

STUDENTS, FACULTY MEET TONIGHT

Debt Reduction Campaign To Be Launched Oct. 5

Oct. 5 is the date set for presenting to Nampa churches the $50,000 debt reduction campaign approved recently by the Board of Regents. At their semi-annual meeting held on the NNC campus, the group voted to launch the drive here, and extend it throughout the Educational Zone during the months of October and November.

L. Wesley Johnson, College business manager, reports that Board members, without solicitation, spontaneously subscribed $4,000 to begin the drive.

The plan is to raise sufficient money to cut NNC's mortgage debt in half. The various churches will be visited principally by laymen interested in reducing the present mortgage.

"Since no salary will be paid to those soliciting funds," Mr. Johnson pointed out, "every dollar received will go directly into the debt reduction fund."

Men Take Lead In 1952-53 Enrollment

Defying early nationwide predictions of low freshman enrollments in 1952-53, final figures here reveal an increase of 27 over last fall's Frosh total. M. A. Wilson, registrar, reports 172 in the entering group, comprised of 79 men and 93 women.

Men take the lead in the count of sophomores, juniors and seniors who claim, respectively: 47 men, 39 women; 77 men, 29 women and 47 men, 21 women. One special student and four taking the Bible Certificate course raise the total, full-time enrollment to 445.

Students taking a limited number of hours, together with junior high and high school students, push the enrollment grand total to 603 registrants. College High School shows a total enrollment of 82, along with 49 reported in the junior high school division.

Dormitories Filled With 300 Students

Information released from the office of the Dean of Students reveals 300 dormitory residents this year.

Chapman Hall heads the list with 135 men. Mr. Torvil Nilsen, new Head Resident, comes from Vancouver, Wash., and is a graduate of Cascade College. Assistants named for Chapman are Norman Stueckle and Ray Tate. According to Mr. Nilsen the project for the year is to improve the kitchen facilities and the recreation room.

Mrs. Earle Mack is beginning her second year as head resident of Morrison Hall, which houses 105 women students. The project for the year, in cooperation with the Circle K Club, is the building of a prayer chapel on the third floor. Lois Tracy and Juanita Pate have been employed as student assistants.

Hadley Hall houses 26 girls this year and they have selected as their project the purchase of kitchen facilities. Returning for the fourth year as head resident is Violet Leighton. Annette Feiten is acting as her assistant until one is chosen.

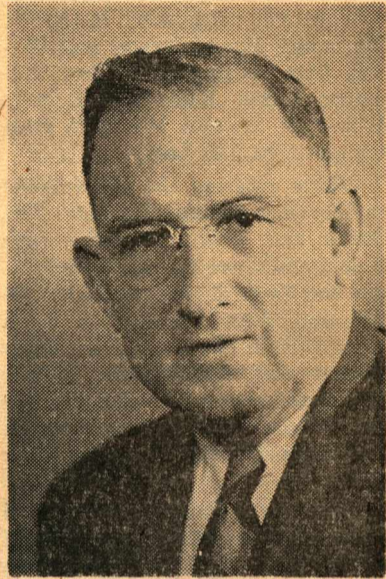

Miss Clara Christensen has assumed the supervision of Mangum Hall, the newest dormitory to come under the jurisdiction of the college.

Miss Christensen reports 34 college students and 14 nurses in Mangum. Kathleen Nordmo has been named as her assistant.

Four Teachers Add To College Faculty

New teachers added to the faculty this year include Mr. Lansing W. Bulgin, Mr. Tom Kelly, Miss Wanda Rhodes and Mr. Howard Zink.

Mr. Bulgin, who will teach music theory and education courses, is a graduate of Linfield College and holds the degree of M. Mus. from Indiana University with a major in music education and a minor in voice. He has completed his residence and graduate work on his doctor's degree in music education and expects to complete his doctoral dissertation this year.

In addition, Mr. Bulgin has taught at George Fox College and has had 11 years experience in choral directing in churches and schools. The NNC male chorus will be under his direction.

Mr. Tom Kelly, a 1951 NNC graduate, is returning to teach in the religious education department. Mr. Kelly has been completing work on his master's degree in education at the University of Wyoming. He will also act as Director of Christian Education for College Church.

Miss Rhodes will replace Mrs. Edith Anderson in the home economics department. She was graduated from Bethany-Peniel College this spring and did graduate work this summer at the Eastern University of New Mexico. Miss Rhodes will teach in the clothing and food division of the department.

Business administration courses are being taught by Mr. Howard Zink of Nampa. Mr. Zink is a graduate of NNC and is replacing Prof. Hayes Johnson who is on a leave of absence.

Added to the personnel of the registrar's office is Mrs. Daphne Gregory, a 1952 graduate and Mrs. Dorothy Embree is employed in the business office. Assisting Mrs. Bittleston in the library is Mrs. Jewell Wilson.

Rev. Dick Tame, graduate of NNC, has been engaged for the position of Field Representative. Rev. Tame previously served as pastor of two churches in South Dakota.

N. N. C. Begins 40th Year Under New Leadership

As Northwest Nazarene College begins its 40th year, Dr. John E. Riley, pastor of College Church for the past eight years, has assumed the responsibility of its leadership. Both Dr. and Mrs. Riley are graduates of Eastern Nazarene College. They were active in church work on the New England district, having held three pastorates and the leadership of a number of youth groups there. Following this, Dr. Riley was pastor of the church in Toronto, Canada.

Dr. Riley became the president of NNC after Dr. L. T. Corlett was advanced to the presidency of the Nazarene Theological Seminary in Kansas City, Mo. He assumed his new duties Sept. 1.

Improvements Made

Under Dr. Corlett's decade of administration the college has added to the campus the R. T. Williams Library, Chapman Hall, frame buildings housing College High, 37 apartment buildings and trailer houses in Vetville, Morrison Hall coffee shop and a new heating plant designed to meet campus expansion.

Improvements were made on Emerson Administration Building, the campus was completely landscaped, a site adjacent to the campus was purchased for the president's home and the circle drive was constructed. The old grammar school building has been remodeled and will house the home economics department when completed.

Stowe To Succeed Riley

Rev. Eugene Stowe of Salem, Ore. has been elected to succeed Dr. Riley as pastor of College Church. Rev. Stowe holds a M. A. degree from Pasadena College and was active in intercollegiate debate and speech during his college days. He is a member of the General Council of the Nazarene Young People's Society, having been elected recently as a representative of the Northwest. He previously pastored at Visalia, and Oakland, Calif. Name Lois Herron President of AWS

Lois Herron was elected president of the Associated Women Students this week. The vacancy was created by the resignation of Earlene Tapley because of excessive activity points.

Elected chaplain for the organization was Velta Jones. A run-off election is scheduled for next week to elect a new secretary and assistant program chairman. Nominees are Virginia Walton and Floradell McKay for secretary and for assistant program chairman Carolemay Rapp and Mona Gowan. The results of this week's balloting showed a tie in these two offices.

Other officers include Mary Mattson, vice president; program chairman, Bonnie Painter and treasurer, Elna Funk. Ardis Manley is the new publicity director.

According to the new president, the first social function of the year will be the traditional Big-Little Sister Tea which is scheduled for early October.

Classes Organize, Elect New Officers

College classes met last week for organization and elected officers for the year.

Chosen as president of the senior class was Lauren Sanders of Omaha, Neb. and Melvin Laws as student council representative. Named president of the junior class was Norman Stueckle, Colfax, Wash., with Carlton Bryson as vice president. Floradell McKay will act as secretary and Roger Weber as treasurer.

Norman Crofford was elected to lead the sophomore class and comes from Cut Bank, Mont. His assistant will be Bob Willard as vice president and Mary Wing as representative to the student council.

Selected president pro tem for the freshmen was Harold Weber of Walla Walla, Wash. Duane Olson will fill the office of vice president while Eugenia Steinbach will serve as secretary. Student Council representative for the class is Clayton Martin.

At a special meeting called on Wednesday, faculty sponsors and the additional officers were elected.

Formal Attire To Mark Annual ASB Reception

Tonight at 8:00 p. m. the students of Northwest Nazarene College will be presented to the faculty in Morrison dining hall for the annual Student-Faculty reception.

Presiding as master of ceremonies at this first formal social event is ASB vice president, Jim Lais.

Miss Marian Washburn will respond to the toast given to the faculty by the ASB president. Musical numbers will be provided by members of the faculty and student body. Men's Club President George Mowry and AWS President Lois Herron will welcome members of their respective organizations. The new college president, Dr. John E. Riley, will give the main address.

Program arrangements were made by Jim Lais, Dell Morgan, Maxine Horning, Sam Scammon, Roy Puckett and Harold Stickney. Responsible for the decorations are Art Jacobs, Virginia Poplin, Pat Downing, Art Sullivan and Joan Clocksene.

Checking coats will be Lois Tracy and Juanita Pate. Refreshments have been planned by Mary Wing, Geri Leih, Kathleen Liddell, Floradell McKay and Jessie Newman. The cleanup crew consists of Mervyn Gale, Norman Stueckle, Dick Johnson and Harry Detwiler.

Dr. Thelma Culver Elected President Of National Society

New honors came to NNC during the summer months when the Phi Delta Lambda met for its quadrennial meeting in Kansas City.

Dr. Thelma B. Culver, Dean of the College, was elected national president and Miss Ethel Allison was chosen secretary - treasurer. Dean C. H. Ripper of Bethany-Peniel College was elected national vice president. Attending also from the campus were Miss Marian Washburn and Miss Helen Wilson.

Phi Delta Lambda is the national honor society of the colleges of the Church of the Nazarene.

Northwest District Motorcade Slated For October 2 - 3

Third annual motorcade of the Northwest District, led by Dr. E. E. Zachary, will arrive on the campus of Northwest Nazarene College Thursday, October 2 and will remain until Saturday.

Food donations will be brought by the caravan of high school students and district leaders.

Rooms for the guests will be assigned by the Associated Women Students and the Men's club. The Circle K club will have charge of campus tours and the Student Council is responsible for the Friday night entertainment.

Last year's donation of three truckloads of food was valued at $1,900. Over 40 cars were used in the caravan and consisted of 200 members of the Northwest District.

... EDITORIAL ...

"WELCOME TO NNC!"

I sincerely do welcome each of you, especially those who are frequenting our halls for the first time. But along with this welcome I'd like to leave a few tips which may perhaps apply to old and new alike.

Most young students will readily admit that as they enter college they have not developed too effectively their habits of study. If that is your case, perhaps these suggestions will help you to be more successful scholastically at NNC. First, we assume that you have enrolled in courses which appeal to your interests and which will help you achieve the vocational goals you have chosen.

Systemize Your Day

Arrange for a time and place to study. Cooperate with others in maintaining quiet hours. Use college library facilities judiciously, (you pay for them). Plan a time schedule. On the average you should assign yourself two hours of study time for each hour of class attendance. (Count classes you skip, too.)

If you have a part-time job, keep hours at a level where they will not interfere with your success in college. Don't overload! A 15-hour college load can be equal to a 45-hour work week. So study regularly and attend all classes. Postponing an assignment may give you more free time now, but is bound to put you in a squeeze later on. Passing a history course is not precisely the same sensation as passing the golf course on the way to the "Choo Choo."

Keep an accurate record of the work covered in the course. Underline important data and memorize key material for exams. Watch those written assignments carefully. Whenever the instructor assigns anything tangible, it is a basis for your grade.

Know your professors. If your grades are low, see them during office hours and ask them for concrete suggestions for improving your work. Know the questions you will ask before you go in and be certain that you get satisfactory answers. Then follow their suggestions carefully.

Keep Well-Rounded (in personality)

Keep yourself in good health. Adequate sleep, healthful food, and clean living habits will pay good dividends in superior scholarship. Participate in intramural sports and other extracurricular activities. In the right proportion each of these on the campus can make very valuable contributions to your personality development and life experiences.

Remember . . . an accumulative GPA below 3.40 may lead to your being disqualified by the Scholarship Committee. If your cumulative GPA is below a 2. (C average) or if your grades in any one semester drop below that level, you are not eligible to hold any office in any student organization on the campus.

"Talk It Out"

Above all, if things don't seem to be going just right, don't keep your problems to yourself. Talk things over with your professors, your major advisor, the veterans' advisor or with one of us in the Student Council office, which will be open each afternoon.

Let's all plan and work together to make this, with God's help, the best year NNC has ever had. Lastly, to borrow one of Dr. Riley's phrases, "Throw yourself into whatever you are doing!" (Unless your job happens to be stoking the school furnace.)

Crofford Heads Crusader Choir

Norman Crofford was elected to preside over Crusader Choir activities in their first meeting of the term. Serving with him will be Lauren Sanders, vice president; Ginny Poplin, secretary; Duane Poplin and Norman Stueckle, robe custodians and Leon Doane, librarian, assisted by Connie Mitchell. The riser committee consists of Howard Smith, Wayne Aller and Phil and Doug Peterson.

Mrs. Alline Swann is the director and Miss Elaine Carlson is pianist for the group.

MORRISON HALL VOTES IN NEW DORM COUNCIL

Former President Extends Greetings

Changes, which were not expected when school closed, have occurred during the summer. My plans were to be president of Northwest Nazarene College through this coming year, but the General Assembly in its elections brought about changes and I will be at the Seminary as president instead of at NNC.

I am glad that Dr. Riley has been elected president and will carry on the good work of NNC. He understands the problems and the operations of the college better than any man who would come from the outside. I predict that under his leadership NNC will go on to greater developments than ever before.

Mrs. Corlett joins me in best wishes to the faculty and students for the greatest year you have ever had. Our prayers will be with you and we will be anticipating good reports in all the activities of the college.

LEWIS T. CORLETT.

Privileges And Pleasures Of College Church

By Tom S. S. Kelly

Dean Galloway, in his talk in chapel, stated, "There is only one missionary for every 28,450 people in foreign lands." The privilege and pleasure we have of attending College Church Sunday School every Sunday is something that should be treasured. It is a Sunday School home away from home, but, more than that, it is a place where the sinner may find Christ and the Christian may grow in grace.

Some of the activities to be enjoyed through the coming school year are: The annual Sunday School contest, rally day drives, special events, such as the College Choir, special speakers, and many other things that will make it pay to come to College Church Sunday School.

In addition to the outstanding Sunday School, College Church also offers other activities for all age groups. On Sunday afternoon it's the Lamplighter's group for students interested in personal evangelism, calling on shut-ins, and presenting programs at the old folks' homes.

Sunday evening the NYPS offers a time of fellowship with special programs, panel discussions, skits, and other programs of interest. Mel Laws and the Young People's council are planning some outstanding programs to make attendance at NYPS worthwhile. For the high school young people there's the Hi N Y which functions to serve to the best of its ability all who are of high school age.

It's truly a privilege and pleasure to attend College Church, and Rev. Stowe, Rev. Mack, Mr. Harper, Mel Laws and myself cordially welcome you to the services.

Engagements And Marriages Appear As Summer's Fad

NNC marriage mill was by no means idle during the summer months. Several present, as well as former students, clamped on the "ball and chain" of married life.

Howard Miller, ASB president, started the marriage fad with an early June wedding in Wyoming. His wife is the former Allene Lund.

It seems rather strange to have the signature "D. E." come from the Business Office. The results of an investigation indicate that Dorothy Scurlock is no longer such, but has taken the name of Mrs. Glen Embree.

When roll call is taken in classes, the names Muriel Ivester and Beverly Lais puzzle a few. They, formerly Muriel Klein and Beverly Woodbeck, are now Mrs. Dick Ivester and Mrs. Jim Lais.

Others entering the matrimonial realm this summer include Lila Smith and Merlin Hansen; Joan Pullen and Gene Clark; Joyce Harper and Cecil Thompson; Ruth Moses and Ivan Weatherby; Leah Anne O'Neill and Don Lane; Melva Rogers and Gus Moline; Bonnie Smith and Raye Woodbright; LeDora Jensen and Melvin Rayburn and Jane Cunningham and Clair Allee.

Incidentally you males—a word to the wise is sufficient! Nearly all of the above feminine gender are working while their husbands attend school. How about that?

Jim Tapley, a former NNC student, has announced his engagement to Geraldine Mayfield of Oklahoma City. Evelyn Rutledge of Seattle and Emerson Elmore have set a November date for their marriage, while Audrey Shute and Wayne Personette are making tentative plans for December nuptials. Also in the midst of wedding plans are Marcella Mielke and Dan Wright; June Loveall and Bob Burkhart; Marjorie Graves and Herb Geller and Donna Holmes and Maurice Palmquist.

Other engagements recently announced are Delores Lovett and Ray Burton; Pat Bohanan and Fred Ed-

OLD AND NEW

By Dr. John E. Riley

The blushing bride usually has as one of her ambitions the wearing of "something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue." I am very much NOT a blushing bride, but I am, as your president, both old and new.

I have been at Northwest Nazarene College as College Pastor and teacher for eight years. I have seen eight classes of budding freshmen come in and eight classes of blooming (in the right sense) seniors go out from the halls of NNC. I love this place, with all her faults and failings, and I know there are young people all over the country in whom I have a little investment because I shared with them something from my limited mental resources and from a heart that has been rich in high purpose.

But I am very, very new as a president and I shall look forward with the greatest sympathy for the freshmen during their traditional initiation in a little while now, for I know I have some real initiation coming too. No one will force me to wear my stockings inside out or my shirt on backwards. Such things are not forced upon a college president. But the end result may be the same anyway, for I may absent-mindedly come to chapel some morning without a necktie on or with socks that do not match or I may make some slip such as announcing an AWS party for all the men of Chapman Hall. Freshmen college presidents can make some pretty funny breaks. But it is fun being your president and I will get to be a senior after awhile.

Meanwhile, in dead earnestness, along with our fun, let us make NNC educationally, socially, morally and spiritually a place so genuine and wholesome that the fierce holy pride we feel in her is like the emotion that overwhelms one when Old Glory marches by, for she, too, is old and new.

Close Intramural Contests Seen As Fall Diamond Activities Commence

With the talent of the class of '56 completely unknown, the chances of an undefeated boys softball champion is slight. Last semester's champion ADPs are again fielding a strong team after losing only a few key men including Joe and Floyd Wright. Boasting the tightest infield in the league last year, they will again attempt to stake claim to that honor with the return of Dan Wright, Mickey Sanders, Russ and Howard Miller, Paul Wright, Mervyn Gale and Rich Powers. Bob Burkhart will again be back for mound duty. Athletic director Mervyn Gale expects great things of the team especially since Olympian Millard Reynolds is no longer a threat. They opened their season last Tuesday against the SLAs.

The SLAs, although losing heavily, will appear on paper to give the ADPs a long, hard run for the title. Those not returning include Lloyd Hubbard, Chet Galloway, Merle Iles, George Fitch, Bud Baska, and Ken Derkatz. In spite of these losses they may have the possibility of the league's best battery with pitchers Vince Seely and Carlton Bryson and Catchers Dick Ivester, Arnold Rogers and Glenn Knapp. Also expected back are Duane Poplin, Jim Lais, Butch Bloomquist, DeWayne Krause and Whitey Bullock. The LSPs are of an unknown quality after losing such stalwarts as Gordon Renschler, Lilburn Wesche, Bill Robertson and others. The freshmen could mean the difference between success and failure.

The girls of the LSP society are expected however to give trouble to any other group who are thinking of dethroning them as softball champs.

co-champions, the Olympians, can do without Reynolds is yet to be seen. Returning for another try for the title will be Myron Finkbeiner behind the plate trying to handle the apparently unaimed bullets of Skip Wilcox. George Mowry, Ron Beech, Glen Embree, Gordon Beeson, Jack McEvoy, the league's top outfielder, and transfer from Bethany Len Back will form a nucleus equal or better than that of last year, according to Athletic Director Gordon Beeson. He says the Olys will miss Reynolds as much as the Yankees have missed DiMaggio and look at their standings now.

In girls activities the ADPs are confident of an upper division ending but not without trouble from the LSPs and the SLAs. With the freshman additions the Olympians could pull some surprises.

ADPS WIN OVER SLAS

A first inning double by Paul Wright drove home Wally Johnson from second to give the ADPs a tight 1-0 victory over the SLAs last Tuesday at Kurtz Park.

Powder Puff pitcher Russ Miller tossed a one-hitter behind excellent fielding by teammates. Third baseman Mervyn Gale made up for his two errors with two sparkling defensive plays which could have meant defeat had they not been completed. One was a line drive down the third base line. Gale leaned far to the right and, all in one motion, caught, whirled and threw the sphere over his head to nip the runner with a perfect throw.

Then again with men on first and second, Gale snagged a hot grounder and, in a swirl of dust, managed to tag the runner from second before making the throw to first.

Carlton Bryson went all the way for the SLAs giving up four hits and the only run of the game. Arnold Rogers got the only hit off Miller, a single in the first inning.

ADPS BOW TO SLAS

Betty Miralles pitched a masterful three hitter as the SLAs took the opening day victory over the ADP girls last Monday at Kurtz Park. Cass Mosteller batted what proved to be the winning run in the first inning as she banged out a long triple. Then successive hits by Miralles and Horning, aided by an error, gave her teammates all the runs they needed for a 4-0 victory.

Miralles struck out five girls, all coming in succession in the second and third innings. Oddly enough, all five third strikes were missed by the catcher and all batters thrown out at first base.

Martha Hopkins went all the way for the ADPs to take the loss as Miralles was credited with the win.

Monday, the SLAs meet the LSPs after the Olys battle the ADPs in the opening half of the double-header.

OLYS EDGE LSPS, 7-6

The Olympian boys staged a powerful rally in the bottom of the third inning to pull out of a five run deficit to a 7-6 victory over the LSPs. The winners spotted them three runs in the first inning and three in the second to trail 6-1 going into the fateful third. Pitcher Jim Gilson suddenly lost his effective control and walked four men, intermingled with a long double down the left field line by Rod Newman and a foul out by Skip Wilcox.

With two outs, the bases loaded and the Olys still trailing by one run, a short single and the heads-up base running by outfielder Jack McEvoy handed them the victory.

The single scored the tying run, but Howard Arnold, who had been on second base, was trapped between third and home. McEvoy, running from first, quickly surveyed the situation and dashed toward third. The baseman then proceeded to play on him while Arnold scored. McEvoy was tagged out but too late to save the LSPs from defeat.

Skip Wilcox, pitcher who entered the game in the second to relieve starter Paul Bynum, was given credit for the win although he was in constant trouble. Gilson went all the way to suffer the loss.

On Tuesday, the Olys tangle with the ADPs and the nightcap will feature the SLA and LSP societies.

OLYS YIELD TO LSPS

The Olympian girls took a short lead over the LSPs in the top of the first inning on a homer by Jo Lewis. Their hopes of pulling a surprise victory was short-lived, however, as Sheila Marvin equalled the blast with one of her own in the bottom of the first, pushing the LSPs on to a rousing 15-1 victory. Mary Ellen Everest went all the way for the win which stamped them as definite favorites to retain the crown. Margaret McClurd was charged with the loss.

Cross - Country Squad of Sixteen Begins Training

NNC's iron men of 1952 have turned out 16 strong for the first week of their month long training in preparation for one of the biggest meets in several years with the Vandals of the University of Idaho.

Led by last year's captain Bob Burkhart, the initial turnout netted seven returning lettermen joined by nine promising newcomers. With this nucleus and several latecomers expected, Coach Monty Lee will build a powerful squad for NNC's most rugged sport, the cross country races.

Among the freshman turnouts is Paul Fouch, an experienced track man from Yakima High School in Yakima, Wash., where he ran the mile and the 880 yard dash. Winton Miller is coming from Ashland, Ore., for his first attempt in long distance running as is Gale Maxey, a freshman from Payette. Len Back of St. Louis, Mo., a transfer from Bethany, is running cross country for the first time.

Other possibilities for this season's spotlight honors include Charles Sheets, Don Morgan, John Prince and Paul Ralphs.

The returning lettermen include most of last year's standout runners. Besides Burkhart there will be Roger Marks, Harold Hughes, Rich Powers, Bruce Koerner, Harold Stickney and Gordon Beeson.

The year's schedule will probably be the biggest in the short history of this sport at NNC. Opening the slate will be the Oct. 18 meeting with the University of Idaho at Moscow. Also on the schedule, but still both tentative, is a meet with Idaho State of Pocatello and a possible invitational meet in Nampa.

Coach Lee appointed Kieth Leamon as team manager.

Appoint Crusader Staff Members

Crusader staff members for this semester have been appointed by the new editor. Approved by the student council as business manager is Herb Meyers, a senior from Jerome, Idaho. Named as his assistant is Jack McEvoy, a member of the junior class. Both are business majors and will handle the financial responsibilities of the publication.

Evelyn Gray, a senior from Amarillo, Texas, will serve as assistant editor this year. She has been a member of the staff for two years and is a mathematics major. Sports Editor Ron Kirkpatrick, a returning sophomore from Walla Walla, Wash. will be assisted by freshmen Paul Miller and Lois Cramer.

Definite assignments have not been made for the remaining staff members who include three seniors, Joan Clocksene, Carolemay Rapp and Elna Funk. Representing the junior class will be Roger Weber, Bob Shafto, Harry Williamson, Eunice Broadbent, Lois Tracy, Floradell McKay, Sam Scammon and Virginia Poplin. Sophomores Noreen DeJong, Betty Bradford, Roy Puckett, Cassel Mosteller and Bonnie Painter have been chosen for the staff. Freshmen include Maxine Horning, Dell Morgan and Ernie Fisher as photographer. Lorrie Mack will cover College High news.

Mrs. Olive Briggs will continue to serve as faculty advisor. This year the journalism class will receive practical experience by working directly on the paper as a part of class assignments.

Office hours for the Crusader are 10:30 to 11:30 a. m. and 1:00 to 2:00 p. m. daily. Students and faculty members are invited to visit the office at any time.

According to the editor, subscriptions may be secured by former students for $1.00 and copies will be mailed by the circulation staff the day of publication.

CHS To Contest With Council Club Today at 3 P. M.

This afternoon at 3:00 the College High Trojans will troop to Bulldog Bowl to look for their first victory of the year at the expense of the Council Lumberjacks. This game will serve as a preliminary to their season's highlight encounter, the annual Homecoming game with the Greenleaf Grizzlies the night of Oct. 3.

Losing many last year's gridders, the Trojans are fielding a scrappy but inexperienced outfit with only four returning lettermen.

Leading the 18-man squad are co-captains Clarence Kinzler and Ed Manley. Kinzler is playing his second year at right end as a regular while Manley is at offensive left guard after two years as a line-backer.

The probable starters for today's game are as follows: At right end will be the familiar number 25, Clarence Kinzler, a 169-pound senior. Helping him at the other extreme flank is Keith Goodman, a senior at 139 pounds, the smallest lineman on the roster. Completing the front line as guards will be freshman Philip Heidner and the only man with two years' experience Ed Manley.

Handling center chores will be Willis Nichols, the heaviest man on the team weighing 196 pounds. Nichols is a sophomore.

In the backfield will be the team's smallest men, Mac Wells at quarterback and Ellis Miller trading off with Ronnie Kratzer at halfback.

The team managers are Keith Wright, unable to play because of a broken hand, and Allen Morrison.

The remainder of the CHS schedule is as follows:

Sept. 26—3:00—Council, here.
Oct. 3—8:00—Greenleaf, here.
Oct. 10—8:00—St. Theresa, here.
Oct. 17—2:00—at Cambridge.
Oct. 24—8:00 — St. Teresa at Boise.

Oct. 31—8:00 — Greenleaf at Wilder.

All home games will be played at Bulldog Bowl.

Summer Happenings

With the closing of the school year '51-'52, NNC students scattered to the far corners of its educational zone—and even farther.

A sawmill in Grants Pass, Ore. was the scene of Butch Bloomquist's labors this summer, while Russ Miller worked near Portland with a logging construction crew.

We find that Bonnie McGraw, Janis Atkinson and Cassel Mosteller attended the General Assembly in June.

Camp San Luis Obispo, Calif. has claimed two of last year's student body—Lilburn Wesche and Sylvan Miller. Raye Woolbright left recently to join the Air Force, after spending most of the summer in Tillamook, Ore. where he was married on July 27 to Lavonna Smith. Stationed at Parks Air Force Base, Calif. is Ivan Weatherby and Chet Wells is also in the Armed Forces.

Quincy Angier served as minister of music at the Philomath, Ore. Nazarene Church and was employed at a lumber mill there.

The office of Mobilgas Corp. in Minneapolis claimed the secretarial talents of Mary Fredricks during the vacation months. Janet Hauger and Bertie Graham also found work in offices this summer.

Louise Simmons attended the summer session at Cascade College in Portland; Arlan Anderson was first aid man and payroll master of an Aberdeen, Wash. construction company.

Farthest point in NNC's education zone, Alaska, was the location of several of last year's students: Guilford Fitz worked on his parents' farm near Fairbanks; Floyd Wright was a carpenter in Fairbanks and Virginia Walton and Deiores Lovett were both employed

ORGANIZE NEW DORM COUNCIL AT MANGUM

Miss Clara Christensen, head resident of Mangum Hall, has announced the organization of a dormitory council to formulate plans for the year.

Heading the list is Carolemay Rapp, a senior, with Connie Mitchell representing the juniors. Gaylon Oliver is the sophomore member while Faye Knight was chosen to represent the freshmen. Nita Clegg and Joan Boyd will be the nurses on the council.

Oasis Staff Plans For 1952-53 Annual

Plans for the 1952-53 Oasis are being formulated by Editor Joe Keen and his assistants.

Don Mesman, a senior business major, will serve as Oasis business manager, assisted by George Mowry. Norman Crofford has been chosen for associate editor. Named as literary editor was Bonnie McGraw with Pat Wilkes supervising make-up. Art Jacobs has been selected as art editor and Myron Finkbeiner as sports editor. Ernie Fisher has been appointed photographer.

by the Anchorage Health Department.

Naomi Volk kept the campus library open and worked in the office of Samaritan Hospital. Geri Leih worked for Wynn Oil Company and Donna Krause for the Produce Containers, Inc.

More distinguished summer jobs were those of Noreen DeJong and Lillian George. Lillian was a song evangelist for camp meeting at Ft. Townsend, Wash. Noreen was the society editor of the Mitchell (S. D.) Daily Republic.
