

"THE CHARM SCHOOL"

LSP's, ATHENIANS, OLY's PRESENT PLAY APRIL 17-18

"The Charm School," a three-act play by Alice Deur Miller and Robert Milton, will be given April 17 and 18 by the LSP, Athenian, and Oly societies in the NNC chapel.

Simpkins played by Ralph Neil and Ken Saunders.

Wes Aman takes the part of Homer Johns, the guardian of Elise Benedotti, who is played by Jan Kellom.

Candidates Vie In Student Body Elections; Other Student Vote Next Week

Candidates for student body president for the 1959-1960 school year were Al Jones, George Harper, and Jack Wright. These students, all juniors, were nominated in a special chapel assembly April 13. Each gave an acceptance speech.

Primary vote for the candidates was held yesterday. If a run-off vote is necessary, it will be held April 17.

Other student body officers will be nominated April 22, with primary election on April 24. If a final vote is necessary, it will be April 27.

Al Jones was nominated by his campaign manager, Gordon Olsen. Jones is president of the Christian Worker's Band this year and is treasurer of Circle K. He served as sophomore class president and was assistant business manager of the Oasis. He is a ministerial student.

Jones stated that he would like to have a student council of eight members, four elected from the student body at large. This group would work in connection with a student forum.

George Harper is junior class president, Circle K vice president, and president of N.Y.P.S. at College Church. As a pre-med student, Harper has maintained an academic standing of 3.5, making him a member of Zeta Kappa Rho, while lettering in track and tennis.

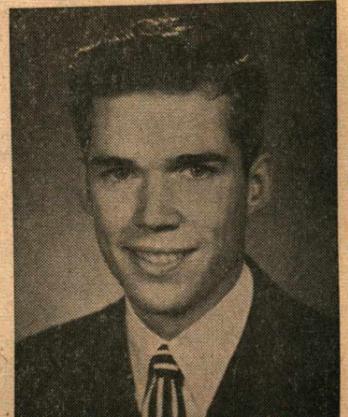

He wants "to be your servant to advance the best interests of you and the student body as a whole."

Jack Wright, a history major, has been active in debate, oratory and extemporaneous speaking events in competitive intercollegiate meets; he has held more than 20 preaching services this year. He has served as sports editor, religious editor and assistant editor of the Crusader. He is athletic director of his society, a member of the play cast, and a leader in CWB. Wright's motto is "enthusiastic leadership" while upholding NNC's spirit of service.

The play concerns a group of boys who have been living together in a New York apartment. When Austin Bevans, an automobile salesman with IDEAS, inherits a girls' school, complications develop thick and fast.

Other boys in the play are David McKenzie, a law student, played by Roger Burkhart; George Boyd, an expert accountant, portrayed by George Jones, Jim and Tim Playing the parts of the other girls in the school are Carol Gray, Edith Ness, Jan Bohl, Ellen Mc-Una, Jan Moore, Bev Bullock, and Karyl Gilthveldt.

Miss Haynes, the head of the school, is portrayed by Marilyn Hartley; and the school secretary is played by Sandy Longcor.

Student directors include Leah Mitchell, Oly; June Todd, Athenian, and Joan Soderholm, LSP.

Several Faculty Attend Meetings

Several NNC faculty members have been busy of late attending conferences in their different areas of instruction.

In Spokane, Wn. this week are Dr. Thelma B. Culver and Mrs. Edythe Leupp of the department of education. Dr. Culver has been asked to participate on the program for the regional meeting of the American Association of University Women and Mrs. Leupp is a delegate to the meeting from the local AAUW group.

Last week found Dr. Carl Hanson, Dr. Percival Wesche and Prof. A. Elwood Sanner at Pacific University in Forest Grove, Ore. where they attended sessions of the Northwest Association for Religion in Higher Education.

Dr. Wesche was elected to membership on the board of directors for the association. Dr. Wesche also attended sessions of the Pacific Northwest Historical Assn. and the Oregon Historical Assn. which were holding meetings in that area.

Prof. M. Francis Reeves recently went to Bellingham, Wn. where he attended a conference for Danforth representatives. Prof. Reeves is the Danforth representative for NNC.

Rosemary Kunkel Is WCTU Winner

Rosemary Kunkel, sophomore, recently was awarded a cash prize and the right to represent NNC in the state finals of the Women's Christian Temperance Union oratorical contest.

Thomas Paine, freshman from Superior, Wis., was named runner-up.

Miss Kunkel is an elementary education major from New Salem, N. Dak. She is attending NNC on an honor scholarship.

Other students who participated in the contest were Clayton Bonar, Kathie Santo, and Lorraine Paul. Don Hoff was unable to compete because of illness.

ALUMNI DAY ACTIVITIES SET

Paul Kunkel, executive secretary of the Alumni Association, announces a full program for Alumni Day on May 1.

Climaxing the day's activities will be the traditional Alumni Banquet at 7 p.m. in Morrison Dining Hall with Dr. Hugh C. Benner as speaker. Around 250 persons are expected to attend the annual affair.

Featured at the banquet will be the installation of new officers. Rev. Robert Hempel, Roseburg, Ore., will replace retiring Alumni president, Richard Lindbloom of Boise. Newly elected vice president and treasurer will also be announced. Nominees for vice president are Del Beukelman, Nampa, and Lauren Santo of Boise. Myron Finkbeiner and Kenneth Hills, both teachers in the Boise schools, are candidates for treasurer.

The Alumnus of the Year will be announced at the banquet. For the first time a plaque with the names of persons receiving the honor in previous years as well as the alumnus of 1959 will be presented to the honored person.

Classes of 1919, 1929, 1939, 1949 and 1959 will be honored, as well as the silver anniversary class of 1934.

Graduating seniors are invited to attend the banquet. With the paying of $2 for Alumni dues, seniors receive complimentary tickets to the banquet. Since admission will be by advanced reservations only, the reservation must be either called in or written by April 28.

In charge of decorations for the banquet are Miss Dorothy Long and the art students. Saga Food Service will prepare the meal. Prof. Marvin Bloomquist is in charge of the music and Miss Helen Wilson is handling publicity.

KROK Reports New UN Program

Charlie Yourdon, KROK manager, reports that the 1959 series of United Nations radio programs are being broadcast on the KROK radio station at 8:45 p.m. on Thursday evenings.

The series includes 26 programs. Experts in many fields have recorded aspects of their work in radiation and air pollution, world illiteracy, fundamental education, world health, and food problems.

This information is woven into a series of informative broadcast programs on the work of the United Nations and its specialized agencies.

SNEA DELEGATES TO STATE MEET

Eight delegates of NNC's Student National Education Association will attend a statewide assembly in Boise on April 17-18.

They are Norma Humphrey, Lorraine Paul, Barbara Urwin, Dave Friesen, Laveta Urwin, Ethel Kraft, Carol Gray, and Sandy Coombs.

The assembly's program consists of nominations for next year's officers, business reports, and discussion groups on teacher problems.

Lorraine Paul will serve on a panel discussion on state SNEA affairs. Dave Friesen is in charge of a discussion on statewide SNEA goals. Sandy Coombs, state secretary, is working with registration plans.

BULLETIN

Results of yesterday's primary vote for student body president show that Al Jones and Jack Wright will be voted on in a run-off election.

"Papa Was a Preacher," a play showing a glimpse of life in a parsonage, will be presented April 23-24 by the Spartan, ADP, and SLA societies.

"Papa Was a Preacher" Scheduled For Next Weekend

"Papa Was a Preacher," a three-act play put on by the Spartan, ADP, and SLA societies will be presented at 8 p.m. on April 23-24 in the chapel.

Set in a small West Texas town, "Papa Was a Preacher" ventures a glimpse into the lives of the Porter family, and considers the problems faced by a parsonage family and by the "preacher's kids."

Papa is played by Neil McKay and Glenius O'Neil plays the part of Mother. The children are portrayed by Don Hoff, Gerald Van Order, Gary Condon, Gina Snyder, Mike Williams, and Sharon Templeman.

Other characters in the play are Helen Ludlow, played by Linda Maestretti; Lucy and Jenny Smith, portrayed by LaDonna Tillotson and Harriet Sharp; Jeffrey Cole by Jerry Abrams; Miss Jones, the church busybody, played by Karen Von Hoene.

Janis Vanderstoop and Gordon Miller complete the cast for the play.

Student play directors are Lois Young, Spartan; Glenius O'Neil assisted by Lois Edwards, SLA, and Louise Weitman, ADP.

Paul Whitmarsh Wins Scholarship

Paul Whitmarsh, senior engineering physics major has received a one-year scholarship from Oakridge Institute of Nuclear Studies in Oakridge, N. C.

This scholarship is valued at $2,000 plus fees and tuition. It can be applied to nuclear science or nuclear engineering studies at any of approximately 40 colleges on an approved list.

Whitmarsh was chosen as one of the 183 young graduate students out of 400 applicants.

LAUGHING MATTERS

By REV. EUGENE STOWE

How long has it been since you said something which was deadly serious to you, and when the person to whom you were speaking responded as if you had told a joke you said with a good deal of feeling, "But it's no laughing matter!" Certainly there are times when mirth is out of place. Solomon wrote that there is "a time to weep." But he followed this by saying "... and a time to laugh." Yes, life does have its laughing matters. There is nothing that says that a good sense of humor is out of keeping with a good Christian experience. It has never been true (although some have thought so) that a long, sober face is a badge of piety. After all, who has a right to be happier than the Christian? Hundreds of years before Christ talked about the "abundant life" King David sang, "Thou hast put gladness in my heart." (Psalm 4:7) If he had found real joy in serving God, shouldn't those of us who have found full salvation be happy?

Laughter really does matter. It serves a definite purpose as a fundamental part of our God-given personality. It vitally affects our service and witness for Christ. First, because

LAUGHTER IS ATTRACTIVE

What is it that you like about your friends? What particularly recommends them to you? No doubt several things—their Christian character, their similar tastes, their friendliness. And won't you have to also add, their smile and their ability to enjoy something funny? Not somebody who is "slap-happy", who tries to make a joke out of everything. That's nauseating! But a person who lets his inner joy get out on him every once in awhile.

In this big business of witnessing for Christ, I must remember that the same things which attracted me to my friends will attract others to me. This is vital because before I can win someone to Christ, I must first win that one to myself. And nothing will win his friendship quicker than a well-developed sense of humor which testifies that I'm having the time of my life serving Christ.

Then, laughing matters for

LAUGHTER IS A SAFETY VALVE

A boiler is so constructed that just before it explodes from pressure built up inside, a little valve opens and releases just enough steam to keep it from literally "blowing its top." Christians, like boilers, must work under pressure. Even though God's sanctifying grace keeps us from having to explode carnally, it does not guarantee that we may not go to pieces emotionally or nervously when the pressure builds up too high. Frail bodies and minds can "crack up" when they reach a breaking point.

Probably no one faces this danger more than the missionary. He must often tax himself physically far beyond normal. The pressures of isolation, inadequate help and facilities, and a crushing burden for the lost sometimes mount until they are nearly unbearable. Certainly this is help in prayer. Jesus never fails. But our all-wise Creator has provided another means of releasing pressure. Before that missionary was appointed, several people who knew him well were asked to answer questions about his character and personality. Believe it or not, one of those questions was, "Does he have a good sense of humor?" Why is that important? Because, God uses laughter as a safety valve on occasion. Without this very important attribute, even the most earnest missionary is not prepared to face the pressing problems of his calling.

Whether you serve God abroad or at home, you need this "safety valve", too. "... a time to laugh" may prove to be the difference between success and failure in maintaining Christian equilibrium in the face of life's pressures.

QUALIFICATIONS GIVEN FOR STUDENT BODY OFFICERS AS ELECTION BEGINS ON CAMPUS

Students of NNC went to the polls this week to select a student-body president for next year. Other major student leaders will be chosen April 24.

Feeling that student elections are of utmost importance, members of the Crusader staff have prepared this special election issue for distribution on the eve of the presidential election.

We have devoted one page of the issue to student opinion concerning the offices to be filled by student body vote. We also sent out an inquiring reporter to find what a representative group of people think about the major needs of NNC.

We hope that this effort on our part will enable you to vote more confidently and intelligently in this year's election.

PRESIDENT

In your opinion what are or should be the qualifications of a candidate for student body president?

JERRY HULL, junior, student body president: "He should have a genuine interest in the overall picture of NNC and its program, an attitude of service to the students, and willingness to subdue personal glory."

ETHEL KRAFT, senior: "A candidate for student body president should have the ability to speak impressively before an audience. He should be well acquainted with school life and have the interest of the students at heart. He should be well-rounded and a gentleman in every phase of life."

GLENDA ANDERSON, freshman: "He should have an outgoing personality, be a friend to everyone, and be very spiritually minded. He should have a lot of drive and enthusiasm and not be afraid to defend what he feels is right."

EDNA CRAMER, senior: "I think a candidate for student body president should have discernment and stability. And, of course, on our campus, Christian character is indispensable."

DON THOMPSON, senior: "He should have a likable personality, executive ability, and a high degree of character."

AL LEWIS, sophomore: "A candidate for student body president should have patience, incentive, speaking ability, be a hard worker, and general ability."

AL RODDA, senior: He should be sincere, have the ability to put people at ease, be a good leader, and a likable personality."

PHIL NESS, sophomore: "Leadership ability, Christian character, personality, and wisdom in making decisions are qualities a student body president should possess."

PERRY WINKLE, junior: "A candidate for student body president, should have leadership, a Christian experience, be able to get along with people, and scholastic ability."

VICE PRESIDENT

A student body vice president should have these qualifications:

LARRY HALTER, student body vice president: "Enthusiasm for all activities, be respected in every way, a leader in all phases of campus life (spiritual, social, academic)."

BOB BROOKS: "The ability to get along with people, the ability to organize, and be a spiritual individual."

PHIL BRAMSON: "Have a congenial personality, a good mixer, and a knowledge of the problems of the campus."

LAUREN ELLIS: "A good leader, a good organizer, and a person with initiative."

DAVE JENNINGS: "Original ideas, a good organizer, a congenial personality."

RALPH NEIL: "A person with imagination and the ability to go ahead on his own."

SAM WILLARD: "Determination, single, active in campus life."
 DICK ETULAIN: "Ability as a leader, a commanding personality, a mind of his own."

GORDON OLSEN: "Very enthusiastic, ability to keep the ball rolling, be respected in such a way that people will follow his instructions."

SECRETARY

ROBERTA MILLER, secretary of student body: "High ideals in Christian standards, definite secretarial abilities, sincere interest in students, and should be a person NNC would be proud to have as a representative."

MARILYN HARTLEY: "She should be able to take notes accurately, should have a gracious personality, and should represent NNC well."

JERRY HULL: "A good secretary needs to be, first of all, a good student council member. She should be ready to work regardless of how much praise she receives."

SANDY COOMBS: "She should be responsible and have a working knowledge of the secretarial skills. She should be able to follow through on ideas, and should be a good representative of NNC women."

LYNN RILEY: "She should have efficiency, organizational ability, be a good representative and leader, and a good Christian."

KATHY PERSHALL: "First, she should be a spiritual leader. She should also possess the qualities of efficiency, originality, and diplomacy."

LARRY HALTER: "She should have dependability, enthusiasm for her work, and should be a spiritual, scholastic, and social leader, and a good representative of NNC women."

NOEL FITCH: "She should be of good Christian character, lady-like and considerate. She needs a good judgment, should be neat and efficient. She should be of service to the students, and willing to go beyond the call of duty to be a good leader."

RUBY KEATING: "She should be dependable and original, a good representative of the school, an established Christian, and experienced in secretarial procedures."

TREASURER

BOB PARKER, student body treasurer: "Know how to keep a decent set of books, be congenial, and have a good sense of humor."

JERRY GROENIG: "Experience is the main qualification along with the ability to apply one's self to his job and a good character."

MARJORIE COX: "An interest in the job, a fundamental knowledge of business, a trustworthy and good character, a good personality."

SHARON JOHNSON: "He should have had some business courses such as bookkeeping, previous experience, and dependability."

MAX READ: "An interest in the job, a fundamental knowledge of business, a trustworthy and good character, a good personality."

MARVIN BRESSLER: "Be honest, efficient, trustworthy, and a business major."

JIM NEVIN: "Know accounting and business principles and be devoted to the welfare of the student body."

PROF. BYERS: "Just one requirement—he ought to be a business major."

DAN HUDSON: "Have a desire to serve and do a good job, a knowledge of bookkeeping, and be responsible and honest."

WALLY STEWARD: "Be business minded, have good experience in bookkeeping and be conscientious."

DON HOFF: "Reliability, dependability, genuine integrity, and efficient in business or a business major."

FACULTY, STUDENTS EXPRESS OPINIONS ON NNC'S NEEDS

What do you consider is NNC's greatest need at this time?

PROF. TIPPITT: "A better sense of values, among all. For instance, to be popular or to do the right thing?"

MISS DEMER: "Bring our ethical standards up to our religious profession. There is a need to show greater respect for the rights and property of others."

MISS LANCASTER: "Financial needs. The root of our financial needs lies in the lack of the realization among our constituency of the intense financial needs of our college."

DR. SUTHERLAND: "Continual spiritual refreshing from the Lord. More people need to take NNC on their hearts to pray for our spiritual and physical needs."

MR. HARPER: "Our biggest need is finance. With proper financial support we could complete our construction program and take care of needed improvements in our present buildings."

PROF. SANNER: "NNC's greatest need would be devoted supporters whether members of the faculty, student body, or constituency. Money might seem to be our greatest need; but if we have the right kind of support, we shall have not only money but the confident prayers that we need to do our special tasks."

NORMAN HALL: "Larger expansion of educational facilities. For instance, better buildings, more and better equipment, and more courses in different fields."

MINNIE HUMPHREY: "We need a much more adequate fire prevention system. Students also should be more careful about their health habits."

HOWARD METCALF: "Facilities in the science department."

JACK WRIGHT: "More professors with doctor's degrees."

JERRY HULL: "More financial support. If we had this, we could get the rest of the needs."

TOM NEES: "Better financial support. This includes rearrangement of the supporting system so the schools would be more equally supported."

SANDRA LONGCOR: "Christians living up to the standards we profess."

EMANUEL ETTER: "Increased facilities."

NOEL FITCH: "To keep her high academic and spiritual standards."

Last but not least,

LAUGHTER IS A CHARACTER INDEX

What you laugh at is an accurate judgment of what you are, and that's no laughing matter! It simply means that if you get enjoyment out of a funny situation or story that is clean and wholesome then, in all likelihood, you, too, are clean and wholesome. But if your biggest laughs come from humor that is shady or suggestive, you'd better check your spiritual condition. Other danger signals appear when one finds himself enjoying the cheap, silly stuff which passes so often for commercial entertainment. The same is true if the calamities and misfortunes of others strike you as funny. So-called "practical jokes" often fall into this category and reveal that the joker is really cruelly sadistic at heart. Your brand of humor labels you. It makes public what you really are inside.

May these three serious suggestions provoke us to pay more attention to these "laughing matters" . . . for they really do matter!

NNC Journalists Take New Posts

Happiest woman on the NNC campus one morning last week was Miss Helen Wilson, professor of speech and journalism, who has just been informed of the success of two of her former students, Roger Lucas and Wally Brown.

Roger Lucas, Crusader editor last year and sports editor for the Idaho Free Press, this week assumed his position as head of the sports department for the Statesman newspapers in Boise.

And the first man to apply to Editor Lucas for a position on his staff was Wally Brown, who was a member of Miss Wilson's first journalism class at NNC in 1955.

Brown was also the first student to be placed in a position at the Idaho Free Press. Since that time he has fulfilled his military obligations and has spent some time piloting jet planes and serving as a commercial pilot.

Lucas enrolled for journalism in 1956 and that year became a member of the sports staff at the Free Press. Nampans have learned to look for his by-line on feature stories dealing with Idaho historical characters and events, also.

"Most of the credit for the success of these boys should go to the fellows themselves and to Mr. Clayton Darrah and Mr. Jack Scudder, Free Press Editors, who have been so cooperative in our journalism program," says Miss Wilson.

"I try to inspire my students to make something of themselves and to achieve—and I'm constantly on the watch for future journalists. But I still think that our present program which offers students an opportunity for internship is the secret of our success.

"I was interested to note," continued Miss Wilson, "that when Don Erickson went to the University of Idaho this year to complete work on a major in journalism, he was actually given more credit for his reporting class. We had given him two credits and after ascertaining the type of work he had done and the name of the textbook used, the university department doubled his credit in the course!"

Miss Wilson said that three journalism classes are offered at NNC. Journalism is a survey course which includes a study of various phases of the communications area. Reporting and Advanced Reporting are classes which introduce the student to actual writing for pub-

A writer herself, Miss Wilson handles newspaper publicity for the college and her by-line may be found on feature stories in the Idaho Statesman and in the Herald of Holiness.

YOUR PRESIDENT SPEAKS

PLAN AHEAD FOR NEXT YEAR

By JERRY HULL

It is probably true that every NNC student has seen that familiar sign—"Plan Ahead." This seems to be a rather unusual thought for this late in the year, but let's think about its value.

It appears that the school year is everything but over and that the "Spring disease" is beginning to take its toll. This time of the year is the easiest time to take on an indifferent attitude, but don't succumb to temptation.

There is still time this year to Plan Ahead and to begin raising those C plus marks to B's and the B plus marks to A grades for your transcript.

Also there is time to Plan Ahead to take an active part in all the ensuing social functions of this year. (And fellows, this beautiful spring season is an ideal time to plan to increase that quota of dates.)

Now is the time that the members of freshman through junior classes need to begin planning ahead to return to NNC next fall. It wouldn't be quite right with any one of you missing next year.

Let's all begin to plan our return. For while the years at NNC are times to increase our wisdom, friendships are perhaps even more important. As Epicurus wrote, "Of all the things which wisdom provides to make life entirely happy, much the greatest is the possession of friendship."

Dr. Moorhead Listed For Monday Chapel

Dr. Jeanette Moorhead, a national vice president of Parent Teacher Association, will be featured in a special chapel program at 9:45 a.m. April 20. She will speak on "P.T.A. and Its Relation to Teaching."

Dr. Moorhead is a professor at the University of Oregon and has conducted classes in parent-teacher relations at the college. She will conduct a workshop on the NNC campus and will interview interested students during the morning.

MEET YOUR HEADS

Philosophy, Favorite Subject Of Professor Francis Reeves

By RUTH OLIN

The basic hobby of the head of the Department of Philosophy is appropriately, to philosophize. Having never talked to M. Francis Reeves previously, I was especially impressed by the professor's direct perspective to all the questions asked during our interview. His answers were philosophical but not vague.

They all seemed to center around the scripture verse he quoted from Goodspeed's translation of Colossians 3:23: "Work at everything you do with all your hearts as work not done for men only but for the Lord."

Prof. Reeves believes that a Christian should think of his vocation no matter what it is as a calling. He says further: "I think the distinction between secular and scriptural occupations is not valid. It is not the particular kind of work that determines of what the calling is but the spirit and purpose one has in fulfilling the task. In a day when men are threatened by the meaningless of life, the Christian's vocation can take on new meaning. Instead of becoming 'hirelings' grudgingly to the labor demanded of us, we should think of our vocational lives as becoming 'sons' who cooperate with the father in confidence and trust."

With a friendly smile, this professor adds that this way of life is just as important now to the student on our campus as it is to those who are already in their life's occupations. He believes the criterion of a successful person is "one who learned to live his life inspired by love and guided by reason. This is a successful person whether he is rich or poor," he explained.

SPONSOR OF CMA

In addition to the enthusiasm he shows as sponsor of the Young Democrats, Prof. Reeves feels even greater the responsibility he shares as one of the sponsors of the Collegiate Ministerial Association. Some of the classes he is teaching this semester are ethics, introduction to psychology, and history of philosophy.

After earning his master's degree in philosophy from Ohio State University, this good-looking professor with the dark brown wavy hair and hazel eyes then went on to receive his Bachelor of Divinity Degree from Nazarene Theological Seminary. In his own words, he explains these years as follows:

"As a boy, I planned for college a long time and during my senior year in high school, I plowed people's gardens in the afternoon and drove a taxi until one o'clock in the morning and attended school in the mornings. Then I went to college. I was there about three or four months and received a call to pastor an inter-denominational church 80 miles from the college in Urbana, Ill. I remained there as pastor until I was graduated. I received the call at the age of 17 years and more or less preached my way through college. While doing graduate work, I pastored a Nazarene Church and a Methodist Church. I am now an ordained elder in the Nazarene church."

FAMILY

This ambitious professor met his wife at Olivet when he was a senior and she was a freshman by the name of Gloria Holstein. The other three who now brighten their brick duplex close to the campus are Deborah Gail, 5 years, Marilyn Francine, 2 years; and their Scotty playmate who is just a pup.

The professor enjoys participating in such sports as basketball, tennis, ping pong and golf. His favorite classical music is that composed by Beethoven, Bach and Chopin. He also likes to read but that is something "I do all the time because of my profession."

Columbus, Ohio records his birth as the only child of the Reeves. He thinks Nampa is a splendid city in which to rear a family. "The only criticism I have of it is that it is so far from the East," was his added afterthought.

While Prof. Reeves was in seminary, he became aware of the need for teachers and accepted the position here at NNC when the opening presented itself. We are glad for the six years he has spent here and hope there will be many more yet to come.

Intramural Track Participants Should Begin Daily Training

Any woman who wishes to participate in any track event in the intramural track meet is required to train for two weeks in advance. The meet has been scheduled for May 15.

Women may participate in two running events and three field events including the relay. Medals will be presented to first place winners.

The following are the NNC women's track records and champions:

Track Events	Participant	Team	Year	Time
50 yd. dash	Hutchinson (Wilcox)	LSP	1949	6.9
	Burkheimer	Oly	1958	6.9
	75 yd. dash	Wood	Oly	1956	9.6
	100 yd. dash	Volk	LSP	1950	13.5
		Hull	ADP	1956	13.5
60 yd. hurdles	Burkheimer	Oly	1958	10.5
	220 yd. relay	Hopkins, Stainke, Richardson, Hull	ADP	1957	30.9
Field Events
Broad jump	Volk	LSP	1949	13'9 1/2"
High jump	Liddell	ADP	1951	4'7"
Baseball throw	Mittleider	Ath	1957	200'7"
Basketball throw	Gilmore	Spa	1957	92'2"

According to Miss Wanda Rhodes, women who are interested in training for the track meet are invited to meet with the track and field physical education class on Mondays and Wednesdays at 12:15 p.m.

Tennis Replaces Softball In Spring Women's Program

Society tennis teams will replace spring softball in the women's intramural program this year. This was passed by the athletic-literary council at the last meeting to be placed on a trial basis for this year.

Each society will rate its women according to ability and a ladder will be set up. The matches will be played on Tuesdays and Thursdays. A committee will be established to set up the rules to govern the program.

Oly's Top Volleyball

The Oly's are undefeated in women's volleyball with four straight wins. However, some of these victories have only been by slight margins. They defeated the Athenians 14 to 6 and 10 to 7. It took three games to beat the LSP's 5 to 12, 14 to 9, and 11 to 9. The standings thus far are as follows:

	Won	Lost
Oly	4	0
Athenian	2	2
Spartan	2	1
ADP	1	2
LSP	1	4
SLA	0	3

In individual sports the Spartans and Athenians are leading the race. Mary Waller and Carmen Gilmore, Spartans, defeated Dorothy Mittleider and Sandy Coombs, Athenians, for ping pong doubles championship. The finalists in badminton singles are Mittleider and Waller.

Net Players Lose In Initial Match

Crusader's men racket swingers played their first match here on April 11 with Whitman, losing 6-1.

This is the first year the two schools have met on the tennis courts. Last year Whitman took the championship of her conference. The match provided plenty of action and was much closer than the score indicated, according to Miss Wanda Rhodes, coach.

The victory came in the Harper-Bateman vs. Bratton-Hite match by a 6-4, 6-2 score. This was the first defeat the Whitman doubles had received in two years.

Results of the individual matches were: Perry Bratton def. George Harper 8-6, 3-6, 6-4; Jack Thomas def. Jim Bateman 2-6, 6-4, 6-3; Jim Hite def. Dan Etulain 6-3, 6-4; Bill Knorp def. Art Zellmer 6-2, 6-1; Barrett Worthington def. Cecil Sheppard 6-2, 6-2.

Crusader Capers

By DICK ETULAIN

Off to a flying start, the Crusader baseballers have won two of their first three contests. Coach Elmore Vail's nine had sweet revenge in their first game as they upset the highly touted Northwest Conference defending champions, College of Idaho, 6-4.

To make it even sweeter, it was the first game the Crusaders had won in three years from the Coyotes. Ben Clouser, who relieved Cec Campbell in the third inning, pitched five innings of five-hit ball to record the win. Bob Brooks and Phil White each collected two hits to lead the Crusader batsmen.

RECORDS FIRST LOSS

College of Idaho took advantage of 15 walks given up by Crusader pitchers on April 6 at the Rose Gardens in Caldwell to record a 13-6 victory in the second of a four-game series.

Six walks, five wild pitches, and one hit batsman coupled with two singles gave the home team a seven-run first inning.

The power for the visitors was supplied by Phil White and Bob Brooks as both had circuit clouts. White's came with one on in the first and Brooks' with the bases loaded in the seventh.

DEFEATS BJC

Amidst errors, walks, and hits the Crusaders whaloped Boise Junior College 17-9 on April 7. The NNC batters took advantage of a hitter's hay-day and posted 20 safeties to beat the Broncos on their home field.

Sam Willard with four hits and Dick Etulain, Ernie Thompson, and Dave Stuart with three apiece accounted for 13 of the 20 hits that the Crusaders garnered.

In the big fourth inning Sam Willard and pitcher Ben Clouser hit back to back home runs; Willard hit his round tripper to left field and on the next pitch Clouser hit a long drive to center field for his homer.

Ben Clouser pitched five and two-thirds innings, giving up eight runs on six hits and Cec Campbell, who relieved him in the sixth, came on to give no runs on a single hit over the last three innings.

... With Weber turning to a four-year school, there could be a possibility of a new conference which would include NNC, Weber, Westminster, and possibly Magic Valley Christian College.

... that Don Constable tied two school records in last Saturday's NNC Invitational. They were in the 100 yd. dash at 10.1 and in the 220 yd. dash in .22 flat.

... there is a remote chance that NNC baseballers could win a trip to Texas if they beat C of I two more times and end up with a good record.

... Coach Hills has written to approximately 20 high school cagers about attending NNC next year. Some have already said that they are quite interested.

INTRAMURAL VIEWS

Men's athletic director, Don Ogburn, reports that forfeitures have been ruling the scene in the men's volleyball. To give you an example, the Oly's have yet to play a game, but their record stands 2-1 because they have won two forfeits and lost one.

Thus far nine games have been scheduled, only two have been won by actually playing the game, while seven have been won by forfeits. The SLA's, although they have approximately 15 men out for spring sports, have been the only society to field a team each time they have been scheduled.

WHITWORTH TAKES FIRST

Ten New Records Set In Tenth Track Invitational

New records were set in 10 out of the 17 events in the Tenth Annual NNC Invitational Track Meet held in Bulldog Bowl April 11. Whitworth of Spokane won the meet with 109 1/2 points.

Whitman of Walla Walla, defending champion from last year, took second place with 64 1/2 points. Ricks was third with 37 points; BJC, 34 points; Eastern Oregon and Weber tied with 19 1/2 points; NNC, 12; and C of I, 4 points.

TOP PERFORMERS

Terry Jensen of Ricks was named outstanding individual athlete by a vote of the coaches. He set a new mark in the 2-mile run and won the mile run.

Two others who received honorable mention for outstanding individual performances were Whitworth's Jim Klein and Sam Gulley.

Klein set new records in the 100 yd. dash and the discus, and placed second in the high jump, second in the broad jump, and fifth in the javelin. Two years ago he was eighth in world Decathlon competition.

Gulley set new records in the high jump and broad jump.

The medley relay, a new event, was won by Whitworth. It consists of a 440 yd. dash, a 220 yd. dash, another 220 yd. dash, and ended with an 880 yd. run.

Point makers for NNC were Don Constable, second in the 220 and fifth in the 100; Jerry Hull in the 880; Jim Lenn in the 880; Dave Busenbark in the 2-mile; and George Harper in the 220 yd. low hurdles.
