Angier, Tink or Wing Will Reign

Aman and Horne Complete Court

It will be red roses for Dia Angier, Joy Tink or Mary Wing on the night of January 21.

Wally Johnson, N Club prexy, announced today that the above named girls were chosen for the royal Tip-Off court in last Wednesday's election. To the one who received the highest number of votes will go the coveted bouquet of roses at the beginning of the coronation march. This will announce to her and to the crowd that she has been voted Tip-Off Queen.

Johnson also released the names of the princesses chosen from the freshman and sophomore classes. Rosemary Aman, sophomore, and Virginia Horne, freshman, will complete the Tip-Off Court.

Sponsored by the "N" Club and Gamma Nu Gamma, women's athletic club, Tip-Off is an annual event during basketball season. The affair is held at Central Gym, and will be followed this year by a game between the NNC Crusaders and St. Martin's College. After the game members of the royal party and players will be feted at a reception in Morrison Hall.

Activities Mark Holiday

Classes were resumed at 8 a.m. Tuesday, January 3. Life was not dull for those students unable to go home for the holidays.

On Monday evening, Dec. 19, a good-luck party honoring the NNC basketball team was held at the home of Colleen Wooten. All students were invited to the party which featured games, Christmas carols and a chili feed. An ice-skating party and a Watch-night celebration were also well attended.

The annual faculty kids party was held again this year. Each year at Christmas Mrs. Riley entertains the children of faculty members at the Residence.

Friday, Dec. 16, marked the annual Christmas party for the NNC staff. The party was held at 8 p.m. in Morrison Dining Room. Mrs. Alvin Aller, general chairman of the faculty social committee, said

First Security Donates Check

V. H. Budell presented a check to Dr. John E. Riley, Nov. 29 as he announced that trustees of the First Security Foundation have appropriated $11,000 for scholarships and library grants to 12 colleges and universities in Idaho and Utah and for support of 4-H and Future Farmers of America. The schools will receive $9,400 and $1,600, said Budell, manager of the Nampa branch, First Security Bank of Idaho, N.A. Names of students to receive scholarships will be announced in the spring. In addition to NNC, institutions to receive First Security Foundation funds are University of Utah, Brigham Young University, Utah State Agricultural College, Weber College, College of Southern Utah, University of Idaho, Idaho State College, Boise Junior College, College of Idaho, Ricks College and Lewis and Clark Normal.

NNC Graduate to Preach at North Side

The Rev. Don R. Fowler, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, Gladstone, Ore., will be guest speaker at the North Nampa Church of the Nazarene at the 10:45 a.m. Sunday service.

Reverend Mr. Fowler is a graduate of Northwest Nazarene College. He led the singing and directed the choir at the North Nampa Church of the Nazarene while a student at NNC.

Term Work Due Jan. 9

The final date to submit term work has been set for 9:00 a.m. January 9. All requests for extension of time on term work were to have been filed by Thursday, January 5.

Josette and Yvette Roman to Appear

Josette and Yvette Roman, brilliant young French - American duo-pianists, will make their first concert appearance here January

JOSETTE and YVETTE ROMAN

13, 1956, in the college auditorium, Double E. Hill announced today. The vivacious sisters, born in Paris and trained in the Paris Conservatory, made a sparkling debut at New York's Town Hall in 1950. Shortly after, they appeared with the San Francisco Symphony under Pierre Monteux, and have been giving concerts to delighted audiences from coast to coast ever since. They have also appeared in radio and television programs.

For their spirited style and technical finesse the Roman sisters have been hailed by such outstanding musicians as Isador Philipp, Gregor Piatigorsky, Lubushutz and Nemenoff, who rank them among the most brilliantly endowed young duo-pianists today. They play music written especially for them and arrangements of their own, as well as standard repertoire, and are especially interested in new works by French and American composers.

As young children Josette and Yvette showed remarkable talent. Their father, also a pianist, had them play one day for the famous French cellist, Pierre Fournier, who was so impressed that he at once urged they be given the best possible professional training. Soon thereafter both girls were hard at work in the strenuous Paris Conservatory, studying piano, theory and composition. When they were graduated as soloists, the whole family celebrated by moving to California.

Their concert here will be under the auspices of The Nampa Civic Music Association.

CHS Senior Class Takes New Project

The CHS Senior Class of '56' has just taken on a new project. Under the direction of Mrs. Bunts, their advisor, the seniors have decided to put on a play. The benefits from the play will go for expenses on the "Senior Trip" that they will be taking this spring.

"Glamour Boy" is the title of the play chosen by the class members. It is a comedy in three acts. Of the 16 members in the cast there are seven men and nine women. The characters are: Georgia Belle Roberts - Anita Ogstad; Channcy Jay Mooney - Phil Frisk; Gregory (Flash) Horner - Keith Wright; Clarissa Green - Barbara Keen; Perry (Corky) Williams - Larry Gentry; Miss Prescott-Muriel Parsons; Mrs. Mooney - Carol Wien; Miss Higgins - Carol Ax; Roxanne Towner - Lucy Cotner; Audry Nelson - Barbara Peterson; J.C. Roberts - Bill James; Mr. Garfield - Dale Fleming; Miss Davis - Iverna Lyda; Miss Thorn-dyke - Neola Lienweber.

Area Institutions Get $261,000

Five area institutions will receive grants totalling $261,500 from the Ford Foundation. During the next 18 months, two colleges and three hospitals in the county will share in the half-billion dollars that the foundation will give to 615 privately supported colleges and 3,500 private hospitals across the nation. Recipients will include:

- Northwest Nazarene College, Nampa, $84,200;
- College of Idaho, Caldwell, $103,300;
- Mercy Hospital, Nampa, $28,800;
- Samaritan Hospital, Nampa, $19,600;
- Memorial Hospital, Caldwell, $25,600;

Funds will be given to colleges, according to the Ford Foundation announcement, "to help them raise teachers' salaries."

Hospital grants are intended "to help them improve and extend their services to the public."

Commenting on the grants, President Riley said:

"We are very happy and deeply gratified to receive word of this grant to NNC. It will help us to do something which we have been working at steadily — namely to increase salaries of our faculty members.

"It is my sincere hope that this dramatic gift, the greatest single charitable donation of history, will stimulate private and corporation giving to private college and universities across the nation."

It is the first Ford Foundation gift to NNC, said Dr. Riley.

He explained that the grant is in the form of an endowment — the income from which is to be used for faculty salaries.

Vacation Basketball Summary

DECEMBER 16 - 17

There was quite a switch in the way the Northwest Nazarene College Crusaders played ball at Rexburg Dec. 17 compared to their Dec. 16 performance.

In the first game NNC started out fast. The Crusaders led through most of the half but the Ricks Vikings pulled even and went ahead at halftime 36-35. NNC never gained back its lead and lost 74-65.

In the second game the Crusaders started slow and trailed the Vikings during the first 10 minutes of the first half. But then the Nampa squad tied the count at 23-all and was never again headed as it won 67-59.

Prior to the NNC series, the Ricks Vikings had won seven out of eight games including two decisive wins over the College of Idaho Coyotes. So to split two games with a team holding such a record is doing pretty well. The sad part of the story is that the Friday night encounter that the Crusaders lost was NNC's first league game in the Intermountain Collegiate Athletic Conference. Saturday night's game was a non-conference affair.

NNC will have a chance to avenge the setback Feb. 3 when the Vikings come to town for the second and final league tilt of the season between these two teams.

Mickey Dean and Dave Gardner showed their dependability in the Ricks series by taking scoring honors for both games. Gardner scored a total of 37 in the two Rexburg games and Mick potted 33.

DECEMBER 20

The Crusaders dropped the fifth game Dec. 20 when they fell before Eastern Oregon College of Education attack, 82-79.

The game was the second meeting this season between the two squads and evened things for the Mountaineers who lost a Dec. 3 contest in Nampa.

DECEMBER 30

The Crusaders evened their won

NNC Might Leave ICAC

The possibility is that NNC which is in its first year as a member of the Intermountain Collegiate Athletic Conference, will leave the league before another basketball season rolls around.

The possibility arose when the ICAC faculty representatives in Salt Lake City Saturday took preliminary steps to establish a two-year eligibility code for conference athletes.

The representatives voted 6-1 to make a final vote on the proposal at the spring meeting May 10 at Weber college in Ogden. In the meantime, the eight member schools will study the matter as required by conference regulations. A three-fourths vote is required for passage.

The "vote to study" ballot came after a long discussion. The eligibility problem has long been a sore spot in the loop because some of the members are two-year institutions and others are four-year schools.

Weber, Dixie, Carbon, Snow and Boise Junior College all have two-year programs, and College of Southern Utah, Northwest Nazarene College and Ricks have four-year curricula.

However Ricks is in the process of revising its program to two years and CSU has four-year elementary education and three-year agricultural programs only.

The eligibility problem was the main business at the conference's annual winter meeting. The representatives also made final corrections in the 1956 basketball and football schedules, chose Weber College at Ogden as the site for the conference track meet and baseball playoff, May 11, and did preliminary work on the 1957 and 1958 football schedules.

and lost record at 5-5 Friday night by downing the Mountain Home Air Force Base Plainsmen 74-49 in the NNC Gym.

The win was the second in two nights for the Crusaders over the Plainsmen. Thursday night in Mountain Home the Nampa team won 63-57. These games were not regularly scheduled contests but were set up shortly before the holidays.

TONIGHT and TOMORROW

NNC with one game down in Intermountain Conference play with a Dec. 16 loss to Ricks, tries for a loop win in games at Meridian against Carbon College tonight and Snow Saturday in Nampa.

Trojans Win First Three Games

The CHS Trojans chalked up their first win Dec. 9, over the Grandview Devils. The squad rallied from a half time score of 19-19 to a 46133 victory. Don Olmstead led both teams with 20 points.

Tuesday night trip to Jordan Valley on the 13th brought Vail's boys their second victory. With four minutes remaining Jordan Valley took a 41-40 lead, but the Trojans rallied with 13 points as they held down the Mustangs to 3 points, making the final score 53-44.

Trojan JVs defeated the Mustang JVs 56-21.

A 76-42 thriller over the Nampa Sophomore team climaxed pre-Christmas play for the Trojans. Perry Winkle, a transfer from Wash. sparked the team with 31 points, breaking the old high scoring record of 28.

Tonight the Trojans meet with Bruneau in the Meridian Gym.

Homecoming Reception Jan. 21

This year for the first time the Queen and her court, along with the Crusader basketball team will be honored at a Homecoming Reception in Morrison Dining Hall immediately following the St. Martin's basketball game, January 21.

All NNC couples and alumni are invited to attend this semi-formal affair. A short program will be presented and refreshments will be served.

The schedule for purchasing tickets will be announced at a later date.

NNC on TV Jan. 10

Miss Helen Wilson announced today that NNC's monthly telecast will be on Channel 2 next Tues-

Floyd Johnson Is Accepted by Medical School

Floyd Johnson, senior, has been notified of his acceptance by the University of Southern California School of Medicine.

Johnson is a Nampan and the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Keller Johnson, Melba. His wife is the former Beth McBee of Nampa.

Dr. Peter V. Lee, assistant dean of the medical school, informed Johnson of his acceptance into the class of September, 1956. The medical school is located in Los Angeles.

Johnson attended Melmont Grade School and College High School. He will be graduated from NNC this spring with a major in biological science and chemistry.

Cupid's Corner

Whew! I've been so busy during the last several weeks that I have scarcely had the time to breathe! But in order to start the new year right, I'll take time out to catch you up on the very latest in 1955.

First of all, I beg your most humble pardon for neglecting to inform you of the October engagement of Ailene Pilcher, to Don Scarbrough, of San Luis Obispo, California. Ailene is a freshman at NNC, and Don is stationed at the Mountain Home Air Force Base.

Did I ever have fun shopping for Christmas diamonds! I'm pretty particular, so I travelled all over the West trying to find just the exact ones to match. It all began on December 9, when Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jensen of Santa Monica, California, announced the engagement of their daughter, Nettie to Gene Hansen, a senior from Dixie, Washington.

I discovered another one in Creswell, Oregon, when on December 18, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Klohn announced the engagement of their senior daughter, Rhoda to Archie Davies, a young man from Portland.

My next shopping experience was completed December 20, when the First Church of the Nazarene in Nampa was the scene of a beautiful marriage ceremony to honor freshman Beverly Gustin and sophomore Harmon Schmelzenbach. I was also present at First Church on December 23, when Earl Tromburg placed the final ring on the finger of Velma

Steck Speaks to FTA

The NNC chapter of Future Teachers of America held its first meeting of 1956 Tuesday evening, January 3, in the Morrison Dining Hall. The meeting centered around an interesting talk given by Wesley L. Steck, principal of West Junior High School in Nampa. Merit System reports will be collected at the February meeting, which will be a joint meeting here with the F.T.A. chapters of B.J.C. and C. of I.

Stauffer.

Shopping in Lewiston, Idaho, was quite an event, and on Saturday, December 24, Mrs. Elsie Phillips announced the engagement of her daughter Norma to Carl Childs. Norma is a sophomore at N.N.C., and Carl who attended N.N.C. last year, is now working for Uncle Sam.

I skipped to Boise, Idaho for my next purchase, and the engagement of Phyllis Hartley to Loring Beals was announced by Rev. and Mrs. E.B. Hartley on December 28. Phyllis is a senior at N.N.C. and Loring, a graduate of N.N.C., is attending the Nazarene Theological Seminary in Kansas City.

My last shopping excursion took me clear back to St. Paul, Minnesota, where Mr. and Mrs. Joyce McCabe Sommerdorf announced the engagement of their daughter Carol to Willis Nichols, of Nampa.

It's plain to see that I need a rest—but don't worry! I always sleep with one eye open and bow and arrows at my side! May 1956 be the most successful year ever!

Circle K

Capt. Ed. Scriven, in charge of the Nampa Salvation Army Station, was the special speaker at the bi-monthly Circle K luncheon held in the Morrison parlor on Wednesday. Guests from the Nampa Kiwanis Club were L. Wesley Johnson and Walt Braun. Pins were presented to the four new members, Bill Zuercher, Darrel Marks, Bill Jackson, and Dick Ramsey.

CWB Sets Record

Christian Workers Band set a mileage record over the Christmas holidays by sending a group 700 miles to Laurel, Montana, to hold a week-end revival. Jim Ridgeway served as the speaker, and with him went a trio composed of Donna Murray, Jean Wilson, and Ken Rhodenbush, and pianist, Anna Mae Bauerle.

The meeting started Thursday, December 29, with a young people's banquet. Friday night was "College Night"; and Saturday night, which was combined with a watch-night service, featured "Kum Duple Night." Sunday, January 1 ended the meeting. Although the group "had a good time and were treated royally", the real value of the meeting may be seen in the hearts of the eleven people who received help at an altar of prayer.

The average American spent $10.30 for candy last year—a total expenditure for our collective sweet-tooth of $1,620,000,000.

Joe Michel Talks to Guild

Joe Michel described Christmases that he remembered best in a talk Dec. 12 for members of the Evening Missionary Guild of the First Christian Church at the home of Mrs. Ray Gentry.

Michel contrasted Christmas as it was observed by his family before World War II with a Christmas in the concentration camp when the people had little to eat. He concluded by describing his first American Yule-time with the many gifts and the good will he encountered everywhere.

He was introduced by Mrs. Jack Givens, program chairman for the evening, who also presented Miss Marlys Hughes in a reading of Dickens' Christmas Carol. Members took articles for a needy family the church is assisting. Devotions were led by Mrs. Dave Schwalbe.

Mrs. Gentry and Mrs. Louis Piper served refreshments.
