Revival Meetings

Our Spring Revival Campaign was opened on Sunday, March 17, with Rev. Chas. Stalker, the famous Quaker evangelist. Brother Stalker is a striking character, possessing a strong personality, and is a deeply spiritual man. He is an evangelist of wide experience and extensive travel. He has traveled around the world at least twice, has made a score of trips to England, and in all has traversed nearly a million miles since God called him to Evangelism.

The music for the Campaign is in charge of Prof. Harold W. Gretzinger, Dean of the School of Music. The College Male Quartet is furnishing special vocal numbers each evening; the Lord is blessing them as they sing. The first Sunday evening the church was filled to capacity and Prof. Gretzinger directed a choir of about 175 voices and also a large orchestra. We are praying and believing for a gracious revival. There is a rising tide of spiritual power on our services. Conviction is settling down upon the unsaved. To-day (Tuesday, March 19) about a dozen young

Northwest Nazarene College Wins Debating Cup

Our debators have brought distinct credit to Northwest Nazarene College in the past few weeks. Their victories have caught the attention of hundreds of people and have created respect for the institution. The question being debated by Colleges this year is: Resolved, That a substitute for trial by jury should be adopted. Our first debate was with Weber College of Ogden, Utah. Our debators took the negative side of the question and won a 2 to 1 decision from the Judges.

The big night on the debate calendar was March 1, which was Conference Night. This night was significant because of the fact that the institution securing the greatest number of judge's votes is awarded the Conference Debating Cup. Members of this Conference are: College of Idaho, (Presbyterian), Gooding College (Methodist), Ricks College, University of Idaho (Southern Branch), Albion Normal, and Northwest Nazarene College. The College of Idaho and Gooding College together with our institution form what is known as the Western division of the Conference, while the other three schools form the Eastern division.

Our Forensic Club this year has had one object in mind, namely, to win the Cup. Our debators had worked hard and long securing material and formulating their briefs. The eventful day arrived, President DeLong and the negative team composed of Donald Harper, Bertrand Peterson, and Raymond Harrison departed for the College of Idaho. The board of judges at Caldwell was composed of two attorneys and a Judge from Boise, so that we were assured of expert opinion and decision. The debate was interesting and instructive. When the Judges had cast their ballots it was revealed that Northwest Nazarene College had been given all three votes.

Our affirmative team which remained at home to debate with Gooding College was composed of Frank True, George Taylorson, and Paul Spencer. Three competent attorneys from Boise had been secured as Judges, who gave a 2 to 1 decision to our team. The debate was close and lively,

THE NAZARENE MESSENGER

Russell V. DeLong.....Editor

President of Northwest Nazarene College

Entered as second class matter, November 23, 1921 at the Post Office at Nampa, Idaho, under the act of August third, 1921.

Accepted for mailing at special rate of postage provided in Section 1103, Act of October 3, 1917, authorized May 25, 1923.

Endowment

No institution of learning is self-supporting. Leading educational authorities estimate that a college should receive a dollar from outside sources for every dollar received from students for tuition. These outside sources include donations, interest from endowments, gifts from church budgets, etc. If a school receives $10,000.00 per year from tuition then it must look for $10,000.00 from some or all of these sources if that institution is to do accredited work.

The most common source for educational funds is the permanent endowment. When a gift is made to an institution for an endowment that institution is permitted to use only the interest that the gift earns and in no case is the school permitted to use the principal. If a college had an endowment of $300,000.00 and could so invest that money to earn 6 per cent interest there would be an income of $18,000.00 to be used for current expenses, maintenance, etc. Following is a table giving the total endowment of the leading colleges and universities in America and in the Northwest with the number of students enrolled and the average endowment per student:

	Endowment	Enrollment	Per Student
Columbia	$98,204,633	34,823	$2,820
Harvard	76,000,000	7,983	9,500
Yale	45,603,713	5,294	8,803
Chicago	35,303,567	14,472	2,439
Stanford	28,917,532	4,201	6,883
Princeton	16,184,095	2,466	6,563
Oberlin	13,377,829	1,866	7,169
California	10,290,004	25,598	402
Dartmouth	8,731,733	2,000	4,365
Brown U.	8,367,743	2,101	3,982
Minnesota	7,412,360	14,410	514
Vassar	6,620,837	1,149	5,570
Bowdoin	4,347,000	533	8,343
Colgate	3,835,671	852	4,619
Michigan	3,348,154	2,958	1,132
Boston U.	3,396,326	12,799	265
S. Methodist	2,080,000	2,913	714
Bryn Mawr	3,396,326	524	6,479
Bates	1,700,000	622	2,733
Whitman	1,187,785	608	1,953
Williamette	905,185	609	1,486
Jamestown	800,000	322	2,484
C. of Idaho	346,380	431	804
Pacific U.	300,000	278	1,079

Now that Northwest Nazarene College is out of debt our next concern should be that of securing endowment. Until we are able to secure permanent endowment we must rely upon the District Budgets and upon the Temporary Endowment Plan. If we could secure 100 per cent of the educational budget this year we would receive about $7,000.00 which would be the equivalent of a $200,000.00 endowment at a 3½ per cent interest rate.

The Temporary Endowment Plan is simply this: You are unable to give outright $1,000.00 but you could give the interest on $1,000.00 at 6 per cent which would be $5.00 per month. To us this would be just as good as though you had actually given us the $1,000.00 as far as return is concerned. Sunday Schools, Sunday School Classes, Young People's Societies and individuals could do this. If we could secure 100 of these it would mean a $100,000.00 temporary endowment and we would realize $6,000.00 to be used for current expenses, supplies, maintenance, etc. Will you not pray about the matter and drop us a line for more information? Possibly someone reading these lines could make us a gift for permanent endowment. Let us proceed to do the work as an institution that God wants us to accomplish.

Annual Meeting of the Board of Directors

people knelt at the altar at the close of the Chapel service. We trust all who read these lines, and especially the parents of children here at the College, will pray that God will so come upon the services that every unsaved student at Northwest Nazarene College will recognize His presence and surrender his life to Him. Services are held each morning at 10:45 at the College Chapel and at 7:30 at the church. The Campaign will close March 31 unless God directs otherwise.

N. N. C. Wins Cup-- Continued

and the chapel was filled with listeners for the occasion.

Gooding College defeated the College of Idaho at Gooding by a 2 to 1 score. This meant that Northwest Nazarene College had secured 5 votes, Gooding College 3, and the College of Idaho 1; thus giving us the Cup. Great was the rejoicing after this was announced. Our Forensic Club had attained the end for which it had striven.

Great credit for this success is due to Prof. Newton who has labored incessantly to make this victory possible. We are justly and righteously proud of our boys who have brought this distinction to our College.

Our Forensic Club had arranged a debating tour including 6 Colleges of the Northwest on the itinerary. An affirmative and negative team of 2 men each left Nampa on March 16 to carry out the plans of the Club. The affirmative team is composed of Frank True and George Taylorson, and the negative team of Donald Harper and Bertrand Peterson. These teams will debate with the following Colleges:-

- March 20—Linfield College,
McMinnville, Oregon.
- March 21—Pacific College,
Forest Grove, Oregon.
- March 22—Oregon State Normal,
Monmouth, Oregon.

was a profitable one for the advancement of Northwest Nazarene College. The Board members felt that now that the debt has been paid and the Institution liberated that we should go forward and do the work that God has for our Institution to accomplish. The plans for this Forward Movement will be presented in a later issue.

SCHOOL NOTES

Recently a Radio Club was organized by Ray Miller. A Crosley radio has been purchased and has been a means of blessing, entertainment and enjoyment to many people. The Sunday afternoon broadcasts by our Philharmonic Society have been received at the Club building. The radio has been taken to different sick homes and also to the hospital several times.

The basket-ball season is over. The boys' games were especially interesting and close this semester. The Alpha Delta Phi boys succeeded in winning first place.

The Literary program schedule has been entered into enthusiastically, each Society having rendered a very excellent program.

The Intercollegiate Declamatory Contest between Gooding College, College of Idaho, and Northwest Nazarene College will be held the evening of March 29 at the College of Idaho, Caldwell. Try-outs have been held and the following students have been chosen to represent Northwest Nazarene College:

- Humorous Reading..... Rosa Bennett
- Dramatic Reading..... Gladys Knapp
- Oratory..... Floyd Womack

Our High School is a member of the High School Conference made up of 13 high schools of this section. The High School Declamation Contest will be held at Wilder, March 29. The following students have been chosen to represent Northwest Nazarene Academy:

- Humorous..... Rachael Harper
- Dramatic..... Dorothy Harper
- Extemporaneous..... Richard Taylor
- Impromptu..... Gordon Olsen

Rev. Harold J. Hart, District Superintendent of the North Dakota District, brought a very stirring message at the Mid-week Prayer Meeting from the text "Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus".

The College Male Quartette is a very busy organization.

It has been revealed that Prof. Maxey knows more about music than one would suspect.

Prof. Newton gave a very striking Chapel talk recently on the theme: "The power of example".

Last year the student publication was merged with "The Messenger". However it was felt that much of the student material was not of common interest to the members of our constituency and so was deemed advisable to separate the student issue from the College monthly. The new student publication has been named the Campus Echo and the following have been elected as staff members:

- Editor-in-Chief..... Wade Gustin
- Business Manager..... Carl Falk
- Athletic Editor.... Bertrand Peterson
- News Editor..... Paul Thoreen
- Joke Editor..... Chester Mulder

Prof. Goodnow led the Mid-week Prayer-meeting immediately prior to the Revival Meeting and gave an instructive talk on "Revivals", and also promised us a message in the future which we shall look forward to with anticipation.

What can we do for more library room?

The Foreign Missionary Band had charge of a Chapel service recently. A score or more young people who were called definitely to the Foreign Field gave their testimonies and recounted briefly the manner in which God called them. It was a very touching and melting service. God's presence was felt as these consecrated young people told of their experiences.

Much valuable information was gathered in an address by Rev. Ellis on China.

Rev. L. F. Jones, pastor of the First Christian Church of Nampa, brought a very practical message to the students on the theme: "Three Choices". The choices were: choice of a vocation; choice of a life's partner; and choice of Christ.

Business Manager Henson is in North Dakota attending the Preachers' Convention.

One of our greatest needs is a Student Industry. Scores of young people would be here if they could work part of their way. If you have any suggestions concerning this matter drop us a line. Some have suggested a canvas glove factory, some a shirt factory and others a dairy. Do you have any suggestion?

We were glad to receive the information that Rev. Ralph W. Hertenstein has been called to the pastorate of the Olivet Church at Olivet College, Illinois. Brother Hertenstein graduated from Northwest Nazarene College in the Class of '19.
