"COLLEGIANAIREs"

Women's Quartet To Travel In Northwest

Representing NNC in the Pacific Northwest this summer will be the "Collegianaires," women's quartet, made up of all sophomores.

Singing first soprano is Marilyn Hartley, an elementary education major from Boise. Her father, Rev. E. B. Hartley, is pastor of Boise First Church. The second soprano part will be sung by Kathy Pershall, an elementary education major from Oregon City, Ore. Her father is also a Nazarene pastor.

Filling in with first alto is Sandy Coombs from Springfield, Ore. Sandy is majoring in business and minoring in education. Singing second also is Barbara Kiel, a music education major from Bend, Ore.

Their summer schedule begins June 4 at Elgin, Ore. From there, they will travel through parts of Washington and be in and out of Seattle in the middle of June. From there they will travel south and enter Oregon July 6 with a concert at Portland First Church.

The quartet will spend three days at the Washington-Pacific Camp will be Mr. and Mrs. Dee Freeborn (as of Thursday, May 22), for that is their wedding date in College Church.

Both the bride (Miss Violet Jahn) and the groom have traveled for the school in past summers in the "Vocalaires" and the "Collegian" quartets respectively. Put the two together and one comes up with "Collegianaires."

Freeborn plans to show colored slides in the churches after each concert to help influence high school students to come to NNC.

Also adding to the program will be Dee's saxophone; mixed trios and readings by Violet.

Miss Helen G. Wilson Is Recipient Of Awaited 1958 Oasis Dedication

Larry Halter Is Chosen President Of Student NEA

Larry Halter, education major from Portland, Ore., has been chosen as president of Student National Education Association for next year.

Other officers chosen by a recent election were as follows: vice president, Laveta Urwin; correspondence secretary, Lorraine Paul; recording secretary, Ethel Kraft; treasurer, Ken Somerville; program chairman, Joan Ogburn.

The newly-elected officers were installed at a recent progressive banquet which started with pizza pie at the home of Mrs. Leupp, sponsor of the organization. The banquet ended at Morrison Dining Hall where the installation ceremony was conducted by out-going president, Julian Hagood.

Halter has announced plans and goals for next year's club. This year Halter was president of the state NEA organization and represented Idaho at the national convention in Philadelphia, Penn.

In announcing next year's plan Halter said, "Our goal is to have 100 per cent of all potential teachers participating in a pre-professional organization such as SNEA." He added that this is a national goal as well as a local goal for membership.

During the summer Halter hopes to complete a booklet entitled "What, Me Teach?" The booklet will outline the organization to prospective members and potential teachers, he said.

In emphasizing the great position students play at NNC, Halter added that approximately 30 graduating seniors will go directly into education. This is a much larger number than the second place major, which was religion, with about eight.

Theme, Color and Dedication Has Been Kept Secret By Book Staff

Miss Helen G. Wilson, professor in the humanities area at NNC, was given this year's Oasis dedication. This dedication was revealed yesterday at a luncheon given in Miss Wilson's honor at the Harmony Cafe.

Seniors Plan For Annual Program

Plans are progressing steadily for the Senior Class Program to be held in the afternoon on June 2 in the chapel.

The program will include special music which is being arranged by Don Doane and Rosemary Aman Martin; a talk from the two co-valedictorians and salutatorian; presentation of the traditional senior gift to the school by Darrell Marks; and the reading of the class history, which is being prepared by Jan Johnson, Anna Rose Rives, Duane Steuckle and Paul Miller.

After the program inside, the scene will move outside for the annual tree-planting ceremony.

The senior class is also planning a class newsletter to be published three or four times a year including events and news pertaining to the class of '58. Roxie Hull is in charge of the newsletter.

Plans were also discussed at the last meeting for a possible class reunion in ten years.

The theme, color of the book, and the dedication have been kept a coveted secret by the annual editorial staff throughout the year.

The 1958 Oasis has for a theme, "Trees." The growth of the trees symbolizes the growth of the individual student on the campus of Northwest Nazarene College, beginning with the formative minds of the freshmen and concluding with the individual who is ready to serve.

This year's book has a hard cover with a golden bronze color, catching the spirit of the trees in the autumn season.

Betty Richardson, editor of the 1958 Oasis, expressed much appreciation to Miss Marion Washburn and Mr. L. Wesley Johnson, sponsors, for their aid in the student production. Betty also "gives much credit to the entire Oasis staff for their work in the compilation of the 1958 Oasis."

The annuals are expected to be distributed at the Oasis office sometime this afternoon.

Baccalaureate, Commencement Exercises Loom

One of the largest graduating classes in recent times will meet in front of Emerson Administration Building at 10:45 a. m. Sunday, June 1, for the traditional march across campus to College Church.

All graduating college students, those receiving Master's Degrees, and College High School graduates, will be included. Leading the procession this year will be the Junior Class marshals, Noel Riley and Paul Whitmarsh. Then follows the faculty according to degrees, the graduating Masters, the Bachelor of Arts, certificates and College High School.

Upon arriving at College Church, President John E. Riley will bring

The quartet will spend three days at the Washington-Pacific Camp at Hall's Lake, Wash. The remainder of their schedule is still pending; however, it is probable that they will visit Northwest Camp, Oregon Pacific Camp and possibly the Idaho-Oregon Camp. The majority of their three-month trip will be spent in Idaho, Oregon and Washington. However, they may see a part of Utah or Nevada.

Dr. Riley Announces Steel Foundation Grant To NNC

Dr. John E. Riley, NNC president, has announced the receipt of a check for $1,000 from the United States Steel Foundation, Inc. to be used for operating aid for the college.

Announcement of the grant came in a letter from R. C. Tyson, chairman of the corporation's Financial Policy Committee. Tyson said in part:

"The grant is unrestricted as to your use of it . . . the Trustees hope that the institutions covered by the program will find their own individually-suitable means of applying it to the end that timely and effective provision for more and better faculty, staff recruitment and development may lead to even higher standards and greater strength for higher education."

Dr. Riley said that United States Steel Foundation, Inc. has announced grants to 655 of the nation's privately-supported liberal arts colleges, science and engineering institutions, public and private universities and medical schools and to several educational associations and groups.

In announcing the Foundation's 1958 program of Aid-to-Education, Roger M. Blough, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Foundation said: "The action of the Trustees represents an effort to provide assistance to as many institutions as possible and to help maintain the vigor of the leading private institutions through substantial grants.

"The Trustees also sought to allocate available resources so as to best serve the changing requirements of higher education and to provide, to the extent feasible, continuity of aid. Moreover, they hoped to encourage quality improvement of education and provide opportunity for individual development of scholars through fellowships."

The entire grants program totaled $2,000,000.

He added that this is a national goal as well as a local goal for membership.

During the summer Halter hopes to complete a booklet entitled, "What, Me Teach?" The booklet will outline the organization to prospective members and potential teachers, he said.

In emphasizing the great position students play at NNC, Halter added that approximately 30 graduating seniors will go directly into education. This is a much larger number than the second place major, which was religion, with about eight.

Miss Wilson Speaks At ISC

Miss Helen Wilson, professor of speech and journalism, returned to Nampa recently from Pocatello where she spoke on the campus of Idaho State College.

She was speaker at the annual reception for Pocatello high school senior girls which is sponsored by the Pocatello Altrusa Club. Some 260 high school seniors and their faculty advisers attended the meeting.

Speaking on "Chart, Course and Challenge," Miss Wilson outlined vocational and professional opportunities available for women in today's world.

While in Pocatello Miss Wilson was entertained by members of Altrusa Club.

★★ Editorial Comment ★★

“SUCH AS I HAVE . . .”

As two poor uncultured men passed by the gate Beautiful on their way into the temple to pray, they noticed a lame man who lay begging for alms. This was a typical scene; it could easily be observed every day. For here beggars were most likely to receive a handout. This day, though, something happened which teaches us a great lesson. These two men, filled with the Holy Spirit, were anxious for any opportunity to glorify Jesus Christ.

When they spoke to the man, his eyes lighted up expecting to receive money. Instead the rugged impetuous fisherman spoke these immortal words, “Silver and gold have I none but such as I have, give I thee: in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk.”

The need of the world is not silver and gold as so many seem to think, or at least their actions tell us so; but it is Jesus Christ! Our neighbors need love, mercy, confidence, and faith. They need true friends who will love them in spite of their faults and failings. They need a faith to live by and a rock upon which to stand. Some need to be fed, some clothed, some befriended.

The jobless man needs a job to retain his self-respect and dignity. The adolescent needs guidance and instruction—someone to show him the right path to follow. The shut-ins need to be visited, the sick cared for, and the lost sheep pointed to the Master. What opportunities are at the tips of our fingers!

The fields are white unto harvest, but the labourers are so few. We have the source that can fulfill all needs in Jesus Christ!

The two greatest laws, the “Thou shalt loves,” are Christianity in a nutshell. If Jesus is to be seen, He must be seen through us . . . a staggering thought when we think how frail and imperfect we are, but a pregnant one when we realize that it is not us but the power that worketh in us.

As we live our lives, as we meet our neighbors, as we work and play, let us remember Peter's words to his neighbor that day, “Such as I have, give I thee.”

THE NIGHT BEFORE EXAMS

’Twas the night before exams, when all through the dorm
 Every creature was stirring and would be till morn;
 The notes were all scattered by the books without care,
 In hopes that their memories soon they would share.
 Great intellects were nestled all snug in their beds,
 While visions of A's danced in their heads;
 And “Mom” in her kerchief and “Pop” in his cap,
 Had just settled down for a long evening's nap.
 Then out in the parlor there arose such a clatter,
 I sprang from my desk to see what was the matter;
 Away to the hall I flew like a flash,
 Tearing open the door in my mad, wild dash.
 And, what to my wondering eyes came in sight,
 But some eight or ten boys engaged in a fight;
 Some were on top—others not so quick
 I could tell in a twinkling of an eye
 How soon they'd be dazed and their heads would be split
 If I could have but caught that wicked, wicked

MORRISON HALL DORM MOTHER

Mrs. Harold Volk's Life Torn Between Two Loves

On campus there is an outstanding mother who is loved by all who know her. One may not always see her, but she is around. This mother is Mrs. Harold Volk, head resident of Morrison Hall.

Mrs. Volk is loved and appreciated by her “daughters” at Morrison Hall, for she is always on hand when she is needed most. Not a girl's birthday goes by but Mrs. Volk knows about it. On special occasions she has treats for the girls.

When sickness strikes one can find her ready with a tray in one hand and a pill in the other. Her parlor is always open to the girls and her coffee pot is always ready to be plugged in.

Being dorm mother of Morrison Hall is only one side of Mrs. Volk's life, for she has another “love.”

Her first love, her husband, is an outstanding Nazarene evangelist. He is away most of the time and is able to make only occasional visits before he is called away to hold meetings.

One might say that Mrs. Volk is sharing her life between two “loves.” During the school year she occupies the head residency of Morrison Hall, and the summer months find her touring the country with her husband in revival meetings.

Perhaps to some extent all evangelists' wives are torn between two “loves.” On one hand they would like to be with their husbands, but they realize that their families need them at home. The girls of Morrison Hall are Mrs. Volk's family.

Franklin Elected As President of IRC

Jim Franklin, sophomore, was elected president of International Relations Club for next year at a meeting held this week.

Dale Vawter and Betty Thorsen were chosen and vice president and secretary-treasurer respectively.

“Plans for a much larger membership are taking form for next year,” Franklin announced.

Faculty Learns About Student Point Of View

(ACP)—Utah State University's STUDENT LIFE last December offered the paper's services as a kind of intermediary between student and administration.

LIFE invited students to write down their ideas, pro and con, on any phase of campus activity. The feeling had been that administration persons didn't know the student point of view.

Since its Dec. 3 invitation, LIFE has recorded three responses.

In February, the student body president announced a series of meetings between the student executive council and the administration. The meetings are designed to bring the student point of view into sharper focus with administration “brass,” according to LIFE.

Said LIFE's editors: “It is possible we are being too negative about this business—students may be entirely happy with the status

And, what to my wondering eyes came in sight,
But some eight or ten boys engaged in a fight;
Some were on top—others not so quick
I could tell in a moment they were doomed to be licked.
Then a little lady with hands flying high,
Was shouting and yelling till I thought she would die.
More rapid than eagles her shouting they came
And she wistled and pounded and called them by name:
"Now George! Now Roger! Now Allen and Fred!
Stop this! Be quiet! Now back to your bed!"
On top of the pile, on top of them all!
"Now dash away! dash away! dash away all!"
As dry leaves before the wild hurricane fly,
And, meeting an obstacle, mount to the sky,
So up to their rooms the laddies they flew
With bodies full of bumps—and bruises, too.
Then in a twinkling, I heard on the wall,
A pounding and pawing, and then a loud call.
As I drew in my head, and was turning around,
Down through the corridor she came with a bound.
She was dressed all in night clothes, from foot to head,
Her mouth it was yawning, from being in bed!
A chair from the parlor was tucked 'neath her arm,
And she looked for the scoundrel who'd done all the harm.
Her eyes—how they flashed with the harsh words she said!
Her fist were clenched, from the time she had fled!
Her droll little mouh now gaped open quite wide,
As she hunted the victim who had gone off to hide.
'Tween her teeth she held tight the stub of a pencil,
To write the names down for the dorm council.
She had a broad face with little round glasses,
That chook when she walked and reminded me of classes.
She spoke not a word but went straight to her room
Knowing that quietness would come again soon;
Then laying her pencil on top of her desk,
She was ready again for a good night's rest.
She sprang to her bed, to Pop gave a sigh
And away to dreamland they did fly.
But I heard her exclaim ere she sank out of sight,
"Good luck to all! And to all a good night!"

WHY TRY?

(ACP)—COLLEGIAN, at Holy Names College, Spokane, Wash., carried three big stories of coming events in an issue last month—two of future important speeches and the third on the debut of the college's symphony orchestra.

But the next issue reported that one speaker had to come a week early, the second sent a replacement, and the orchestra decided members weren't ready for a concert and cancelled their appearance.

"Reporters take courses in tracking down facts," sighed COLLEGIAN editors. "Should they add crystal gazing to their curriculum?"

Shepherdess Class Discusses Various Interesting Topics

"Entertaining guests" was the subject discussed at the last Shepherdess class meeting, with a side-light on serving the visiting evangelist breakfast in bed.

Throughout the school year the Shepherdess club has discussed such subjects as going to a new pastorate, the type of reading a pastor's wife should do, how to meet people and other topics.

The club's last meeting has been tentatively set for May 18, at which time the husbands will be invited. At this meeting the shepherd crooks will be awarded to wives of graduating seniors.

Her first love, her husband, is an outstanding Nazarene evangelist. He is away most of the time and is able to make only occasional visits before he is called away to hold meetings.

HOW TO BECOME A NUISANCE

By BETTA MEYERS

Becoming a nuisance isn't very difficult if you really follow the simple steps outlined below. Of course, I won't guarantee that you'll be happy as a nuisance, but never-the-less, here are ten easy steps to follow if that is your goal:

1. Always act as if you're right no matter to whom you are talking, or on what subject. Pretty soon, you'll begin to believe that you are right.
2. Have many different moods every day, always surprising everyone.
3. Bawl people out every chance you get even if you can't find a very good reason.
4. Don't ever praise anyone, but pass out criticism freely. If you compliment people, they might get conceited.
5. Keep a scowl on your face all day—you wouldn't want people to think you were in a pleasant mood.
6. Make fun of people's efforts to accomplish something. There's no use of their making fools of themselves.
7. Above all, don't go out of your way to help anyone, even if he's in desperate need. He can get someone else.
8. Have a bitter attitude toward professors and ministers—they just want to show their authority.
9. Study just enough to get along—no use to wreck your health over it.
10. And lastly, just be as honest as you need to be, not to get caught.

If you follow these ten simple rules diligently, I've no doubt that you'll be able to reach the goal. Of course, it may be kind of a lonely life, but who cares? You don't like people anyway! (Say, by the way, you aren't already following some of these steps, ARE YOU?)

kind of intermediary between student and administration.

LIFE invited students to write down their ideas, pro and con, on any phase of campus activity. The feeling had been that administration persons didn't know the student point of view.

Since its Dec. 3 invitation, LIFE has recorded three responses.

In February, the student body president announced a series of meetings between the student executive council and the administration. The meetings are designed to bring the student point of view into sharper focus with administration "brass," according to LIFE.

Said LIFE's editors: "It is possible we are being too negative about this business—students may be entirely happy with the status quo and perhaps they should be. LIFE does not want to presuppose that any crisis exists. Yet the mature mind, as well as the mature university, recognizes a constant need for improvement."

The purpose of a sermon isn't that you should like it—but that you should live it.

SCHOLASTIC GOALS

NNC's System of Honors And Probation Discussed

By CAVIL BENSHOOF

We invest money and precious years of time in college and then oftentimes cheat ourselves of many of the greatest values of an education. The Investiture program with its announcement of honor students reminds us that there are scholastic goals toward which we may strive.

I wonder, however, if any of you have thought about those students who are at the other end of the scholastic scale. Do students with poor marks "get by" at NNC? The answer is to be found in NNC's honors program and probation system.

First, let's look at the honors program.

Students carrying a regular academic load who maintain a grade point average of 3.50 or above earn high honors at the close of each semester. Students carrying a regular load who maintain a GPA of 3.00 to 3.50 are awarded honors. In addition to this any student maintaining a grade point average of 3.40 or above for two consecutive semesters is accorded membership in Zeta Kappa Rho, local honor society.

Upon graduation students having a GPA of 3.00 but less than 3.50 are graduated with honors. Those having a GPA of 3.50 but less than 3.80 are graduated with high honors. Highest honors go to those having 3.80 or above.

Students of good character with GPA's of 3.40 or above and who have displayed a high standard of work in the comprehensive examination are eligible for membership in Phi Delta Lambda, national honor society of the colleges of the Church of the Nazarene. Membership is restricted to the upper 15% of the graduating class.

Whenever a student's work indicates the lack of ability to do college work he is placed on probation. If the quality of his work does not improve the second semester he may not return to college without permission of the Dean of the College. Such action is considered an advisory measure rather than discipline or punishment.

Students obtaining GPA averages of less than 1.75 for any semester are placed on probation.

Since probation is a personal rather than a social problem, the names of students advised to leave college are not made public. For this reason some have thought that there is no probation system at NNC.

If you are still a doubter, just let the old GPA slip below 1.75 and get ready to make your trip to the office of the Dean or the Chairman of Lower Division.

NNC's Summer School Session To Run From June 9 To August 1

By BETTA MEYERS

Summer school at NNC this year will be from June 9 to August 1, and it is open to any student who meets the requirements as stated in the college catalog.

Full matriculation is a requirement for those who wish to obtain a degree, and forms for this purpose may be secured from the Registrar's Office. The maximum load that one may carry is nine credits and it is normally expected that one hour of credit for each week of enrollment is received.

The tuition and fees for the summer session run at $17.00 per credit up to 7 hours or $125.00 for 7½ to 9 hours. Private lessons are offered at extra cost.

Although the dormitories and dining room will not be open, the school will arrange for housing facilities if they are desired. The full use of the College Library and Bookstore will also be provided.

During the summer sessions, there is a close spirit of fellowship between students and faculty members in the relaxed atmosphere of the campus. Many outdoor activities are also enjoyed together each summer.

The following faculty members will be teaching this summer: James Feltar, Education; Double

E Hill, Music; Edythe Leupp, Education; Arthur Manchester, German; Elmore Vail, Health and Physical Education; Virgil Vail, Science and Mathematics; Marian Washburn, English, Percival A. Wesche, Social Sciences and Religion.

Campus Music Groups Active As Year Closes

Campus musical groups have been very busy during the past few weeks of school and Double E Hill, chairman of the division of fine arts, announces a full schedule of musical events to round out the school year.

Members of the Treble Choir under the direction of Deloris Bloomquist Waller appeared on the NNC telecast on May 7. The next day they left for Idaho Falls where they appeared before the National Federation of Music Clubs' state convention.

Prof. James Carkhuff and the 37-voice male chorus spent a week-end in the state of Washington where they gave concerts in Kennewick, Pasco and Richland. Curtis Hawkins gave brief talks on the work of NNC. Prof. T. C. Leckie presented piano solos.

Martha Lou Ward is accompanist for the Treble Choir and Mrs. James Carkhuff accompanied the male chorus.

Members of the college band presented their concert on Thursday, May 8. Armand Robbins, concert harpist from Nampa, was featured soloist. Student soloists included June Todd.

Last Friday night students of Alline Swann were presented in recital. Saturday, May 17, at 8 p. m., Miss Pansy Martin, soprano was featured in her senior recital. A miscellaneous recital will be presented Wednesday at 4 p. m.

The clarinet quartet and brass sextet will present a concert Thursday, May 22, with the combined Treble Choir and Male Chorus Spring Concert slated for Friday, May 23.

A soprano recital by Edna Cramer is scheduled for May 24 at 8 p. m. The string ensemble will present its concert on May 30 at 8 p. m. and Dave Mattson, pianist, will be presented in recital on Saturday, May 31. Jackie Watson, organist, will be presented in Commencement Vespers on June 1 at 5 p. m.

Dr. Wesche formerly taught at Olivet Nazarene College and held pastorates in the Midwest.

Girls Make Better Eskimos Than Men

Why? Because they can get along with less clothing, says the newspaper. Editors weighed the winter clothing of one coed and one male student—everything from "unmentionables" to cuff links—and they learned the girl wore 8 lbs. 12 ozs., and the boy 15 lbs. 3 ozs.—almost double.

TROJAN TALK

By DON SAUER

As the closing of school comes nearer, the hum of activities around College High becomes higher.

Pep Club initiation was held recently. The initiates came dressed as different people, and each had to earn $2 to give to the club. The climax of the day came when the Pep Club accepted these girls at a swimming party in the afternoon at Givens.

The baseball team closed a very successful season when they split a double-header with Kuna on the home field. The final standing was 7 wins and 3 losses.

The track squad, though not extremely large, had an excellent season record as they captured first place in the two track meets they entered.

ASB vice president, Bill Manley, is planning the all-school picnic, but no definite date has been set.

While Sputniks are circling the earth, vice presidents are getting rocks thrown at them, and countries are having threats of civil war, life goes on as usual—perhaps sped up a bit—at College High.

Bachelors Unite!

(ACP)—These terrifying figures come from the Ohio State university LANTERN.

There are more than 19,000,000 unmarried women in this country and every last one of them is out to get a man.

Last year women spent $59,000,000 for perfume. How much more they spent for lipstick, rouge, eyebrow pencil and false eyelashes is not known.

On the basis of these facts a number of eligible men throughout the country has organized into a Bachelors' Protective Association to insure themselves against marriage.

The BPA is currently circulating its literature. For a small fee the BPA insures unmarried man against marriage for a full year.

That is probably the "catch" to the whole organization. Insurance is costly and if you want to be insured you will have to shell out. What price freedom.

SENIOR ATHLETES

Since NNC is losing five top athletes this year by graduation, I thought I would delve into their past to find a few answers as to their athletic success.

DUANE STUECKLE

The first gentleman I interviewed was a fellow we all call "Hank". Okay, you know, Duane Stueckle. Duane is from Colfax, Washington, where he lettered three years in basketball and tennis.

Duane was rewarded with the honor of being named honorary captain of the 1954 Colfax basketball team. Duane has just finished his fourth successful season with the Crusader basketballers.

As the little speed merchant Duane would say, "I may be little but I'm fast."

By the way, Duane is single and plans to teach after graduation.

DON KINYON

This fellow could be described as a "wrongarmer." Don't get excited, I merely mean he is a lefthander.

Lefty Don hails from Port Orchard, Washington, where he lettered in both football and baseball. Don was a hard-driving fullback in football, but was injured during his senior year.

During his high school career Don played the outfield spot in baseball, but when he entered college he was switched to pitcher. This proved to be a lucky break for NNC. Don has been doing a fine job ever since.

Don is married and plans to enter the ministry. "Al" is his nickname. His favorite saying is, "Let's keep those guys off base." Don is a four-year letterman.

"A jack of all trades" explains our next athlete. Danny lettered in four sports in high school. These include football, basketball, baseball, and track.

During his senior year Dan was named honorary captain of the basketball team by his teammates at Fruitland, Idaho.

Here at college he has lettered three years in basketball, one year in baseball, two years in track. Dan is simply called "Dan'l" by most of his teammates.

Being a married man, Dan plans on teaching after graduating. He ring which he so graciously purchased.

His favorite saying is, "What do you say, Co-ordination?" Don is a math major.

KEITH JONES

Last, but not least, of our senior athletes is Keith Jones.

"Jonesy" as most call him, was a three-sport letterman in high school. These sports included football, baseball, and basketball.

Keith moved around quite a bit in his high school days, but finally graduated from Bend High School in Bend, Oregon.

Here at college Keith has lettered four years in baseball, where he has played both third base and the shortstop positions. Keith has a very accurate throw to first, having made only two bad throws in four years of college ball, which is highly commendable for any ball player.

Good luck, grads!

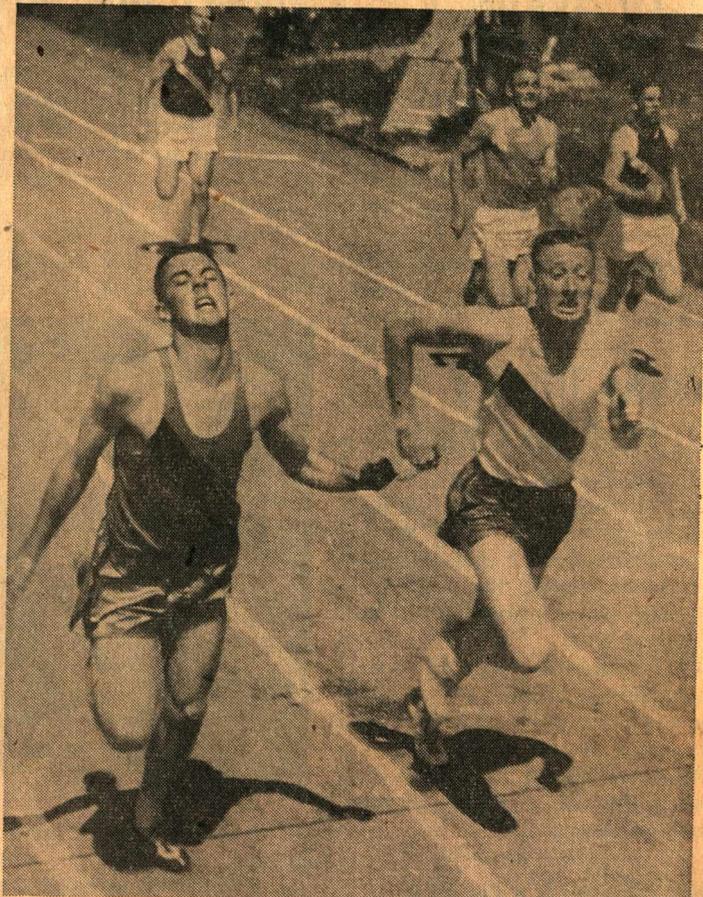

Constable And Finkbeiner Win Nationals Berth

Don Constable and Paul Finkbeiner will represent NNC and the Fifth District of the NAIA in the National NAIA track meet to be held in June in San Diego, California.

Constable qualified for the nationals by taking the 220 and 440 yard runs, while Finkbeiner won the 880 in the Fifth District NAIA meet held in Dillon, Montana, on May 10.

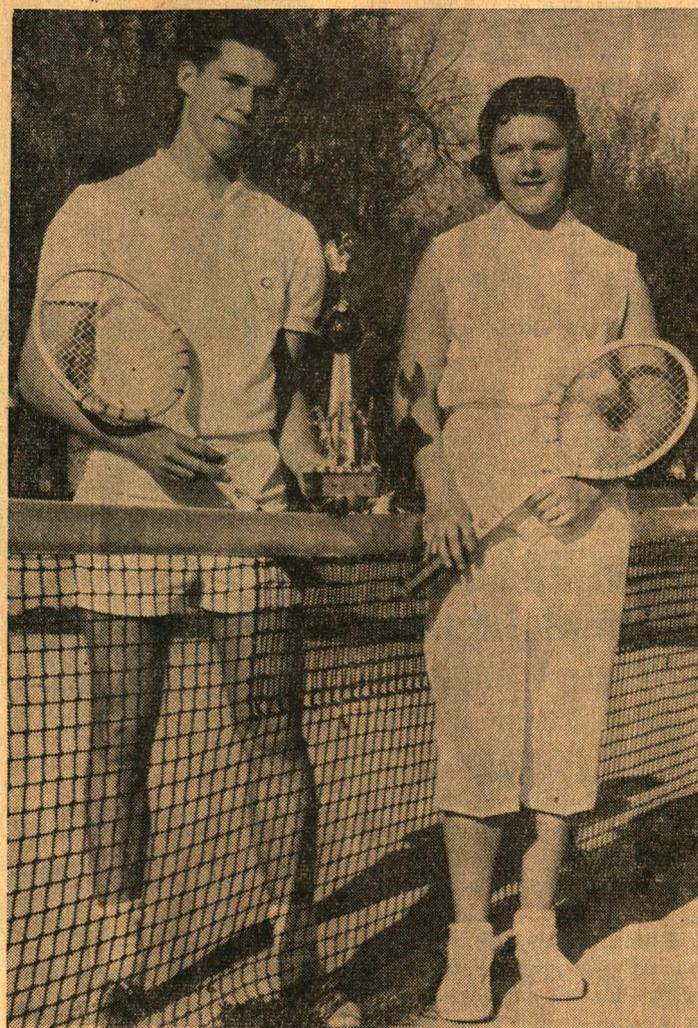

Both men have lost just once this year in their specialty of the 440 and 880 yard run. Constable holds the school record in 440 with a time of 50.6 seconds.

This will be the fourth consecutive year NNC has sent men to the national meet. In 1955 and 1956 Paul Finkbeiner's cousin, John, qualified and ran in the tournament. Last year Constable qualified and ran in the 440 yard run.

DON CONSTABLE, left, bursts forth in a final lunge to defeat BJC's Lewis Thorpe in the 220 yard dash at the recent C of I Invitational track meet. NNC won the meet with 63 points to BJC's 62½ and C of I's 44½.

Crusaders Split Twin Bill With Idaho State College

The NNC Crusaders made it three in a row over ISC as they won the first game of a double header by a score of 3-0 in Pocatello last Saturday.

Don Kinyon, senior chucker for the Crusaders, handcuffed ISC and narrowly missed getting a no-hitter by one hit.

One man was out in the last inning when Sims, rightfielder for the Bengals, got the one and only hit off Kinyon. He was then forced at second on the next play, and the following batter flew to Etulain in center.

The Crusaders hit freely against Bengal pitcher, Buckles, as they got three runs on seven hits in the first three innings. They ran into trouble against Moulton, the reliever, who pitched no-hit ball for the last four innings.

Brooks hit a triple in the second inning and Crawford a double in the third.

LOSE SECOND

The Crusaders lost the second game as the Bengals got four runs on two hits, two walks and three errors by the Crusaders. The pitcher, Shoemaker, had beaten Utah State the preceding Tuesday. The Crusaders got only four hits

The big boy from the coast is better known by his teammates as "Boom Boom" or "Mr. Wood."

Don is a graduate of Lake Washington High School in Kirkland, Washington. In his high school days Don was on the receiving end of his brother Ed's pitches, and formed part of a very successful battery.

Don transferred from Seattle Pacific College in his sophomore year. During his junior year at NNC, he clipped the ball for a .413 batting average, which is probably the reason he is called "Mr. Wood."

Don is still single, but there is a certain girl wearing a diamond

Tennis Squad Leaves for OSC

NNC's women's tennis squad will leave tomorrow for Corvallis, Oregon, to enter the Northwest Tennis Tournament to be held May 23-24 on the Oregon State College Campus.

SLA's DUMP LSP's

The SLA's got off to their usual fast start as they defeated the LSP's 28-8. The SLA's collected a total of 16 hits from 3 LSP pitchers while the LSP's collected 8 from Anderson. Kreps, Keesler and O'Neill all hit home runs for the winners. The SLA's scored 7 runs in the first inning to start the fireworks.

OLY's EDGE SPARTANS

The Oly's defeated the Spartans 5-4 in the tightest pitcher's duel of the season. The losing pitcher, Bob Faris, gave up 5 hits while Don Doane limited the Spartans to 3 hits. The Oly's scored 3 of their runs in the third inning on a single by Walt Hopper, an error, and a home run by Don Doane.

SLA's OUTHIT ATHENIANS

Thirteen runs in the first inning was a good start for the SLA's as they dumped the Athenians 18-11. This brings the SLA's season total to 3 wins and 1 defeat. Joe O'Neill and Arvid Kreps hit home runs for the winners. Larry Halter hit one for the losers. The Athenians had 7 hits compared to 12 for the SLA's.

LSP's DOWN ADP's

OLY's DUMP ATHENIANS

Scoring 3 runs or more every inning, the OLY's defeated the Athenians 20-3. The Oly's collected 10 hits while Don Doane was allowing the Athenians only 2 hits. Errors were the Athenians' downfall as they committed 7 of the bobbles.

OLY's DEFEAT SLA's

The Oly's scored 17 runs on 15 hits as they defeated the SLA's

17-3. Don Doane pitched his second 2-hitter in as many games, and struck out 7. Ray Becker hit a grand slam home run in the fourth inning to help the cause. Walt Hopper and Elon Booker both collected 3 hits for the winners.
