

WHERE DID THEY ALL GO???

Believers disappear! Weekly World News ps
astound all with accurate Rapture prediction.

PAGE 4

Published by the students of Northwest
N-gagement
Central

The NNC

April 1, 1997

INQUISITOR

"To find the truth -- no matter who it hurts!"

ASNNC President-to- be spends all of '97

*break
trapped in ladies' restrooms!*

PAGE 4

"I'm not really sure how I got there..." says
'relieved' exec!

EXCLUSIVE PHOTOS INSIDE!

New dorm finds name: "J.R. Simplot Hall"

After pleading with NNC to build something, anything, and name it after him, J. R. Simplot finally got his wish. NNC discovered some common sense and accepted the money of the not-so-Nazarene billionaire. The dorm pictured above will bear the name Simplot Hall, after the potato magnate wrote a $2.5 million-dollar check to NNC.

-- Story continued on page 2! --

Fine arts construction buried by discovery

PAGE 3

Elwood Wins Million $$$

Monopoly Prize!!

"Well, I figure that I can probably pay off my tuition bill, quit my job at Chicago Connection, maybe do some traveling after I graduate... if I graduate... I don't know... A million dollars is kinda hard to spend!" said SCOTT ELWOOD (Junior-Emmett).

One of NNC's own was the lucky winner of McDonald's restaurant's Million Dollar prize. He'll receive a check for $1,000,000 at an upcoming ceremony in Banning, California (home of McDonald's world headquarters) on April 31, 1997.

"Well, I was traveling with a bunch of my friends over spring break. Just going on a road trip to get away from campus. Every day we would stop and eat at McDonald's, sometimes two or three or four times a day. So we kept joking that one of us was going to win the million dollar jackpot. Actually,

By M. Jason Isbell
Editor-in-Chief's Evil Clone

Such a handsome guy, and now he's rich too!!"

"I can't believe I know someone who won a million dollars. Maybe he'll donate some of his money to his college," said DR. RICHHAGOOD.

"I'm so happy for Scott. He was always my favorite brother and we always got along really well. It couldn't have happened to a better guy. I wonder if he'll pay my college bill?" commented Scott's sister SHANDA ELWOOD (freshman-Emmett ID).

TIM WIEGMAN, Scott's PA and next-door neighbor, had this to say about Scott's unprecedented good fortune: "Who's Scott Elwood?"

Unfortunately, the IRS reports that Scott may have to pay up to $900,000 in taxes on his winnings.

"I COULDN'T BELIEVE IT. I JUST COULDN'T BELIEVE IT! IN FACT, I CAN BARELY BELIEVE IT NOW!!!"

JOHN (FRALEY) was sure he was gonna win it. But it turned out to be me! Hahahaha!! Sorry John!" said the smiling junior.

TRACY RUMMER (freshman-Ritzville WA) said "That's just great!

Column One

This is it.

My first issue as Editor-in-Chief of The Inquisitor. It's been a long, hard journey. Oh, no, actually it wasn't. In fact, I had a rather meteoric rise to power. I hope I don't go down quite as quickly...

I must admit confidence, not in myself, but in my rather amazing editorial staff.

Let me give you a quick run-through.

Shannon Adams: The staunchest conservative on the planet, will lend some balance to our office.

Andrew Diehl: The only married member of our new cast, with the cutest little son.

David Stillman: Mr. Opinionated himself. Loud, obnoxious, always walking around with a girl in his arms...

Robin Day: Doesn't know or care about sports, but hey, we had to meet a quota!

Nathan Hydes: A fifth year Junior, Nate has been on The Inquisitor longer than anyone else. He brings experience and maturity to our staff.

Max Chtangeev: Political prisoner from Bulgaria. He's my favorite.

Well, there is the short list of section editors. Maybe next week I'll discuss our assistants and copy editors.

So, I leave you with one final warning, today, April 1...Don't believe everything you read...Unless it's in The Inquisitor

- J. Matthew Isbell
Editor-in-Chief

Published by the Associated Students of Northwest Nazarene College in order to give J. something constructive to do.

STUDENT SEES ALIEN SAUCER

SETI (Search for Extra-Terrestrial Intelligence) had this OFFICIAL STATEMENT: "We have no official statement."

MARCI CARLSON, of Kuna, Idaho, noticed an unusual sight on her way back from spring break.

"I was just driving along and then my car just stopped. Then I noticed this bright light in front of me. It sped by, at like, a thousand miles an hour, and then vanished! It was incredible!"

Carlson admits some skepticism concerning her ALIEN ENCOUNTER, "At first, I thought it was just a prank by my boyfriend, BARRY LEWIS (Junior Boise), but then I remembered that he was in Colorado with his sometime roommate ANDREW DIEHL (Junior Denver)."

When asked to comment, Barry replied "I don't believe in UFOs outside of 'X Files,' Marci was probably just seeing things."

Marci disagrees, "I wasn't just seeing things. I don't think I like Barry anymore." she said.

Inquisitor Staff

The Inquisitor, NNC Box C
Nampa, Idaho 83686
phone - 208 467 8656; fax - 8468
home page - inquis@student.nnc.edu

Editor-in-Chief
J. Matthew Isbell

— Section Editors —

Cover Story Nathan Hydes
Campus News Shannon Adams

World News Andrew Diehl

Opinions David Stillman

Sports Robin Day

Copy Editors - Kevin Durfee, Heather Slater

Photo Editor - Max Chtangeev

Managerial Staff

Advertising Manager - Brenda Clough
Business Manager - Tim Wiegman
Operations Manager - Helen Warriner

Staff Writers, Photographers, and Cartoonists

Perla Aragon, Tim Benedick, Judy Clark, Erin Coordes, Nicole Corbin, Julia Crockett, Joshua Dooley (assistant world news), Chris Field, John Fraley, Gina Grate (assistant campus news), Luke Heath, Jennifer Hill, Stephanie Merick, Debbie Miller, Brent Peterson, Jesse Rench, Rachel Roemhildt, Keren Schandorff, Todd Smith, Tony Syme, Melissa Tennyson, Helen Warriner
Faculty Advisor - Dr. Michael Lodahl

The Inquisitor is published under the authority of the ASNNC Publications Board: Erik Quissell (chair), Linc Loeber, Matt Saunders, Casey Lund, Jennifer Johnson, Brenda Clough, Tim Wiegman, Helen Warriner, Dr. Ken Hills, Jolene Hruza, and J. Matthew Isbell.

The Inquisitor is printed at Owyhee Publishing Co., Homedale, Idaho and is distributed free on campus every April 1st that falls on a Tuesday

"Facts have absolutely no place in a newspaper!"

~ John Fraley, The Crusader newspaper editor, 1997

...HIS ORDEAL:
GET ALL
OF THE DETAILS

"I'll never go in there again, I swear, even on purpose!"

Forget Miami: ASNNC President-elect Chris Field spent all of his spring break in the most exciting location of all: the student center's ladies' restroom.

Though Field pleaded with Inquisitor editors for them to not release the story, it was too juicy to pass up.

Nobody knows for sure how Field ended up in THE PLACE, but the facts remain nonetheless: school janitors discovered an emaciated Field in the locked restroom early yesterday morning.

"It was the best and the worst week of my life," said Field. "I'll never go in there again, I swear, even on purpose."

It is unclear as of press time whether Field will be forced to step down. If he is, '97 election runner-up Mark Boothby will immediately assume Field's position.

NNC Notepad

In Senate over spring break...

Senators voted to allot $8,000 to an ASNNC ski trip to be taken this term. Invited on the trip are Senators, Executive Council, Class Presidents and Carey Cook.

The bill, which was sponsored by senior senator ADAM WATKINS, passed unanimously after senators discussed the issue over the Internet.

"We in Senate felt that this was by far the best possible use of student funds," Watkins said.

Cook agreed: "Nobody knows that there's over $11,000 just sitting there to be claimed, so we may as well get some fleeting pleasure out of the excess."

"We promise, we'll save some money for clubs," said senior senator JASON ALVIS.

Students are encouraged to let their senators know how they feel about this latest expense.

Dean proposes switch to...

...UNI-MESTERS!!

Story by J. David Fraley for The Inquisitor

Academic Vice President Sam Dunn unveiled, early this morning, an original new plan for NNC's academic future: a calendar based on the daring concept of "unimesters."

In an exclusive interview with The Inquisitor, Dunn explained his vision.

"Off the record, I think that it's about high time we gave up trimesters, semesters, or any combination thereof. Do we want to be trendsetters or not?"

"My idea is infallible." (Just call him Pope Dunn.) "Here's how it works:

August 31st - April 1st: First and only term of school.

September 1st: Registration.

October: Faculty inservice.

November: Thanksgiving break.

December and January: Christmas break.

March: Spring break.

April 2nd: Commencement exercises."

Dunn fiercely defended his unimester plan:

"Look, you really only have two months of school. You start late and you end early. Now our students won't ever have to worry about not being able to compete for worthless low-paying minimum-wage hard labor jobettes.

"You're not going to print any of this, right?"

"I think unimesters would be kinda fun, especially when it's not September or February," said RACHEL LONG (freshman - Nampa).

"Who cares?" asked MELISSA MCCLELLAN (sophomore - Olathe). "I sure don't," quipped KYLE MCFARLEY (senior - Walla Walla).

TRAPPED
WHITE
SPACE

NNCalendar

April 1-13	1 7:00a-8:30a Free texts in the bookstore.	2 11:00a-1:00p Morrison Navel-piercing Fest	3 7:00p ASNNC sponsored Lambada	4 12:00p-2:30p Personal appearance by Batman in the Student Center.	Weekend 5 - 6 Jeremiah Crane and Judy Clark go on a date. WENDY JACKS' laundry day
	Free Espresso in the Bookstore. While supplies last.

7 Chapel cancelled	8 10:15a Faculty Dental Hygiene Fellowship	9 Chapel cancelled	10 7:00a-9:00p Stress Relief workshop: be on time or else.	11 Chapel cancelled	Weekend 12-13 12:00-2:00p Free radiation poisoning treatment in Wordsworth. See Nurse Fern Hutter.
Senior projects: Nuclear bomb testing in the Science Building. Remain indoors.

Looking Ahead in April:

April 2nd
Last day to reserve College Church for summer weddings.

April 11th - 15th
Northwesterners Musical ("Hair")

April 19th
Kissing Booth - operated by Morrison Hall

BLAME THE "KURTZ CORPSES"

CONSTRUCTION HALTED

STUDENTS REACT APATHETICALLY!!

AN EXCLUSIVE INVESTIGATION FOR THE INQUISITOR BY GINA GRATE, CAMPUS NEWS ASSISTANT EDITOR

Construction was permanently halted on the John Brandt Fine Arts and Convocation Center this past Friday, March 28. Workers at the site reportedly discovered the 3000-year-old remains of 23 Native Americans in an ancient sacred burial ground.

The first to encounter the corpses was Cherry Lane employee Bubba Bo Bob Walschovitz, whose shovel met with something hard. "At first I thought it would be a Donny Osmond record, but after I dug around, it turned out to be a skull. It was eerie. I suddenly felt like I was in a Golden Girls episode."

Cherry Lane immediately notified the International Associated League of the Council on the United Committee of Native Americans and Board of Reservation Gambling, which sent representatives to examine the site.

The president of IALCUCNABRG, Steven Walkingstick, said, "The construction of the building must be stopped or the spirits of the dead will haunt the campus."

"That would explain a lot," said freshman Jason Scrivner, of Greeley, Colorado, who would give no further comment.

"I think it would be neat if we were haunted," said junior JILL NOFZIGER of Buhl, Idaho.

"My grandma's house was haunted once," said junior AMY MINARD, of Grand Junction, Colorado.

Three archaeologists were brought in to test samples of bones and teeth from the bodies of the 9 children, 7 adult males and 12 adult females.

Dr. Myron Fitz, the head archaeologist, stated, "Well, we lost a couple of the bodies in the mail, but from the ones left over, I would imagine it's an archaeological breakthrough. I mean, wow. Vikings this far west?"

"My grandmother was a Viking," said Minard.

Dr. Garrity Hornquist, professor of archaeology at the University of Jerusalem, commented, "I haven't really had time to examine anything yet. The tour at the cheese factory took longer than we thought."

Dr. Buddy Sheargood believes the infamous Nampa smell might have been coming from Kurtz Park all along. "The decomposition process releases some really strong fumes. I don't know exactly how it works, but it's quite plausible."

The IALCUCNABRG says it will take NNC to court if construction is not halted immediately, unless NNC would agree to construct a prayer chapel to the dead in the center's auditorium. NNC has not yet refused this proposal.

John Brandt was somewhat dismayed at hearing the Fine Arts Center might never be completed, but his only comment was, "Well, I never really expected it to be finished anyway."

Sean Nixon, a senior from Nampa, said, "I knew it would happen! I knew they would find an Indian burial ground that would halt the construction of the Fine Arts Center."

NNC's president, who wishes to remain anonymous, would only say, "It's the NNC way."

One of the corpses, affectionately named Linus, can be viewed in the case across from the mailboxes in the student center.

New class dorm assignments!

Story by the Inquisitor Staff

New dorm assignments were discussed by STUDENT DEVELOPMENT over the spring break. Housing for next year will be as follows:

- Freshman Men: Dooley
- Freshman Women: One half of Corlett
- Senior Men: Other half of Corlett
- Sophomore Men: Mangum
- Sophomore Women: Dooley
- Junior Men: J.R. Simplot Hall
- Junior Women: Chapman
- Senior Women: Culver

- Married Students: Sutherland
- Inquisitor Editors: Olsen Apts.
- Environmental Service Employees: Kirkeide Apts.

Morrison will be torn down for the NEWEST location of the John Brandt Fine Arts and Convocation Center, since the present location was recently found to be unsuitable (please see related article above).

Students with question or comments are welcome to transfer to another college. Preferably George Fox.

BILLIONAIRE'S BELATED BUCKS BUY BRAND-NEW BORM, ER, DORM

Simplot finally gets rid of some $$$

(continued from the cover page)

"Man, they FINALLY took my dough," said an obviously exasperated Simplot.

Student reaction to the as yet unfinished dorm's new name was diverse.

"I say burn the sucker before they finish it!! Better to have no new dorm than to have one with THAT name," said FONDA PORTALES (senior - Denver).

"It IS about time we let ol' J.R.

give us some of his millions," admitted TRENT FRIBERG (freshman - Ontario).

"It doesn't matter what the dorm's name is, as long as cute chicks live there," concluded CALEB GILBERT (junior - Auburn).

Simplot hinted that other "improvements" are in store for NNC.

"You know that 'Trinity' rust thing? Just imagine a giant potato in the middle of your campus. Doesn't that say 'Idaho' to you? Heh-heh."

STUDENT CLONED: IT'S RACHEL EATINGER!!

Have you ever wanted to be Batman or Robin?

Local superhero looking for reliable assistants in the never ending battle against the criminal element of the Treasure Valley. Send resume and tight size to "Superguy" Care of The Inquisitor Box C through campus mail.

REMEMBER: Only YOU can stop forest fires!

Rachel Eatinger (freshman - Twin Falls) became the first NNC student to be cloned over spring break. That is to say, she was the first NNC student cloned, and it happened to happen over spring break.

"There just weren't enough of me to go around!" said the busy freshman. "Classes, homework, dating, it just got to be too much! So I had myself cloned, well, actually, I volunteered to be cloned. It was totally painless and my twin should be her in about 6-8 weeks, which means that it will beat my tax return!" The cloning process is still experimental, but the dangers were minimal. "Well, I did have to go to Europe, which was kinda scary, but it wasn't too bad, although they wouldn't take any of my money. It's like the dollar bill just isn't worth anything over there!"

Dr. Victor VonTrapp, of the Scotland Biological Institute said "We hope cloning is the fad for the upcoming millenia. People are amazingly busy, and with clones to help with all that needs to be done, people should have more time to relax and get sun-tans."

Story by Jason Isbell Editor-in-Chief

Students interested in being cloned can apply by dropping a letter explaining why they need to be cloned and what good it would do the world to have clones of them running around. Drop your letters in campus mail addressed "I want to be cloned" Box C.

CAREY COOK has already applied three times. Other students and faculty who may be cloned in the near future include GENE SCHANDORFF, LISA LITSE, JOSH WILLIAMS, and BECKY GALLOWAY.

Where did everyone go??????

An Investigative Report by J. David Fraley

If you woke up -- at all -- on Monday, March 31, you're toast.

Millions of believers world-wide were snatched away, presumably to a place called "heaven,"

SHARIBELLE is born!!

This weekend marked the end of negotiations between an Indian investor and two nation-wide restaurant chains. Tauhid Saffuillah purchased Taco Bell and Shari's in one fell stroke this past Friday. Saffuillah plans to merge the two restaurants and intends to slowly phase out items from both menus in favor of popular Hindu dishes.

"My father made his fortune in Indian cuisine in Antarctica," said Saffuillah, "I think that America is ready for this change."

The health factor was also of major concern. Saffuillah believes that his healthy (high vegetable content) Hindu alternative will make Americans "as skinny and flexible as we are."

This may seem like a harsh blow to taco lovers and all-night eaters alike, but Saffuillah asks consumers to have an open mind.

The changes will start within the next month and will be completed by the summer of '98. And as Saffuillah's father liked to say, "Nloyama ston peroya (enjoy our dog)!"

SHARIBELLE

$30 off any 2 hour stay with the purchase of 8 coffees and a Pepsi!

All patrons using this coupon must consume at least three refills and play in three rounds of cards. Offer doesn't include any actual food or drinks. Prohibited when void. JEFFNORRIS not included. Expires two days before you find this coupon. Offer fully endorsed by Dr. Vehlou and the NHL.

News that doesn't suck

Artesia N.M. -- In an ardent search for more artesian wells to make cheap bottled water, the citizens of Artesia have donated their kitchen sinks for the cause. "Our tap water tastes better than that bottled stuff anyway," stated local CHRIS MOORE (sophomore -- Colfax, WA).

Most other residents feel the same way. Although nobody with any real authority said anything, The Inquisitor bribed two teenagers into saying that it was cool. While only offering the delinquents nachos, the confidential sources gave the following quotes: "I think that it would suck!" "Shut up dillhole, it'd be cool. What else do we need to say for more nachos..."

Most Artesians have no idea about any of this, but two men are coming to collect all of their sinks. -perjury committed by Andy Diehl on 7:15 p.m. Mountain Standard Time, on an Easter Sunday the world will not soon forget.

Several NNC community members expressed considerable dismay at having apparently been left behind.

"I was SURE, I mean, I was GOLDARN POSITIVE that the Rapture would actually be in 1998," said JODY LANHAM (freshman - Ashland).

"I can't believe we're all going to DIE!!" screamed ERIN HARRI (sophomore - Salem).

"Well, it's not that bad," observed ANDY MCKEAN (junior - Nampa). "I mean, it could be worse, though I don't know how..."

"As if I was ready!" exclaimed biology teaching fellow MASON VAIL.

Student disappointment at having to face upcoming tribulation was tempered by the announcement that nearly all of this term's religion classes will be cancelled.

"Oh well, there goes my class on Eschatology As Interpreted By Ralph Reed," said one pre-sem major who wished to remain anonymous (JASON SMITH, sophomore -- Yakima).

Don't count on registration lines being any easier, however. At The Inquisitor's last count, NNC

Group shot of students lost to strange astrotheocosmological mishap lost 26 of its 1171 students and, mercifully, none of its publications editors.

"You mean I slept through it?" asked an incredulous BEN POTTER (sophomore -- Corvallis).

A statement issued by the President's Office read: "What about us?"

Bill Gates buys Great Wall!

"The way I see it, it could use, oh, about 95 windows"

By the Astonished Press

Microsoft founder Bill Gates, in a stunning reaction to rising crime rates in the Seattle area, purchased the Great Wall of China.

The deal was signed back in September, over six months ago, but Chinese legislators had filed a set of appeals to keep the Wall in China.

According to an official spokesman for the Chinese government, Gates paid $9.75 billion up front for the Wall, while pledging to make 36 additional payments of $2.25 billion each. The sum of all the payments thus totals $91 billion.

Gates released a lengthy statement outlining his reasons for the purchase.

"I definitely see the Wall as a deterrent to crimes against my family and myself. Wouldn't you feel safe if you were protected by a barrier Genghis Khan himself couldn't breach?"

"Vandalism against the Wall will not be tolerated. Washington State law enforcement officers and I have signed an agreement that gives my security employees the right to shoot-on-sight any 'unauthorized' guest.

"The way I see it, it could use, oh, about 95 windows," stated Gates during a meeting to purchase the Eiffel Tower for watch / cannon / nuclear bomb tower overlooking Puget Sound.

Earn your degree in six weeks

Join Sally Struthers and millions of other Americans who have wasted time watching TV and drinking Pepsi! Take courses from these exciting programs:

- Jet Skiing
- Water Ballooning
- Feminism
- Marxism
- Bumism
- Cartoonist
- Copy Editor
- JOHN FRALEY
- Movings
- Car Stereo Installation
- President
- Enraged Postal Worker
- 03 Juro
- Hydro Ceramic Engineering
- Recreation/Leisure Studies
- Kinesiology
- Ed Media Coordinator
- Hockey Fan
- Hockey Player
- Albertson Player
- International Terrorism
- Teachings of Monty Python
- The Tick
- Traffic Infractions
- Business Management
- HRAD WILLIAMSON
- Sabacc
- Dave Barry
- James Bond
- Car Identification
- Baseball Stats
- World News Editor
- Bomb Construction
- Windows NT
- Diablo
- God and other forms of Himself
- Scamming
- Train conductor
- Home Cheese Factory
- Micro Brewery
- Cable TV Pilfering
- Alien Technology
- QED Mand
- Pepsi commercials
- 80's Music
- Solitaire (Windows Version 1.1)
- Woolespeak
- Huttese
- Wedding Coordinator
- NNC Announcer
- NASA Official
- Security Guard
- Construction Flagger

Call now to order your FREE Catalog (plus $19.95 s+h). Carey Cook need not apply. Campus Editor not available.

CLINTON TO LOSE LEG!

First Family's uninsured status forces taxpayers to "foot" estimated $15.7 million bill for presidential amputation

by Hymie Luvpuppet

Due to sudden complications surrounding the recent surgery on President Clinton's injured knee, top D.C. surgeons insist upon amputating Bill's right leg.

The heart-breaking news is not going well with the First Family. Hillary and Chelsea reportedly spent thirteen hours last Friday hugging Bill's leg and crying uncontrollably.

President Clinton, in a moving effort to hold back the tears, bleated out, "How will I ever ride my bicycle? (Instant tears) I'm only going to have one leg (more tears)!"

However, there is a good side to all of this. The Smithsonian is offering the President $24.50 for the hacked leg in hopes of putting it on display along with Washington's dentures, and the stitches from Reagan's 1980 brain removal surgery.

As of now, Clinton is spending most of his time standing up and asking, "Why me, God?"

leg

Your Turn

Random answers from random people on random issues

What did you do over Spring Break?

Brian Higgins
Senior
Cartoon
Physics Major
Kalama, WA

"I went camping. You know that forest that used to be out by McCall? Well, it's gone now. I also saw some deer."

Ben Conyers
Junior
Religion
Major
Gresham, OR

"I beat an endurance record while trapped in a meat locker with a crippled walrus."

Todd
Crafts
Senior
English Major
Zillah, WA

"I hijacked a plane by making a bomb out of duct tape, complimentary peanuts, and hotel toothpaste."

Holly Quick
Junior
History/
Computer
Science Major
Soldotna, AK

"I watched 248 consecutive episodes of 'The Simpsons'."

Traffic makes NNC better place

By David Stillman
Master of Lethargy

Over the years, NNC has attained a reputation as a college where the strong survive and the weak are squashed by oncoming traffic. However, this reputation could be lost if the Holly - Amity reroute project is completed. Just think. No more dodge car. No more playing in a real live game of Frogger (without having to pay a quarter each time you die). Now students face a boring, mundane walk across campus which could lull them into complacency.

No more playing in a real life game of Frogger (without paying a quarter each time you die).

Not only does the reroute project threaten the student way of life, but it also makes us less employable. "I've lost a lot of employees when they didn't look both ways before crossing the street ... three in the last week," said Sam Saga of Saga's Scrumptious Slimey Shrimp Salad, Inc. "The NNC students I hire don't have this problem."

Many companies have hired our students because of their good traffic sense. Will they continue to do so?

Something must be done. One possible solution is to shuttle students to the freeway, where they could dodge cars at their leisure. The college could even offer a Dodge Car class as a P.E. credit. Students would be shuttled out to area freeways, parking lots and residential areas, where they could hone their car dodging skills. "I would hire a student with a car dodging class in a second," said Darryl Detmore of Darryl's Dinky Doughnut Shop. "That's a skill that most college graduates just don't have." One idea for grading would be to have each student start the class with an A, and deduct a letter grade each time a car hits him (or her). Grades would also be reduced each time a student is arrested for obstructing traffic. The Dodge Car class would be required for any student that sings "Everything I do, I do it for you" on a crowded choir tour bus. It would be optional for all other students.

EDITORIAL

Starting with this issue, the name of NNC's student newspaper will be changed to The Inquisitor. "The Inquisition was better than the Crusades. At least they asked first," said managing editor Jason Isbell. "It hasn't been changed in a long time," said John Fraley. The name change really fits the newspaper's new role in campus life. "We plan to do a lot of Inquizing this year," Isbell added. "Last year's sex survey was only the beginning." The newspaper's new name is expected to increase circulation because it sounds like the name of a tabloid. "We thought about calling it Victoria's Secret, but that was taken," said Andy Diehl. "The Inquisitor is next best though."

Many students like the change. One such student was James Finkbeiner, who told Inquisitor reporters "Shut up, I'm late for class." Kyle Buck agreed, saying "We have a student newspaper?" About the only opponent of the change was copy editor Kevin Durfee who complained "But Crusader is easier to spell." With this kind of student support, The Inquisitor should finish second to mass mailings of free credit card offers as the most popular publication on campus.

Staff Infection

I don't feel funny. Well, you look funny... There is no hell. However, there is a heck... HAHAHAAAAHA (Kevin) ... We need to have quote boxes everywhere, even if they have nothing to do with the story ... No one is going to enjoy this paper as much as you, Kevin ... I don't think it was a good idea to bring Gina up here. She might not survive. No jokes about John's underwear, guys ... HAHAHAAAAHAHA (Kevin) .. You know, the Spice Girls are actually Albertson students? ... We should put Eric by Tina Turner's picture. ... Ooh you're important. Can I do your laundry? ... Hey, I have "in chief" after my name. Can you do my laundry, too? HAHAHAAAAHAHAHA (Kevin) ... Did we take that thing out of John's underwear ... Gina, your clone is here. ... It's about some commercials on the radio ... Really, I haven't seen those. ... No one leaves here alive ... or sane ... HAHAHAAAAHAHAHA (Kevin)

Crusader Opinions Policy

Noble and discerning reader, please understand that signed articles, reviews and letters reflect solely the view of the writer, while staff editorials state the majority view of The Crusader's editorial board. Editorial cartoons reflect the view of the cartoonist plus those of a couple of influential editors. Views expressed in The Crusader are thus not necessarily those of Northwest Nazarene College or of the Church of the Nazarene. The Crusader's editorial board is: Shannon Adams, Max Chitangev, Robin Day, Andrew Diehl, Kevin Durfee, John Fraley, Gina Gracie, Nathan Hydes, Jason Isbell, Amy Riley, Heather Slater, and David Stillman. We strive to be an open forum, so write us at NNC Box C, Nampa, Idaho, 83686 or E-mail us at "Crusader.student.nnc.edu".

ED WEIDENBACH TO COACH SEATTLE SONICS

The time has come to face the inevitable. Ex-Crusaders basketball coach Ed Weidenbach has had his fill of NNC life and is withdrawing to fulfill a life-long dream of his: to coach the Seattle Sonics pro basketball team. Weidenbach has accepted this new job at considerable prompting from his family and at the personal request of Sonics star Shawn Kemp.

Kemp hopes to add Weidenbach to his ever-growing collection of ex-college coaches who have successfully dominated an entire community for at least five years. This is all a part of Kemp's long-term goal to control the world through pro basketball and alter the brain waves of all mankind.

Weidenbach leaves NNC with the college's goodwill and with a large retirement fund ($5,000,000.00 cash retirement fund to be exact). Said athletic director Eric Forseth, "This may cause a small rise in tuition again, but the effect on the individual student will be minimal. We hope."

"This change in direction will be extremely beneficial for my family," commented Weidenbach. "I hope that under my direction, the Sonics will take the national championship and strip the Bulls of their recent dominance. Also, I plan to place my son on the Sonics team in a few years, which should add greatly to the program there."

Sonics head coach, George Karl, will be replaced within days by Weidenbach, due to a scandal involving the Lincoln Bedroom, Barbara Streisand and Socks, the First Cat. Other details have not been released, but a reliable source has informed The Inquisitor that Karl will go into hiding in Creston, Iowa, for the duration of his life in a futile attempt to avoid sleazy tabloid reporters.

NNC does not have current plans to replace Weidenbach, as the men's basketball program will be phased out next year due to recent budget cuts and the recruitment of Shaq's little brother at ACI (see related article below). Dean Dunn told Inquisitor reporters, "I'm sorry that this has to happen, but our hands are tied. Sometimes the only way to see through a problem is to back off and surrender."

NNC campus has not reacted well to the news concerning Weidenbach. "It's the most disillusioning thing that I've ever heard," sobbed FREDERICK DOW STEPHENS (senior- Salem). "It's enough to destroy the innocence of youth." Basketball player JEREMY STOCKETT is said to act violently when the subject of Weidenbach and Crusader basketball is brought up, so Inquisitor reporters have wisely refrained from questioning him. However, assistant coach RICH SANDERS gave his opinion freely. "This whole thing stinks! Ed is the best coach we've ever had! This is the best team we've ever had! Whoever made the decision about cutting basketball is crazy and if there is a chance to throw punches at him or her, I want KAI KNELL to be first in line!" MISTY

By Robin Day
Sports Editor

GUILLE (senior- Ridgefield) wishes to go down on record as having said, "Ditto."

Weidenbach will teach for the rest of the 1996-7 school year, but after June he and his family will be making the move to Seattle. The Inquisitor would like to encourage NNC students to bid the former coach goodbye and good luck in his new choice of career. When asked for a final comment, Weidenbach smiled gleefully, saying, "See ya! I'm outta here!"

Former NNC coach to go to NBA and win the championship!

BINKY O'NEAL RECRUITED BY ACI

Alas! One of worst things that could possibly happen to NNC basketball has come about. It is an event so terrible that even PAUL BURCH (junior - Veneta, OR) spoke of it in tears, "I just can't believe it!" The seldom-heard-of younger brother of L.A. Lakers superstar Shaquille O'Neal, Binky O'Neal, has been recruited by Albertson College to play basketball there next year.

Binky O'Neal is said to look down on his older, more famous brother, being a good five inches taller. He is also said to be much faster than Shaq. Binky has been tearing up the high school courts, dominating the game in a way that no one has ever done before. Playing for the small high school of Fond Du Lac, Wisconsin, Binky has escaped national exposure and maintained a low profile for much of his high school career. ACI discovered him when Shaq skipped a game to attend his brother's last high school graduation. Many colleges were fighting for Binky's attendance, but ACI beat the field as soon as Binky heard their name. "I like the Albertson's grocery store," explained the 7'6" player. "They make good donuts there."

The effects of ACI's newest recruit are going to be deadly for the NNC Crusaders. With no players over 6'9" on the team, the 'Saders are simply not able to compete against a player of Binky's size and ability. CARLOS ROSAS (freshman - La Puente, CA) put it thus: "They wouldn't be able to keep up with him. Binky is faster, stronger, a better shot and should be able to beat the entire NNC team single-handedly."

ACI's president, Clyde Albertson, called President Hagood to discuss the situation. A passing eavesdropper (JAMES LORENZEN; senior-Spark, NV) related the following conversation to an Inquisitor reporter:

Clyde: Nyah, nyah, nyah! We're going to beat you this season!

Hagood: Uh-uh, you are not!

Clyde: Will too! And you can't stop us! Nyah, nyah, nyah, nyah, nyah, nyah!

Hagood: Oh yeah? Well we don't have to play with you. We'd rather quit!

The morning after this phone conversation reportedly took place, it was announced to the student body that the men's basketball program was to be cut. This news was taken rather poorly by certain NNC students (see other article above).

Binky O'Neal has no idea of the controversy and conflict he has caused on the campus not 10 miles from his chosen college. He remains blissfully ignorant of NNC's existence and ACI coaches are striving to keep him that way.

Hagood fights with ACI president over Binky O'Neal!

Binky will begin his college career next fall, but barring a miracle, he will never face the basketball-less 'Saders, which is probably better for world peace anyway.

Go Lady Saders!

Personals

Male religion major seeking music major. Piano playing ability a must, singing also good. Must want children. Call MATT at 7076.

Freshman female looking for permanent romantic relationship. Must have good major and grades, future for success likely. Send picture of money to Box 2465.

Senior male looking for cute, intelligent freshman female. Must be ready for commitment NOW. Cuteness and intelligence not absolutely necessary. Call 7213 and ask for DES PRITT.

Male Kinesiology major looking for female in any money-making major. I need support until I can get a coaching job. Send income projection to "Unemployed" Box 2206.

Male english major looking for literary female. MUST know how to read (English). WRITE a letter to "Thoreau" Box 2514.

Male graduate in music looking for a funny, cheerful, smiling, intelligent, pretty, easygoing, easily entertained female well educated in the fine art of heresy. Low expectations a must. Call 7514 or 7483 or 7656 or write box 2572 as soon as possible. Ask for JOHN.

Diplômé en musique recherche femme drôle, souriante, intelligente, jolie, relax, facile a plaire et bien enseignée en choses hérétiques. Doit s'attendre a peu. Appeler 7514 ou 7483 ou 7656 ou écrire boîte 2572 aussitot que possible. Demander JEAN.

Roommate wanted. Everyone left me, now I'm lonely. Nice Corlett room. Male or female ok. Call Kevin at 8483.

Sutherland Hall seeking females interested in long term romantic relationships. Must be able to clean and do laundry. To apply, come clean and do our laundry.

Male editor seeking female writer. No romance involved, I just need writers. Call JASON at 8514.

Junior male looking for cute, blond freshman female who ISN'T interested in my car. You can't drive it. Call SCOTTE at 7514.

Male political science major looks for Democrat female. I really need someone to make fun of Newt with, please call, if you exist...Call BRIAN at 7215.

Female business major seeks husband. Need someone who wants to stay home with the kids and clean. Call HEATHER at 7245.

Female Senior looks for any male. Send name on 3x5 card to "Desperate" Box 2463.

Recreation and Leisure Studies major looks for someone to take me seriously. Call 7313 ask for BOB.

Car for sale: Yellow '95 Mustang GT. Perfect condition. Black interior, low miles. Excellent automobile. Asking $500. Call 8514, ask for JASON.

Prime building, almost new. Beautiful brick structure in a good part of Nampa. Very close to NNC. 100 bedrooms, 8 bathrooms, 2 living rooms plus a small apartment. Built very solid. Call Kent at 8766.

We're looking for a few good men! If you want to travel the world, learn new skills and live for excitement, date one of the girls of 1st East! Drop a note to Box 2037 for more info!

You, too, can purchase ads for the low-low price of $3.00 per column inch. Or you can trust us to run an accurate, unbiased ad with your name somewhere in it. Either way, you'll probably regret it.

"YEAH, SURE, SEND US SOME MAIL!"

Letters Matter!

Inquisitor staff members are fully convinced that the best way for you to make your voice heard on any topic that may be troubling you is through a letter to the editor. We will print anything but form letters and complaints about local businesses. Hey, we need the ad money! So please keep your letters concise (as in under 400 words) unless you want us to edit it to life. Anyway, send those letters to:

BOX C IN CAMPUS MAIL or
NNC BOX C, NAMPA, ID, 83686

Top Ten

Top Ten students not yet mentioned in this issue of The Inquisitor

10. April Whitten
9. Josh Pryor
8. Holly Cater
7. Matt Skaggs
6. Peter Erickson
5. Lindsay Mittelstaedt
4. Charity Friedly
3. Dr. Ron Ponsford
2. Kayla Kolar
1. And the number one student not yet mentioned in this issue of The Inquisitor is ... Aaron Speyer.

This list was compiled by randomly flipping through the scam bible, er, the Pictorial Student Directory, closing my eyes and pointing.

You can turn Top Tens in to NNC Box C. If you make them funny, they stand a heckuva lot better chance of being printed. Happy listmaking and good luck. Any list you make will be better than the one above. We guarantee it!

no, seriously...

As ironic as it may sound, the REAL student newspaper of Northwest Nazarene College honestly does need an

Advertising Manager

for the 1997-98 school year. No fooling. The Publications Ad Manager makes a set salary every term

and earns commissions on every ad he or she sells for the newspaper

and for the yearbook. Call 8656 or drop a note in Box C in campus mail if you're interested.

This issue of The Inquisitor was brought to you by the letters

J, Q and S

and by the number

2