Exceptions to this are English I which will meet Monday at 2:50; Public Speaking, Thursday, 2:50, and New Testament, 2:50 on Tuesday.

Grades To Be Available

Grade cards for the first semester will be given out Monday, Jan. 28. A secretary will be posted in the basement to serve the lower division students and those in the upper division will receive theirs on the main floor of the administration building.

Saturday, Jan. 26, entrance tests

SLAs Take Firsts In Speech Battle

This week saw the final judging in the Humorous Reading and Shakespearean Dialogue departments of the society speech contest. First place in humorous readings went to Lyle Starkey and second place to Delores Lovett, both SLAs. Tie for third place went to Joann Gause and Bonnie Painter, ADPs.

Results of the Shakespearean finals, run off during Wednesdays' chapel period, place Lyle Starky and Marvin Bloomquist, SLAs, in first; Joann Gause and Noreen De-Jong, ADPs, second; Delores Lovett and Roger Marks, SLAs, third and Ardith McCann and George Pfenninger, SLAs, fourth.

will be offered to 11 new freshmen students entering second semester. Prof. D. Tillotson will be in charge of these tests.

Second semester registration will begin Jan. 28 at 9:00 a. m. and continue through the 29th. Registration must be completed by Friday, Feb. 1, or a fee will be charged for all late entrants. Registration material will be available Friday, Jan. 25th.

Certificates Won By Commercial Majors

Mrs. Rose Voget, Commercial instructor, presented three students in the Advanced Shorthand class, certificates from the Gregg Publishing company this week. The certificates were given for writing 120 words per minute for five minutes and transcribing with 95 per cent accuracy.

Those receiving the recognition were Mary Ann Renschler, Pat McCain and Bertie Graham.

Five outstanding students in the Advanced Typing Class also received the Gregg Competent Typist awards. Bertie Graham of Orofino, Idaho, led the class by typing 80 words per minute for 10 minutes with only three errors.

Next highest was Pat McCain with 66 and Beverly Kitchen typed at the rate of 57 words per minute. Mona Gowan and Marion George tallied 55 words.

According to Mrs. Voget the entire beginning typing class has already attained their required speed of 25 correct words per minute. Joy Tink is leading the class with 54 words per minute and Eugene Nakada follows as a close second with 53 words on the five minute tests.

Youth Revival To Begin in College Church January 28; Rev. Stowe Slated As Speaker

J. Lais, J. Wright, L. Wesche, Mowry, To Head Societies

Society officers for next semester were elected during last Tuesday's activity period. Results of the SLA election will set up Jim Lais as president, Kenny Hills as vice president, Faye Iles as program chairman, Laura Falk as secretary, Merlin Hunter as treasurer, Dwayne Shaffer and Marvin Bloomquist as girls' and boys' athletic directors respectively.

New ADP officers are: President, Joe Wright; vice president, Don Fowler; program chairman, Lauren Saunders; secretary, Bonnie Painter; treasurer, Joe Keen; and athletic directors, Mary Alyce Galloway and Dan Wright.

Coming Oly officers are George Mowry, president; Glenn Embree, vice president; Eunice Broadbent, program chairman; Eloise Tate, secretary; Lois Becker, treasurer and Gerry Proudfit and Myron Finkbeiner, athletic directors.

Circle K Member Inauguration Set

Inauguration exercises for N. N. C.'s newest service organization, the Circle-K Club, are tentatively set for Friday, Jan. 25. Club President James Lais reports that the club, a junior branch of Kiwanis International, is primarily a service function body. Club members are on call at all times to cooperate and assist in any type of school activity.

Entertainment and transportation facilities are available through the club for groups visiting the school. An example of their work was the recent individual housing and entertainment of the Seattle-Pacific basketball squad during their stay in Chapman Hall.

Signs To Be Erected

Plans by the group for the erection of highway marker signs for Northwest Nazarene College are nearing completion, says Lais. They will be posted at two or three key places and will give the directions and distance to the campus.

Rev. Eugene Stowe, pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene in Salem, Oregon, will be the evangelist for the Youth Revival next week. The annual mid-semester crusade, sponsored by Nampa's five Nazarene churches, will begin Monday, January 28 and run through Saturday, February 2.

Evangelistic services will be held daily Monday through Friday at 9:40 a. m. and each evening at 7:30 in College Church. Particular emphasis will be placed on carrying Bibles both to the services and throughout the day.

Wins Honors

Rev. Stowe won outstanding honors in speech and debate competition while attending Pasadena College. In 1940 his debating won him first place in the Southern California invitational tournament. In 1941 he was a member of a debate team that took two second place honors in invitational tournaments.

In 1942 he won first place in extemporaneous speaking in the Western States Regional Tournament. In this tournament every state university from the seven Western States as well as the University of Southern California, Stanford and other independent schools were represented. Rev. Stowe has recently completed a city wide youth revival campaign held in The First Church of the Nazarene, Mololla, Oregon.

Horrines Lead Music

In charge of music for the youth sponsored revival will be Prof. and Mrs. James Horrines, music directors at Nampa First Church. They are recently transferred from the First Church of the Nazarene, Dayton, Ohio, where he was professor of music in a Dayton college.

Pre-prayer services will be held each evening in the downstairs youth chapel. Beginning at 7 p. m. the special prayer for each evangelistic meeting will continue throughout the entire evening service.

The members hold services throughout Western Idaho and Eastern Oregon.

Two week end revivals are scheduled for next semester. The first will be at Council, Idaho, and the next at Sandpoint. Each Sunday evening members of the group have charge of the young people's services at Boise Southside church.

Next semester's expanding program will require an addition of members to the band. Students may acquire their membership at any of the regular Thursday night meetings.

Laws Wins KROK Manager Position

Melvin Laws edged out Rod Newman and Dick Ivester in the recent KROK election to become the first student manager of the campus radio station. He will officially take over the management of the station at the beginning of next semester.

"Plans are being completed," Laws states, "for the station to switch to more radio hours and uninterrupted service during the broadcast period." Long range plans include continuous 12-hour listening service. At present, prospects for installation of a teletype machine in the near future are good, he reports.

Those interested in working with Laws on the broadcasts may contact him. He will select his assistants from those interested as soon as possible.

Smith Views Past And Future of Club

First semester activities of the Christian Workers' Band were summarized by President Lloyd Smith as "a record-breaking schedule."

Thirty-two cars have been sent out to outposts and various small churches for a total of 3,018 miles.

Thinking of Leaving? Read This

The current noise-making fad on the campus seems to be, "I'm not coming back next semester." It all started when one or two individuals at Christmas time found life at home more than they could bear—to be away from. Immediately scores of other students grabbed up the glowing torch and fanned the potential fire into a blazing inferno.

In fact, two weeks ago when we decided to publish the names of those planning to drop out or transfer, we found so many that we decided to list instead the few that hadn't succumbed to the urge to join the trend and were staying. Of course by now the movement has worn the keen edge off its novelty and only the few serious members are left to carry out the goals set by the masses under their own hypnotic spell.

Plan to Transfer?

To those who plan to transfer to another school I would like to drop a gentle hint. Campus life in other colleges just doesn't stack up with the fellowship that you are getting here. I know one student right here in school now who attended a whole year at another non-Christian institution. At the end of three terms I asked him how many people there were in the whole student body that he was acquainted with. He said, "Oh, maybe five or six." Here, after a year and a half, he is a campus leader. Just one person who wouldn't trade N. N. C. for all the secular schools you could name.

Goin' to Work?

If some of you fellows plan to just drop out to "go to work and make some money," I'd like to point out that this is a poor time of the year to get a good, high-paying job. Why not borrow the money or make arrangements with the school if you lack funds? If you HAVE to stay out a semester, stay out next fall when you have your job. You could pay back what you borrowed then in far less time than it would take to earn an equal amount this spring.

So, guys and gals alike, think it over carefully before you make your decision. It's these seemingly small decisions that often decide life-time issues.

In short, drop dates, drop the subject, drop dead—but DON'T drop school.

Nazarene Seminary In Japan Requests Needed Text Books

By Terry Yoda

As the result of our prayer for Japan, the Tokyo Nazarene Seminary will be opened this coming April to educate the Japanese students, and the seminary has many material needs along with their need of more prayer of ours.

According to the letter I received from the president of the seminary, he is requesting books for the seminar library, especially scholastic books and books concerning the Doctrine of Holiness.

If you have an extra book or books you can give away for the Nazarene Seminary in Japan, please contact Terry T. Yoda, Box 334, N. N. C., or Room 244, Chapman Hall.

For some people half the battle consists in looking prosperous; the other half, in getting credit on the strength of such prosperity.

Gamma Nu Gamma Deserves Honors

One organization on the campus, composed of very restricted membership, is rendering service plus this year with little recognition.

This group of 11 girls compose the Gamma Nu Gamma, led by Vi Leighton, popular director of women's athletics. The varied activities this semester have included the selling of season tickets, arranging ushers for the basketball games, handling concessions, printing programs and numerous other details asked of them by different groups on and off the campus.

Mrs. Rose Voget, sponsor for the club, stated the girls even polish the trophies while transacting business at their meetings.

This efficiently organized and functioning group is composed of Lois Herron, Jessie Rice, Dwayne Shaffer, Mary A. Galloway, Virginia Walton, Faye Iles, Connie Mitchell, Delores Lovett, Joan Eaton, Lois Tracy and Vi Leighton.

Couples to Exchange Mid-Semester Vows

John R. Kell and Darlene Bradley will exchange vows in a formal wedding ceremony January 25 at 8 p. m. The couple will be united in the Nyssa, Oregon Church of the Nazarene followed by a reception in the Nyssa Methodist Church annex.

Following a brief wedding trip, the couple will return to NNC to complete the school year.

Stanley Lewis and June Knapp have set tomorrow evening, Jan. 19 as the wedding date. They will be married in the Franklin Road Church of the Nazarene in Nampa at 8 p. m. Following the ceremony will be a reception in the First Christian Church here in town.

DEVOTIONAL THOTS ON . . .

THE SUFFICIENCY OF SALVATION

By David Taylor

One of the greatest factors about full salvation is the fact that it is that which meets the needs of men and women. A person is not saved and sanctified and left with still a spiritual need for there is a marvelous sufficiency in entire salvation.

Salvation is sufficient to bring rest from the heavy and overwhelming burden that sin brings. Sin brings a burden that weighs upon men and women until they scarcely know where to turn. But this burden can be lifted and man can be freed from the load of sin. Salvation is sufficient to give us rest so that we need no longer carry the burden of sin.

Sin not only brings a terrible burden but also brings a condition of helplessness to the sinner. Sin chains an individual. Sin binds men until they are no longer free. But Christ has the power to give freedom to every enslaved person. There is glorious emancipation for sinful people who are bound by sin.

Christianity is sufficient to completely change men's lives until they no longer are the same. Their habits, attitudes and ambitions are changed. Salvation is sufficient to cause a change. Man can be not only forgiven and emancipated but cleansed and changed.

Salvation is sufficient to meet the needs of men and women. When everything else in the world proved itself to be insufficient salvation is fully able to cause rest to be given to those who are weary and tired. It is sufficient to bring cleansing and to change men and women completely. Salvation is sufficient!

Attention, Girls: Leap Year Hints Made Available To College Co-Eds

So it's leap year, girls, and you want to get that guy?

Well, if you want to be successful, quit trying to follow the usual advice to the lovelorn and face the real facts of life.

The main fact is that the odds are against you—and the odds are getting worse. Ten years ago there were 100 men for every 100 women in the United States. But the last census showed there are only 96.6 men over 21 for every 100 women in the same age bracket.

Fraction Beats None

There just aren't enough guys to go around. Most of the 100 women try to marry one of those 96 men. Why don't you aim at the leftover—the .6 percent fellow. Don't forget that if you can't get a whole man, a male fraction is better than none.

The professional advice-givers usually tell a girl to be sensible and "marry a dependable, healthy man with a steady job and a good sense of humor." That is like telling you to marry the man in the moon.

Think of all the men you know who are dependable, healthy, and have steady jobs and a good sense of humor. Don't they already wear some other gal's brand? As a young lady told me mournfully: "I know a lot of good men I'd like to marry—but their wives won't let me."

So, if you really want to get wed this year, start culling over the junk heap of masculinity that is left. Remember, a good jalopy can be built from the metal scraps found in the average city dump.

Remodeling a Nightmare

Your best bet isn't to search for the perfect husband. It's to salvage and recondition some battered Joe your girl friends have passed over in the mad scramble. To take some masculine nightmare and remold him into your dream man—that is your challenge, lady.

A few tips on how to do it:

Look for a man with circles under his eyes. Now, here is obviously a fellow who needs a good, long rest. All you have to do is convince him that if he marries you he will get it.

Men with ulcers are always good possibilities. But if you have an ulcer too, don't let him know about it until after you've pushed him to the altar. Tell him you're flat footed or got indoor eczema—and he won't mind. But all bachelors are instinctively wary of wedding women with the same ailment as they have. They don't want to share it with anybody.

Marriage Is "Serious"

Single men with melancholy dispositions are first rate prospects. Marriage is a serious proposition, and nothing is so trying to a wife as a mate who brags about his sense of humor. What gives a husband the right to think he's got anything to laugh about anyway?

Don't worry if the man you're after doesn't seem able to hold a steady job. Six months after you land him, he'll be glad to get up every morning and go to work—anything to get out of the house.

The main thing is—don't look for a man you want to marry because of his virtues. Marry a man for his defects, and then iron them out. It is much easier to correct a defect than to preserve a virtue.

Two final warnings:

Don't marry a man who wears bow ties and a crew haircut. He'll never grow up.

And don't marry an oboe player. You'll never hear the last of him.

Ed. Note: The above article was written as nation-wide leap year advice to college girls by Hal Boyle, Associated Press writer and we considered it appropriate enough to reprint.

Engagements

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Klein of Walla Walla, Wash., announce the engagement of their daughter, Muriel, to Richard Ivester, also of Walla Walla. No definite wedding date has been set.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Robertson of Newton, Kan., announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Jo, to Delmer Anderson, also of Newton. An early summer wedding is planned.

Rev. and Mrs. C. Henry Lacy of Phoenix, Oregon, announce the engagement of their daughter, Dona Jean, to David Taylor of Nampa, Idaho. December 19 of this year has been set as the date for the wedding.

Crusaders-Coyotes Meet In Grudge Tilts; Successful Season May Depend On Outcome

Two traditional foes, each desperately attempting to get over the .500 mark in games won and lost, will clash tonight in Central gym and tomorrow evening in Caldwell. For the Crusaders this will be their big chance to get out from behind the eight ball while the College of Idaho Coyotes must win at least once to salvage an even split for the season.

In the first meeting the NNC five came blazing back in the final stanza to annex a 66-51 verdict. The two clubs were knotted at 45-all starting the final go-around, indicating the actual closeness of the fray. Finkbeiner and Reynolds, with 14 points each, and Wilcox with 12 led NNC, while Baker flipped in 18 and Spiess 16 for the Coyotes.

Game time tonight is set for 8:15 with the preliminary tussle between Jayvee fives from the two schools getting underway at 6:45. Tomorrow's preliminary in Caldwell begins at 6:30 with the varsity clash immediately after.

The Crusaders registered one of their largest margins of the season against Mountain Home last week by taking a 95-50 decision from the Airmen. Reynolds with 23 and Hubbard with 16 were tops for the local cause.

Queen Mary Alyce Crowned

Against Seattle Pacific, the Nampans split, losing 67-65 in an overtime thriller then winning on Tip-Off night, 63-55. Preceding their Tip-Off night clash, Mary Alyce Galloway was crowned Tip-Off Queen by N club prexy Merl Iles.

Finkbeiner and Reynolds notched 15 points each to top scoring in the NNC triumph. Lingren was best for the losers with 14 tallies.

Lingren's basket in the last minute provided SPC with their overtime victory. Mikkelson, with 18, and Lingren and Guier with 14 each paced the winners while Iles was best for NNC with 13 markers. The score was knotted at 56-all at the end of the regulation time.

McPherson Wins Pair

McPherson's powerful Bulldogs made a clean sweep of a two-game exhibition series by drubbing the Crusaders 81-47 and 77-59 in a pair of pre-Christmas encounters.

In the first game, Loren Blickenstaff paced the winners with 14 tallies while Finkbeiner and Iles were best for the local cause with 10 and nine respectively. Hanagarne with 23 and Loren Blickenstaff with 22 paced the Bulldogs on the following night. Iles garnered 16 and Hubbard 15 for the losing cause.

Pasadena took two tilts from the Crusaders early in December by scores of 67-45 and 86-63. Bobby Hopkins paced the Californians with 17 counters in the first game and 31 in the second. Iles with 14 in the first and 13 in the second topped the Crusaders. Wilcox seconded him with 11 in the opener and 12 in the finale.

JV's Avenge Loss, Slaughter C. of I.

NNC's Junior Varsity notched its sixth win against four losses by tripping the Mountain Home Air Base officers 46-31 last week. The win revenged one of the Jayvees earlier setbacks.

Chuck Mylander topped the local scoring with ten tallies. Close on his heels was Merv Gale with eight markers.

Earlier the Jv's had waltzed to a 49-36 triumph over the LDS Fourth Ward. NNC raced to a 37-16 edge at halftime and coasted in the rest of the way. Beeson, Stickney and Gale, with 11, 10 and nine points respectively, paced the JVs'.

Dan Wright's charges made it two out of three against C. of I. Frosh by drubbing the visiting Caldwell quintet 64-42. Gale made 25 points to run away with high point honors. Williamson caged 11 and Beeson and Stickney garnered eight each for the local cause.

PEP RALLY TODAY

This afternoon at 4 p. m., the students of NNC will meet in front of the Administration Building before going downtown en masse for a giant pep rally. Between 40 and 50 cars are slated to take part in the procession to and from town. These cars will meet in front of Morrison Hall at 2:30 p. m. for decoration.

Sponsored by the yell leaders, the rally will feature the college pep band led by Prof. Hays Johnson and will have as its theme, "Beat C. of I." Three hundred yelling students is the goal set by the yell leaders for the mass rally in downtown Nampa.

Tub

Thumping

By Lilburn Wesche

If you miss the two games coming up tonight and tomorrow nite then mark this down in your little red brain cell you're going to miss a lot more than just a couple of basketball games.

From what we've heard, C. of I. is out to salvage what little they can from the worst season in a long, long while by bumping off the Crusaders, come what may. That game in Caldwell tomorrow night is the one we can hardly wait for. Liable to be plenty of fireworks before it goes into the record books.

On paper our lads should rate considerably better than the local yokels from across the county but when these two fives tangle, one never knows just what will happen.

College High's tall Trojans continue to pulverize just about everybody they run up against. They meet Kuna, the only team to beat them this year, soon, and that's one game nobody is going to miss.

Against St. Teresa last week, Vail's entire team looked good. Possibly the outstanding feature of the tilt was the development of Darrel Reisch into an excellent team player. He, Dan Holloway and Guard Les Chambers are all seniors and all three turned in smooth and efficient performances.

It's still early to be thinking about baseball, but Pop Frazier's initial call for those who wanted to turn out resulted in 22 prospects reporting. Only six of the group were veterans but "Pop" expects to make up for lack of experience by molding together a band of hustlers. We hope so. The "me first" attitude which has purified so many of our athletic teams in the past has taken on an extremely sour taste.

Next Tuesday Set For C.H.S. Tip-off

Tuesday night, January 22 is set for the traditional College High "Tip-Off" game with the Greenleaf Grizzlies.

The Tip-Off is co-sponsored by the N Club and Pep Club. Joyce Harper is heading the committees. "Reign of Roses" has been chosen as the theme for this year.

Candidates for queen are Misses Gladys Fred, Joyce Harper, and Neva Thompson. The girl with the highest number of student body votes will be queen and the other two girls will be her attendants. The queen's identity will not be disclosed until the ceremony.

SLAs MASSACRE LSPs

The SLAs remained undefeated in first semester basketball by running over the LSPs 36 to 18. The win gave the green and white the first half championship, making them the team to beat next semester. Jim Frazier led the way for the SLAs with nine points, while Helman and Renschler both collected six for the losers.

Trojans Top Saints 57-43 For 4th Win

College High's Trojans annexed their fourth victory of the season last week by blasting St. Teresa's Saints 57-43 at Boise.

Other victories include a 39-21 verdict over Melba, a 38-24 triumph over Eagle, and an 89-32 walloping of Grandview. Their lone defeat was inflicted on them by Kuna, 45-41.

Sharp-shooting Darrell Reisch paced the Trojans to their decision over St. Teresa with 20 points. Les Chambers, besides playing a fine floor game, bucketed nine tallies to second Reisch in the scoring column. Clarence Kinzler played well on defense while Dan Holloway proved a tower of strength on the backboards for the local five.

Against Melba, Chambers paced Elmore Vail's charges with nine markers, Kinzler, with seven, was second in scoring.

Holloway swished through 15 counters to lead the Trojans to their easy win over Eagle. Reisch had nine and Leon Doans seven for the winners.

SLAs CLOBBER OLYS

The powerful SLAs had little trouble downing an Oly quintet 42 to 20. Big Bill Miller led the green and white attack with 10 points while Ron Beech collected seven for the Olys.

Mary Alyce I Reigns Over Tip-Off

Escorts for the royal court were Chester Galloway, James Lais, Rod Newman, Bruce Koerner and Dick Ivester. Queen Mary Alyce was crowned by N. Club President Merl Iles.

The traditional dinner and program, attended by the royal court and members of the N Club, followed the game.

Oasis Plans To Be More Than A Mirage

According to Editor Roger Marks, the Oasis is proceeding on schedule. About 50% of the photographs are already on their way to the engravers, along with an equivalent amount of copy.

With the exception of the specials, all class pictures have been completed. Most fall and winter activity shots are also in. Art work, done almost exclusively by Art Editor Art Sullivan, is also nearing completion.

During the remainder of January, the Oasis plans faculty, student council, departmental and club shots.

New Fashions

"Have you noticed the latest thing in men's clothes?"

"Yes. Women."

So Sorry

Maid—"I'm sorry, but she said to tell you that she is not at home."

Mr. Jones—"Oh, that's all right, just tell her that I'm glad I didn't come."

Not Thirsty

"Have you given the goldfish any fresh water?"

"No, ma'am, they ain't finished the water I gave them yesterday yet."

Noisy Place

Teacher—"What was the Tower of Babel?"

Student—"Wasn't that where Solomon kept his 500 wives?"

Too Much Rouge

She—"How do you like my new coat?"

He (looking at her face)—"Fine, only you got it on too thick!"

'Operation Mule' Set As F. M. B. Project

One of the Foreign Missionary Band's projects for this school year is raising the money to buy a mule for a native Nazarene pastor in Peru. The project is known as "Operation Fernando's Mule."

Each member of the band has access to a globe bank and so far their savings for the project total a little over $60.00.

Fernando Sanginaz, the native pastor, lives in the mountains of Peru and at the present time has no auxiliary method of traveling from village to village.

Floral Design

"Has that florist any children?"

Members of the Camera Club took a field trip to the Idaho Free Press photo lab last week. A photo was taken of the group, followed by a demonstration of the steps in the photo process from the development of the negative to the final engraving. The engraving of the group then appeared in the next day's edition of the Free Press.

A lecture and demonstration on the subject "Portraits With Inexpensive Equipment" is scheduled for the February meeting of the club.

Art Club To Show Films; Quit Exhibit

The Art Club has voted to discontinue the annual exhibit which has been held between semesters in the past.

"This move was prompted by the nearness of the Christmas exhibit, making it difficult to prepare another so soon," says Prof. Finkbeiner.

Art Sullivan announces the decision of the club to initiate the plan of presenting a variety of films. These movies are made available by the National Art Association and feature subjects pertinent to the interest of members.

Each of the four divisions of the Art Club plan to sponsor two films apiece.

One was shown last week, featuring "Metals in Art" and the next in this series is scheduled for February 1.

F.T.A. Group Hear Psychiatrist Speak

Dr. Dale Cornell from the State Health Department located at Boise was the guest speaker at the meeting of the Future Teachers of America last Thursday evening.

His emphasis was on the part a teacher must play in developing the emotional life of a child. "There is no perfect personality," he stated, "but if one has no persistent fears, one is reasonably well adjusted."

February 7 has been set for the desert banquet. Lois Rice is chairman of the program committee and Joe Keen heads the courtesy committee. Laura Falk has been placed in charge of the preparation of the programs.

Education Majors Receive Practice

Several students majoring in education have been spending part of their time at C. H. S. of late in the role of cadet teachers. Among them are the following:

Millard Reynolds, N. N. C. basketball and baseball star, has been instructing the class in American History.

Loa Woodruff, A. W. S. officer, is doing her teaching in the English II class. Speech Major George Pfenninger has been imparting some of his knowledge to the high school speech students.

Kenny Hills is serving his apprenticeship in the 8th grade history class and Daphne McGregory, A. S.-B. secretary, is working with the juniors in English III.
