUM MUSINGS...

By Marilyn Perkins

Hey! Stop! Don't read this column. At least not unless you're interested in nurses and their activities. Because that's what it will be about, and don't say I didn't warn you.

This new school year got off to a bang here at Samaritan too. Before the end of August all the seniors of the class of '50 had finished and a new class of "probies" had come to fill the vacancy in Mangum Hall.

The preclinicals, who at first found themselves honored guests at numerous parties and picnics, have by now settled down to study, classes, study, work, and study (?) . . . or should I say croquet, classes, ping pong, work, and tennis?

Well anyway, they seem to be walking in the footsteps of those who've gone before. They make the same mistakes, fall for the same gags, and believe the same yarns as the upper-classmen did a year or two ago.

I don't have space to tell you the names of the girls in the new class, but I will say 17 of the class of 22 are former N. N. C. students, so don't be surprised if you find that the girls you miss at college this year have just moved across Kurtz park.

This is long enough already so I'll tell you more about our activities in the next issue. See you around.

SUB ROSA

By Rosie

If I remember my Latin correctly, "sub rosa" means something like "under the rosebush" or "private". So in order to keep the meaning sacred, I'll depend on all you readers to keep under your hat anything you may herein focus your eyes upon. Lacking the ability of last year's society writer to interpret, I must warn you that I am going to do like the old darky—"I calls 'em lak I sees 'em!"

And so far I'll have to admit that I haven't seen too much of interest in the way of society tips, but from the activity rolling up from Ruth Jensen fans, there may be plenty of fireworks to report next week.

Undoubtedly you all noticed the ad which Editor Wesche wrote for the Pitch and Putt Golf course in the last edition of our paper. I understand that Lilburn is interviewing his candidates for personal secretary from the "pitch" angle.

(If you find this last paragraph deleted from this column, you'll know that Wesch proofread the copy!)

Everyone is wondering who it is that is keeping the Walla Walla boys tied up back home. I overheard last week, Bob Burkhart, a couple of the cuter gals remarking that they expected to get paid for their vote of confidence in your ability to lead the freshman class.

Kenny Hills is rapidly making plans to keep his present classification just in case he can't keep up with the upper 50% of his class in grades. Congratulations to you, Kenny and Marilyn. May your troubles all be little ones! (Pretty corny, huh?) Bye the way, Paul and Cliff, since when have you been joining the ladies in personal wedding showers?

Well, the roses are all folding up for the night, and I must close for your delight! Oh, I thought I was C. Hastings Smith! Bye now!!

Ronald Johnson Wins $4000 Award From GMC for Designing Auto Body

Ronald Johnson, winner of the national Fisher Body Craftsmanship Guild in 1948, is now enrolled in N. N. C. on a $4000 scholarship granted him by General Motors Corporation. The award which was presented him for the designing of an original automobile body was won against competition of the entire nation.

Previous to winning the national contest, Johnson won first place in the Oregon state contest for which he received a $150 prize. He then submitted his entry in the Northwest Regional contest and won expense-paid trip to Detroit. There his entry was judged with those of the winners of the 35 other regions in the nation and his was awarded top place.

When asked as to his opinion concerning college life, he asserted that "NNC is just perfect."

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Johnson of Portland, Ore.

OASIS ENLARGES OFFICES

Jim Galloway, editor of the college Oasis, states that the Oasis offices are being enlarged to include the rooms to the back of the present office. "This will provide more room for editing and work on the yearbook," he stated.

ADPs, OLYs SET SOFTBALL PACE

ADPs Move to Front in Boys' Division But SLAs Show Threatening Power

BOYS SOFTBALL STANDINGS
October 3

ADP	2	0
SLA	1	1
LSP	1	2
OLY	1	2

All-around strength placed the ADPs on top of the society softball heap following the first round of activity. In second place and showing signs of moving in on the pace-setters were the hard-hitting SLA lads.

Tied for last were the Olys and LSPs who fought to stand-off in games between themselves but dropped tilts to both the other nines.

Olys Retaliate

For the first time this fall the Olys broke into the win column by soundly trouncing the LSP's 12-4 at Kurtz park last Tuesday afternoon.

Steady hurling and timely hitting by Oly Millard Reynolds proved to be the deciding factor. Reynolds paced all batters with a single, a double, and home run, driving in 5 runs.

This run evened up the count between the two teams as the LSP's nudged the Olys earlier in the season, 7-6.

LSPs Win, 7-6

The inaugural game of the 1950 fall intramural league found the LSPs coming from behind to defeat a good Oly team, 7-6.

Leading the LSP hitters was Edwards with a two-run homer, and Wesche with a two-run producing single.

Freshmen Hopefuls Open Cage Drills

Some thirty-eight potential frosh basketball enthusiasts answered the call of Coach Monty Lee last Tuesday night to ring up the curtain on the 1950-1951 basketball season at Northwest Nazarene college.

A review of the old and new rules and general orientation were discussed during the meeting. Light workouts will begin next week.

BRYSON HURLS 1-HITTER

With Carl Bryson chucking one-hit ball, the SLAs pounded out an easy 8-0 win over the undefeated LSPs last Monday afternoon at Kurtz park.

Leading the 8-hit attack on LSP Pitcher Edwards was Dick Ivester, SLA third sacker, with a single and a double, driving in five runs.

Bryson was breezing along with a no-hitter going into the last inning but Loyd Smith came through with a base knock to right field to close the door of the hall of fame in the SLA chucker's face.

Seniors Undefeated

Heavy sticking by Woody Beukelman, Dave Burkhart and Ralph Unger paced the seniors to a 9-6 win over a formidable alumni nine under the lights at Kurtz park a week ago.

The seniors solved the slants of Johnny Cramer and Bob Kiel for 8 blows, including a long home run by Beukelman.

Candidates Answer Cross-Country Call; Cook Paces Returning Distance Men

Track at N. N. C got off to a fast start last week as Coach Lee issued his first call for the cross country. Twelve prospective harriers turned out indicating the popularity of N. N. C.'s newest varsity sport.

Included in the turnouts were four members of last year's team as well as a large group of freshman hopefuls.

Number one among the returners is Clinton Cook. Cook, who last year covered the rugged Pocatello course in 22:24, is again expected to be one of the top harriers in Idaho. Also returning from last year are Paul Sutherland, Art Sullivan, and Roger Marks.

Standout among the newcomers is Bob Burthart, a freshman from Washington, however, several of the other boys also promise to press for the varsity.

In commenting on his squad, Lee said he anticipates a better team than last year, although he plans at present to enter only one meet.

"TRIFLES make perfection but PERFECTION is no trifle."

Williamson Paces Oly Girls to Top Place

Standings October 3:

Oly's Lois Williamson pitched the society into top spot of the girls softball league by defeating the LSPs 6-3 in the opening game of the season. Then coming back again to defeat the ADPs 12-9 and the LSPs 10-5.

Bouncing back after their first defeat the ADPs pulled into second place by edging past the SLAs in a 17-16 thriller. Both Frazier and Olson stole the show for the ADPs by each scoring a home run, double and a single in three times at bat.

After Tuesday night's games the LSPs hold down third place and the SLAs rest in the cellar with two losses against no wins.

ADPs Roll On

A smooth-fielding ADP team notched its second win in a row by handing the Oly's a 6-3 defeat in intramural softball last Friday at Kurtz park.

Ron Weatherford handcuffed the red and white with four hits as his teammates hit in the clutches to score once in the second inning, two times in the third, and three in the last frame.

Bob Johnson, Oly third sacker, clouted a home run with one aboard to round out the scoring for the afternoon.

SONS ELECT MITCHELL

Gordon Mitchell is the new president of the Sons of Samson. The organization plans to have weight lifting, boxing, wrestling, tumbling for those present.

Other officers elected are Rod Newman, vice-president, and Art Jacobs, secretary-treasurer. The group will meet every Tuesday and Thursday evening at 9:00 o'clock.

ADPs Take Golf In Both Divisions

The ADPs captured both mens' and womens' golf last Saturday at the municipal golf course in a field of 26 participants. Ron Weatherford won the boys' division by carding a three-round score of 102. George Mowry, Oly, grabbed second by posting a 108. Third and fourth spots went to John Bullock and Woody Beukelman, respectively. Both are SLAs.

Edna Cramer, ADP, won the girls' division with a mark of 132. No other societies were represented.

ADPs Edge SLAs

In one of the best games of the fall intramural softball season, a well-balanced ADP team nosed out a fighting SLA nine 5-4.

The highlight of the game came in the last inning when Lloyd Hubbard sent a long drive to right center field on which Pat Personette made a circus catch to end the game.

Dave Burkhart's towering home run over the centerfielder's head in the fourth inning proved to be the winning run.

Formals, Bowties Keynote Student Faculty Reception in Morrison Hall

Saturday evening, September 29, marked the first formal social event of the school year as students gathered in Morrison dining hall for the Student-Faculty Reception. Formals and bowties keynoted the occasion as new students and old were formally presented to their faculty.

Opening with the processional by Miss Elaine Carlson and the invocation by Professor A. Elwood Sanner, the program was built around the theme, "How Green Is My Valley." Master of Ceremonies Howard Titterington's presentation of the theme was followed by a toast to the faculty from Dean Galloway, with the response being given by Professor Kauffman.

Also on the program were the welcoming speeches of Jean Kirkpatrick, A. W. S. president, and Joe Wright, president of the Men's club, as well as musical numbers by the Crusader's Male Quartet and Professor Warren Franklin. The main address of the evening was given by Dr. Corlett, president of the college.

FTA Members Attend Educators' Confab

Future Teachers of America, the NNC chapter, has had an agent in the hall of the Ad building for two weeks collecting dues from prospective members.

State Teachers' meeting in Boise Oct. 2 and 3 inaugurated the first organized meeting of the group with all the future educators invited to attend.

Ralph Warfield, in charge of collecting the dues, states that a good group of the students have paid the $1.50 membership fee.

Membership in the FTA is required of all of Dr. Culver's education classes and is open to anyone interested upon payment of the fee, according to Mr. Warfield.

Jackson to Guide Missions Band

Fifty-eight members of the Foreign Missions Band gathered Thursday, Sept. 21 for their first meeting of the school year. The group assembled in the Chapel of College church where the band will meet every Thursday at 4 p. m. throughout the year.

This year's officers are: President, Dan Jackson; vice president-program chairman, Weston Tucker; secretary-treasurer, Eleanor Matthiessen, and publicity chairman, Marie Lindsley. Delores Lovett is in charge of music with John Rankin as pianist.

The year's calendar of events will be highlighted from time to time by special missionary speakers. The first of these was Mrs. Schmelzenbaugh from Africa who spoke to those present at the Oct. 5 meeting.

Corlett, Johnson, Culver To Attend Convention at Wollaston, Mass.

CHAPMAN HAS COUNCIL

Chapman dorm council representatives for the following year will be Kenny Nybakken, senior; Bill Osterhout, junior; Jim Tapley, sophomore; Harry Williamson, freshman and Floyd Johnson, hi school. Their duties are to consider all cases of misdemeanor connected with Chapman and pass judgment on the guilty parties.

Missionary Society Opens Activities

N. N. C.'s General Missionary society met for the first regular Thursday chapel program of the year, Sept. 27, with President Dan Jackson in charge.

"N. N. C. has been known for its missionary interest and influence. We have a challenge greater than ever before," said Dr. Corlett speaking briefly following the introduction of the new officers of the G. M. S.

Nicki Taylor, program chairman, spoke of the emphasis that will be placed on the "missionary layview" in the chapel program of the year. Lloyd Hubbard, prayer and fasting chairman, said, "We are going to endeavor to have a letter each time from a missionary from a different foreign field."

Allen Miller, G. M. S. treasurer, in speaking of the financial part of missions, stated, "We need to put something solid behind our prayers."

Dr. Corlett and Business Manager L. Wesley Johnson will leave early next week for Wollaston, Massachusetts, where they will attend the first annual meeting of the presidents, business managers and deans of all Nazarene colleges. Miss Culver, dean of the college, left last Wednesday and will attend the meeting also.

The convention will open Tuesday and will continue through Thursday. It will be held on the campus of Eastern Nazarene college.

Following the convention, Dr. Corlett will return by way of Spokane where he will attend the preachers' meeting for the Northwest educational zone of the Nazarene church. Others representing the college at the zone meeting opening Oct. 17 and continuing thru Oct. 19, are Dr. Riley, Prof. Sanner and Rev. Parrott, dean of students.

Preceding the preachers' gathering, Rev. Parrott will be in Spokane to represent the college at the NYPS educational zone meeting being conducted on Oct. 16 and 17.

Open House Features Home Ec. Meeting

The first Home Economics club meeting was held in connection with an open house in the Home Ec building last Saturday, Sept. 30. Plans for round-table discussion, special speakers, films, cookie sales, and a banquet were discussed.

The officers for this year are: President, Eloise Shute; vice president, Hisa Horiuchi; secretary, Marion Bradfield; treasurer, Connie Jo Nelson; publicity chairman, Donna Arnold; co-program chairmen, Earlene Tapley and Evelyn Herron. The co-advisors for the club are Mrs. Aller and Mrs. Anderson.

A large membership is anticipated and any girls interested in joining are requested to contact one of the officers before the next meeting which will be held the second Tuesday of October.

At the American Home Economics Association state meeting in Boise, Oct. 7, Mrs. Anderson will tell the highlights of the National Home Economics association meeting which she attended this summer in Boston, Mass.
