Fifth Annual Mangum Missionary Series Starts Monday; Rev. and Mrs. Cook To Present Lectures In The Chapel

RALPH COOK

Rev. and Mrs. Ralph Cook, recently returned missionary from India, will be the speakers next week for the fifth annual Mangum missionary lectures.

Rev. and Mrs. Cook have served in India the past 12 years under the Church of the Nazarene; first at Buldana, Berar C. P. and later at Chikhli, Berar, Central Province.

In addition to evangelistic work on the field, Rev. Cook has supervised the construction of several buildings on the missionary compound.

Since returning to this country several weeks ago the Cooks have been traveling throughout the United States in deputation work for the department of foreign missions under the direction of Dr. Remiss Rehfeldt, Foreign Missions secretary.

The Mangum missionary series of lectures was set up by the children of Dr. and Mrs. T. E. Mangum in honor of their parents.

The series were inaugurated by Mrs. Louise Robinson Chapman of Africa. Other speakers have been Dr. Lauren Seaman from Africa, Rev. C. H. Wymans of Peru and Prescott Beals from India.

Natural Historians To Elect Officers

Next meeting of the Boise Valley Natural History Society will be held at Boise Junior College in Boise, some time during February.

Dr. Aller, who is a member of this society, states that this meeting will include the annual election of officers.

Recent Ruling Will Permit College Youths to Select Branch of Service

Under a recent ruling by Secretary of Defense George S. Marshall, college students will be permitted to select their branch of service even though they may have already received their pre-induction notice or have taken their physical.

The new policy is designed to "prevent the waste to the nation and the damage to the educational system that is involved in having young men leave school in mid-term because they desire to enlist in the service of their choice before they are called for pre-induction physical examination by their local draft boards."

Under the old rules no armed service would accept voluntary enlistment after a man had received notice to report for his pre-induction examination. The new policy permits students enrolled in colleges and universities, and thus automatically deferred until the end of the school year, to enlist in the service of their choice at any time in the two months immediately preceding the final month of their school year.

As in the past, each service would accept enlistments only to the extent that places were open for those who desired to enlist.

Services accepting enlistments during this two-month period would not call the students to duty until they had finished their school year.

For NNC students this would mean that they must enlist between March 1 and April 30. They would then be called on or shortly after June 1.

General Marshall expressed the opinion that the new rules would prove of benefit to the students, the colleges and the national defense effort. He emphasized the importance to the nation of maintaining a vigorous educational system and elimination of the unsettled conditions that have developed on many campuses as a result of large-scale enlistments by men who wanted to enlist before they received their Selective Service call.

Debaters Plan Several Tournaments

Speech activity at NNC will step up considerably this semester with two and possibly three tournaments in line for NNC debaters.

According to Professor Wilson, NNC will participate in the Linfield tourney again this year. The Linfield tourney is a feature in the Northwest with this year marking the 21st annual tourney.

Second biggest tourney on the agenda will be the Idaho State tournament at Albion. This tourney will be an all-Idaho affair, featuring five colleges.

Funds permitting, the NNC speech department will also be represented at a Missoula, Montana tourney which will be held in early April. Schedule for this tourney has not yet been arranged.

Debate teams have not yet been finally appointed, but George Pfenniger and Melvin Palmquist will probably form one team with Clinton and Delmar Cook forming another. Both these teams debated capably during the last semester, Prof. Wilson asserted.

Dorms Welcome Incoming Inmates

Both Morrison Hall and Chapman Hall will greet many new faces as the new semester opens. Thirty-two students are moving into the dorms, most of them newcomers. Several girls will move over to Morrison from Hadley and in a few instances off-campus students are moving in as residence students.

Eight girls will leave Morrison either to live at home or to drop school for the semester. They are Bette Beuge, Edna Cramer, Marilyn Arnold, Dorothy Cusick, Carol Sharp, Irma Shafto and Doris Litwiller.

Moving to Morrison from Hadley are Jessie Rice, Lenora Turner, Evelyn Rutledge, Belda Alexander, Mona Gowan, Jean Gongwer, Billie Tuttle, Bonnie Mathieson, Jenny Lee Ray and Joyce Ova.

Other new residents at Morrison are Lorraine Mitchell, Jean Howard, Marzella Burns, Lois Lang, Betty Griffith, Joyce King, Dwayne Shaffer and Ginny Poplin.

Fourteen new men will make Chapman Hall their home for the coming semester. They are Bud Dire, Gene Longnecker, Don Zachary, Charles Free, Delmar Free, Gordon Nystedt, Richard Grenier, Dea Cox, Kenneth Angier, Ray Tate, Jim Emerson, David Emerson, Bob McCleathon and Jerry Huston.

Business Clubbers Witness Films

"How to find a job", "It's the Little Things that Count", and "Office Etiquette" were the three films shown in the latest Business Club meeting. Approximately 30 members and visitors were in attendance.

Earlene Tapely, program chairman of the organization, has more films planned for the coming semester, besides the special speakers.

Visiting Quadruple Quartet Features Youth Revival Service Tomorrow Night

Kampus Kalendar

Feb. 2-3—Youth Revival.
Feb. 5-9—Mangum missionary lectures—Rev. Ralph Cook.
Feb. 9—Greenleaf at College High.
Feb. 10—Last day to add new courses.

Marking the high point of the current youth revival will be a special service tomorrow night at First church. Feature of the evening will be a quadruple quartet composed of businessmen vocalists from Salem, Ore.

Arriving in Nampa early Saturday the quadruple quartet will first take part in a special Saturday morning children's rally. The children's rally at 10:30 will also include other musical numbers, chalk talks, and object lessons as well as treats for all children attending.

Represent Several Churches

The Salem Singers come from several evangelical churches in Salem and have held concerts throughout the Salem and Portland area. They recently sang at a union revival in Salem and will hold an 8-church concert in Bend, Ore., Sunday.

Ernest Friesen, co-owner of the Salem Box company is director of the group and Willard Friesen is the tenor soloist. Sam Fricky is the pianist for the singers.

Others are Henry Friesen, Earl Haverland, Erwin Friesen, Wilbur Ricker, Henry Quiring, Elmer Hubert, Jack Quiring, Al Quiring, Dr. Harold E. Poole, Earl Becker and Art Friesen.

Saturday night as during the entire revival, those attending will carry their Bibles. Evangelist Les Parrott indicated that he expects at least 1000 persons and Bibles in attendance.

New Enforcement Policy at Chapman

Chapman Hall is revamping its restrictions and enforcement of rules.

In the future there will be no noise after quiet hours which will begin at 11:00 p. m. during the week and 11:30 on Friday and Saturday.

Deans for the top floor will be Dan Jackson, with Bob Burkhart assisting him. Howard Titterington is dean of the dorm and has charge of first floor while Gene Hovee is dean of the basement floor.

New rules include the strict enforcement of demerits on all noise during study hours with loud radios and noisy gatherings in rooms strictly tabooed.

Anyone making noise after quiet hours will be sent directly to Dr. Corlett and he will prescribe a number of hours of work for the guilty parties.

Eleven Students Boast Perfect GPA; Sixty Maintain 2.5 Average Or Better

Eleven NNC students displayed a perfect grade point average of 3.00, while sixty maintained a G. P. A. of 2.5 or above, according to final averages released by the Registrar's office. Following is a list of the honor students by classes.

In the senior class: Adelia Hoffman, Zola Alyea, George Lee and Ada Miller maintained a perfect average. Tom Kelly, Jean Kirkpatrick, Norma Kastella, Ruth Cook, Pauline Rhinehart, Gene Hovee, Esther Horne, Ella Bell, Genevieve Motyka, Dorothy Davis, Bob Woodward, Weston Tucker, Paul Kunkel, Rex Morris, Arnie Zimbleman, Franklin Hill and Walter Lanman had an average of 2.5 or above.

Juniors with perfect marks were Gwendolyn Galloway, Daphne Wells and Norma Jean Wells. Marian Johnson, Marilyn McGraw, Chester Galloway, Delores Lovett, Merlin Hunter, Rosalie Puckett, Dale Swinney, Butch Bloomquist, Bill Osterhout and Lois Oberg made 2.5 or over.

Sophomores who snared straight "A's" were John Rankin and Norma Wohlgamuth. Eleanor Matthieson, Raymond Hudson, Don Jackson, Naomi Williamson, Loring Beals, Ruth Marks, Howard Miller, Glen Embree, Melvin Laws, and Lloyd Swaim maintained averages above the 2:5 level.

Top freshmen were Carl Bryson and Vesta Ellis with 3.00 averages. Bonnie McGraw, Thomas Leckie, T. J. Wilkes, Laura Falk, Ruth Laws, Ron Beech, Joy Burke, Dave Cook, Ina Stiverson, Bob Burkhart, Naomi Duncan, Bob Johnson and Ardith McCann were above 2.5.

Enrollment Reaches 115 at High School

Second semester enrollment in the High School totaled 115 at the close of the first day of registration. Principal Feltar expressed belief that the number of students might reach last semester's total of 135.

New high school courses to be offered this semester will include classes in mechanical drawing, international relations and speech.

Heart Sisters Week To Be Feb. 11 to 16

Heart Sisters Week, the annual Valentine week tradition at NNC, will be in effect for the week of Feb. 11-16. All girls wishing to participate will draw a name from the big Valentine box and place their own in, according to Earlene Tapely, AWS vice president.

Tradition demands that the heart sister do something nice for the person whose name she drew every day of the week without revealing her identity. At the big AWS party at the conclusion of the week the gifts bear the giver's name to reveal the name of the heart sister, stated Earlene.

"Heart Sister week has always been fun, and we want to try some new ideas to make it even better this year," she said.

Plans Underway For Jr.-Sr. Banquet

Dan Jackson, president of the Junior class, announces that preparations for the Junior-Senior banquet have begun. Also a Junior class party is being planned for the future.

Four Year B. A. Major for Secretaries To Be Offered By Expanding Bus. Dept.

For the first time in the history of NNC a regular four-year major will be offered along the secretarial line next year, according to plans released by the Business department.

The new plan will have a Business Administration major with general requirements which will branch out into four concentrated fields. They are Management, Accounting, Secretarial and Clerical.

The Business department has been expanded considerably during the past year by Prof. Hays Johnson and Mrs. Rose Voget.

In addition to the new fields which will be opened next year, several machines and new courses have been added in order to provide business students with a large field of selection.

The largest department in school, the business department, has a total enrollment of over 95 students. Included are 22 business majors, 8 of whom are seniors, and five secretarial certificates.

New machines added in the past year include a ditto machine or direct process duplicating machine, two electric adding and listing machines, one ten-key and one full keyboard, one manually operated adding machine and the latest dictaphone machine on the market.

New courses offered this semester for the first time are: Federal Tax and Specialized Accounting, by Prof. Johnson; Business Statistics, under Prof. D. B. Tillotson, and Business Machines, under Mrs. Voget.

Thirteen different courses are offered by the two instructors. These courses cover subjects which range throughout the business field.

Addition of the new B. A. major for secretaries will be another big step "towards providing NNC with the best and most complete business department in the West," Mrs. Voget asserted.

Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Nelson of Nampa, Idaho, announce the engagement of their daughter, Connie Jo, to Ralph Unger, of Whitefish, Montana. Connie and Ralph are both seniors at N. N. C. A February wedding is planned.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Wise of Camas, Washington, announce the engagement of their daughter Barbara Jean, to Howard Johnson of Nampa. An Easter wedding is planned. Both are now students at N. N. C.

Married

Miss Vivian Foltz, formerly of Salisbury, Md., and Mr. Robert Somerville of Valley Grove, W. Va., were married January 26 at the home of Melza Brown, pastor of First Nazarene church in Nampa. Vivian, a former N. N. C. student, is a student nurse at Samaritan hospital, and Bob is a freshman at N. N. C. The couple will make their home in Nampa.

Advice To The Lovelorn

with Dr. Q. Pidselper

Dear Dr. Q. Pidselper:

We of the weaker and more delicate sex are confronted with a seemingly insurmountable problem. We solicit your advice.

The problem is this: Why can't a fellow, if he wants to go out with a girl, come right out and ask her for a date instead of just hinting? If it's such a painful ordeal to ask for a date then what must it be for him to actually go out with a girl?

An equally pressing problem is the fellow who calls anywhere from a half hour to five minutes before an event, expecting the girl to be in the height of ecstasy and eager to accept the date. Oh! The ego of the male species.

Eagerly awaiting your advice, we remain,

Disgustedly yours,

The Gopher Girls.
(We go-fer men!)

Dear Girls:

I am stunned! I didn't realize such an appalling condition existed.

One solution breaks through to my consciousness. In regard to the first problem—refuse all such nonsensical offers. After all, a girl has some rights to HER pride also.

The second problem is relatively simple—band yourselves together and turn down any invitation that is not made at least 24 hours in advance. Of course, there are exceptions but I realize that a girl needs time to prepare.

If these suggestions are followed, I am sure you will not have any further difficulties. Unless, of course, you find yourselves completely without dates. Other than this exception I guarantee success.

Feel free to consult me on any problem you may have.

Sincerely yours,
DR. Q. PIDSELPER.

Time Out!

By Phillip Space

What do you have the most of, waste the most of and yet complain that you have the least of? A perfectly correct guess would be TIME! We are always being told that we have as much time as anyone else in this equal amount of time. Are we kidding ourselves. Maybe not.

Let's analyze a few of our days, take the average, and note just where most of our time goes. Possibly it is spent for sleep, school, work, or maybe just goofing. Whatever happens to be the time-consuming factors, and in spite of how many or how few of them, we still feel entirely too busy and wish for more time for something else. Maybe a 36-hour day would help but I doubt it. And since this isn't likely to happen, perhaps we should hunt for another solution.

Why should it be that in the same 24-hour day there are some people who can seemingly accomplish so much more than we do? It is possible that they are just better, but why is it that even we ourselves can at one time finish more than at another?

The answers are varied and can be attributed to a number of reasons, but the most common cause of accomplishment or the lack of accomplishment is found in the schedule or the lack of schedule.

So we see through the logic that the individual who knows just what he is going to do, how he is going to do it and when he will get done can get more time using elements done than the procrastinator or the one who bobs from one job to another. Time conservation is organization.

After thinking it over do you still think it isn't your fault that you are busier than a termite in a redwood with a thirty-day contract? If so, why not give organization or better organization a fair trial?

This is the easy way to get thru the semester just started if you need more time. So keep in mind that an orderly functioning schedule, whether mental or written, is the secret key to timely accomplishment.

Strictly . . . For Gals

GRACEFULLY REFUSING OR ACCEPTING A DATE

If the fellow puts you on the spot by asking if you have a date for a particular occasion — squelch that impulse to ask him if he's ever read Emily Post. If you don't particularly care to accompany him, all that is necessary to say is, "No, I'm sorry. I'd rather not."

Suppose he asks you if you have plans for some evening. If you want to date him, just say "No, I don't. Why?" He may get around to telling you.

If you just simply can't think of any excuse tell him you've promised your roommate that evening. He'll get the idea, fast.

Whatever you say, though, say it kindly. Sometimes it takes an "awful lot of nerve" on the fellow's part to ask you. And never, NEVER break a date unless absolutely necessary.

Thots O' Gold

"THE MINISTERIAL CORNERSTONE"

By Earle Spahr

"Why sleep ye? Rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation." Luke 22:46.

When is the Christian most likely to sleep? That's a good question; we will answer it with still another question. Is it not when his temporal circumstances are prosperous? Have you not found it so? When you had daily troubles to take to the throne of grace, were you not more wakeful than you are now? Easy roads make sleepy travelers. Another dangerous time is when all goes pleasantly in spiritual matters. Christian went not to sleep when lions were in the way, or when he was wading through the river, or when fighting with Apollyon, but rather when he had climbed half way up the Hill Difficulty, and came to a delightful harbour, he sat down, and forthwith fell asleep, to his great sorrow and loss. The enchanted ground is a place of balmy breezes, laden with fragrant odours and soft influences, all tending to lull pilgrims to sleep. Remember Bunyan's description. "Then they came to an harbour, warm, and promising much refreshing to the weary pilgrims; for it was finely wrought above head beautified with greens, and furnished with benches and settees. It had also in it a soft couch, where the weary might lean. The harbour was called the Slothful's Friend, and was made on purpose to allure, if might be some of the pilgrims to take up their rest there when weary." Depend on it, it is in easy places that men shut their eyes and wander into the dreamy land of forgetfulness. Old Erskine wisely remarked, "I like a roaring devil better than a sleeping devil." There is no temptation half so dangerous as not being tempted. The distressed soul must not sleep; it is after we enter into peaceful confidence and full assurance that we are in danger of slumbering. The disciples fell asleep after they had seen Jesus transfigured on the mountain

Strictly . . . For Men

HINTS ON HOW TO ASK FOR A DATE

WRONG: "Do you have a date for Friday night?" This puts the girl on the spot. Ask her in such a way that she will not embarrass you or herself if she refuses. She will think better of you.

RIGHT: "Do you have plans for Friday night?" If she does and you really want to date the gal, ask her some other time. After all, she might be just as eager as you. If she isn't interested, well, there are other fish in the ocean. Look around!

Above all, never intentionally stand up a gal, or break a date if you can possibly help it. If, of necessity you have to, then ask her some other time. She hates to "lose face" as much as you do!

top. Take heed, joyous Christian, fellow students of N. N. C. lest we feel so good about being in a holiness college that we too fall asleep.

Second Semester Boys' Basketball Race Thrown Wide Open As LSPs Stumble

Boys' basketball took on a hectic hue for the coming semester as the supposedly invincible LSPs narrowly squeaked by the ADPs 42-40 to win the crown, and then fell before the SLAs 37-36 in three overtimes.

The champs had swept through their opposition before and appeared a shoo-in both for the first semester title and the second term crown.

But the amazing improvement of the ADPs, doormats at the beginning of the year, and the fact that the SLAs have finally started clicking after a dismal start indicates a close and wild fight for first place.

The LSPs have been led by Glen Hopkins and Lilburn Wesche during their first six tilts. Wesche, however, was effectively bottled up in the last two encounters, and the possibility that Doug Powers, their starting guard and ace playmaker, may not play this semester, could combine to cost them a chance at repeating.

The revitalized SLAs were paced by Paul Jensen and Chet Galloway in their last few tilts. Lloyd Hubbard and Hubert Herron have proved vital on the backboards while Kenny Hills and Whitey Bullock have been consistent scorers.

Dave and Bob Burkhart have been the big guns in the ADP rise. Mervyn Gale and Howard Titterington have also been potent scoring punches. In addition, depth in reserves has enabled them to run their opponents ragged. Dan and Joe Wright, Johnny Johnson, Russ Miller and Francis Sutherland have all contributed to their improvement.

Big Ron Beech has been the best for the Olys who failed to win a single encounter during the first semester. Rod Newman, Paul Sutherland and George Mowry have been among those who have performed for the cellar dwellers.

Someone has said that marriage is a mutual partnership—with the husband mute.

NNC Drops Loggers In Lewiston Opener

Staving off a late NICE threat, NNC's Crusaders took the first of a two game series from the Loggers by a 78-64 margin.

The Nampans chalked up a 44-31 edge at halftime but saw it vanish before a late Logger threat which found the Lewiston lads pulling up to within three points of the victors at 67-64.

The Crusaders found the range again, however, in the fading minutes, to regain their lead.

Big Carlyle Dean tipped in 19 points for scoring honors. He was followed closely by Woody Beukelman with 17 and Skip Wilcox with 14. Wilson and Johnson paced the home quintet with 17 and 16 tallies.

South Idaho Gains Partial Revenge With Split in Series On Albion Floor

Crusaders Suffer 66-59 Overtime Upset

Northern Idaho gained an even split with the Crusaders at Lewiston by squeezing through with a 66-59 overtime victory in the second game of the series Wednesday.

The Loggers were slow to open up, trailing 28-16 at half-time, but they battled to a 57-all tie at the end of regulation time and went on Southern Idaho gained some measure of revenge for two losses inflicted on them here by splitting a two-game series with NNC at Albion last weekend.

The Panthers gained a 73-65 decision in the first tilt as they rolled to an early lead and maintained it despite a second half onslaught by the Crusaders.

Skip Wilcox paced NNC in its surge and wound up with scoring honors for NNC with 17 points. W. Beukelman trailed him with 13.

Bell with 20 points and Harold Loveless, a former all-state performer who was recently added to the squad, bucketed 18 to pace the winners.

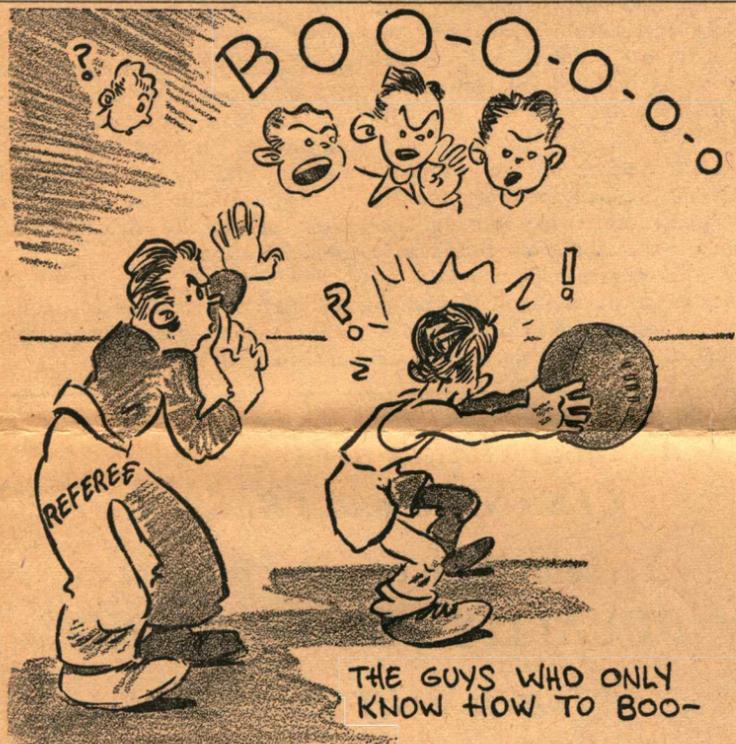

In the second tilt NNC moved into the lead in the second half to win a 59-48 decision. Millard Reynolds spearheaded the Crusaders' fast break with 16 tallies, one less than Bell of Southern Idaho garnered.

to win. Loss of two regulars via the foul route hurt NNC's chances considerably in the late stages of the struggle.

Milton Johnson paced the winners with 17 points. Merl Iles and Ralph Unger topped Crusader scoring with 13 markers each.

Crusaders Bomb North Idaho Twice; Present Queen Merilu With Victory

NNC's red-hot Crusaders presented Tip Off Queen Merilu Jensen with a victory on her coronation night as they blasted Northern Idaho 71-43 with a terrific surge in the last ten minutes.

They repeated their success the following night with a resounding 81-52 verdict over the Loggers.

In the first tilt Woody Beukelman flipped through 17 points, including seven out of seven free throw attempts, to pace the victors. Carlyle Dean caged 15 tallies and Merl Iles bucketed 11.

NNC opened to a quick 8-0 edge then watched it melt into a 19-16 deficit before Myron Finkbiener came through with a scoring spree to pace the Crusaders to a 26-22 half-time lead.

With ten minutes left and the Crusaders on top 41-33, the locals suddenly opened up with a fast break attack which left NICE gasping for points.

The second tilt was a reversal of the first in that the Crusaders took up where they had left off the night before fast breaking to a tremendous 46-21 halftime edge and then coasting in the rest of the way.

Scoring was evenly divided for the winners with Unger caging 15, Dean and Beukelman 14 each, Iles 13 and Reynolds 11.

Sweeney, a speedy Logger guard, notched top honors, however, with 20 tallies.

A robber boarded a train and stood up and replied, "You shall shouted, "I'm going to rob all the men of their money and kiss the women!"

not touch these ladies!"

But an old maid in an upper berth responded, "You leave him alone, he's robbing this train!"

VARIETY IS THE SPICE OF LIFE —EVEN IN THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

By Tom Kelly

For the past four years Olivet and N. N. C. have had a battle when it comes to Sunday school contests. However, after winning from them three times out of four, N. N. C. is shooting for a higher mark—that of challenging the largest Sunday school in the Nazarene denomination—Bethany-Peniel college. Variety, y'know!

Luckily for us, it's on a percentage basis. They had an average attendance of 947 last year, while we had 645, 302 less. But that gives us a goal to shoot for—if we make a 10% gain, which would be 64, they would have to make 94 more than the previous year. Clear, eh, what? In other words, we had 676 present last Sunday, which is a gain of 31—5% over last year. Bethany had 1090 present, which is a 15% gain. Ten percent in arrears the first Sunday; it's going to take more and more help.

This contest has been named the "David and Goliath" battle of the centuries and it's going to take all of the Davids, plus the rest of us to win this contest. They are bragging that just because we have Mr. Harper, who was their Sunday school superintendent, and Dr. Riley, a former classmate of Rev. Phillips, the pastor at Bethany, that still doesn't mean that we are going to beat them. Personally, I'm in favor of "cleaning their plow." And I think we can do it if we all work together on this.

All of the officers of the Sunday school classes have pledged their time and energy to this fight and with the help of the college students, we have got it cinched. But it's a case of you and y-o-u and us being out to and into Sunday school every Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

Antique Church To Be Restored

Last year the students of N. N. C. were instrumental in the preserving of Rock Creek church located near Mollala, Oregon. Through their petitions, over five hundred being presented, the proposed abandonment and tearing down of this church was postponed. A recent letter from W. W. Morrison, Old Oregon Trail historian, says that the plans for the tearing down of the church have been completely abandoned and a program of rebuilding is in progress.

Rock Creek church was founded by Old Oregon Trail pioneers who came to Oregon during the 1840's, among them being Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Boynton and Brad Boynton, prominent Methodists in the early days. The oldest known grave in the church cemetery dates back in 1852 and it is believed the church was built sometime between that date and 1856.

After reading of the proposed sale of the building for tearing down, Mr. Morrison wrote and asked us to contribute our petitions to those of other people who were interested in the saving of this building. Through the help of the students of N. N. C. this church has

Judiciary Board Plans Constitution

Last year the Judiciary Board was founded as an active mediating body between the students and the administration on matters of discipline.

The Board recently met and re-activated by drawing up a constitution which is now being submitted to the administration for approval.

Article 1, section 2, of the new constitution reads: "The purpose of this organization is to act as a mediating board between the students and the administration of Northwest Nazarene college in matters pertaining to student discipline."

"This board will consider disciplinary matters presented and recommend to the administration action to be taken. In addition, they will help to promote and maintain wholesome student attitudes on the campus."

Members of the Board are Ralph Unger, president; Tom Kelly, vice-president; Faye Strunk, secretary-treasurer; Lois Williamson, Lois Oberg, Earlene Tapely, Evelyn Gray, Don Jackson, Dave Witt and Earl Barnum, dormitory representatives.

President Ralph Unger states, "The Judicial Board has been formed primarily for the students' benefit and, although up to this date it has not been too active, with the approval of the constitution this semester will show a greater activity in the mediating of disciplinary cases between the students and the administration."

now been preserved as a monument to those pioneers who first came out on the Old Oregon Trail.
