SENIORS

The Senior Class Council threw a movie night to remember filled with piles of sweet & salty snacks and hours of laughter. The class council partnered with Rake-Up-Nampa for their fall service project, and seniors lead work groups throughout the neighborhoods of Nampa. They kicked off the spring semester with a "Pancakes and Chill" event, where they served up hundreds of pancakes for seniors and freshman. The Senior Class gift is $2,000 for the new student center, and through a generous matching donation, will be a total of $6,000! Before walking across the stage in May, the Senior Class will have two more chances to party at Reunion Zero and a huge senior class party BBQ!

JUNIORS

This year the Junior Class Council threw a rager in the Corlett dorm, Fr/Jr Merger, where they introduced the freshmen to the upper-class(men) lifestyle. The class council also entertained royalty at the homecoming coronation and threw an after-party full of food and photo booths for the masses. In December, the Junior Class prepared and served a meal at the Salvation Army. In the spring, juniors and seniors retreated to Trinity Pines for a weekend full of snacks, games, and late night adventures.

SOPHOMORES

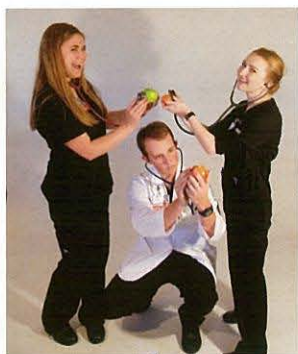

The Sophomore Class Council got right to work in the fall planning Fresheree ("Fresh Off The Ark"). The event did not disappoint, and laughter erupted from entertained attenders as the Brick House boys hosted and student actors shared comical skits. People took advantage of the opportunity to dress up in creative costumes and show off their "wild side." This class council also planned several class parties, including a night for sophomores to come out and eat Messengers Pizza and drink coffee at the Flying M for free.

FRESHMEN

Freshman Class Council elections came early in the fall with memorable campaigns and speeches. President Josh Rohnert added himself to Mount Rushmore, Social Board member Becca Fabris typed her speech in comic sans font to get herself in the right mood for speech-giving, and Social Board member Jonah Daniels took the Freshman Class on a journey of the mind. Since their election, the group has been hard at work planning Mr. NNU, collaborating with the Senior Class Council for a pancake feast in Culver, and putting together a class party.

LEADERSHIP

When leaving home for the first time, students often worry about how they will connect in college. But, from the very first moments of move-in day at NNU, students are not just welcomed into their dorms, but into a community that they will come to make their second home. Students are welcomed to their dorms by their Resident Director and Assistants, who become new friends to laugh and cry with, adventure beside, give guidance and prayer, and buy you coffee during those late night study meltdowns. Students can also find confidence in their Peer Mentors, who give advice and share in their struggles as well as their accomplishments. When they step out of their dorms, students are greeted by NNU's enthusiastic SGA team, who is in charge of fostering community on campus through their direction of ministry, social events, serve days, support of athletics, clubs, and more. As students begin to make friends and find classes, they can join clubs that help them pursue their interests and passions within the community. Finally, students can run for class councils to give direction to their class through parties, service projects, and NNU social events. There are so many amazing leadership teams on campus to foster the fun community that make NNU a beloved home to so many students.

COVENANT

Covenant (also known as Covananant 2kthousand17) is the NNU summer travel team that leads worship for summer camps and churches across the Northwest region. This worship band dedicates their summer to mentoring youth, being cabin leaders, leading worship, and building relationships with campers. They have a blast participating in camp volleyball tournaments, water games, giant slides, shaving cream fights, ridiculous spoonerisms, and having fun!

WITNESS

Witness is a stellar group of students who spend their summer working hard in camps around the Pacific Northwest. They do crazy games and skits, serve as cabin and small group leaders, and direct fun camp activities. This year, they put on a crazy chocolate slip n' slide and, of course, some awesome water fights! These students make a huge impact on the lives of youth through their relationships and ministry.

BRICK

The Brick House Boys this year were Jason Sturgis, Brandon Spiller, Nathan Moore, and Shannon Seward. They did a phenomenal job of promoting community on campus and hosting wild, lively events, such as the Pajama Party, Brick 28 "Brunch," and even a Thanksgiving Feast for all students to come and enjoy. The food and fun were always abundant... and whether students went over to participate in Week One Jazz On The Lawn, Halloween Party, Pumpkin Wrestling, or even just to watch a movie in the downstairs theater, a good time was always to be found.

HOUSE

STUDENT LIFE

If you ask students their favorite thing about NNU, the most prevalent answer is the community! Whether you are in the dorms, on the sports field, in class, eating in the Dex, or jamming around the Jesus statue, life at NNU is all about community. NNU boasts a plethora of fun activities that create the community of belonging that so many people endear. Week One brings social activities such as the Rootbeer Fest, Roller-scamming, Brick House party, the bonfire, Jazz on the Lawn, and new friends! Events like Mr. NNU, Fresheree, and Wednesday Night Live make people laugh until they cry, and Twirp brings the craziness out of couples as they parade around the Treasure Valley in wildly inventive costumes. On the other hand, Black Tie represents NNU's classy side, where students dress formally for a night of fancy fun. Throughout the year, students also participate in a variety of musical activities, such as ensembles, school musicals, chapel band, or Timeout worship. In addition to these fun opportunities, NNU student life includes dorm parties, Brick House events, club involvement, service opportunities, spiritual growth, and personal relationships that last a lifetime. Wherever you look, students are being formed into the people they will be for the rest of their lives through their faith, meaningful friendships, crazy adventures, and fun parties!

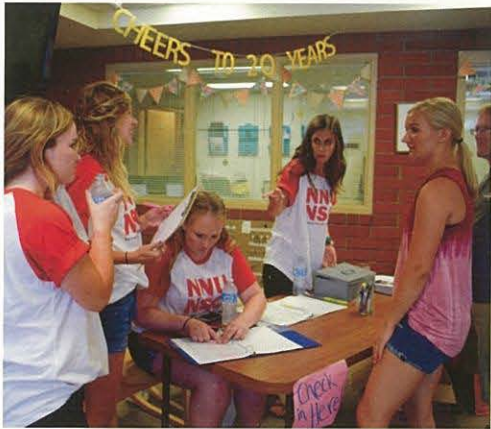

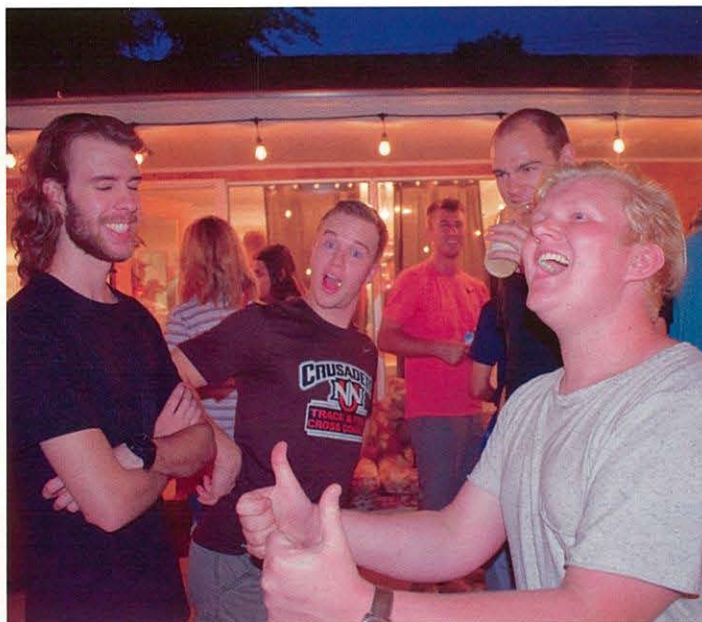

MOVE IN DAY

So. Many. Pens. That's what students found when they walked through the community fair with their parents on move-in day. After the community fair, student leaders were found in the dorms helping freshmen move in and get settled. Campus leaders gave out scarves to the new freshmen and parents said goodbye before releasing their students to a whole new experience at NNU.

BRICK HOUSE PARTY

The Brick House Party is always a great way to kick off a new school year. Characterized by the classic Milk Chug Challenge, where students compete in a milk-gallon chugging frenzy, this event was the definition of a good time. Students ate snacks, drank delicious homemade bricks, and socialized with friends they hadn't seen since the previous year.

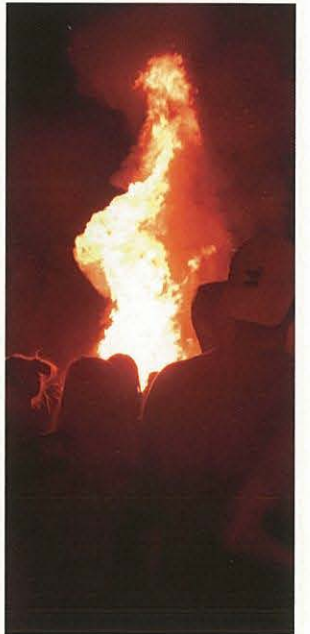

BONFIRE

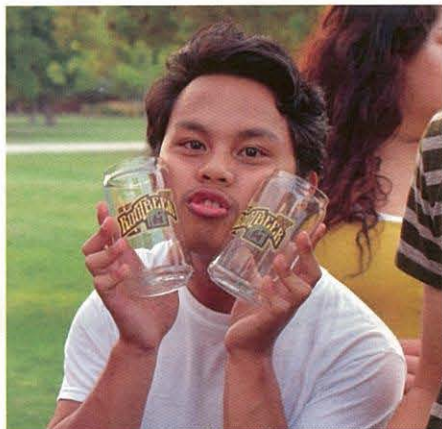

Some refer to it as the hottest event on campus, but it is the dancing, not the fire, that really burns the place down. As part of the Week One theme, Dorothy, Scarecrow, Tinman, and the Cowardly Lion skipped through students with torch in hand to light the ceremonial bonfire resembling the emerald city. Characteristically, the cowardly lion dropped the blazing torch short of its mark, which then had to be kicked the rest of the way by more courageous folk. Despite the initial hiccup, students socialized, ate, and danced into the new school year with pizzazz.

ROOT BEER FEST

In this Wizard of Oz bonanza, members of the leadership at NNU, including President Joel Pearsall and SGA, came together to give the NNU community a night of delicious root beer floats and Wizard of Oz fun-filled mayhem. During the lawn games, students raced to put on ruby slippers and dump water on the "witch," chug rootbeer, and skillfully toss poppyseed muffins into each other's mouths.

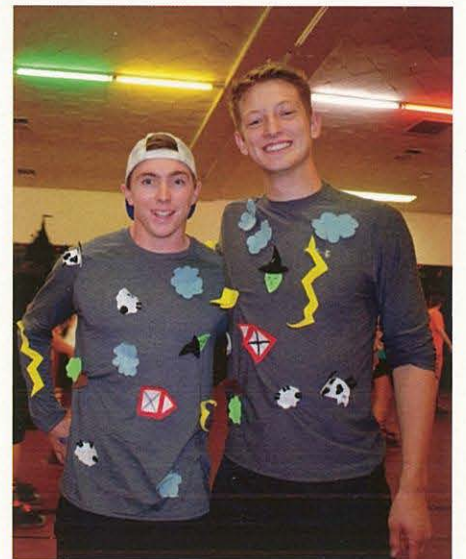

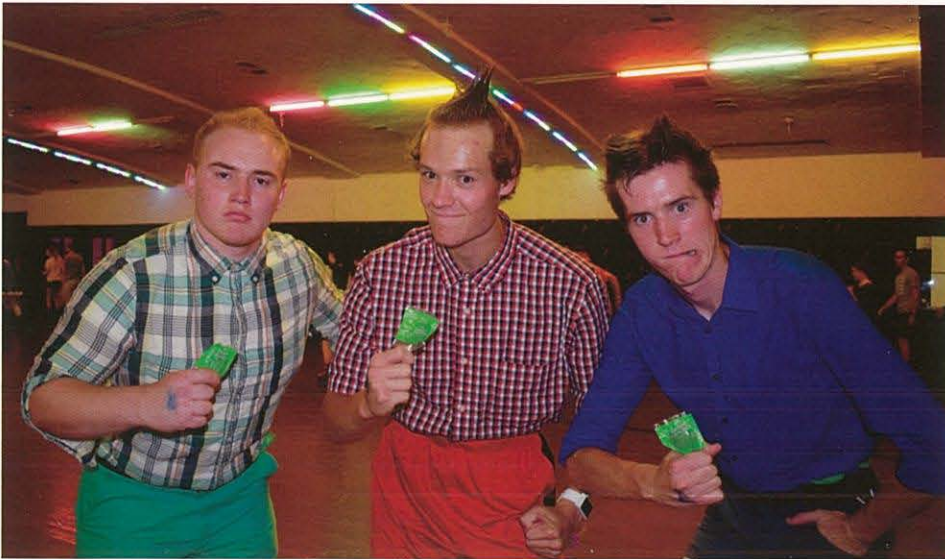

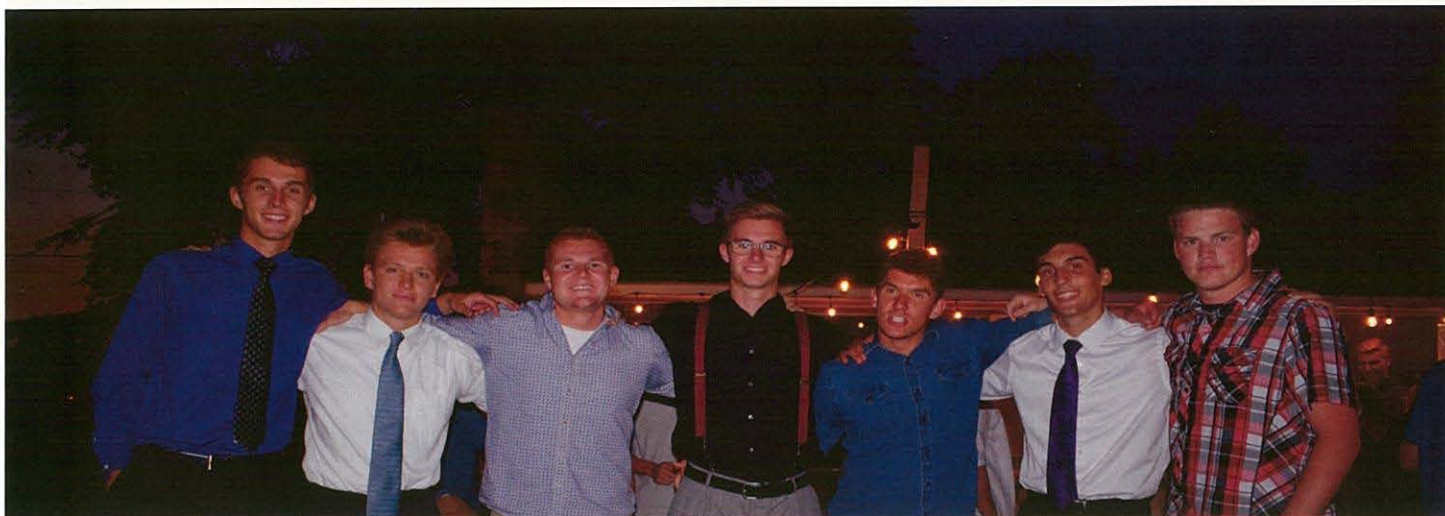

ROLLER SCAMMING

Roller Scamming was one of the most popular Week One events this year! Students met at the Nampa Rollerdrome dressed in their best Wizard of Oz costumes. Dorothy, Auntie Em, the Wicked Witch of the West, and the Yellow Brick Road all made appearances. Anyone skating behind farmer Michael Reimer was greeted by stray feathers fluttering off of the live chicken he brought! Fun was had by all--even the chicken.

JAZZ

ON THE LAWN

For this year's Jazz on the Lawn, students were invited to sit back and enjoy a night of live jazz, socializing, and swing dancing on the Brick House lawn. Live jazz was brought to you by Carman Honer, Tim Swarat, Kilen Multop, and Austin Reich. Students dressed classy and enjoyed the jazzy sound of fellowship and the sweet, long-missed taste of a caffeinated brick. This event was a great way to enjoy the company of friends and swing into the new school year!

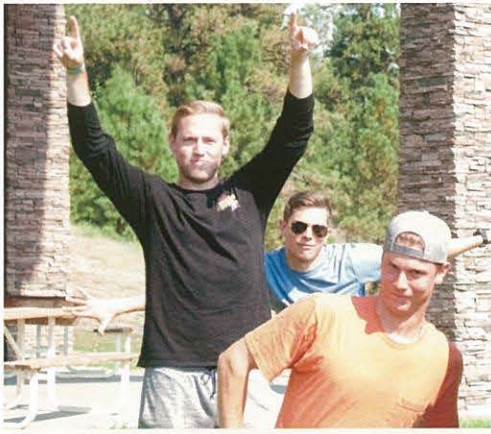

FRESHMAN RETREAT

Each year, the incoming freshman head up to Trinity Pines for a weekend full of fun. This year, the retreat consisted of line dancing, fun games, loads of snacks, and worship, of course. This retreat gave the Freshman Class the opportunity to develop relationships with other freshmen as well as their peer mentors. Upperclassmen could also attend as a way to make freshmen feel welcome as a part of the NNU community!

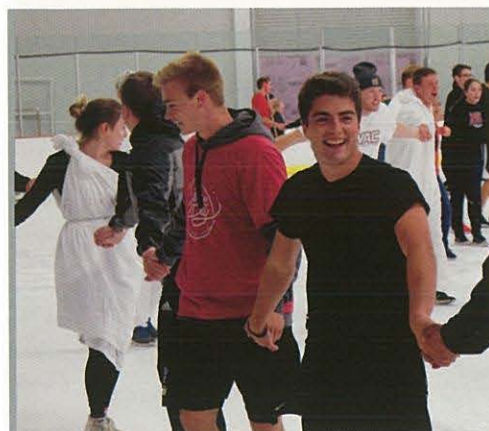

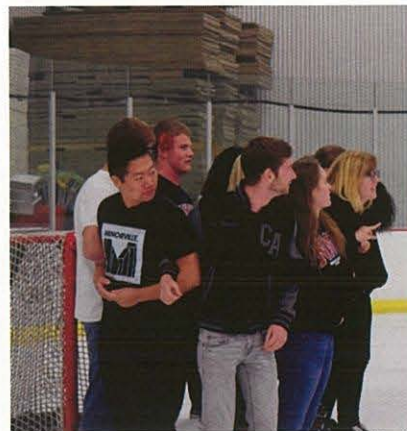

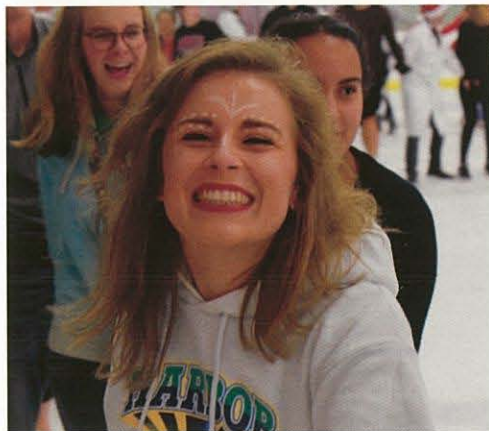

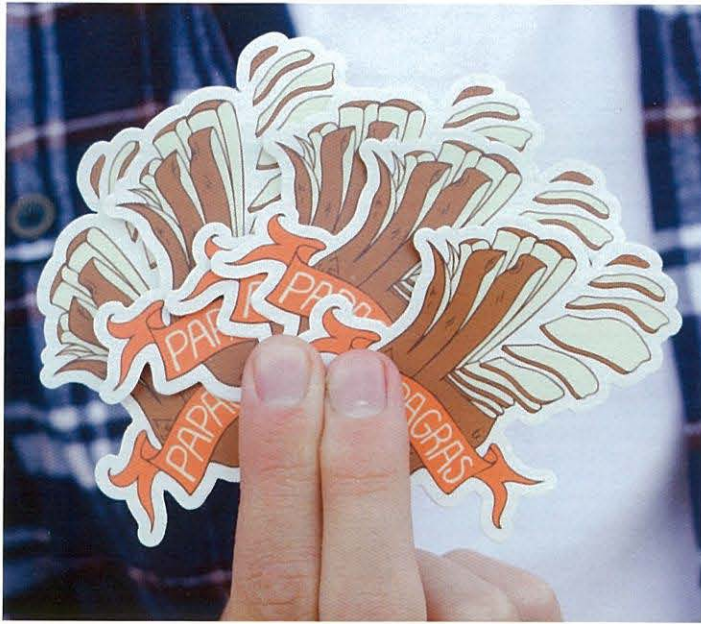

BROOM HOCKEY

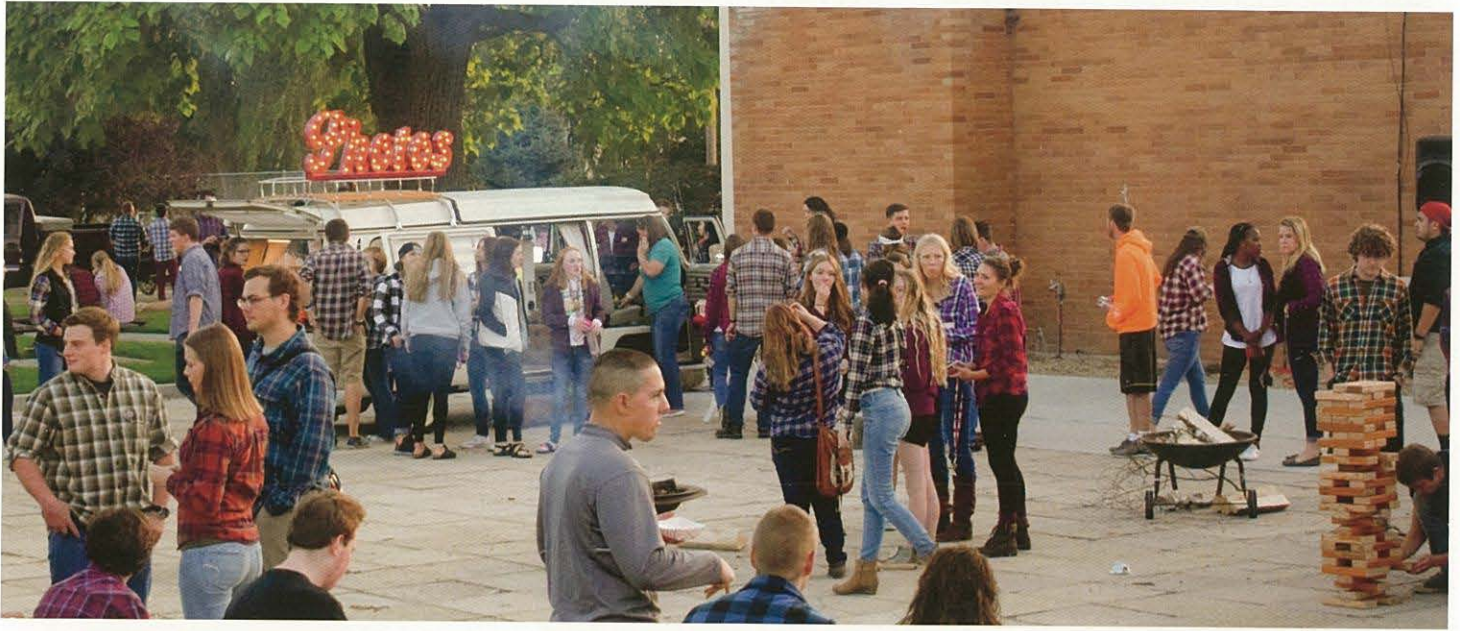

This chilly event held at Idaho Ice World consisted of a myriad of games created to bring students together. Each class wore a different color, hoping to collectively gain the most points to end up on top. After a night of competitive fun playing dodgeball, tag, and broom hockey, the seniors were able to slide into first place as kings and queens of the ice, making it their fourth consecutive win. Needless to say, tears were shed. Show up next year to see who will win!

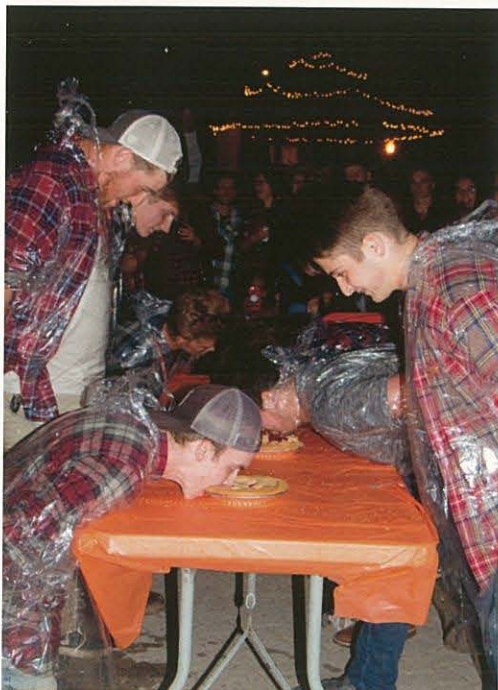

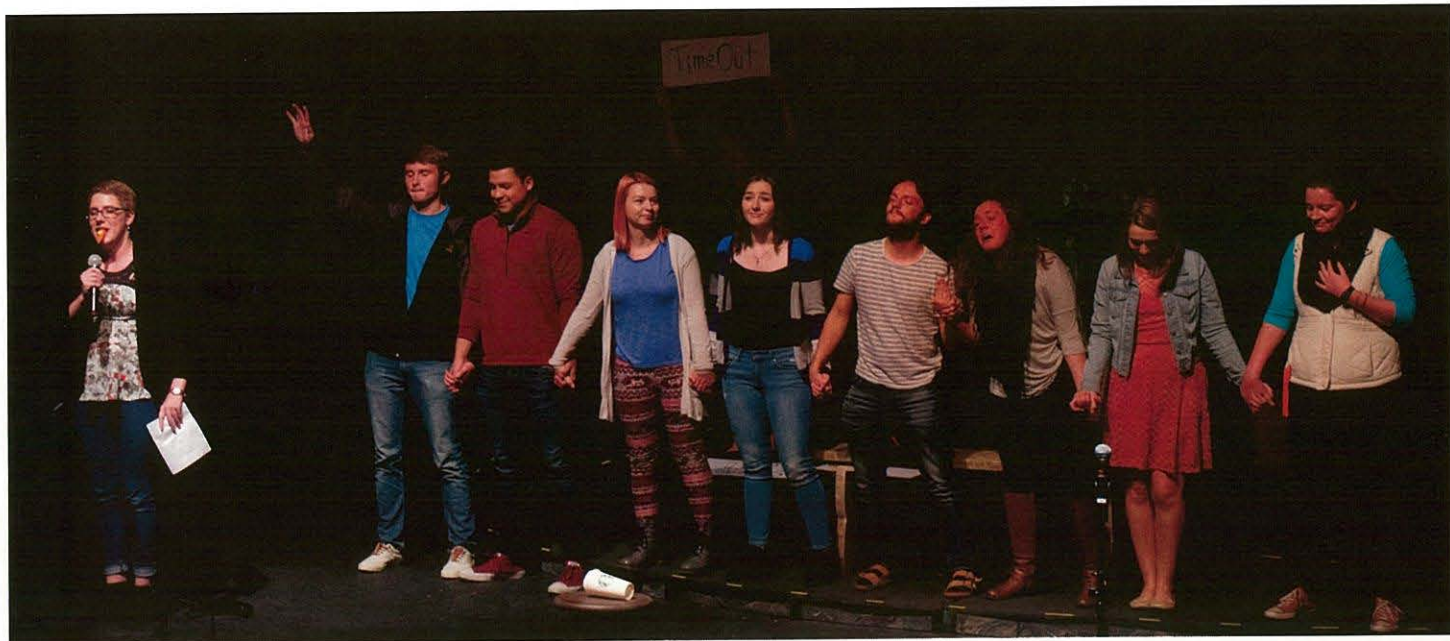

PAPAGRAS

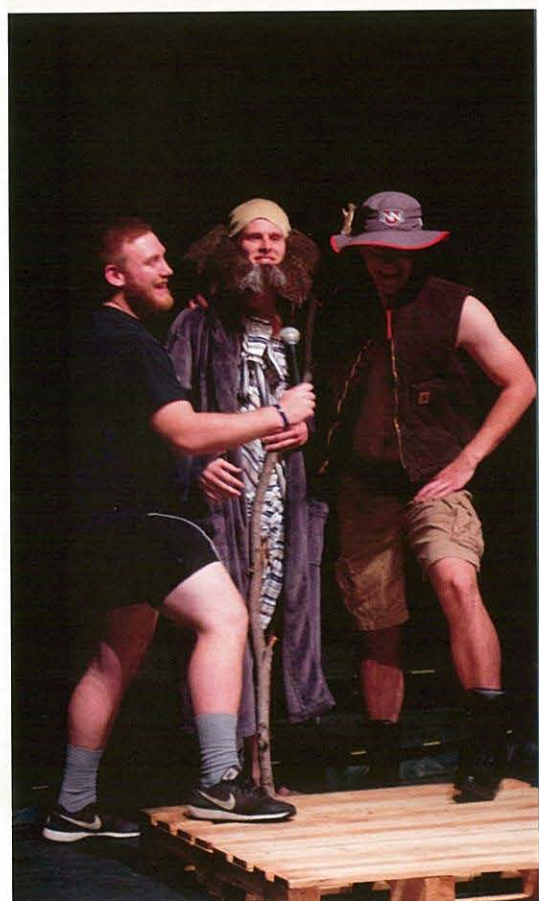

Who doesn't love potatoes? How about a potato party!? This year, the fall party was a memorable, Idaho-inspired Papagras! Boise Fry Co. catered snacks and filled students' bellies up with their awesome sauces. The hay rides were so lit that they got shut down by campus security and, of course, there was a classic hay bail toss, pie eating contest, lawn games, and so much more!

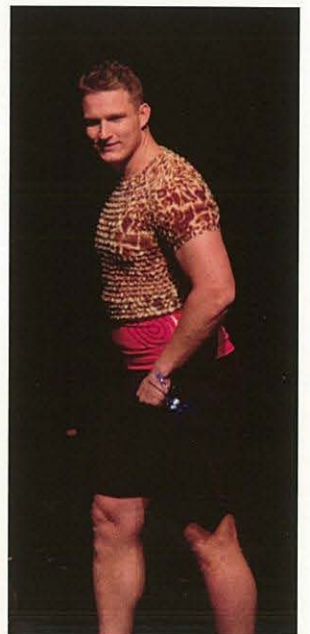

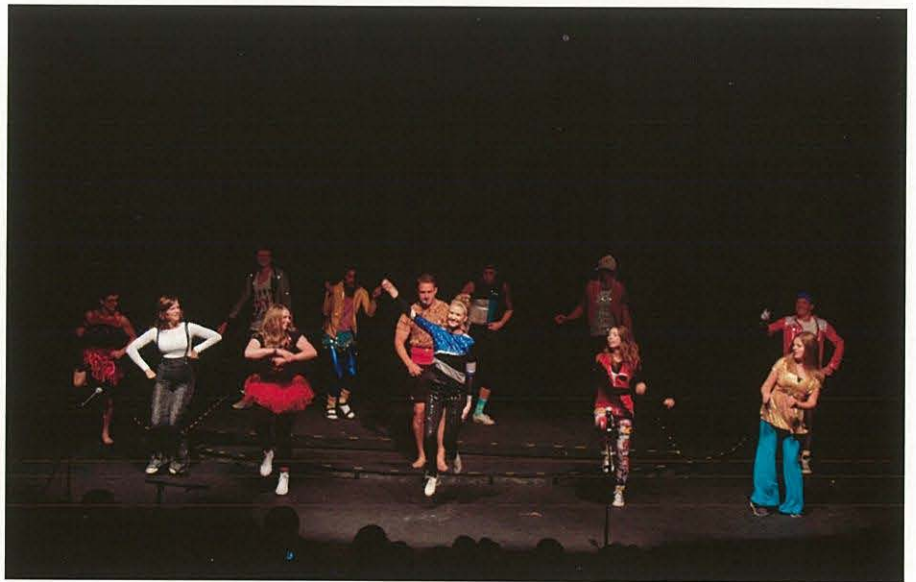

FRESHREE

This year the Sophomore Class Council joined forces with the Brick House boys to put on this year's "Fresh off the Ark" Fresheree; a Noah's Ark themed variety show that included hilarious skits, lip syncing, and lots of laughs. The skits included Saturday Night Live spoofs, the NNU Bachelor finale, and a guest appearance by the renowned "Out of Sync" boy band. A fun time was had by all!

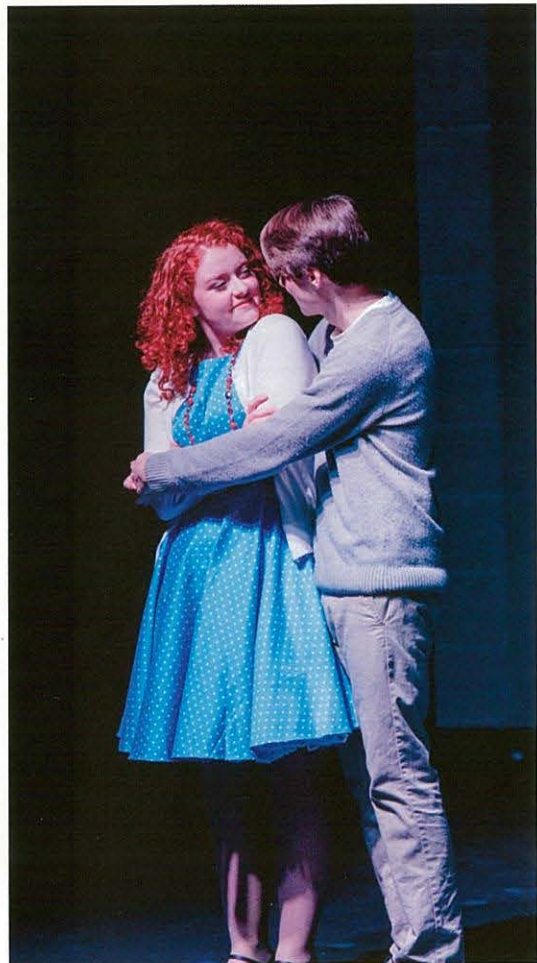

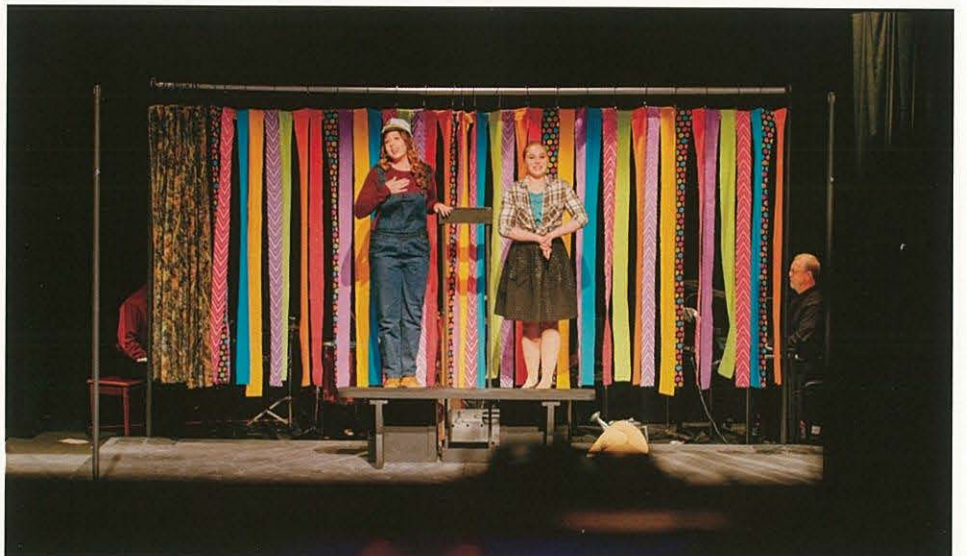

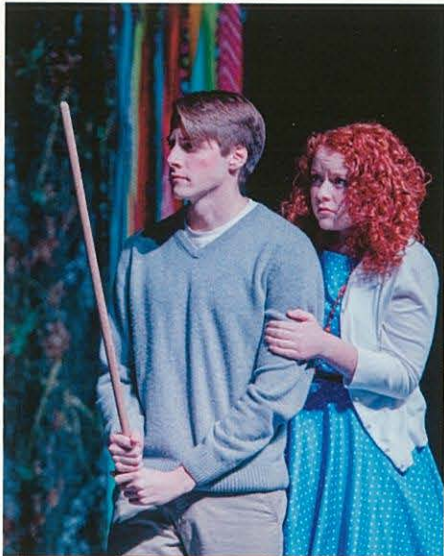

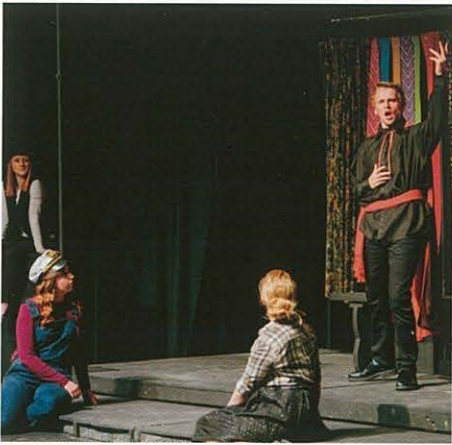

THE FANTASTICS

During Homecoming weekend, NNU put on a production of the world's longest-running musical: The Fantasticks. The musical told the tale of a hectic love story between a boy and a girl whose parents try to match together through manipulation. In the end, the two end up together, though not without a lot of drama in-between.

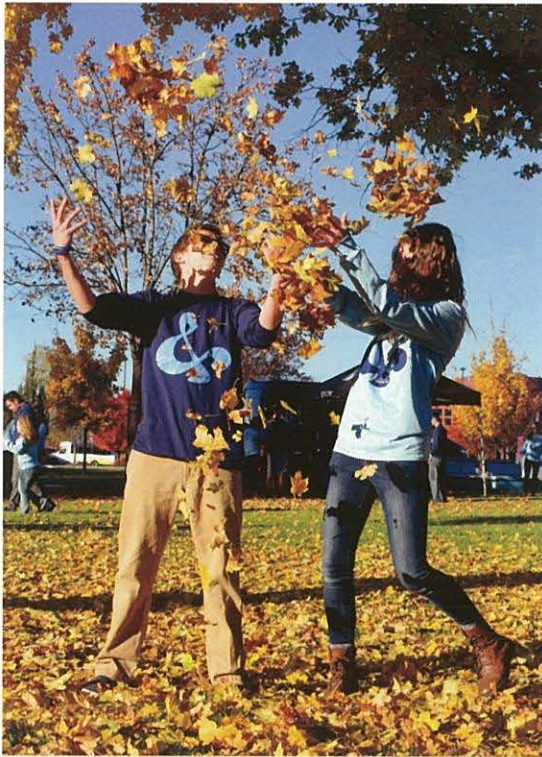

TWIRP

DAY ONE

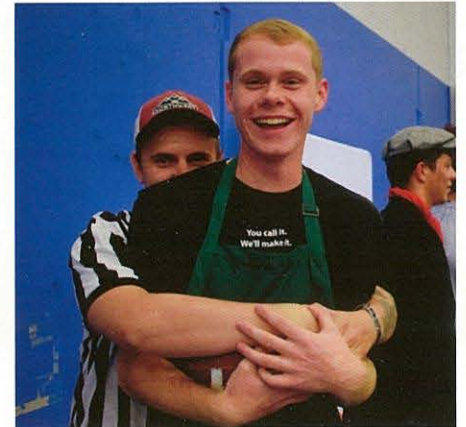

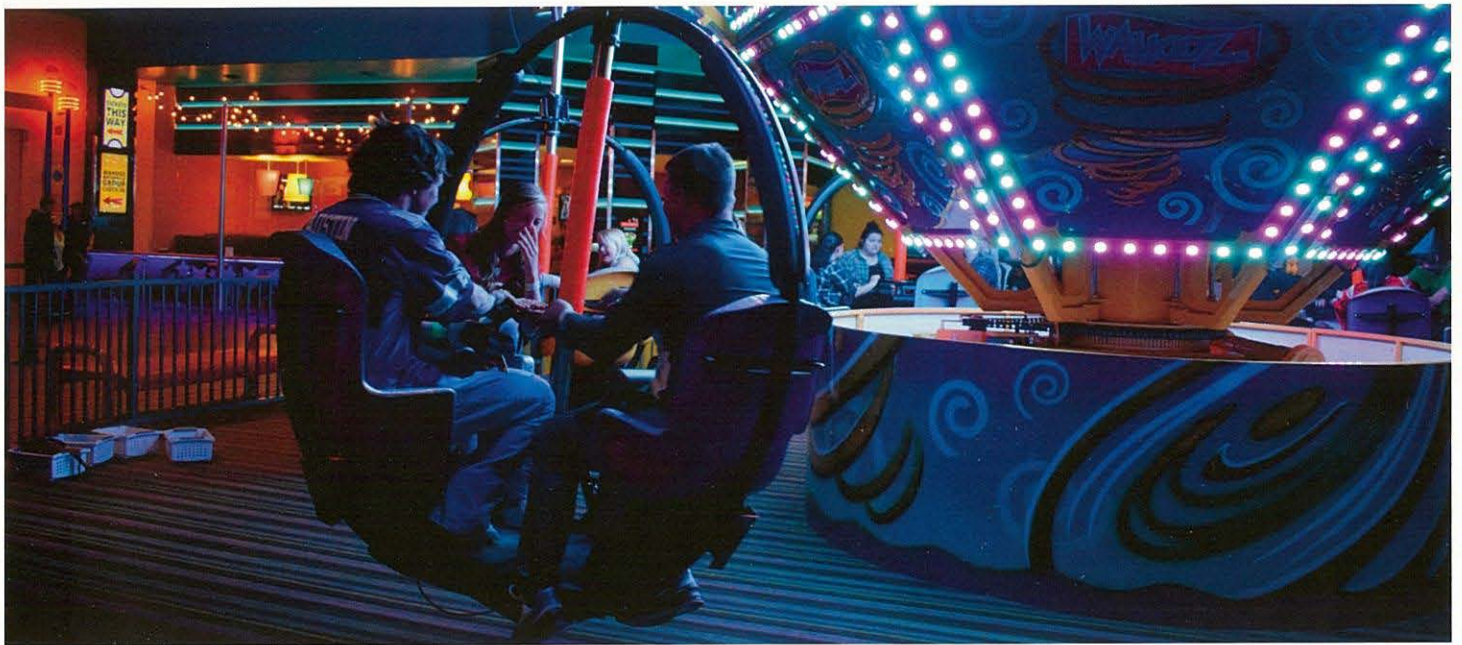

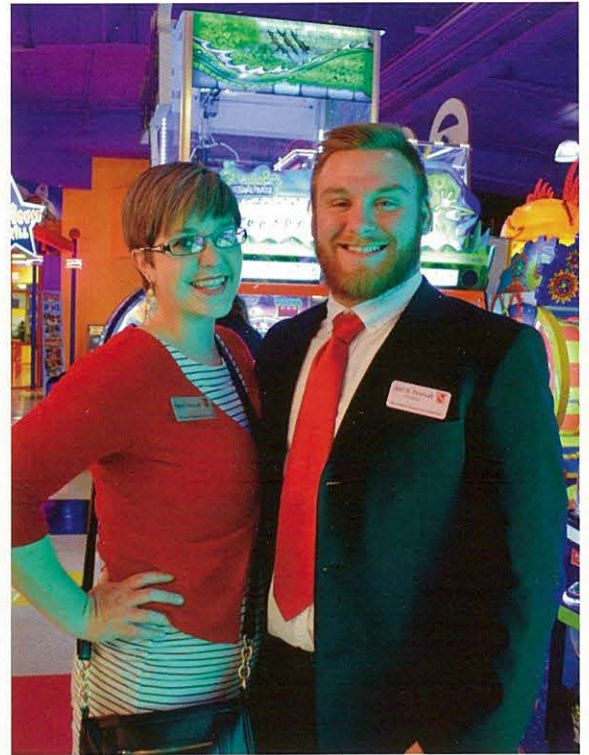

For the first night of TWIRP, couples donned their t-shirts and headed out to play lawn games and eat from food trucks. After bellies were filled, couples headed to the Farmstead. Those who like a good scare opted for the haunted corn maze, and those who wanted a nice fall night enjoyed the hay rides. Everyone ended the night acting like trapeze artists at a the CircusTriX trampoline park.

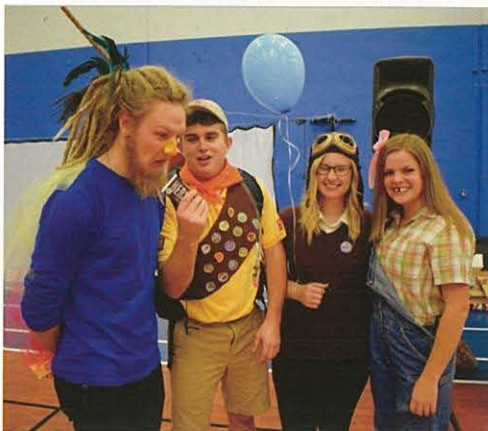

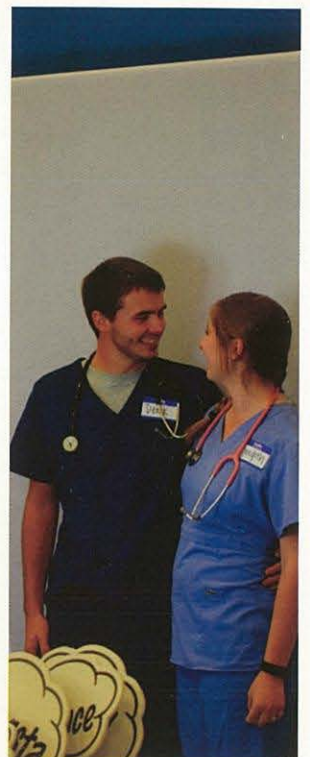

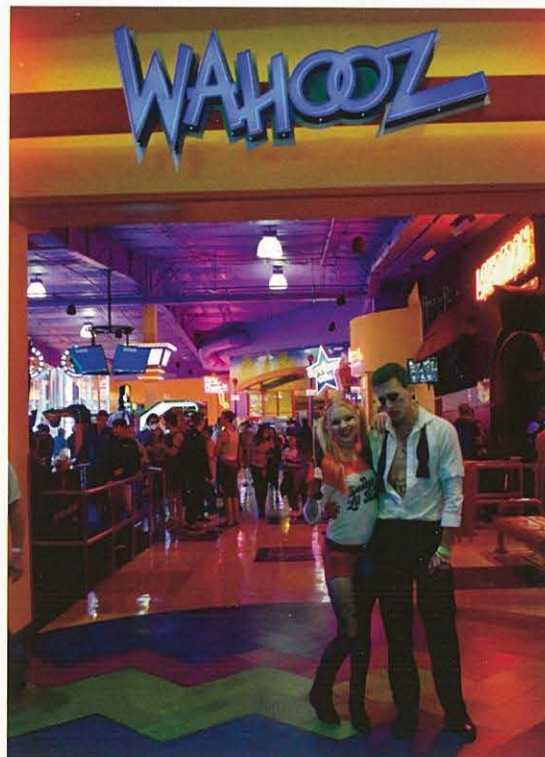

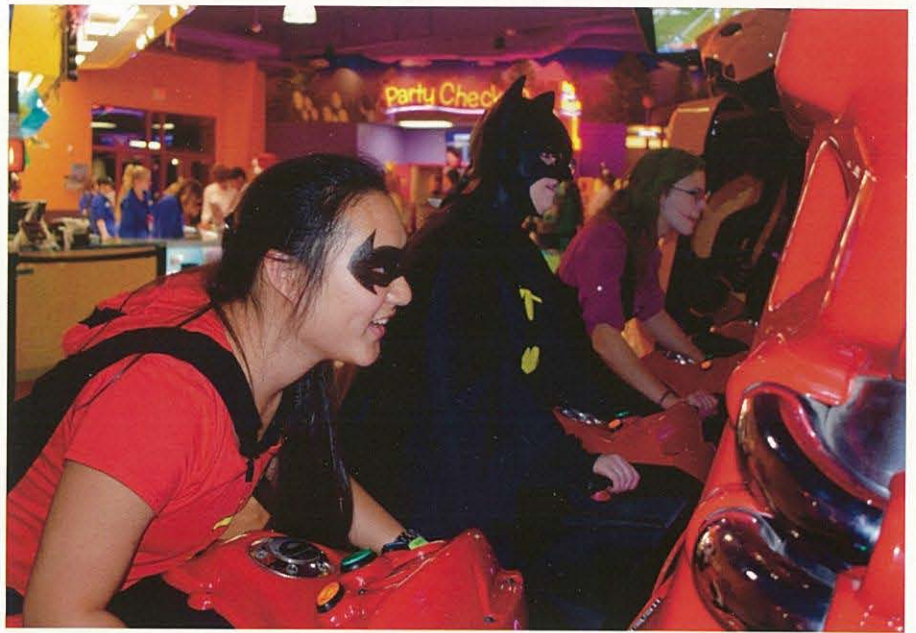

TWIRP DAY TWO

On the second night of TWIRP, couples disguised themselves as dynamic duos. At the JSC field house, hundreds of Krispy Kreme donuts and cups of piping hot chocolate were consumed while waiting in an enormous line for pictures. Next, everyone headed off to Wahooz, where competitive rounds of go-karts, games, laser tag, and mini golf were played. The night finished at the Overland Theatre to watch Despicable Me 3, Spider-Man: Homecoming, or Dunkirk while consuming lots of popcorn.

HOMECOMING

This year's Homecoming welcomed more than just family and friends, but an entire community of past Resident Assistants and Resident Directors. Next, the NNU community welcomed royalty from each class. The Junior Class Council pulled out all the stops to adorn these honored students with flowers and their very own red carpet. The Senior Class crowned Jared Sheldon and Katie Largent as their King and Queen while Bre Carins, Rachel Bauman, Shannon Seward, and Brandon Spiller served as princes and princesses. The Junior Class was represented by Emily Nance and Jacob Manzi. Elise Snowden and Jonathan Nettles shined for the Sophomore Class. Finally, Pauline Finkbeiner and Joshua Rohnert represented the new faces of the Freshmen Class. The night ended with a party in the field house with photo booths and lots and lots of food.

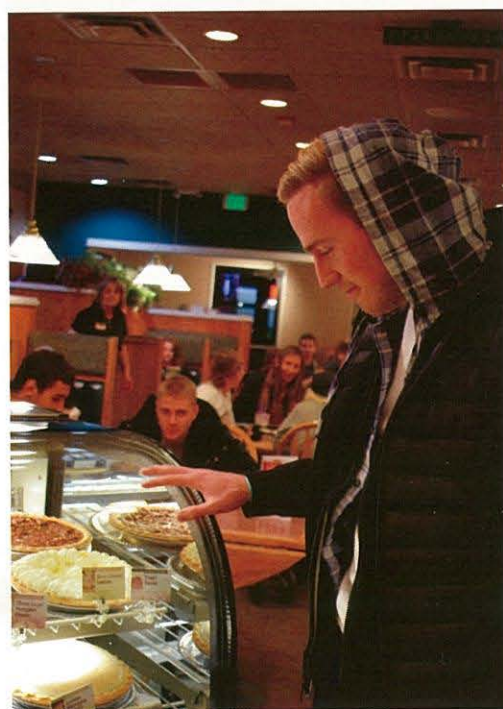

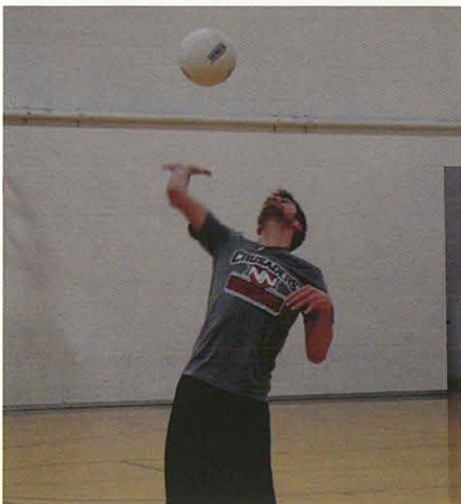

PIES

AND FRIES

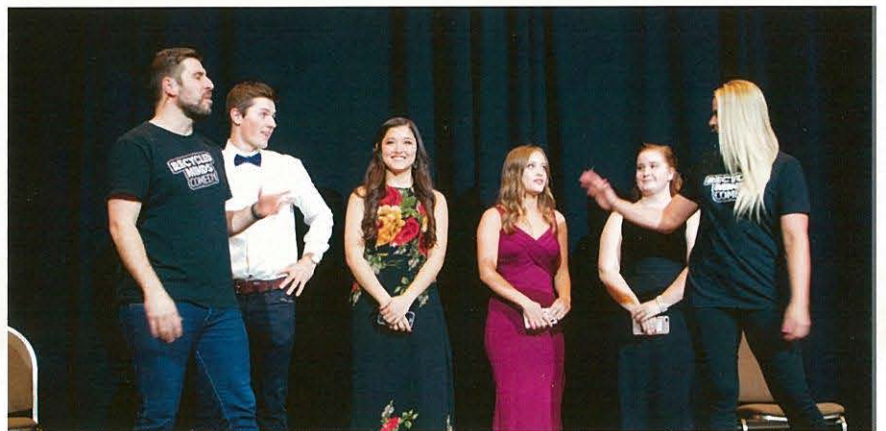

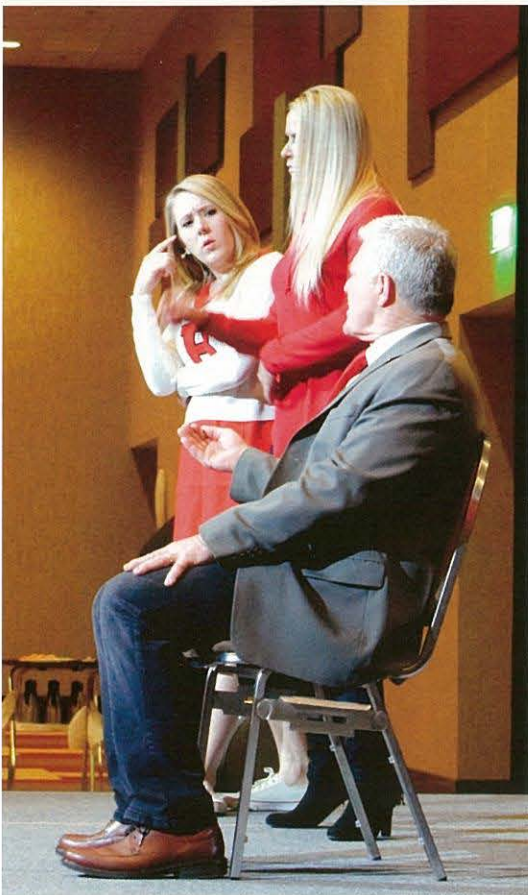

WEEK BACK

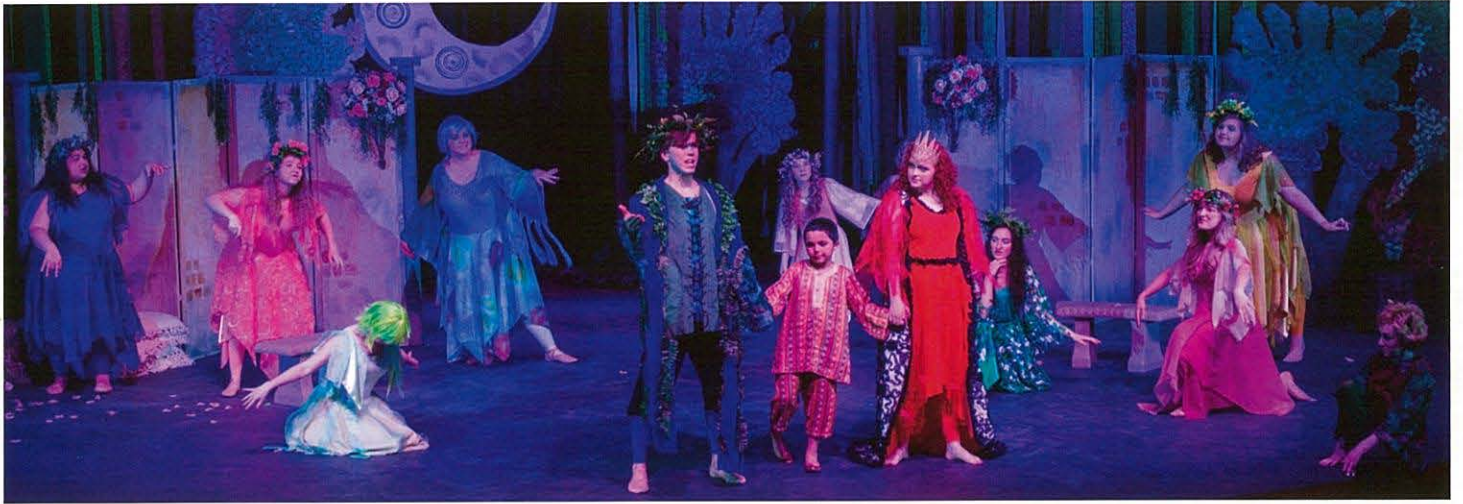

BLACK TIE

Murder Mystery at the Boise Center! NNU students dressed to the nines for a Clue-filled night. Students were entertained by an awkward improv group over a fancy dinner and enjoyed an evening of dancing, board games, and several different photo booth options. The night was definitely one to remember!

A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM

This year's spring play was the story of Shakespeare's, "A Midsummer Night's Dream." The play took place in the little theater this year, and the actors made use of the aisles between audiences which created a cozy and intimate setting. The scenery was beautifully painted, streamers of cloth hung from the ceiling to form a forest, and the largest prop was a giant crescent moon carried in and out by fairies. Students played the parts of Lords and Ladies, Townspeople, Fairies, and even a donkey-headed hooligan. And where some people may have originally thought Shakespeare's plays to be hard to understand, this play's audiences found themselves laughing repeatedly throughout this production.

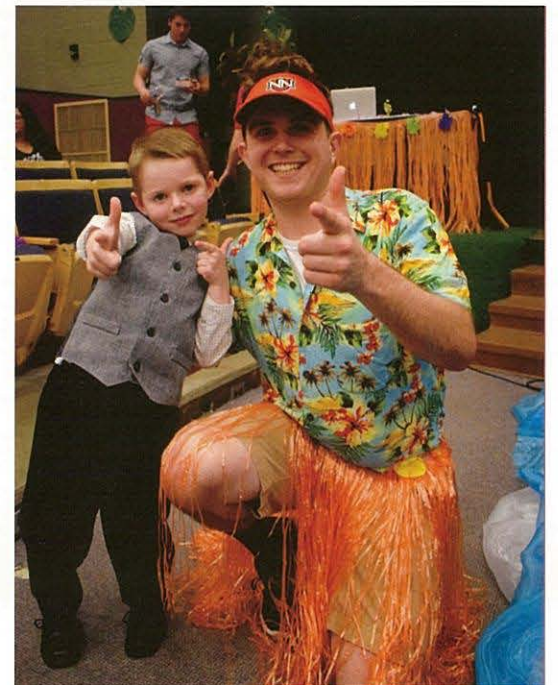

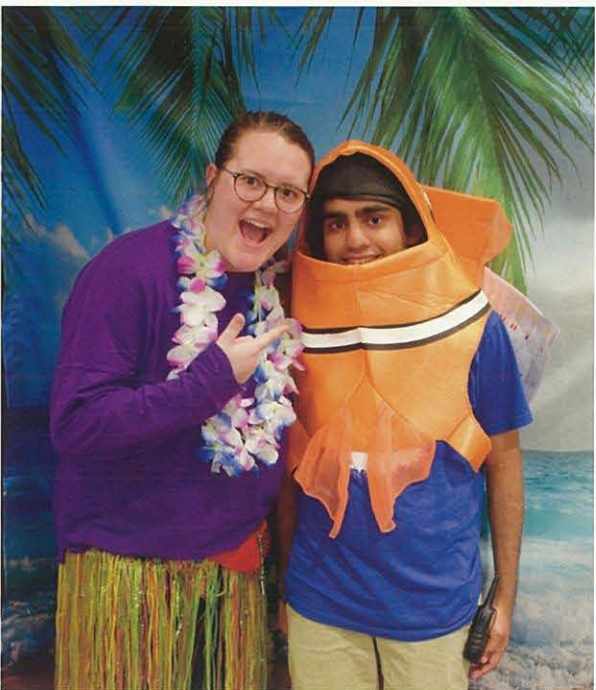

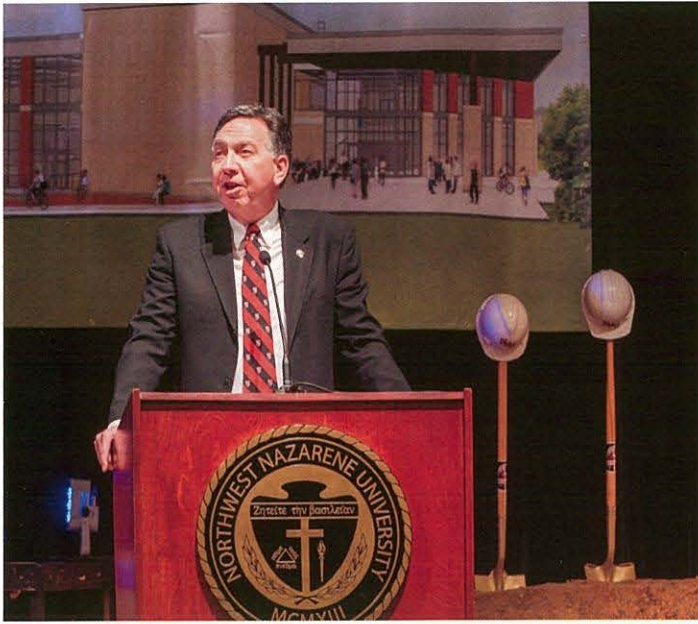

MR. NNU

This event was a delight for every class! Two men were nominated from each class to compete in a battle of humor to hopefully win the title of MR. NNU! This year was quite the show. We saw a freshman stuff far too many carrots in his mouth. We were graced with the presence of Paulette. We saw a comical video featuring the Golf Cart Cops. Heck, even Jesus made an appearance! After tough deliberation, Brandon Spiller was crowned the victor. And although there can only be one winner, we were proud of (and a little embarrassed for) all the wonderful contestants and their skits that had us laughing and cringing (cue the coconut question).

GROUNDBREAKING CEREMONY

This fall, the NNU administration challenged the student body to raise money toward the new Student Center during a matching campaign. Class councils and students came together to raise a great deal for the Commons, which resulted in a groundbreaking ceremony for the new building in March. Due to bad weather, the ceremony was held in the Brandt Center, but that did not stop selected participants from donning their hard hats and raising their shovels with adorning Nighthawk stickers to break ground. And break ground they did, right on the Brandt Center stage with a tarp of actual dirt from the new Student Commons location laid across it. With worship led by Covenant and speakers such as the President Joel Pearsall, Vice President Carey Cook, and Chaplains Olivia and Dustin Metcalf, the NNU community officially broke ground for the new NNU Student Commons.

NNU

LOGO REVEAL

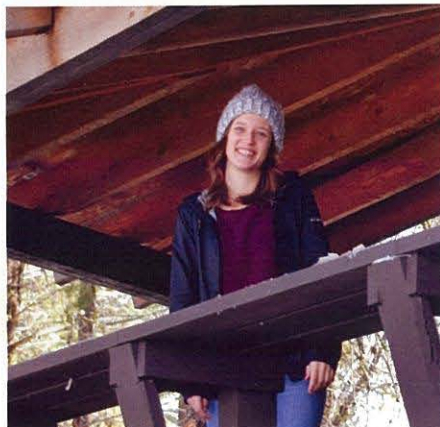

This year, NNU made the exciting change from the Crusader mascot to the NNU Nighthawks! The new logo, designed by Graphic Design Professor Mike Bartlett and senior Graphic Design student Korte Zickefoose, was revealed in chapel on January 12 with exciting lights, free merch, and a slam dunk by basketball players Maurice Jones and Obi Megwa.

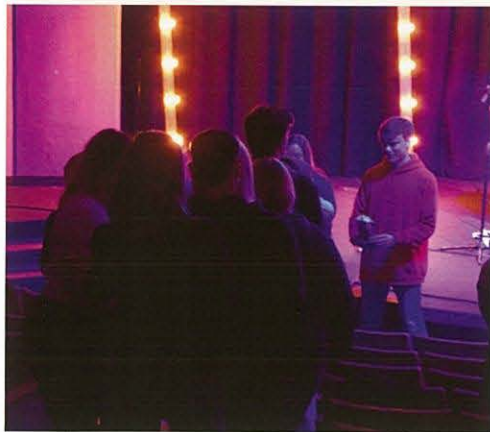

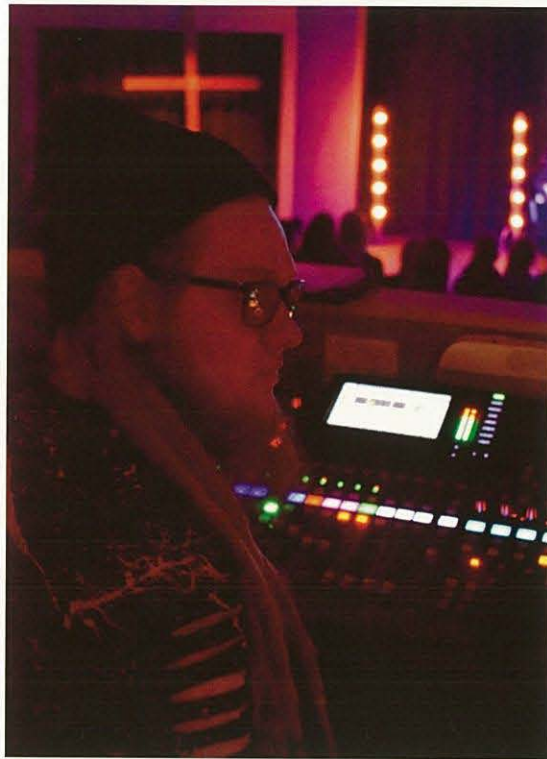

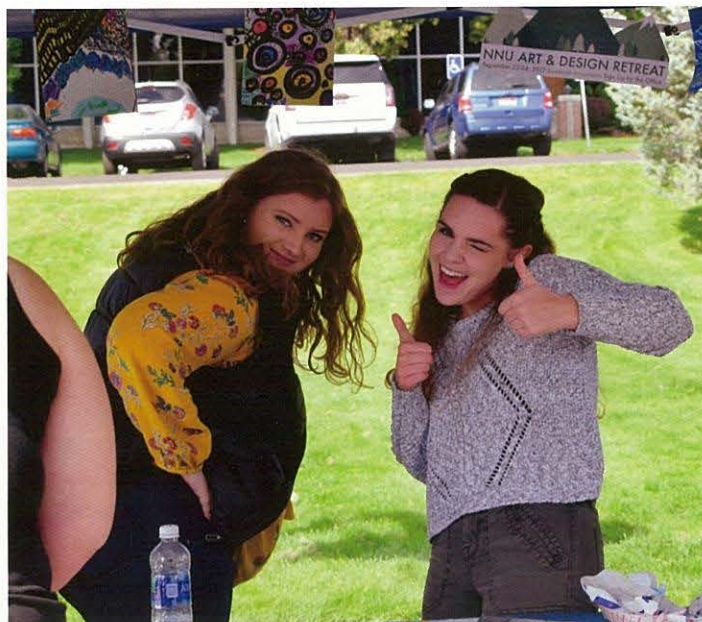

TIME OUT

RETREAT & WINTER AWAKENING

This year in Timeout, the NNU community came together to seek truth. Every Wednesday, students gathered in the Little Theater for student-led worship services. Led by Jessica Rimer and the Campus Ministry Team, Timeout was a weekly place of refuge for weary hearts and souls yearning for God.

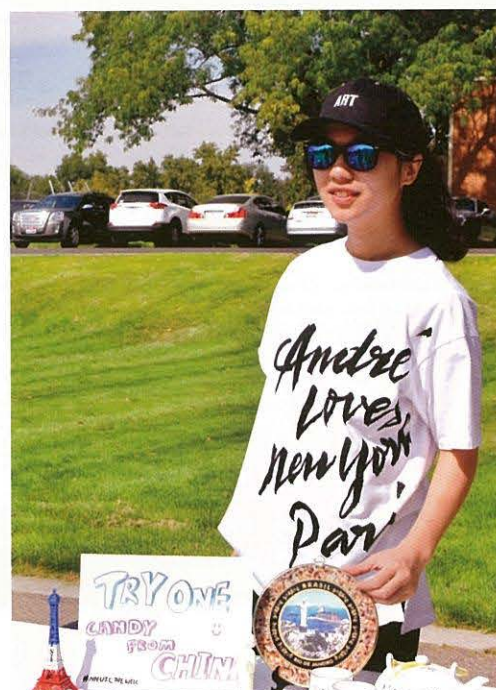

CLUB

FAIR AND BBQ

Students at NNU love to be involved, and the club cookout was the place where they could get started. Clubs kicked off the new school year with an outdoor club fair, where students perused the various student organizations on campus. Students could sign up for various clubs while enjoying the free food and the NNU soccer game!

CLUBS

With a large amount of student-led clubs at NNU, there is a spot for everyone. Organized by SGA Club Coordinator Camilla Mowry, clubs are a great place for students wanting to get involved with the NNU community. Clubs can request money from Senate to use for fun events or service-oriented projects in the community. As pictured here, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Swing Dance Club, and Journeys are just three of the 30+ clubs represented on campus.

SENATE

Senate meets every Wednesday night at 7:30 p.m. to determine how student fees are distributed to clubs and student leaders. Three senators from each class are elected to represent students on the NNU Senate, led by Executive Vice President Wes Welch. The senators from each class are freshmen Nate Mack, Allison Timms, and Tayden MacDonald; sophomores Madison Queen, Josh Stuhr, and Parker Akkerman; juniors Aaron Rogers, Nathan Maupin, and Justin Quinn; and seniors Scott Hunter, Jacob Wombacher, and Josiah Radcliffe.

DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC

NNU

ON A MISSION

Every summer, NNU students serve on work & witness teams and partner with missionaries around the world. NNU on a Mission provides students with an opportunity to go and engage the mission of God while experiencing another culture. This past summer, NNU students served on teams in Haiti, Liberia, and Poland.

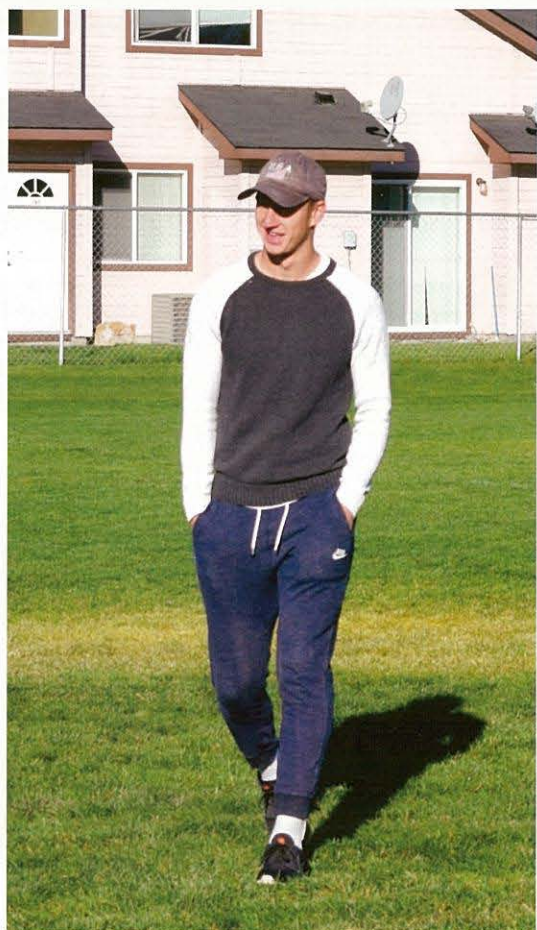

INTRAMURALS

Michael Scott once said, "You miss 100% of the shots you don't take." Students took that wisdom-filled quote to heart this year and participated in intramural sports in record numbers. Intramurals are a perfect outlet for those students who love playing sports but aren't able to commit the time and effort required to be on a collegiate team. This year, Micah Tranch, (also known as Intramural Overlord) provided opportunities for students to participate in basketball, soccer, volleyball, ultimate frisbee, and flag football. Even better than just participating--if your team wins, you get bragging rights and a free t-shirt!

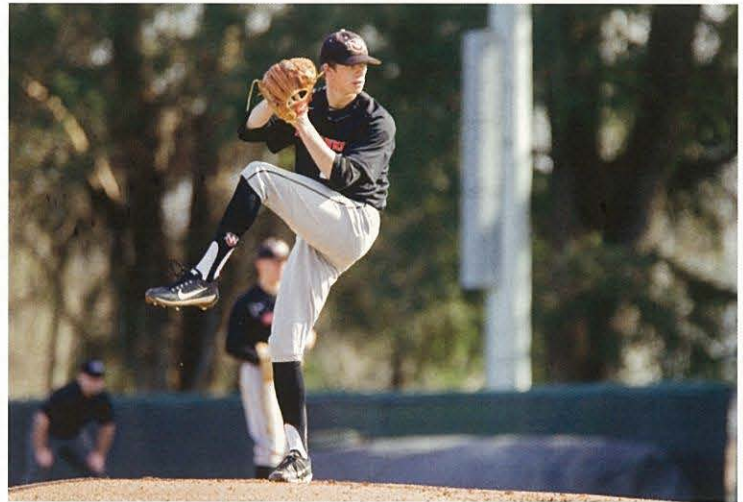

ATHLETICS

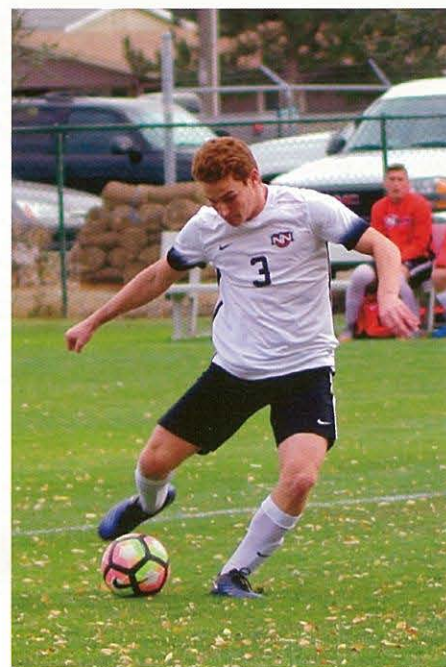

Athletics is an aspect of NNU where students get to shine in a different way. Through months of training, practicing, and competing, student athletes get to compete in their passions. They work hard on and off the field to maintain a high grade point average as well as high performances in their sport. These athletes bring a lot of important publicity to the campus while working to positively represent their Christ-centered programs. A few teams this year in particular that have really shone are the women's soccer and basketball teams. Both teams have had amazing seasons that have set records either in most games won or the farthest the team has gone in a championship round. These women have shown great attitudes, amazing work ethic, and a real hunger for success. While being a student athlete is very demanding, it is also rewarding, especially when the rest of the campus is out supporting the teams, sharing in their successes. This year's athletes can be proud knowing they have represented Nighthawk athletics well.

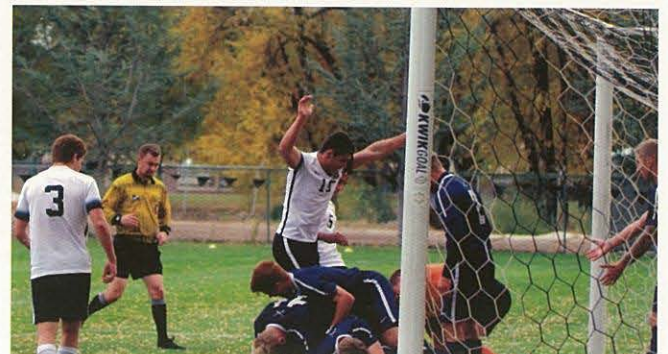

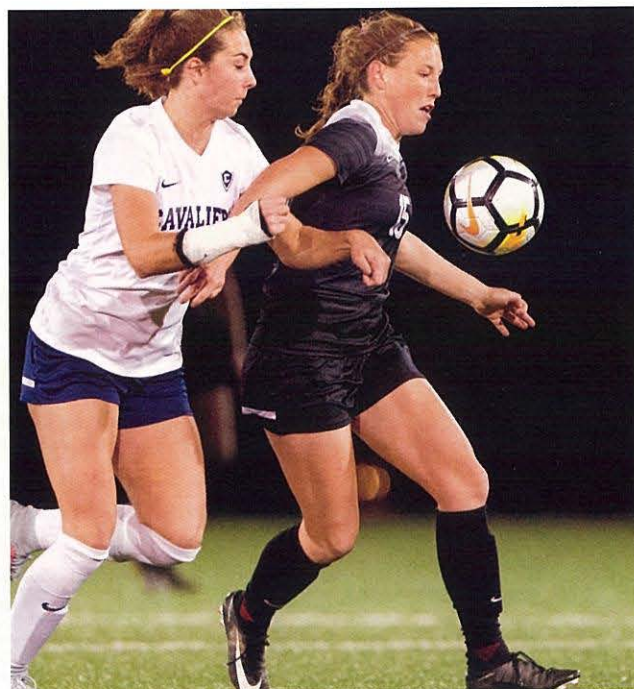

NNU men's soccer team finished this season with a 7-6-3 overall record, sending their five seniors off with a W against Concordia. Seniors Alex Basulto, Keon Jones, Collin Raymond, Jonathan Borges, and Michael Bryant all played integral roles in their last home game and the overall season. Despite losing five seniors, the team has younger members who, under the direction of head coach Joel DeLass, are ready to step into leadership to kick-off the upcoming year.

MEN'S SOCCER

The women's soccer team had a great season with a record of 10-8-0, and finished their season by going to the GNAC playoffs! They fought hard under the coaching of Mary Trigg, and everyone is looking forward to what the program has in store for the future. Sadly, seven seniors will be graduating in spring, which means the younger lady Nighthawks will have big shoes to fill. Luckily, they're up for the challenge!

WOMEN'S SOCCER

The NNU Volleyball team capped off an incredible season with an overall 25-5 record and undefeated 10-0 record at home. The five seniors, including Madi Farrell, Mari Thomas, Kendra Bodine, Jacquelyn Johnson, and Hailey Cook led the Nighthawks to the NCAA DII National Tournament for the 2nd year in a row.

VOLLEYBALL

CROSS COUNTRY

This year on cross country, both men and women Nighthawks raced in the NCAA Division II West Regional Cross Country Championship. Coaches Jake and Jenny Perry led the ambitious runners in their pursuit of victory. Not only is the cross country team known for their tremendous speed, but also their academic achievements, as 7 Nighthawks were named to the All-Academic GNAC cross country team.

MEN'S GOLF

NNU Men's Golf possibly made history this season as they started the opening rounds of the Otter Invitational as Crusaders and ended as Nighthawks. The team dedicates hours on and off the course to achieve success all year long. Congrats to graduating senior Derek Thompson on a great career at NNU!

WOMEN'S GOLF

Our Nighthawk Women's golf team worked very hard this season, competing in tournaments across Washington, Oregon, Idaho, and California. Special Recognition goes to our graduating senior Danielle Finley!

MEN'S BASKETBALL

Our men's basketball team fought hard this year, ending the season with a 13-13 record. Despite bringing three transfers and one new freshman onto the team this year, our newly dubbed Nighthawks' chemistry was apparent both on and off the court. Unfortunately, they will be saying goodbye to three seniors this year: Mo Jones, Marko Lepovic, and Dylan Brink. On the upside, the Nighthawks had plenty of reason to shake their tail feathers, with Jones earning the GNAC all-conference first team and teammate Obi Megwa earning all-conference second team.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

The Women's Basketball team soared high above the competition as their first year as the Nighthawks. The team went 22-5 in a record-breaking season and won the GNAC regular season title for the first time in 18 years. Senior Lexi Tubbs was named GNAC player of the week twice. The team ended their season in the first round of the NCAA Division II championship, which the team had not been to since 2013.

The Nighthawks swung into the 2018 season by dedicating the new Tiny Bellamy Grandstand and Gil Craker Press Box. NNU rounded the bases traveling to California and Colorado before opening day at Elmore W. Vail Field on March 3rd. Seven seniors lead the team including Coltin Brink, Casey Sheehan, Larsson Chapman, Cobi Johnson, Johnathon Hallman, Adam Paulson, and Ross Clevenger.

BASEBALL

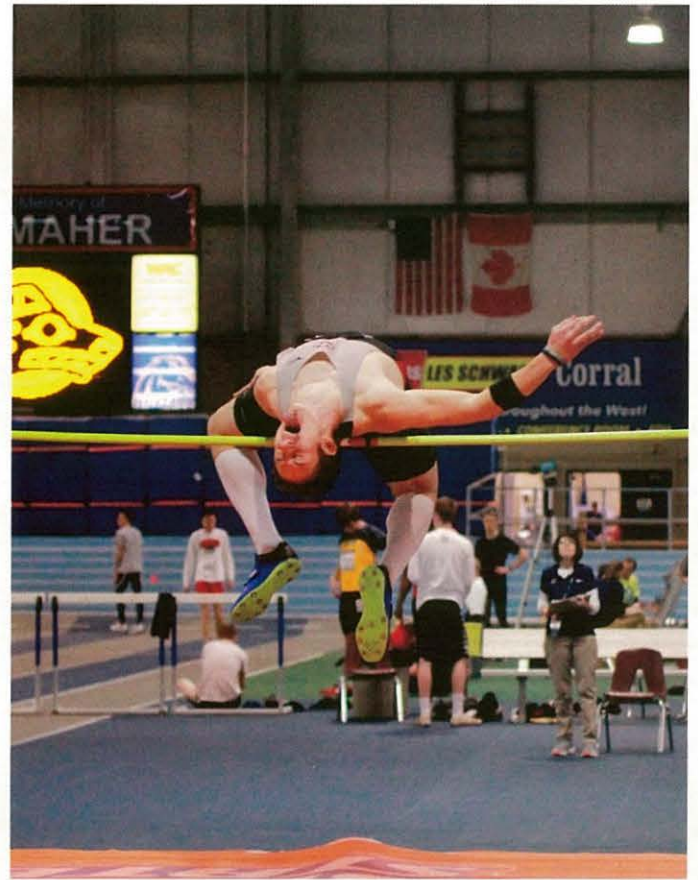

SOFTBALL

This year, our softball team is here to play hardball. Led by head coach Rich Wagner, the relatively young team will be saying goodbye to their two graduating seniors, Lily Paschal and Lisa Sylvester. Both seniors have worked hard throughout the season to leave the team prepped for next year, and will leave behind their legacy of hard work and dedication!

& TRACK FIELD

There were extraordinary performances this year, with freshman Elijah Castro starting out his first college season by breaking the record in men's long jump. Next, Sophomore Jackie Mahowald broke the triple jump record mid-season. Red shirt senior, John Van Beuren, broke the school record in both weight and shot put, while later picking up the conference title in weight. Finally, senior Jared Webster surprised the field by taking first place in the conference for pole vault. There were many more great performances and PR's from the athletes representing well for Nighthawk athletics.
