AWS Sponsors Thanksgiving Banquet; Major Penrod to Speak, Wesche to MC

Major Everett Penrod, USAF Chaplain stationed at Mountain Home Air Force Base, will be the featured speaker at the annual Thanksgiving dinner tomorrow.

Chaplain Penrod is a veteran of World War II, serving in North Africa, Europe and the Middle East. He holds the Bronze Star medal, Army Commendation medal, the E. T. O. ribbon with four battle stars, the American Theatre of Operations ribbon and World War II Victory medal.

He has been active in youth work and boys club activities for several years. Prior to recall last year he was pastoring the Church of the Nazarene at Redlands, California.

Dining Hall to Host Event

Morrison Dining Hall will host the formal occasion arranged by the officers of the Associated Women Students. The traditional roast turkey with all the trimmings is on the menu for the banquet scheduled for 4:00 p. m.

Planned by Marian Johnson, the program will include a vocal number by the King's Men quartet, composed of Marvin Bloomquist, Quincy Angier, Bob Johnson and Kenny Hills. Prof. Edward Taylor will sing and dinner music will be provided by Virginia Walton, T. C. Leckie and Ila Mae Van Notric.

Lilburn Wesche will act as master of ceremonies for the second straight year. According to Mary Alyce Galloway, president of the A. W. S., the theme for the dinner, true to traditional form, will not be released until banquet time.

Earlene Tapley, Mona Gowan

and Virginia Walton are heading the committees, assisted by Dwayne Shaefer, Charlene Smith, Ethel Scammon, Mary A. Renschler, Laura Falk, Edna Cramer, Joy Tink, Mary Mattson, Lois Becker and Bertie Graham.

SLAs Take First, ADPs Second In Society Debate

Last Friday showed the windup of the society debate tournament, with George Pfenninger and Roger Marks, SLAs, coping first place honors in the "War of Words." David Taylor and Joe Wright, ADP members, talked their way into second place while George Mowry and Fred Rapp, of the Oly society, wound up in third place.

There were 20 entrants in the Humorous Readings contest last Tuesday. Out of these, four finalists were chosen by the judges to compete in chapel Dec. 7. They were Delores Lovett, SLA; Lyle Starkey, SLA; Bonnie Painter, ADP, and Jo Ann Gause, ADP.

Thursday evening was the occasion for the preliminaries in the Shakespearean Dialogue contest. Four finalists, also to appear in chapel Dec. 7, are Delores Lovett and Roger Marks, SLA's; Jo Ann Gause and Norene DeJong, ADPs. Lyle Starkey and Marvin Bloomquist, SLAs; and George Pfenninger and Ardith McCann, also of the SLA society.

Accomplishments Told of Who's Who Group; Eleven Students Are Selected

"Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities" for 1951-52 will be represented by 11 seniors. Marvin Bloomquist, Gordon Belzer, James Carkhuff, Chester Galloway, Mary Alyce Galloway, Dan Jackson, Clifford Cowley, Marian Johnson, Daphne McGregory, Joe Wright and Millard Reynolds.

Students qualifying for "Who's Who" were considered on the basis of scholarship, leadership and participation in extra-curricular activities, citizenship, service to school, promise of future usefulness to business and society, and Christian character and influence.

ASB Prexy, Wife Chosen

Chester Galloway, currently president of the student body, has held a list of other executive offices. Sophomore president, SLA president, N Club president, and student council representative are among his official accomplishments. His major is history and philosophy, and he is a member of the SLA society.

Mary Alyce Galloway, president of AWS, was secretary of the ASB and is a prominent member of the ADP society. She is an English major and wife of Chester Galloway. Both she and Chet are automatically members of "Who's Who" by virtue of election last year.

Joe Wright has been active in the ADP society as president and society athletics. He was president of the Men's club last year and assistant dean of Chapman for one semester. He is majoring in religion.

Students To Vote On KROK Transfer

Pending student body acceptance is the issue to transfer ownership of the Campus Radio Station, KROK, from College High to the College A. S. B.

Proposed change in constitution would place the radio station on equal standing with the school publications, the Oasis and the Crusader and would call for a full-time student manager to be elected by the student body.

KROK was built last year by the College High Radio club under the leadership of Virgil Vail. Rod Newman was charter president of the club which now operates the station. Present officers are Edward Manley, president; Bud Bold, vice president; and Floyd Johnson, secretary-treasurer.

Next week has been set as voting time on the proposed amendment to the constitution which was presented in yesterday's chapel by A. S. B. President Chester Galloway.

Preaching Mission To Begin Monday

LaMont Lee will bring the opening message of the annual faculty preaching mission next Monday at 9:45 a. m. Services will be held each chapel period during the week and Wednesday and Sunday nights.

Dr. Carl Hanson has charge of Tuesday morning chapel, Prof. A. J. Finkbeiner will speak Wednesday morning and Prof. Guy Sharp will deliver the evening message. Thursday chapel period will feature Prof. F. C. Sutherland. Prof. Mollalieu Wilson will preach Friday morning with Prof. Elwood Sanner conducting the closing service Sunday evening.

This is the sixth year in which the preaching mission has functioned. In 1946 a religious activity committee of faculty members suggested that two weeks of the year be consecrated to the purpose of intensifying student consciousness of the school's religious atmosphere. One week first semester is given to faculty preaching.

Students To Hear Music By Faculty

Members of the music faculty will be sponsored in the annual Faculty Music Recital by the Music club Saturday, Dec. 8 at 8 p. m. Vocal numbers will be presented by Miss Clara Christenson and Mr. Warren Franklin. Piano numbers will be given by Mrs. Helen Wilson, Mrs. Elwood Sanner, Miss Margaret Wilkes and Mr. Double E. Hill.

Miss Elaine Carlson will play an organ solo and Mrs. Alvin Kaufmann will present a violin solo. The program will be held in the chapel.

Burkhart Announces Geographical Bands

This year's Foreign Mission Band is divided into five individual prayer bands, announces President Bob Burkhart. These bands are the Latin-American Band, the Africa and Cape Verde Band, the Far East Band, the Europe and Asia Band, and the Islands of the Sea Band.

Individuals assigned to the bands pray for that particular region during the week and in the Thursday noon prayer and fasting session. "The purpose of this organization," states Burkhart, "is to pray for the needs of the missionaries on each field, to write to missionaries and obtain requests and answers to prayer, and to remember the missionaries on special days and on their birthdays in some small way."

TIP-OFF SET FOR JAN. 5

Twelve Tip-Off queen candidates are being selected by members of the N-Club for presentation to the student body on Dec. 5. Elections the following week will determine the five princesses who will rule over Tip-Off Night activities scheduled for Jan. 5.

The princess receiving the highest number of votes will reign as queen of the annual event, but in keeping with tradition, her identity will remain a secret until crowning time.

SLA-Oly cast for "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come." First row: E. Broadbent, M. Stroud, I. Herper, G. Mowry, B. McGraw, P. Wilcox. Back row: V. Mabury, R. Marks, D. Cook, I. Weatherby, L. Stankey and J. Knapp.

SLA-Oly Societies to Present Drama; Lead Roles Bill Mowry and Harris

"The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come," by Charles George, will be dramatized by members of the SLA and Oly societies Friday and Saturday at 8 p. m. Co-directors of the play, based on the novel by John Fox, Jr., are June Knapp and Lyle Starkey, society program chairmen.

Imogene Harris and George Mowry will handle the leading roles in the three-act drama which is set in the Kentucky mountains. Chad, orphaned early in life and a most unusual boy, is portrayed by George Mowry. By a queer turn of circumstance he meets Imogene Harris who is cast as Margaret Deam, the daughter of a proud Southern family.

George Pfenninger, as Nathan Cherry, with his daughter, Betsy (Wanda Shockley) claims Chad as his property until he runs away to live with the Turners and their daughter, Melissa, played by Bonnie McGraw.

Being taken to the city by the Turner men, Chad becomes lost and was picked up and taken home by Major Calvin Buford (Dave Cook). Bachelor Major Buford lives with his maiden sister, Lucy (Faye Strunk). The Buford servants are Old Tom (Harold Stickney) and Thanky, played by Eunice Broadbent.

Mrs. Dean, who lives next door to the Bufords and is the mother of Margaret, is portrayed by Mary Stroud. Roger Marks takes the part of Richard Hunt, who, with his sister, Nellie, played by Pearl Wilcox, is from the "Blue Grass". Veneta Mabury as Jennie Overstreet, takes the role of a poetess.

This dramatic production will be judged in competition with Charles Dickens' "Great Expectations" presented last week by the ADP and LSP societies. The societies presenting the winning play will receive 1000 points toward the faculty loving cup award.

Leighton To Lead Gamma Nu Gamma

Gamma Nu Gamma met last Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Rose Voget for election of officers and to formulate plans for the year.

Elected to lead the women athletes of the campus was Violet Leighton, member of the senior class and Physical Education teacher of the college. She will be assisted by Lois Tracy, Athletic Director for the ADP society. The combined jobs of secretary-treasurer will be accomplished by Jessie Rice and Faye Strunk was elected program chairman. Dwayne Shaffer will act as chairman of concessions.

Faye Strunk, Joan Eaton, Lois Tracy, Virginia Walton and Jessie Rice were received into associate membership and Mrs. Rose Voget was unanimously chosen advisor and sponsor.

FMB Features SVM Leader in Lecture

Mrs. Lois Wichman, representative of the Student Volunteer Movement, gave a student lecture in the chapel Monday at 4 p. m. Sponsored by the Foreign Missions Band and the Christian Workers Band, she spoke on "The Responsibility of Christians in a World in Struggle."

Mrs. Wichman is from San Francisco where she assists her husband in mission work. He is director of the Cameron House, a general welfare project in the midst of San Francisco's Chinatown.

Trojan Talk

By C. H. S. Journalism Class—Velma Pool, Editor

COLLEGE HI STUDENTS ON THANKSGIVING—

LORRIE MACK—"Autumn is a beautiful time of the year with all its glorious colors . . . the rustle of the tassels of corn, the rasping of tangled leaves, and all the wheat in the fields. Thanksgiving is a wonderful day of the year with everyone gathering together to worship and to give thanks to God for our beautiful world."

ED MANLEY—"When this Thanksgiving rolls around why not take a little extra time out to thank God. Just stop and think a moment. Would you be going to this school if it weren't for God's help? Would you have a home to go to if it weren't for our deliverance from war in our homeland? Let's let our Heavenly Father know our thankfulness more than ever before this November 22nd."

ELEANOR GUSTIN—"Thanksgivin' is the bestest time
Of all the year to me,
With a great big turkey cookin'
And expected company."

ANN KNAPP—"As we look about we can see many people who have less than we. Let's give this Thanksgiving—perhaps to someone who is in need! It is more blessed to give than to receive—remember? Let's make this a really truly Thanks-giving!"

CLARENCE KINZLER—"One thing—I think we should say thanks to every serviceman that has been in Korea. Do we stop to realize what it really means to us to have those boys over there? Next time you step out your door just pause and look around. See the car go by? See the children playing? See the store down the street where you can buy all you want to eat? Just take off your hat and from the bottom of your heart say 'Thanks'."

MAC WELLS—"Thanks be to God most of all for parents—Christian parents—who love and care for us in the hard times of life. Parents who have brought us up in the ways of Christ."

DON CURTIS—"I am thankful for a home
Though it be not of riches fair,
But when I leave and come back again
There's always a welcome there."

JUDY KIRSCHNER—"Are we really thankful for the trials we have and for the chances to be useful? I think that all of our little troubles and trials are important because one of these days we're going to be out in this mean old world shifting for ourselves and brother!—if we don't settle our own little trials now, what will we do when we haven't Mom or Prof. So-and-So to help us out? So be thankful for your trials and troubles as well as for a turkey dinner!"

JUDY WHITE—"Thanks be to God for my home, the sky, the birds' songs and noises of the forest; to be able to wade with naked feet along the beach; the freedom to live and talk and be in a country which I love."

A female golfer was having a bad time on the golf course. After flubbing an easy shot she turned angrily on her snickering caddy. "If you don't stop that," she screeched, "you'll drive me out of my mind!"

"That wouldn't be no drive," answered the boy, "—only a putt."

"Why are college professors like Ford cars?"

"Because they give the most service for the least money."

Girls we love for what they are;
Young men for what they promise to be.—Goethe.

DEVOTIONAL THOTS ON . . .

Looking At Jesus

By David Taylor

"They saw no man save Jesus only . . ."—Matt.

The highest peak in God's "range of grace" is reached when we get to the place where we see "Jesus only." To lose sight of everything earthly and temporal and view those things which are eternal and spiritual is doing that which becomes true Christianity.

So many these days in the ranks of the Christian army seemingly lose sight of everything but the obstacles which are found in their paths. Having started in the Christian life they begin looking upon the barriers and hard places and soon lose sight of Jesus, their Saviour. We need to get to the place spiritually where we lost sight of all the seemingly impossible and impassable obstacles and gain in stead full view of Christ.

There are also some who seem to see only people. They look at those around them and soon begin to lose out spiritually. In looking at men with their achievements there comes despair. In looking at men with their failures there comes doubt. Let us take our eyes from men and look unto Jesus.

I would challenge everyone to gain this height. In discouraging times there will be encouragement; in times of weakness there will be renewed strength if we will see "no man save Jesus only . . ."

"Be Kind to Student Week" Suggested To Be in Effect During Exam Sieges

Due to an increasing number of low blows administered by the faculty at quite regular intervals, it has become quite apparent that an antithesis is needed to determine a course for the abused student.

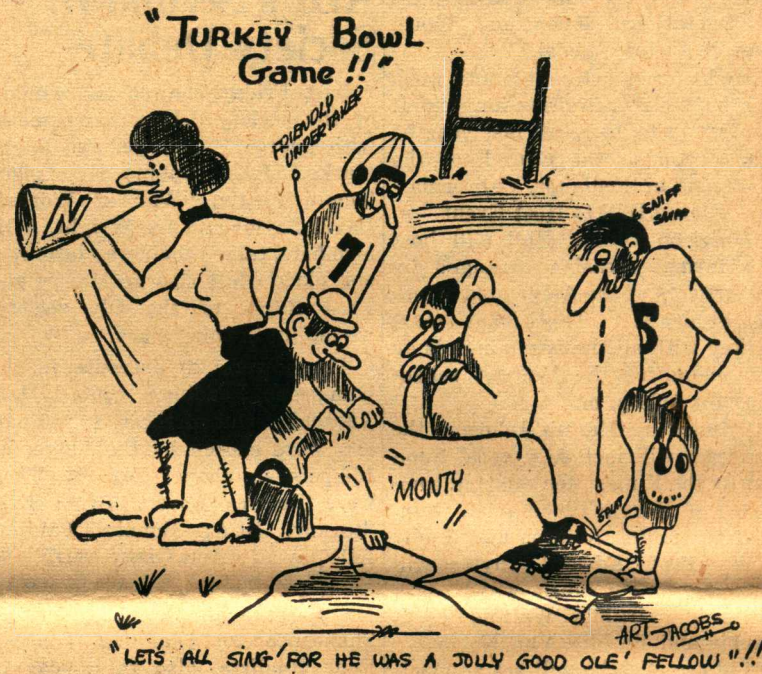

We are specifically interested in temporarily eliminating mistreatment of students by inaugurating a plan to establish a "Be Kind to Student Week."

It is quite obvious that this institution is becoming more and more necessary. We have noted poor, abused students studying way into the wee hours of the mornings for tests the following day. No tests should ever be given following a night of study. Thus, we shall make constitutional that no tests shall be administered during "Be Kind to Student Week."

Also we have seen professors deliberately talking in a monotone for three-fourths of the class period so that the last quarter he can heatedly scorch the class for sleeping through the lecture "which has taken me years to prepare". During "Be Kind to Student Week," all instructors will be required to deliver their lectures (which have decayed through the years) with vigor and enthusiasm. The reprimands will be delivered in a lecture monotone.

Assignments will be decreed in a more democratic manner. "The will of the masses not the tyranny of teachers." Imagine the beautiful ecstasy which will thrill our very souls when the assignments are fair.

This "Week" should be installed first as an annual event (so the shock will not be too great), and then as the low level of student treatment improves it should proceed and follow all test weeks until ultimately the evil of tests is entirely eliminated.

Kickoff for Society Cage Season Set; A. S. B. to Elect Cheer Leaders

JAMBOREE PAIRINGS

- 6:30—LSP vs. Olys (girls).
- 7:30—LSP vs. Olys (boys).
- 8:30—SLA vs. ADP (girls).
- 9:30—SLA vs. ADP (boys).

Intramural basketball doffs its hat to the new season tomorrow nite with the annual Jamboree which gets underway at 6:30.

During the evening's festivities, yell leaders for the varsity cage team will try out and be voted on by the student body.

Although none of the games will count in the regular season standings, judges will select the society which displays the outstanding sportsmanship, best decorations, best skit and liveliest enthusiasm. Points will be awarded towards the faculty loving cup with 100 points for first, 75 for second, 50 for third and 25 for fourth.

In the opening tilt of the evening the LSP girls, paced by JoAnn Hutchison, Ardis Manley and Naomi Volk, will battle the Olys who will field an untried sextet composed largely of freshmen.

In the opening boys tiff, the Olys and LSPs will tangle. Back for the Olys are Volney Johnson, Gordon Beeson, Ron Beech and George Mowry. For the LSPs, Howard Johnson, Lilburn Wesche, Herb Geller and Harry Williamson will lead the attack.

The SLA girls will be paced by Cassel Mosteller and Jessie Rice in their struggle with the ADPs, who will have Charlene Smith, Gladys Fred and others back from last year.

The ADP and SLA boys will end the evening's slate. Pacing the ADPs will be Clarence Olson, Russ Miller, Merv Gale, Raye Woolbright and Jack Lee, while the SLAs will have Chet Galloway, Kenny Hills, Jim Frazier and Whitey Bullock back in the fold for the coming season.

Crusader Harriers Take 2nd at I. S. C.

By Ron Beech

Overcoming a stiff wind, the Crusader thinclads garnered second place in the Idaho State Invitational cross-country run at Pocatello. Bob Burkhart and Bruce Koerner finished seventh and tenth respectively to lead Coach L. Carleton Lee's lads in their final encounter of the year.

The finish was one of the closest in meet history with only 22 seconds separating the first and seventh place runners.

University of Wyoming won first place team honors. Other schools entered were Utah, Idaho State and Lewis and Clark. Altogether there were 22 entries in the event.

Others in the first five finishers for NNC were Gordon Beeson, Rich Powers and Bob Willard.

Tub Thumping

By Lilburn Wesche

When tomorrow dawns bright and clear, members of the local bonecrusher's union will be in their glory. Ah, yes. 'Tis the annual day of mayhem, more commonly referred to as the Turkey Bowl game.

It will be interesting to watch the great George Pfenninger in action. Pfenninger has been blowing for the past few weeks about his dynamic football ability. Poor deluded soul. He is a living repudiation of the theory that hot air and a vacuum cannot both be in the same place.

One guy will be missed. That is the irresistible LaMont Lee. After playing in every Turkey Bowl throughout his 13 college years and several since then, he has decided to hang up his cleats and blackjack. He will now occupy himself by being a stretcher bearer instead of a stretcher case.

The only person who is really happy about the Turkey Bowl is a local businessman named John Alsip. Two large rooms in his funeral parlor are being reserved for the grand occasion.

We wish to extend our congratulations to Keith Leamon. After all these years it has finally dawned on him that he can't play. As would be expected in such situations, he is now a coach.

Biggest threats tomorrow will no doubt be Glenn Knapp and Dick Johnson, the only living football players who can submarine without bending over.

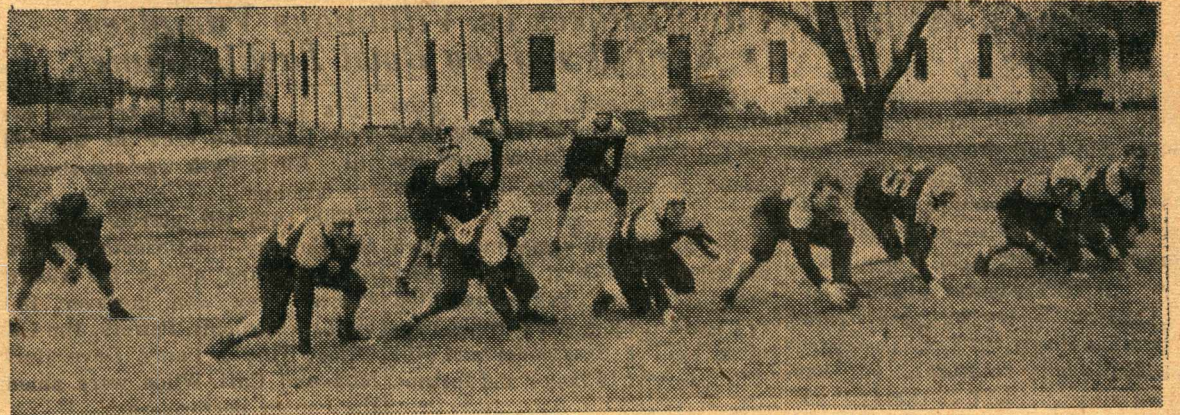

In conclusion, if you think the above article stinks, just wait until you've seen the game.

College High's Trojans wound up their grid wars a couple of Saturdays ago with a fine exhibition of football. We'd like to commend Coach Elmore Vail and Line Coach Bill Miller. The Trojans this season were among the best teams in their class and displayed a sound knowledge of fundamentals. Congratulations.

Society basketball is pretty much of a question mark at this early date. However, the SLAs and the LSPs, winners last year, were both weakened by losses, while the Olys, doormats last season, appear some stronger and the ADPs, who were coming up fast toward the end of the year, have practically the same team back again. It should make for an interesting race with an undefeated champion as a doubtful possibility.

OLYS NIP FIGHTING SLAs

Coming from behind in the late stages of the final period, an overconfident Oly nine edged by the determined SLAs, 12-6.

The losers struck pay dirt first when Wayne Aller hit Chet Galloway in coffin corner for their only tally.

The lead was short-lived, however, as the aroused Olys surged back to tie up the tussle in three plays. Reynolds shot a long pass to Finkbeiner for the touchdown.

Late in the final frame the winners broke the tie as Reynolds flipped a short aerial to Gurth White who went over for the score.

The win gave the Olys their third straight gridiron championship and was the third straight year that they have gone undefeated on the playing field.

LSPs Trip SLAs 18-2

In the battle for the cellar, the SLAs gained sole possession by dropping an 18-2 decision to the LSPs. The initial period witnessed all the scoring for the LSPs with John Helman chucking two passes to speedy Herb Geller for a pair of tallies. The final TD came as Arlin Anderson flipped a lateral to Gordon Renschler who galloped the remaining 20 yards for the score.

The SLAs collected their two points late in the second period as the strong SLA line broke through and trapped Helman behind the goal for a safety.

the student body, has in past years held the offices of junior class president and FMB president. He was assistant dean in Chapman Hall for two years. A member of the LSP society, he has also participated in musical programs and dramatics.

ASB Treasurer Listed

Clifford Cowley, business administration major, is now associated student body treasurer. He has been vice-president of the LSP society and treasurer of the athletic literary council. Dramatics and music are among his extra-curricular activities.

Music major James Carkhuff, at the present time president of the General Missionary Society, has held such offices as LSP president and Crusader choir member. Society plays and music recitals have also had him as a constituent.

Another music major is Marvin Bloomquist, this semester's SLA president. He has been president of A Cappella, Philharmonic, and Sons of Samson besides student council representative. As a member of Philharmonic he was baritone soloist in the Christmas recital, "Messiah."

Daphne Gregory, English major and member of the ADP society, is now secretary of the ASB, and FTA president. She has been junior class secretary and a member of Zetta Kappa Rho.

Reynolds Elected

Senior Class President Millard Reynolds has been Oly president and director of intramural activities. He has been decidedly prominent in athletics, having been captain of the baseball, basketball and

Vile Vultures vs. Villianous Vampires In Annual Turkey Bowl Tackle Game

Tomorrow morning two grim elevens will line up in Bulldog Bowl for the whistle which will get the seventh annual Turkey Bowl under way.

The ancient tilt, sometimes called the Blood Bowl, Mud Bowl, or just "one fowl game" was inaugurated back in 1946 when two elevens, captained by Bob Sporleader and Bill Butler, fought to honor and fortune in Kurtz Park.

Monty Lee describes it as the "bloodiest game ever." "There was a path," he said, "worn to the hospital as players staggered to and fro."

Vail Snags TD Pass

Elmore Vail snagged a pass off his shoetops to provide Al Iver-

track teams and a four-year letterman. He is majoring in Secondary Education.

Gordon Belzer, philosophy major, is a member of the LSP's and society president last year. He is currently holding the office of N. Y. P. S. president and is a member of the Timothy-Philosophy clubs.

Marian Johnson, music major in piano theory, is pianist for the Crusader Choir. She has held the office of program chairman for the ADP's and is prominent in music programs. Marian transferred from Whitworth College during her junior year.

son's 11 with a 6-0 triumph over Don Bozarth's crew in the 1947 tilt. Kurtz Park was the scene of the triumph.

The 1948 tilt played downtown saw Coaches Don Bozarth and Doug Powers going all-out for victory. Powers' crew won, however, 18-6. Millard Reynolds, Powers, Jim Galloway, Tiny Bellamy, Dave Burkhardt and Carl Wilde were among the game's performers.

1949 Tilt Ends in Tie

Powers' Golden Bears and Reynolds' White Phantoms slogged to a 12-12 tie in the 1949 tilt played on the muddy high school practice field. The two coaches starred, along with George Mowry, Dean Hellenga, Jim Kenneda, Jim Galloway, Howard Johnson, Bud Russell, Don Farrand, Lloyd Hubbard and others. It was in this game that pint-sized Johnny Pershall almost scored the first TD of his life only to have it nullified by a penalty.

Bohunks Trip Bums, 18-6

Last year saw Coach George Baska's Bohunks register an 18-6 verdict over the Bums, mentored by Carlyle Dean and Dave Burkhardt.

"Value of Pi" Is Math Meet Theme

Thirty teachers and students from the Boise Valley attended a mathematics meeting held recently on the N. N. C. Campus. The theme of the meeting was the value of pi.

Ruth and Dorothy Long of the N. N. C. Art department presented a 40-foot scroll depicting the chronology of pi from 3000 B. C. to 1949 A. D. and charting it to 500 places.

Don Fowler were among the standouts in that fray.

Tomorrow the 1951 tilt will enter the halls of history. Both coaches, Keith Leamon and Jim Frazier, have their clubs keyed up for the melee and both predict victory. Frazier's "Vile Vultures" will rely on the speed and deception of the T formation, while Leamon's "Villainous Vampire" eleven will stick with the powerful single wing.

Dorothy Long spoke on the individual attempts to evaluate pi.

In a short book review period, Prof. Jeanne C. Stearns of B. J. C. reviewed "Out of My Later Years" by Albert Einstein; and Prof. Tillotson of NNC reviewed Richardson's "Fundamentals of Mathematics."

The meeting was closed with the acceptance of an offer by B. J. C. to hold a future meeting there in late winter or early spring.
